THE STANDARD SOUTHERN NEWSPAPER

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE

VOL. LIX., No. 270.

Entered at Atlanta P. O. As Second-Class Mail Matter

ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1927.

ONLY MORNING NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN ATLANTA

Single Copies, Daily 5c; Sunday 10c; Daily and Sunday, Weekly 20c; Monthly 90c.

FITCHETT REITERATES DEATH PLOT CONFESSION; NEVER REPUDIATED STATEMENT, BOYKIN DECLARES

SOLICITOR SAYS CHARLES FITCHETT CAN BE CONVICTED

"Fitchett Did Not Deny Anything," Associated Press Quotes Boykin as Asserting.

REFUSES TO SAY HE FIRED SHOTS

Declines To Act as Self-Prosecutor But Clings To Essential Details of Statement.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Solicitor General John A. Boykin said Thursday that Charles H. Fitchett had not repudiated a confession he made in Chattanooga Sunday that he murdered Bert Donaldson, except that Fitchett said he would not tell the grand jury he fired the shots that killed Donaldson.

"Fitchett did not deny anything," the solicitor declared. "He said he would tell the grand jury everything he knew about the case except that he fired the shots." The solicitor general explained that he could not tell what went on in the grand jury room. He said Fitchett made these statements while in his office before he went before the grand jury.

"Fitchett," the solicitor general added, "in the conference in my office asked what he would be forced to tell, and the lawyer and I both assured him that he didn't have to tell anything he didn't want to."

After appearing before the grand jury here Tuesday and Wednesday, Fitchett was returned to Chattanooga Wednesday night. Fitchett is under worthless check charges in Chattanooga and the case is set for trial

Continued on Page 9, Column 4.

BORAH PROTESTS AGAINST CRITICS

Comment Against His Communicating Direct With Mexican President Denounced.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, March 10.—(United News.)—Defending himself against criticism for communicating direct with President Calles, of Mexico, Chairman Borah, of the senate foreign relations committee, declared this comment was a "hypocritical cry" to prevent him from obtaining accurate information regarding the Mexica situation.

Borah recently wrote to Calles asking for data regarding oil holdings in Mexico. He advised the state department that he had so communicated but from unofficial quarters there was criticism that Borah had violated the ancient Logan act which forbids private citizens from communicating direct with foreign governments; instead of through the state department.

"This hypocritical cry that would prevent one who is in a place where he must act upon important matters from gathering information from whatever source he may is but an expression

Continued on Page 9, Column 3.

Sheppard Sentenced To Die in Chair

J. H. Dozier Dies As Father's Rites Are Held at Athens

Tax Commissioner Had Been Unconscious Some Time; Was Not Aware of Parent's Death.

FUNERAL HOUR SET FOR SATURDAY

University Graduate, Political Friend and Adviser of Governor, Had Been Ill Long Time.

Athens, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) James H. Dozier, 58, tax commissioner of Georgia, died at a local hospital this afternoon at almost the exact moment the body of his aged father, Captain T. H. Dozier, who died Wednesday, was being lowered into the grave. The commissioner had been unconscious some time and was not advised of the death of his father.

Both the tax commissioner and his father were stricken ill some months ago, and although Mr. Dozier's condition was regarded as serious, it was not thought critical until several hours before his death. Mr. Dozier and his father were inseparable chums and were both highly prominent throughout the state, having led lives of great activity in public affairs.

Ill Two Months.

Mr. Dozier became seriously ill two months ago, his father falling ill a short time afterward. Captain Dozier died Wednesday at the age of 92 years, and funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the First Methodist church, Mr. Dozier's death following at 4:30 o'clock, or about the time the body of his father was being interred.

He is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. T. H. Dozier, Sr.; four brothers, A. W., T. H., Jr., Allan A. and W. B. Dozier, all of Athens; three sisters, Mrs. Claud Tuck, and Miss Mary Dozier, of Athens, and Mrs. W. D. Branch, of Baxley.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church. Governor Walker and his office staff will attend the funeral in a body, the tax commissioner having been one of the governor's warmest personal friends.

Mr. Dozier was one of the most prominent men in Athens and was well known throughout the state in political circles. He managed the first campaign of Governor Clifford Walker in the race for governor and has been one of the governor's closest friends and political advisers. He was offered several important state posts by Governor Walker, all of which he declined until he accepted the appointment as tax commissioner, succeeding Henry J. Fullbright.

Had Many Friends.

Genial, optimistic and friendly, Mr. Dozier numbered his friends by the thousands in his home town, in north Georgia and in capitol circles in Atlanta.

Mr. Dozier was born in Oglethorpe county, son of Captain and Mrs. T. H. Dozier, Sr. His father has been a pioneer in Georgia education circles

Continued on Page 9, Column 6.

JAMES TO AUDIT SCHOOL ACCOUNTS

Advisory Body Will Delay Approval of Budget Until Complete Check of 1926 Is Made.

W. H. James was selected by vote of a special committee appointed Tuesday by action of the Atlanta board of education to audit accounts of the school department for 1926.

Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president of the board; W. D. Hoffman, chairman of the current expenditures committee of the board; B. Graham West, city comptroller, and Harold Hirsch, chairman of the citizens' advisory committee supervising expeditures of the board for this year, formed the committee. The session was held in the office of Mr. Hirsch.

About 30 days will be consumed in compiling the audit, according to estimates, and then the citizens' advisory body and a special conference committee to be named by Dr. Eubanks from the board will seek to adjust differences between the two bodies and adopt a budget for this year. The advisory committee already has rejected two proposed budgets, and it has been intimated that no budget will be acceptable to the advisory body until a complete audit has been made and submitted to it.

It is in compliance with this request of the advisory body that the auditor has been selected. He is expected to begin work today. The school board Tuesday passed favorably a resolution offered by Commissioner Roy D. Warren, of the tenth, authorizing the board to pay for the audit.

Dr. Eubanks was authorized to name a conference committee of five at a meeting of the board held several weeks ago, but because of the disposition of the advisory committee to defer action on the budget until the audit has been completed, he has not yet announced his appointees.

Fear was expressed Thursday that procrastination in adopting a budget might endanger operation of schools for a full 36-weeks term this year. The revised finance sheet, which the advisory body rejected, proposed to cut 30 days off the school term, and this was one of the principal reasons it was not approved, it was pointed out in a communication from the committee to the board.

MAN, 600 POUNDS, BLOCKS TRAFFIC, ARRESTED, FREED

New Orleans, March 10.—(AP)—John Webb, weighing 600 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches tall and six feet 10 inches in circumference, was arrested here today for blocking traffic at Howard and Louisiana avenues. It tock ten minutes to extricate Webb from his car and the traffic officer on duty at the corner decided that was a little too long. Webb was discharged when he explained matters to the judge. Webb was formerely with a circus.

CONVICTED SLAYER ATTACKS CONDUCT OF COURT TRIAL

Says Trial "Wasn't Fair" When Allowed To Make Statement Following Murder Verdict.

MAY 6 IS NAMED AS DATE OF DEATH

Trial Featured by Statement of Defendant; Five Tell of Witnessing Slaying of Fowler.

Death in the electric chair on May 6 was the sentence passed on R. H. (Whitey) Sheppard Thursday night in Judge John D. Humphries' division of Fulton superior court immediately following his conviction of slaying Homer Fowler. The latter was slain with an ax on the night of February 19 at Sheppard's home, 889 Marietta street.

The jury returned a verdict of murder at 7:50 o'clock Thursday night after deliberating four hours and thirty minutes and after it had requested a recharge on the subject of manslaughter.

When the verdict was read Judge Humphries asked Sheppard—who listened to his doom with a sneering smile on his face—if he had any statement to make.

"Yes, sir," replied Sheppard.

Charges "Unfairness."

"The court is prepared to hear it," the judge said

"I want to say that I didn't get

Continued on Page 9, Column 6.

M'NARY TO RETAIN SLUSH FUND POST

Republican Regular Nips Plot To Discredit Reed Body as Democratic and Insurgent.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, March 10.—One of the two republican members of the Reed slush fund investigating committee, Senator Guy D. Goff, West Virginia, has resigned from the committee, pleading ill health and the necessity for a long vacation. A report that the other "regular," Senator Charles L. McNary, of Oregon, also would resign in a day or two, was denied emphatically by McNary, who declared "desertion of the committee in its present difficulties would be cowardly and unsportsmanlike."

Reports had it that the Reed committee, already hampered by lack of funds to continue its activities during the summer recess, was to be

Continued on Page 9, Column 3.

ALL RAIL HEADS TO ATTEND MEET ON VIADUCT PLAN

Executives All Accept Invitations to Parley On Lowering of Tracks for New Viaducts.

All presidents of affected railroads have accepted the invitation of Mayor I. N. Ragsdale to attend a conference here March 22 to consider lowering of tracks over which the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts will be constructed, it was announced Thursday by the mayor.

Members of the bond commission, the mayor and other city officials are preparing to submit the proposal of the city to lower the tracks 4.5 feet to the rail executives in order to eliminate large property damages which would be incident to constructing long approaches to the bridges in the event that the tracks are not sunk.

Mr. Ragsdale Thursday was hopeful that every proposition of the city would meet with the approval of the rail heads, and declared that the fine spirit in which these executives have reopened negotiations is indicative of their interest in Atlanta's future as well as in their own.

Most Feasible Plan.

"We feel that the sinking of the tracks is the most feasible way in which to construct the viaducts, and we shall endeavor to obtain the sanction of the railroad officials to this proposal," Mr. Ragsdale said. "Mr. Frank Neely, Mr. J. Lawrence McCord and other members of the Atlanta bond commission also approve whole-heartedly this plan, and they will join in presenting the city's claim to prevent damages to a large stretch of centrally-located business property.

"Leading engineers have declared that lowering of the tracks would cut this damage to a minimum, while retention of the first draft of plans would mean long approaches, beginning almost at Edgewood avenue on the north side and running midway between Hunter and Mitchell streets on the south. This would raise the street elevation of Decatur street about six feet at Pryor and 14 at Central avenue. About the same condition would prevail on Hunter street."

If the tracks are lowered, it is pointed out, Thomas Brady, whose suit to prevent administration of funds authorized in the $8,000,000 bond issue floated last March 24 has tied up the bonds, would have no legal standing in court and his appeal to the United States supreme court probably would not be pressed. His property is located on Central avenue, near Hunter, and if the tracks are lowered and short approaches constructed, under the plan which will be considered at the conference March 22, it would be enhanced in value, instead of being damaged, city officials state.

Approved by Council.

City council several weeks ago passed a paper offered by Alderman William B. Hartsfield, chairman of the bridge committee of council, absolving the railroads from any further expense in lowering the tracks, if the proposed plan is adopted. This was given the sanction of the mayor, and will be spread before the executives when the session is called to order.

Among those who have accepted the invitation to attend the conference are W. R. Cate, of Louisville, president of the Louisville & Nashville; J. B. Hill, of Nashville, president of the N. C. & St. L.; J. J. Pelly, of Savannah, president of the Central of Georgia, and Charles Wickersham of Atlanta, manager of the Georgia railway.

England Accepts Three-Power Plan On Naval Building

BODY OF STANLEY IS DISINTERRED

Viscera of Lanier County Man To Be Examined by Chemists for Poison Traces.

Vienna, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) The body of C. L. Stanley, 55, which was interred here following his sudden death near Valdosta on February 14, was disinterred today by Coroner J. P. Ulmer, of Lowndes county, and the viscera carried to Atlanta for examination by the state chemist for poison traces. Coroner Ulmer was accompanied to Atlanta in an automobile by Robert L. Stanley, son of the dead man, and a Valdosta undertaker, who were present when the body was disinterred.

The body of Stanley was disinterred, it was stated here, after a coroner's jury ordered the exhumation following a probe of Stanley's death near Valdosta recently He was found dead in his automobile on a highway and physicians pronounced his death due to heart failure but yesterday members of the family ordered a probe of circumstances surrounding his death.

Stanley formerly lived in Dooly county.

CHEMIST TO EXAMINE VISCERA IN ATLANTA.

Valdosta, Ga., March 10—(AP)—Upon representations made by R. L. Stanley that he had reason to believe that his father, C. L. Stanley, naval stores operator of Stockton, met death by means of foul play, Judge W. E. Thomas, of supeior court, today issued an order permitting J. P. Ulmer, Lowndes county coroner, to go to Vienna and exhume the body of the dead man. A chemical analysis will be made of the viscera in an effort to determine if poison was administered.

C. L. Stanley came to Valdosta on February 14, in company with another man. He deposited $4,000 in a local bank where he carried a larger account. While on his way home he was the victim of an attack of some kind and died. A physician reported it to have been a heart attack.

The following day, according to information disclosed today, the companion appeared at the Valdosta bank with a check for more than $1,200 payable to him, but the bank declined to cash it. Later the son of the dead man became suspicious and with a brother and sister joined in a written request for a coroner's investigation.

Although Mr. Stanley resided in Lanier county, his death occurred in Lowndes county, hence the action was taken here. Shortly before his death Mr. Stanley was examined for life insurance and was passed as being free from heart trouble.

He was 55 years old and prominently identified with the naval stores business in this section.

The viscera was sent to Atlanta tonight for examination by the state chemist. When the report is received here the coroner's jury will reconvene.

American Hopes for Further Curbing Competitive Construction Advances Increase.

WORD AWAITED FROM JAPANESE

Washington Authorities Hold Strong Hopes That France and Italy Also Will Participate.

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—American hopes for further curbing competitive naval building advanced a long stride today when British acceptance of the three-power conference plan was received at the state department.

Word from Japan is still awaited, but with acceptance assured. Preparation of formal notes of invitation to ratify verbal agreements for a meeting at Geneva this summer has already begun.

Paralleling these definite steps toward a three-power conference, runs the strong hope of Washington authorities that France and Italy ultimately will find it possible to participate in some degree.

The British acceptance was delivered verbally by Ambassador Howard to Acting Secretary Grew.

Ambassador Matsudiara is expected to communicate Japanese acceptance as soon as he hears from Tokyo.

It is already certain that the formal invitations will contain no American formulae for extending the principles of the Washington treaty to auxiliary craft nor any declarations that will prevent the free and open consideration of every aspect of the question at Geneva.

There will be no effort on the part of the Washington government to hasten the Geneva deliberations unduly. The American plan contemplates the most extensive consideration of the difficult economic and international questions tied up with naval building programs in order that a maximum degree of limitation, consistent with national security for each government, may be obtained.

For that reason, there will be no effort to propose a formulae in advance, probably not even as to ratios, although the five-five-three Washington treaty agreement as to the more vital element of battleships and airplane carriers naturally may be expected to prevail.

JAPAN'S WORD NOW AWAITED.

Washington, March 10.—(United News.)—Direct assurances from Japan are all that remain to make the president's proposed three-power supplementary naval limitation conference a certainty. Great Britain has presented informal assurances of her willingness to participate through the British ambassador, Sir Esme Howard. Japan is understood to be favorably disposed, but had not so indicated directly yet.

The conference would meet at Geneva about June 1. France and Italy, who refused to enter the original five-power proposed conference, may be asked to attend as observers.

SOMEONE 'GOT TO' PRISONER HERE, SELMAN BELIEVES

Tennessee Sheriff Charges Influences at Work in Atlanta to "Stop Fitchett's Mouth."

HELD IN SOLITARY CHATTANOOGA CELL

Former Policeman Suffering From Severe Cold and Is Shaken by Prolonged Grilling.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 10.—Charles Hubert Fitchett, 31, former Atlanta policeman, alleged, by his own statement, to be intimately cognizant with facts surrounding the murder of Bert Donaldson, special investigator for Solicitor General John A. Boykin, of the Atlanta circuit, in Georgian Terrace hotel, on the night of July 29, 1926, tonight reasserted the truth of certain of his previous statements concerning the killing, according to his attorney, George W. Chamlee, of Chattanooga.

Sheriff Tom Selman did not comment on the case, but intimated that he incarcerated Fitchett in a cell by himself and refused to admit visitors on the grounds that the prisoner might be "reached" by persons interested in suppressing the testimony.

"In my opinion, someone 'got to' Fitchett in Atlanta," commented Sheriff Selman. "It is a puzzling case, with many uncertainties, but we are, at least, certain that there are people in Atlanta who would like to stop Fitchett's mouth, whether he is speaking the truth or not."

Has Severe Cold.

Attorney Chamlee, who played an important part in securing Fitchett's alleged "confessions," stated that he plans to represent the former policeman when the latter's case on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses is called tomorrow morning in criminal court.

Suffering from a severe cold and the effects of his recent grilling before the Fulton county grand jury in Atlanta, Fitchett refused to see anyone except his attorney. Sheriff Selman, who, with Frank S. Shipp, returned from Atlanta with Fitchett Wednesday, guarded the prisoner from visitors.

Attorney Chamlee stated that Fitchett, who was placed in a cell by himself after being brought back from Atlanta, expressed himself, in effect, as follows:

Reiterates Part of Story.

"My statement that Lance and others were implicated in the killing of Bert Donaldson is the truth, and I will go with you to the trial, if a trial is held, on that statement." Jack Lance, one of those accused in complicity in the killing, in Fitchett's "confession," was said to be in jail at Atlanta. Attorney Chamlee said that Fitchett informed him that Lance did not fire the shot which killed

Continued on Page 9, Column 5.

The Weather

FAIR AND WARMER.

Washington—Forecast:

Georgia—Fair and somewhat warmer Friday; Saturday cloudy, probably showers.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature	55
Lowest temperature	41
Mean temperature	48
Normal temperature	50
Rainfall in past 24 hours, in.	.00
Excess since 1st of month, in.	.72
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, in.	9.69
Deficiency since Jan. 1, in.	1.93

	7 a.m.	N'n.	7 p.m.
Dry temperature	43	50	52
Wet bulb	42	46	48
Relative humidity	83	71	75

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature		Rain 12 hrs inches
	7 p.m.	High
ATLANTA, clear	52	56	.00
Augusta, cldy.	52	56	.00
Birmingham, pt. cldy.	56	62	.00
Boston, clear	40	52	.00
Buffalo, clear	48	52	.00
Charleston, cldy.	50	52	.00
Chicago, clear	56	62	.00
Denver, cldy	30	32	.08
Des Moines, cldy.	40	48	.00
Galveston, cldy.	64	68	.00
Hatteras, clear	48	52	.00
Havre, clear	42	44	.00
Jacksonville, cldy.	52	58	.00
Kansas City, cldy.	68	70	.00
Memphis, cldy.	54	62	.00
Miami, cldy.	76	80	.00
Mobile, cldy.	58	62	.00
Montgomery, cldy.	58	60	.00
New Orleans, cldy.	60	66	.00
New York, clear	40	50	.00
North Platte, snow	32	38	.00
Oklahoma City, cldy.	62	68	.00
Phoenix, pt. cldy.	54	60	.00
Pittsburgh, clear	58	62	.00
Raleigh, clear	54	60	.00
San Francisco, pt. cldy.	54	56	.00
St. Louis, clear	58	68	.00
Salt Lake City, cldy.	36	38	.00
Savannah, cldy.	52	52	.00
Tampa, cldy.	54	74	.00
Toledo, clear	52	56	.00
Vicksburg, pt. cldy.	62	66	.00
Washington, clear	50	56	.00

C. F. von HERRMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

March Is Perplexing

Weather in March is decidedly unsatisfactory. One day it is decidedly spring-like and the next has a sharp, winterish tinge. We aren't sure whether to wear spring clothes or stick to the heavier garments.

Spring goods are on the market ready for you and at the same time there are still some splendid bargains left on the shelves of the winter carry-over. Merchants would rather sell these at greatly reduced prices than to carry them until next winter.

This is your opportunity to get wonderful value at a very low price in something that you can use next fall when the weather begins to turn cold.

Watch The Constitution advertisements for such bargains as well as the offerings of new spring wear. If you read The Constitution advertisements every morning you'll miss none of the excellent bargains.

ADVERTISING IN THE CONSTITUTION PAYS THE ADVERTISER AND SAVES THE BUYER

Death Ends Grim Fight To Save Paralyzed Man

VICTIM JESTS WITH FRIENDS AS END NEARS

BY MAURICE MERMEY.

Evanston, Ill., March 10.—(United News.)—Albert Frick died at 10:12 o'clock tonight, having lost a battle of 108 hours and 12 minutes during which time he was kept alive by artificial respiration administered by 57 loyal friends.

Frick died peacefully. "The breath just ceased," Dr. T. E. Conley, his physician said.

At the bedside were the boy's father, H. C. Frick, who has borne the terrific strain of five days remarkably; Dr. Conley and his brother, Dr. H. R. Conley, both nerve specialists; Dr. C. Denzy, a woman physician, and the two men who were working on the patient's chest.

They were Harry Reynolds and Chris Hendrickson, pressing down on Frick's chest with their flat palms.

Bear Shock Silently.

Both bore the shock of death silently; everyone seemed stunned into silence. Then a tear rolled down Hendrickson's chest. "We tried so hard," he said.

The older Frick was calm.

"Don't tell mother," he implored those about him. And it was agreed that Mrs. Amelia Frick should not know—for a while at any rate.

The boy's mother, during the afternoon visit with her stricken son—the last time she saw or spoke with him—had seemed shaken by the experience. Her nerves were taut under the five-day strain.

Dr. Conley announced the cause of death as follows:

"Landry's paralysis following intestinal influenza. Remote cause is paralysis of the diaphragm and accessory respiratory muscles."

The doctors said they would like to perform a post mortem examination but Mrs. Frick will object, according to her husband.

Announcement of death came like a shock of electricity to the knotted group of Frick's fellow workers at the Public Service company of Illinois. They were playing cards at the moment, worn from fatigue. The strain on them had been tremendous.

"He's dead," a nurse said. Although they had been expecting death—Dr. Conley had announced only two minutes before the end came that it was only a matter of minutes—they had formed the habit of thinking that Al Frick would pull through.

Their heads dropped; they walked

Continued on Page 9, Column 5.

Four Aviators Held 8 Days Escape Tribes

Two Planes Bring Flyers Into North Africa After Their Capture.

Madrid, March 10.—(AP)—Safe and sound, but minus most of their personal belongings, the four Uruguayan aviators, headed by Captain Tadeo Larre-Borges, who have spent the past week as virtual prisoners of a tribe of Moors, returned to civilization today still determined to complete their interrupted trans-Atlantic journey, if possible.

The flyers, whose plane was shattered 60 miles from Cape Jubi last Saturday, were found by airmen, who brought them in two planes to Cape Jubi from the Moorish village, where they have been held.

Major Larre-Borges said that he and his crew, after leaving Casablanca last Wednesday, narrowly escaped death when their plane, the Uruguay, suddenly developed a leak in the oil

Continued on Page 9, Column 4.

MammothShowTonight For Tallulah School

ALL READY FOR MIDNIGHT PERFORMANCE

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

All roads, lanes, trails, highways and sidewalks in Atlanta will lead to the Atlanta auditorium tonight, where nearly all amusement lovers of the city will assemble to witness what promises to be one of the greatest midnight revues offered in the south, which will be staged by the combined theaters of Atlanta for the benefit of the Tallulah Falls school.

More than 20 big acts, a dozen new and novel features not included on regular programs of any of the theaters; half a dozen special attractions staged particularly for this monster all-star show, and all offered for $1 is the temptation held out to the Atlanta public tonight.

When all Atlanta theaters pool resources for a show and when managers guarantee that they are going to give the people several times the price of admission in pure and unadulterated show there is little wonder that the advance sale of tickets is surpassing expectations and that already there is grave doubt as to whether every person who wants to see the big show can get a seat. One of the interesting developments Thursday was the purchase of a block of $1,000 worth of seats by an Atlanta woman who asked that her name not be mentioned, and with other batches of smaller size being purchased by civic clubs, business houses, social organizations and luncheon clubs it really behooves the ticket buyer to get busy at once.

Managers in charge of the program met Thursday afternoon at the auditorium and went over every detail of staging the production from placing of spotlights and music racks to arranging dressing rooms so they will be ready to accommodate the some 100 professional players and artists who will take part in the show. Not one detail of the program was left unfinished Thursday and the crowd tonight will witness an enormous production of more than 20 units, working as smoothly as one of the regular vaudeville bills at the local theaters.

Doors of the auditorium will be opened at 10 o'clock and the show will begin promptly at 11 o'clock Friday night. While the crowd is assembling many impromptu skits and sketches will be staged by the master of ceremonies and some of his assistants who will come from the ranks of players at local theaters.

Beginning promptly at 11 o'clock

Continued on Page 9, Column 2.

IGNORANCE OF BANK AFFAIRS IS CLAIMED

Pleading ignorance of alleged fraudulent manipulation of the affairs of the Bankers Trust company, John D. Russell, one of the four codefendant officials of the defunct bank company, now on trial in United States district court, Thursday afternoon took the stand in his own defense following the close of the government's cross-examination of Paul J. Baker.

In an opening statement to the jury, which outlined Russell's defense, William Schley Howard, attorney, said that he will seek to prove that Russell was away from the office attending to the running of the chain of banks, associated with the Bankers Trust company, so much that he was not cognizant of the alleged bad state of affairs.

Mr. Russell will go on the stand again this morning to close the opening statement begun Thursday and to undergo cross-examination by District Attorney Clint W. Hager. Following the cross-examination, L. R. Adams is expected to take the stand in his defense. J. A. Sasser already has testified.

The general plea of the defense, as outlined thus far to the jury, is that defendants now on trial were practically clerks obeying the orders of W. D. Manley, president of the defunct corporation, and that they were not responsible for and had no knowledge of alleged fraudulent handling of the company's affairs.

Trial of the case will occupy the attention of Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley throughout next week, with the possibility of running over into the following week should rebuttal be longer than expected at present, court attaches said.

WARRANT OFFICER DIES SUDDENLY AT FT. M'PHERSON

Warrant Officer Frank W. Stone, 57, on detached duty in the office of Colonel M. S. Jarvis, who is the head of national guard activities in the fourth corps area, died suddenly at Fort McPherson Thursday afternoon. He had been in ill health for several weeks and was admitted to the post hospital for treatment March 7.

Warrant Officer Stone was born in Chicago in 1870 and had served the United States since 1898 when he enlisted in the navy. In 1905 he enlisted in the army and has been in the army service since. During the world war he was a second lieutenant in the coast artillery and was appointed warrant officer in 1920 when he was sent to Fort McPherson for duty in Colonel Jarvis' office. He also held the rank of lieutenant in the adjutant general's department, United States reserve corps.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced. Stone is survived by his wife.

W. C. T. U. Workers Hold Two Meetings In Atlanta Today

Prominent W. C. T. U. workers of the state and members of the official board of the state organization will hold two meetings today in Atlanta. This morning's meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. N. C. McPherson, on Highland avenue, and the afternoon meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marvin Williams, on North Moreland avenue.

Mrs. Harry Harris Armor, national president, will be among the speakers. Others expected to be present are: Mrs. Lella A. Dillard, recording secretary; Mrs. Dudley Smith, of Eastman, vice president; Mrs. Marvin Williams, state president; Mrs. W. G. Cotton, of Columbus, corresponding secretary, and Miss Joe Hammond, of Monroe, treasurer.

ROAST LAMB will be more appetizing when seasoned with
LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

Carload large juicy, sweet Oranges cheap
ALL THE WEEK
Middlebrooks Crossing
PETERS ST.

STATE BOARD URGES HIGHWAY REROUTING

Rerouting of the proposed state-federal highway from Augusta to Waynesboro to include the town of Hephzibah and of the highway from Sylvester to Moultrie in order to pass the front yards instead of the back yards of houses along the right of way is recommended in resolutions passed Thursday by the state highway commission to the federal highway board.

A delegation of Richmond county citizens, including M. C. B. Holly, Frank H. Turner and C. L. Castleberry, Richmond county commissioners, and W. P. Pierce, county attorney, appeared before the board in the Augusta-Waynesboro highway matter and left after the hearing for Rome, where they will present the highway board's resolutions to the resident federal engineer.

The route of the Augusta-Waynesboro highway as originally surveyed would miss Hephzibah by 2 miles, the board was told.

The request of a delegation of Worth county citizens that the routine of the present Sylvester-Moultrie road be followed in the proposed state-federal highway, with the exception of the elimination of certain curves as provided in the new survey, was granted by the state highway board, and will be recommended to federal authorities.

SALVATION ARMY SEEKS RUMMAGE IN NOVEL DRIVE

Any ole clothes, ole rags, bottles, ole shoes——?

If you have "Call the Salvation Army."

This is the plea and slogan adopted by the army in a drive being inaugurated by the men's social service center and industrial home of the Salvation Army in an effort to increase the amount of rummage being sent from homes of Atlanta.

"No matter what it is the army wants it. You may think it is worthless but it might be cleaned, repaired or renovated so as to be of much service to some needy person," Captain Raines, manager of the organization, said Thursday.

"The Salvation Army has trucks at work throughout Atlanta and operators of these trucks are glad to pick up old newspapers, discarded clothes, shoes or furniture on receipt of a telephone call to Ivy 2224, the headquarters."

About 40 persons are now in the industrial home and by repairing old clothes given the army, are earning their living instead of being wards of charity, Captain Raines declared.

BRONZE TABLET WILL BE GIVEN TO OGLETHORPE

Presentation of a bronze tablet to Oglethorpe university this morning at 10:30 o'clock by T. V. Morrison, Atlanta attorney and grand regent of the Alpha Lambda Tau fraternity, will feature the sixth annual convention of the fraternity, which opened a three-day session Thursday. The presentation of the tablet is in commemoration of the founding of the fraternity. The Oglethorpe chapter received its charter in 1922.

Dr. H. J. Gaertner, head of the department of education and Germanic languages, will accept the tablet in behalf of the university. Dr. J. F. Sellers, dean of the university, also will be one of the speakers on the program.

Representatives from seven chapters of the fraternity which are located at Oglethorpe, Mercer, North Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina State, Howard college and Louisiana Polytechnic institutes, are attending the two-day sessions.

Practically all of Thursday was devoted to business sessions. A tea-dance was held late Thursday afternoon and delegates presented a musical program over a local radio station Thursday night.

Among the features slated for today are a business session and a formal dance tonight. An annual banquet will close the convention Saturday night.

Grand officers of the fraternity are T. V. Morrison, of Atlanta, grand regent; J. D. Baxter, of Atlanta, grand baron; J. D. Chestnut, of Atlanta, grand scribe; T. M. Wells, of Columbus, Ga., grand master of the exchequer; C. D. Harrell, of Chicago, social scribe; D. V. Gray, of Chapel Hill, N. C., grand warden; H. C. Hooter, of Rushton, La., grand sentinel, and R. L. Sides, of Chapel Hill, grand chaplain.

The "Rose Leaf," official fraternity publication, is published in Atlanta and edited by Mr. Morrison.

Issue of 64 Pages Of Christian Index Comes From Press

A 64-page March issue of the Christian Index, bound in attractive colors and featuring the six approaching regional conventions of the Baptist Young People's unions of Georgia, has just come off the press. In addition to various programs for the conventions the issue contains many interesting features connected with the cities in which the conventions will be held.

Places and dates of the meetings follow: Americus, March 15-16; Waycross, March 17-18; Thomson, March 22-23; Douglasville, March 24-25; Marietta, March 29-30; Buford, March 31-April 1.

DISABLED VETERANS MEET HERE SUNDAY

Plans for a membership campaign to include the entire state will be perfected at a meeting of the executive committee of the Georgia department, Disabled Veterans of the World War, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Ansley hotel, according to State Commander E. H. Winchester.

Arrangements for the annual convention, which will be held in Milledgeville in May, will be completed and improvement of the Georgia D. A. R. News, a weekly newspaper for the benefit of the veterans, which was recently established at Milledgeville, will be discussed.

Members of the state executive committee include State Commander E. H. Winchester, Atlanta; Senior Vice Commander R. E. McCaskill, Atlanta; Junior Vice Commander C. B. McCullar, Milledgeville; State Adjutant W. J. Folsom, Atlanta; State Treasurer J. H. Allison, Atlanta; Clarke Willcox, commander Joe Brown Connally chapter, D. A. V., Athens; Dr. Y. A. Little, executive committeeman Huff-Vinson chapter, Milledgeville; Walter Emory, commander LaGrange chapter; H. B. Edwards, commander Theodore Roosevelt chapter, Valdosta; L. B. Raines, commander Muscogee County chapter, Columbus; Miss Myrtis Tarte, commander J. Adrain Thomas chapter, Macon; J. P. Kelly, commander Albany chapter; Thomas A. Furlong, Savannah chapter, and William E. Tate, liaison representative, Veterans bureau, Atlanta.

DR. ELLIOTT LEAVES FOR GEORGIA PRISON

Tampa, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Dr. J. M. Elliott, veterinary surgeon who escaped from the Georgia penitentiary in 1920, left here today in custody of officers for Bainbridge, Ga., to complete a life sentence on the Decatur county chaingang for the murder in 1908 of George Rivers, a hotel keeper at LaGrange, Ga.

Elliott, who had been in Tampa more than a year, employed part of the time at a veterinary hospital, confessed his identity and related a series of crimes for which he was wanted, when he was taken by the police identification bureau, to have his finger prints made about 10 days ago. He had been held in the county jail here almost a month, arrested on worthless check charges. It was during this imprisonment that he was identified by federal authorities and an investigation started.

It was disclosed that in addition to the murder charge, he was sought for violating a parole at Dallas, Texas where he served four years of a 10-year sentence for bank robbery, and that federal authorities wanted him for removing stolen automobiles from one state to another.

CITY COUNCIL TO MEET IN SPECIAL SESSION

City council this afternoon will meet in special session to correct a clerical error made Monday in awarding contracts for sidewalks and gutters to be laid this year by the city, according to a special call issued Thursday by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale. This is the first special call issued since last fall. The call is for 3 o'clock.

The contract in question was given to the Meador Construction company at an aggregate total of $192,450, while the original bid made by the Meador concern and accepted by the streets committee was for 207,150. The city thus will save $14,700.

When the contractors' war flared in city council and Councilmen John A. White and Howard McCutcheon led the battle to reject the original bids because they were said to be higher than others submitted to the streets committee, council voted to reject them all and to advertise for new bids. Although new bids were asked for, and Meador underbid every competitor, they were not advertised.

City Attorney James L. Mayson Wednesday ruled that if council corrected the resolution rejecting the bids, striking from the paper the word advertise and substituting in lieu therefor the word "ask," the paper would be legal and could not be questioned. The session today is to validate the contract in this manner.

Mr. McCutcheon, who is a member of the streets committee, brought in a minority report from that body on the original bid of the Meador concern and succeeded in blocking the contract award at that time. Council thus decided to settle the controversy at that time by asking for new bids. This meeting was held February 21.

C. N. BICKERSTAFF SUCCUMBS ON VISIT TO SON IN FLORIDA

News of the death of Charles N. Bickerstaff, 73, of Columbus, Ga., who died Wednesday afternoon in Leesburg, Fla., at the home of his son, Douglas D. Bickerstaff, has been received here by his sons, Charles A. and J. Rankin Bickerstaff, business men of this city. He was visiting his son at the time of his death.

The body of Mr. Bickerstaff will be taken to Columbus where funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Columbus cemetery.

Mrs. Bickerstaff was a native of Russell county, Alabama, where his family has been prominent in business and public life for more than a century. He came to Georgia many years ago and made his home in Columbus.

He is survived by four sons, Charles A. and J. Rankin Bickerstaff, of Atlanta; R. H. Bickerstaff, of Athens, and Douglas D. Bickerstaff, of Leesburg, Fla.; five daughters, Mrs. Austin B. Seymour, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. David B. Edge, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. W. E. Dennard, of Savannah, and Mrs. A. I. Jessup, and Mrs. V. C. Gates, both of Columbus; a sister, Mrs. W. A. Bellamy, of Seale, Ala.; a brother, John R. Bickerstaff, of Hurtsboro, Ala., and several grandchildren.

CANBY TO LECTURE AT PIEDMONT CLUB

Henry Seidel Canby, celebrated critic and editor of "The Saturday Review of Literature" will lecture tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club at a dinner to be given in his honor.

In his lecture Mr. Canby will cover the modern movement of literature and touch upon the many literary figures. His long experience in the lecture hall has won him recognition as one of the leading lecturers of the day.

He has written many books and has been a regular contributor to many of the foremost magazines of the day in addition to his own magazine.

Asthma
Vapo-Cresolene makes a strong appeal to those afflicted with Bronchial Asthma, because the little lamp, used at night, is at work vaporizing the soothing remedy which makes restful sleep possible for asthmatic people. Introduced in 1879.
Vapo-Cresolene
"Used while you sleep."

The popularity of Vapo-Cresolene is due to — Continuous treatment while the patient enjoys undisturbed rest, avoidance of internal medication, prompt relief and unquestionable merit.
A remedy of nearly 50 years standing.
Sold by druggists
Send for descriptive booklet
The Vapo-Cresolene Co., Dept. A62 Cortlandt St., N.Y.

HART'S ALIMENTARY ELIXIR
A Perfect Food And a Gentle Yet Forceful Tonic
Has enjoyed the confidence of the medical profession for over 88 years.
E. J. Hart & Co., Ltd., New Orleans

KAMPER'S
FREE SUGAR
5 Pounds
BEST Granulated Sugar
FREE
with every $3.00 Retail Purchase
(Except Sugar)
Until Wednesday, March 16th
Kamper's
ATLANTA

FEEL WONDERFUL! Food that "Stands By" You
QUICK QUAKER
Protein, carbohydrates, laxative "bulk" and vitamines, plus toasty, creamy deliciousness. Cooks in 2½ to 5 minutes!

NOW

YOU CAN GET A Home Loaf AS GOOD AS OUR Sandwich Loaf

Silverman's
10¢
"The Toast of The Town"
AT YOUR GROCER OR FAVORITE DELICATESSEN

Prices Cut for Immediate CLEARANCE
WE MUST MOVE
On account of our lease on present location expiring
Our Entire Stock of Pianos---Players
Phonographs
MUST BE SOLD
Included in this sale are a great many high-grade pianos, players, phonographs and talking machines which have been taken in exchange for other instruments. All of them have been reconditioned and are offered at exceedingly attractive prices.

New Standard Upright Piano

EXTRA SPECIAL..........$289

New Standard Upright Player

SPECIAL, $467
OTHERS AS LOW AS $365

New Standard Upright Piano

EXTRA SPECIAL..........$292

SALE STARTS TODAY AT 9 A. M.

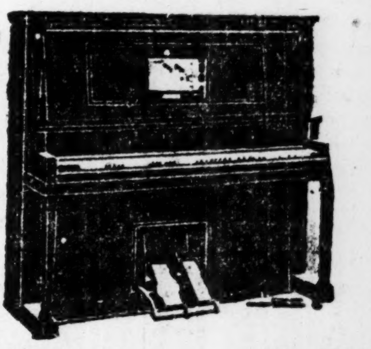
$465

Used Pianos
Steinway . . $395
Everett . . . $144
Fischer . . . $174
Wellington . $193
Kimball . . . $224
Pease $224
Gabler $224

Used Piano

EVERETT SPECIAL $94

Used Player



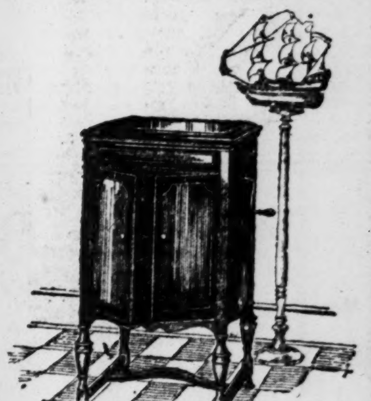
LAKEWOOD SPECIAL $394

Used Piano

CHICKERING SPECIAL $149

Standard makes of talking machines including Victor, Columbia, Brunswick and Edison, from $10.00 up. They must be sold.

Talking Machine Department
EDISONS—EUPHONICS—VOCAPHONICS
New and Used Models
Edison Disc Records
ISSUED PRIOR TO NOVEMBER, 1926
AT THE FOLLOWING PRICES:
All $1.00 Records now..........$ .75
All $1.50 Records now..........$1.15
All $2.00 Records now..........$1.50



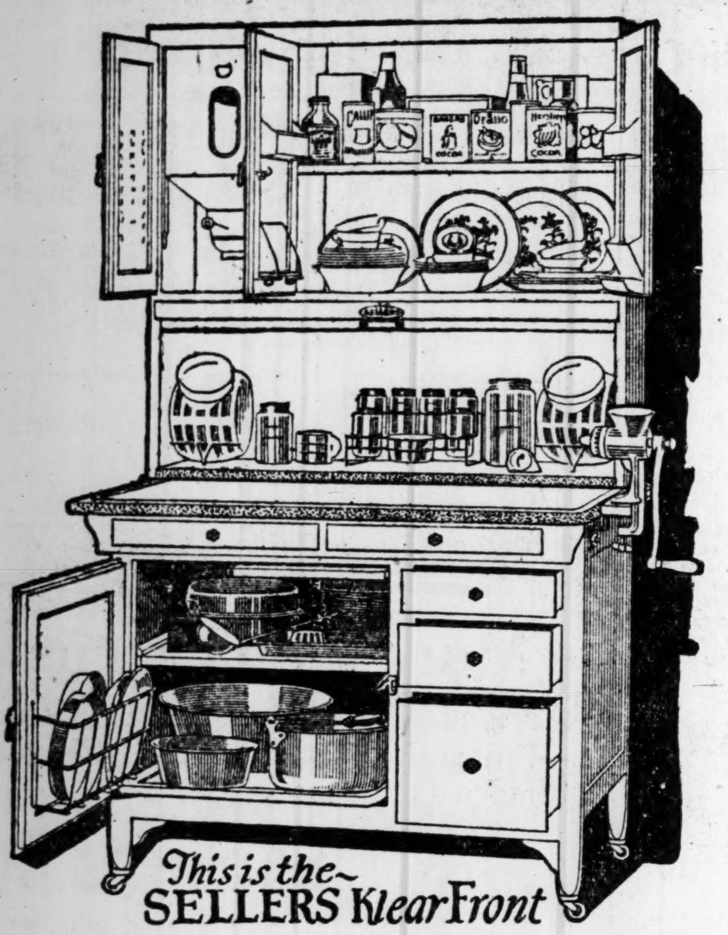
Records given with each machine sold.

Old Instruments Taken as Part Payment

EDICO PIANO CO.
The home of the celebrated Knabe and Fischer Pianos and Ampicos
241 PEACHTREE ST.
Open Evenings Until 7 O'clock
Later By Appointment

Terms as Low as $1 Per Week During This Sale

FREE! GROCERIES and CHINAWARE with SELLERS KITCHEN CABINET



This is the~ SELLERS KlearFront

This is the famous Sellers KlearFront Cabinet you have seen advertised in your favorite magazine. This modern kitchen work center contains all of the 15 famous labor-saving features including an oversize porceliron working surface, a wide open front, automatic extending base shelf, etc. During this extraordinary sale you pay the low sale price of the cabinet only. All of the groceries and chinaware shown are included free.

A MIGHTY VALUE

Just look over this amazing offer! All of the groceries shown here are given absolutely free with each Sellers KlearFront Cabinet. The exquisite set of old ivory chinaware is also included free. You pay the low sale price of the cabinet only. Every package included in this offer is full standard size—the size you pay money for every day. Notice too that they are all of the very highest quality. A 10-piece set of kitchen cutlery and n 12-piece set of glassware are also included with each Sellers KlearFront Cabinet. Our terms for this sale are just as liberal as the offer. They are so easy you'll never miss the money. Remember, this sale is for one week only. Don't wait until it's too late. You'll never have a better opportunity to make this permanent improvement to your kitchen.

$1. Down puts the SELLERS CABINET Groceries and Dishes in Your Kitchen

All these extras without extra charge

$14.00 in Chinaware and Groceries with each Cabinet FREE

sold the first week of this big Sale starting TODAY.

1 Tin
Maxwell House Tea
Good to the Last Drop

1 Can
Wesson Oil

1 Can
Calumet Baking Powder
Purity, Strength

1 Package
Jenny Wren
Self-Rising Flour

1 Can
Baker's Coconut
Southern Style
Moist Sweetened

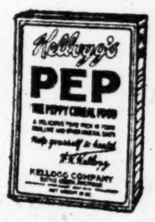
One-half Pint (50c) Bottl
Johnson's Liquid Wax
The ideal household polish for furniture, floors and linoleum

1 Package
Angelus Marshmallows
Always Light and Fluffy

1 Can
Carnation Milk
Evaporated to Double Richness

2 Cakes
Fleischmann's Yeast
Eat 2 or 3 Cakes a Day for Health

1 Package
Bon Ami Powder



1 Package
Kellogg's Pep

2 Boxes
Diamond Matches

1 Package
Astor Rice
Packed Where It Grows

1 Package
Pabstette

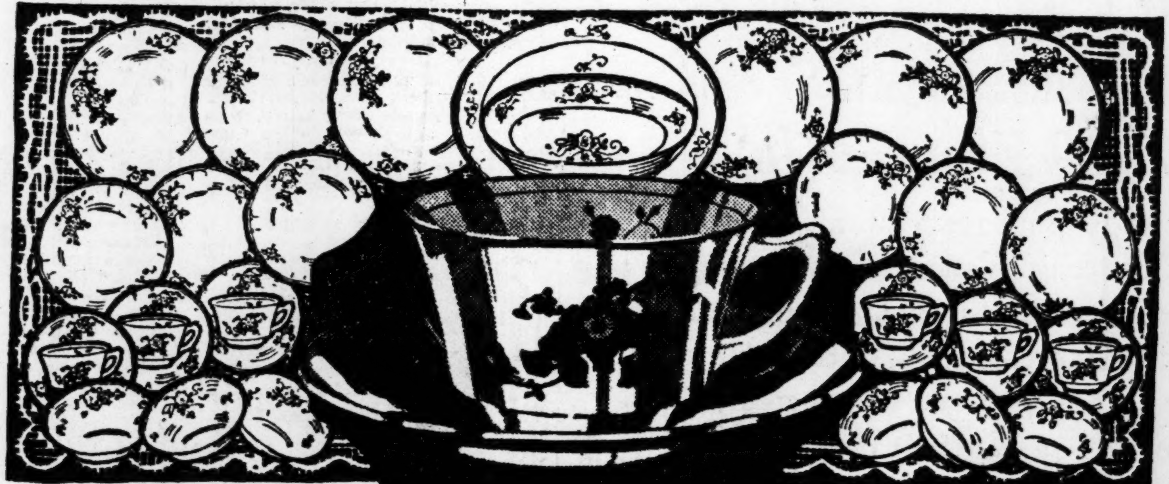
1 Package
Linit
Easy Starching

1 Bottle
3-in-One Oil

1 Carton
Morton's Salt

All full size standard selling packages of the highest grade groceries

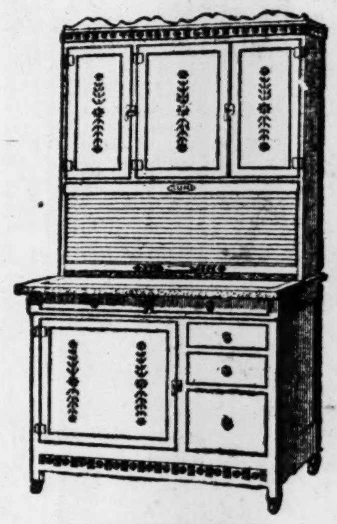
This Old Ivory Set of Chinaware also given FREE with SELLERS Cabinet



During this sale only, you get this charming set of old ivory chinaware without cost with a Sellers KlearFront Cabinet. Set consists of cups, saucers, plates, pie plates, fruit dishes, bowl and platter—enough to set the table for six persons.

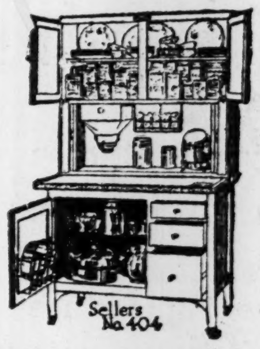
Shorter Hours in a Cheery Kitchen

There's a colorful, warmth and cozy friendliness in a Sellers equipped kitchen. These beautiful cabinets are made in many fascinating styles and colors. Yet they contain more labor-saving features than any other cabinet. You can get them at surprisingly moderate prices. During this sale, all of these groceries and chinaware are given with the Sellers KlearFront without a penny of extra cost. Come in and see them now while you can get all these extras.



Colonial

See this new art model~ The SELLERS Kitchenaire



TO GROCERS

Coupons for these grocery items redeemable at any grocery store will be given with each Sellers Cabinet sold during this sale. This amazing offer is possible through the co-operation of the companies whose products are listed.

We Will Pay You the Retail Price in Cash for all coupons you redeem and present at this store. No delay! Just bring your coupons in and get your money for them.

This offer is so liberal, we're forced to limit it to one week—from Saturday to and including the following Saturday. Now is the best of all opportunities to improve your kitchen. Quick action is necessary—come in tomorrow sure.

Phone
WA.
2245

Plenty of Parking Space
as long as you like.

ED AND AL MATTHEWS

158 EDGEWOOD AVENUE

OUT OF THE HIGH RENT DISTRICT

Phone
WA.
2245

Plenty of Parking Space
as long as you like.

Here's Financial Help When Aid Is Needed Most

Speaking of worthy movements—

The Constitution draws attention with gratification to the fact that as a result of its offer to its readers of the famous $7,500 travel-accident policy of the North American Accident Insurance company, more than $50,000 in cash has been paid out to local policyholders.

Fifty thousand dollars isn't any vast sum—that's true. But where families have suddenly been bereft of their bread-winners; where wives face hard work and little pleasure, and where children look into an unpromising future, $50,000 means a lot.

It's time for you to stop now and take stock of how your loved ones would fare if you were suddenly maimed or killed. How would you feel if your income were abruptly halted through incapacity as the result of an accident?

Against emergencies like these the $7,500 travel accident insurance policy—available to every Constitution reader between the ages of 15 and 70 at the amazingly low price of $1.25 per year—stands constant vigil.

In return you are assured of payments ranging downward from $7,500 in case of death resulting from ertain accidents named in the policy; heavy cash sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for disability resulting from the accidents named.

You may be claimed today as a victim of the ever-mounting accident wave. A wreck of trains, a crash of autos, the onrushing wheels of a speeding car, a burning building may mean your death at any moment.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Watch for advertisement of the great protective offer appearing regularly in this paper.

This $7,500 travel, $2,000 auto and $1,000 pedestrian accident policy is issued only to subscribers of The Daily and Sunday Constitution and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 17 at $1.25 per policy per year. Open to both old and new subscribers.

One who is now taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for same through carrier in Atlanta and suburbs, or through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly or otherwise, is a subscriber, and is eligible.

Those taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery and all those subscribing through the two-word building contest for one year are eligible by paying $1.25 per year per policy above the subscription price.

In sending application for insurance, the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation. If beneficiary is desired, full Christian name must be given and the relation of same to the insured.

IS THERE NO RELIEF FROM SKIN TORTURE?

Must I Continue to Suffer the Unbearable Itching?

Are you one of those unfortunates who are going through life suffering with a skin disease, making you uncomfortable, making you less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep? You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in many forms of skin disease. Thousands of letters of gratitude prove its worth.

"I feel so happy for what S. S. S. has done for me that I want others to know about it. I suffered twenty long years from eczema. At times the itching was unbearable. During that time, I used all kinds of salves without receiving any real benefit. After taking six bottles of S. S. S., I was cured of this dreadful disease. I recommend S. S. S. to anyone suffering from eczema, because I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me." Cleophas Forte, Soldiers and Sailors' Home, Quincy, Ill.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—(adv.)

CLARKSTON PIONEER IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Clarkston, Ga., March 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. H. C. Pendleton, 81, pioneer citizen of Clarkston, died at her home here today.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Decatur.

She is survived by her husband and nine children, Eugene R. Pendleton, of Brevard, N. C.; Harry Pendleton, of San Francisco; Louis Pendleton, of St. Louis; Richard Pendleton, of Springfield, Ohio; Albert Pendleton and Miss Ethel Pendleton, of Clarkston; Roy L. Pendleton, Mrs. Nellie Pendleton Armstrong and Mrs. Fay Pendleton Smith, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Pendleton was the youngest of 13 children of Sir John Robinson, who came to this country from England, and died in Atlanta at the age of 94. All the 13 reached the age of 80 years or more, and Mrs. Pendleton was the last to die.

EXIT
FRONT ENTRANCE
FRONT ENTRANCE OUT
B.M. BRITTON

Speed of Atlanta's Street Cars High above the National Average

SPEED is what you want when you ride. Your street cars give you speed with safety.

To the many other improvements in your street car service the past few years has been added a steady increase every year in the average speed of the cars until Atlanta now stands well above the national average.

The average speed* of city street railway systems, similar to Atlanta's, over the nation is 9 miles per hour, Atlanta's average is 9.77 miles, only a few points below Chicago, the fastest system in the United States.

Elimination of unnecessary car stops through the cooperation of the public, purchase of better and faster street cars, increased efficiency of employes, and studious planning to bring about a steady improvement in operating conditions, have raised the average speed of your street cars, year by year, like this:

1923—9.18 m. p. h.
1924—9.45 m. p. h.
1925—9.73 m. p. h.
1926—9.77 m. p. h.

This steady improvement in speed of your street cars is more remarkable when you think that it has been made in the face of increasingly severe traffic conditions. It is only one of the many improvements planned to make your street car service the—

Best in the Nation

* The average speed is the system average and is figured on the basis of total miles traveled by all the cars from the time they leave the barns until they return to the barns. It includes all stops, delays caused by traffic, lay-overs at the end of the line, etc., in addition to actual running time.

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

A CITIZEN WHEREVER WE SERVE

League's 'Flying Squadron'

YOUNG WOMEN BUSY SELLING SPECIAL EDITION SPACE

Adding Much New Business

With two days left in which to fill the week's quota, solicitors of the Atlanta Junior league today intend unleashing a concentrated effort to obtain advertisements for the special league edition of The Constitution on March 30.

Great results already have been obtained by the league "flying squadron" this week since classification of business house prospects was discarded and all teams were given free rein in calling upon any type business establishment in the city.

So instantaneous was the response of small firms of the city to the canvassing that the league edition headquarters, in The Constitution building, found difficulty in keeping track of firms already interviewed, with the result that several duplications were registered. In order to avert this, Mrs. Eugene Harrington, chairman, requested that solicitors report all orders to headquarters immediately after they are received.

Perhaps the most popular feature of the junior league edition undertaking is the purpose for which it was launched. All revenue realized by the league in publication of the edition will be utilized in carrying forward the many charitable enterprises which the organization sponsors in this city.

Purposes of Plan.

Advertisers by placing orders in the league edition not only obtain splendid circulation for their investment but also contribute to worthy charities of the community—without extra cost.

Twenty-five per cent of the revenue obtained from local advertisements in the March 30 special league edition will revert directly to charity. The league also holds exclusive sales privileges in the downtown district and members will direct the sale of the publication on corners of the business district.

Among charitable enterprises sponsored by the league which will benefit directly by the advertising in the edition and by the individual sales are the Good Samaritan clinic, the Emory hospital clinic, the Christmas basket and clothing fund, the free milk fund, the committee distributing warm meals to undernourished school children and other missions to which the junior league is dedicated. Moreover, the league makes contributions to all worthy charitable causes in Atlanta throughout the year and much of the money obtained through the special edition will be used for this purpose.

Rates Not Increased.

Despite added circulation of the special edition, the regular advertising rates will be effective. This, too, has proved to be popular with advertisers.

The edition itself will be the most novel publication ever circulated in Atlanta. Features which will make the edition valuable as a keepsake will be incorporated and will thus tend to make advertising space more valuable.

Any additional information about the edition may be obtained at the league edition headquarters, sixth floor of The Constitution building, Walnut 6565.

Ships' Captains Are Found Guilty In Fatal Wreck

Baltimore, March 10.—(AP)—Captain George C. Claytor, of the wrecked Chesapeake Bay liner City of Annapolis, and Captain Howard Willing, of the City of Richmond, which rammed and sank the City of Annapolis, both were found guilty of negligence by the board of federal steamship inspectors today. Their licenses were suspended for one year.

The captains were found guilty of disregarding a mandatory section of the inland pilot rules, which directs that engines shall be stopped when a fog signal is heard forward on the beam, and the position of the vessel signalling is not ascertained. The board said that the evidence and the testimony of the captains indicated that neither had made any effort to avoid the other until each saw the other's lights, although each captain had heard the other's fog signals before the lights were visible. The engines of the City of Richmond were continued full speed ahead until after the crash, the board said, while the engines of the City of Annapolis were reversed just two minutes before the collision.

WATKINS TO ADDRESS LAWYERS' CLUB MEET

Edgar Watkins, Atlanta attorney, will be principal speaker at the meeting of the Atlanta Lawyers' club tonight at 5:30 o'clock in the breakfast room of the Kimball House. He will speak on the new proposed city charter for Atlanta.

An interesting musical program has been arranged, to include Miss Annie Humphries, daughter of Judge John D Humphries, who will give several vocal selections.

Boy, 7, Is Drowned.

Jonesboro, Ark., March 10.—(AP)—Glen Taylor, 7-year-old son of Mrs. W. S. Taylor, of Old River, was drowned when he fell into a floodway ditch, it was learned here late today. The boy was assisting a man in pulling logs from under a bridge when he stepped on the floating timber, intending to hold to the bridge with his hands. He dropped into the swirling water and his body was not recovered until two hours later.

Only Powerful Medicine Will End RHEUMATISM

It matters not whether you have had agonizing pains from rheumatism for 20 years, or distressing twitchings for 20 weeks, Rheuma while harmless, is strong enough and mighty and powerful enough to drive the rheumatic poisons from your system and abolish all misery or money back.

Jacobs Pharmacy company and all druggists sell Rheuma with guarantee of perfect satisfaction or money refunded. A large bottle is inexpensive, and after you take the small dose as directed twice a day for just a few days you should know that at last you have obtained a remedy that does relieve your suffering and will conquer rheumatism.

For over fifteen years Rheuma has been sold and recommended by the best druggists in America. It has released thousands from agony, pain and despair and should do the same for you.

A Beautiful Woman is a Joy to the World

Mrs. C. B. Smith

Tampa, Fla.—"For womanly ills I know of nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was suffering from feminine trouble and became all rundown in health. I was nervous and weak, could not sleep, had no strength nor energy to do anything—had a draggy, heavy wornout feeling. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it strengthened my nerves and I grew well and strong. I would advise any weak woman to take it."—Mrs. C. B. Smith, 1408 Florida Ave.

You can always find this Prescription of Dr. Pierce's in your neighborhood store, in tablets or liquid.—(adv.)

PAZO OINTMENT FOR PILES
PAZO OINTMENT FOR PILES

In Tube with Pile Pipe Attachment, 75c; in tin box, 60c.

PAZO OINTMENT

is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles or money refunded.

GALE INCREASES MISERY IN JAPAN

Osaka, Japan, March 11.—(AP)—A terrific gale was sweeping central Japan early today, demolishing many refugee shelters in the Tango earthquake district and adding to the misery of the thousands of homeless in the devastated region. The storm started last night.

RELIEF MEASURES ARE IN FULL SWING.

Tokyo, March 10.—(AP)—Relief measures for the thousands made homeless in central Japan by Monday's earthquake were in full swing today, all government agencies throwing their energy into caring for victims still without shelter or medical attention.

Health officials worked steadily in the devastated area to prevent an epidemic, while thousands of coolies labored on the broken roads, collected bodies and built crude barracks to shelter the living.

Official reports today stated that 2,248 persons had been killed, 4,107 injured and 88 missing. Nearly 6,000 houses were destroyed either by collapsing or by fire which broke out immediately after the quake, and more than 2,000 were damaged badly.

SINCLAIR EVIDENCE IS GIVEN TO JUDGE

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—A halt was called today until Monday in the contempt trial of Harry F. Sinclair, with the admissability of the defense evidence still undetermined.

During the brief time the trial proceeded today, Justice Hitz reversed the usual court procedure by excusing the jurymen and hearing himself the evidence which the defense wants to get before the 12 men selected to try the multi-millionaire lessee of the Teapot Dome Naval Oil reserve in Wyoming.

The defense then changed the ordinary court room scene by calling as its only witness Martin W. Littleton, of counsel for Sinclair, who testified that it was upon his advice that the oil operator refused to answer ten questions upon his sixth appearance before the senate oil investigating committee.

Bishop Ainsworth Discusses China Before City Club

Bishop W. N. Ainsworth, former president of Wesleyan Female college, of Macon, Ga., and recently returned from China, gave a clear description of political conditions in that country as the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the City club Thursday afternoon in the Piedmont hotel.

After affirming that we could no longer call China a foreign country, but only a remoter portion of the world readily accessible, the prominent churchman discussed the new movement in China, featuring labor conditions, liberation of women and government free of foreign domination. Describing the great conflict now being waged between the nationalist or southern party and the group of reactionary war lords, Bishop Ainsworth praised the conservative elements of the nationalists and hazarded the opinion that as early as next summer the world might see China again at peace with itself and the better elements on top.

"In certain aspects the aversion to foreigners in that ancient country is overstated by current reports," the bishop declared. "Of all outsiders Americans are the least disliked, and I am happy to say that, except where seditious uprisings have been instigated, there has been no hostility shown toward Christian missionaries.

"The great masses of China have been sucked white by the numerous provincial war lords. But the country is rapidly awakening and labor is clamoring for more returns from industry, unsatisfied with the two to 15-cent day's wages. The women, too, seek through reform movements a place in the world outside of the home. There is the desire on their part to get out and look over the matrimonial bargains for themselves and to do away with the traditional selling of girls into slavery and vice by their fathers. A third factor in the China of today is the unyielding determination for native rule, with the abrogation of unequal treaties and concessions to foreign powers. The reformists' objections here are as just as would be those raised by Atlantans should, say, 50 blocks of this city bounded by Peachtree street and Ponce de Leon avenue be taken into the exclusive rule of the Chinese, entirely unresponsible to native authorities."

W. J. Sayward, president of the City club, extended the privilege of introducing the speaker to Walter McElreath, a close friend of Bishop Ainsworth.

Attack Is Made On Rockefeller At Baptist Meet

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Charges that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is sponsoring a plan of reorganization which, if adopted, would make the northern Baptist convention "A religious department of the Standard Oil company" were made today at the conference of the Baptist Bible Union of North America by the Rev. Dr. T. T. Shields, president of the organization and pastor of the Jarvis Street Baptist church, of Toronto, Canada.

"By the principle recommended," Dr. Shields said, "practically the entire denomination would be subject to the absolute control of one man."

Dr. Shields charged that a plan of reorganization of the Baptist church which would put it on the plane of a big business firm was proposed recently at a meeting in New York to which Mr. Rockefeller invited 75 men, and at which only 15 appeared.

The proposal was first sponsored at the 1923 convention of the Baptist church, held in Atlantic City, at that time Raymond Fosdick, a brother of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, was appointed chairman of a committee which, Dr. Shields said, "was to make a study of all the societies and boards, their methods of keeping books finances, plans of operation, salaries efficiency and to outline a policy for the future which will tend to the greatest efficiency."

CLEAR AND WARMER DAY IS FORECAST FOR CITY TODAY

With clearing of the skies late Thursday afternoon, a bright cool day is predicted for today, with slightly higher temperatures than on Thursday, according to C. F. von Herrmann, local meteorologist.

A low mercury reading of 41 degrees was recorded Thursday morning, but during the afternoon the mercury rose to the 55-degree mark. Temperatures today are expected to range between 42 and 60 degrees.

According to indications Atlanta will enjoy a pleasant week-end. Temperatures are slated to rise considerably during Friday and Saturday and there is no rain or cold wave in sight at present, it was said at the weather bureau.

Parks-Chambers, Inc.

Headquarters for

Manhattan

SHIRTS ∴ PAJAMAS
MANSCO UNDERWEAR

More Manhattans

Arrived Yesterday. Better Values—Smarter Patterns And Classier Shades Than Ever.

Shirts, $2.50 to $5.00
Union Suits, $1.50 to $3.50

Shirts And Drawers—
Pull-Over Shirts—
Track Pants—Whites And Fancies—
Moderately Priced.
Pajamas—$2.50 To $10

Wonderful Assortment Of Beautiful NECKWEAR $1.00-$1.50

Parks-Chambers Inc.

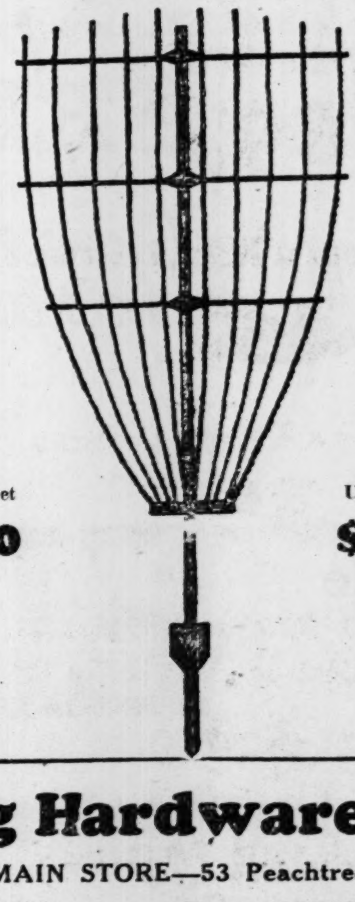
King Hardware Co.

Any of Our 12 Stores Can Supply You

Beautify Your Grounds With

Sentry Bungalow Rose Trellis and Sentry Porch Trellis

Made of Cool, Copper-Bearing Wire



Rose Trellis
Height Adjustable Up to 8 Feet
$2.50

Porch Trellis
Height Adjustable Up to 13 Feet
$3.50

King Hardware Co.

MAIN STORE—53 Peachtree

135 Whitehall
827 Gordon, S. W.
252 Peters
East Point

122 Decatur
393 Moreland, N. E.
Lakewood Heights

844 Peachtree
431 Marietta
772 Marietta
Buckhead

Council-Manager Charter Plan Explained to Retail Merchants' Association

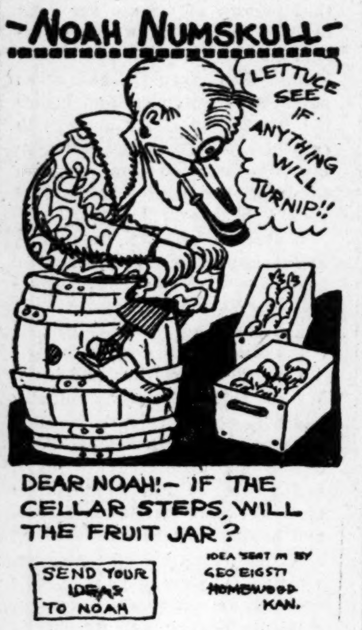
Marvin Underwood Shows Advantages of New Charter To Be Offered Atlanta This Year

Presenting a new city charter, based on the council-manager form of government, to be voted on by citizens of Atlanta sometime before the legislature meets in June, Marvin E. Underwood, prominent Atlanta attorney, compared the proposed plan with other forms of city rule and explained the principal features of the new charter at a meeting of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association, Thursday night, in the Chamber of Commerce building.

"The proposed charter is believed to contain the best elements of the charters of those cities functioning under the council-manager type of government, such as in Cleveland, Dayton, Cincinnati and many others of the 363 cities with the council-manager form, that are comparable to Atlanta," Mr. Underwood stated, adding that it also contains the best features of new charters that have been proposed heretofore, at the same time retaining numerous features of the present Atlanta charter, difficult to change suddenly.

"Modeled after the efficient type of business corporation regulation, the council-manager plan of local government has proven a success and won the praise of leading statesmen," Mr. Underwood declared. "Besides advantages offered by a small council and a high-salaried city manager, employed for his efficiency, the proposed form of city rule would safeguard the city's funds in a way that can be appreciated by business men," the speaker said. "The plan was first undertaken in Atlanta two years ago by a body of approximately 100 citizens from all city wards. They met and discussed the matter for several months before agreeing on the plan as it now stands. Recently a petition to hold a city-wide vote on the new charter has been circulated and signed by 4,000 citizens. This will be presented in council, making it mandatory to place it before the people for vote. If approved it will be enacted in ordinance and brought before the legislature, which meets in June for the establishing of the new charter."

W. O. Foote, president of the association, in introducing Mr. Underwood, remarked that the burden of taxes and government was borne by industry, making the merchant's interest in local government of vital importance. "The tendency of capital is to seek tax free investments," Mr. Foote stated. "Business investment must then compete for capital with that handicap, which in reality means it must shoulder the full burden of the taxes and expense of government. The wise business man modernizes his business in order to keep it efficient, and it is equally essential to keep the government efficient through modernization when necessary. Any plan that proposes to do that deserves a hearing.



-NOAH NUMSKULL-
LETTUCE SEE IF ANYTHING WILL TURNIP!!
DEAR NOAH!- IF THE CELLAR STEPS, WILL THE FRUIT JAR?
SEND YOUR IDEAS TO NOAH
IDEA SENT IN BY GEO EIGSTI HOMEWOOD KAN.

TRAINING SCHOOL OF SALVATION ARMY OPENS HERE SOON

Preparatory to the opening in Atlanta of a new training college for Salvation Army workers, Adjutant W. Herbert Bartlett and Ensign Emma Salverson arrived here Thursday. The training college for the southern territory will open in the near future.

Adjutant Bartlett and Ensign Salverson will be in charge and a large number of students from all parts of the south are expected to attend.

Girl En Route To Wed Killed When Thrown From Auto Onto Head

Thomasville, Ga., March 10.—(AP)—Miss Katherine Coontz, aged 22, of 1729 Park avenue, Philadelphia, was instantly killed when she fell from a car six miles from Thomasville this morning. The driver, B. Metal, of Chicago, swerved to avoid a hole in the road and the woman fell from the car, landing on her head, causing almost instant death.

The party was en route to Miami from Chicago, where they planned to be married.

U. S. Shipping Board Exhibit Here for Trade Conference

:: FOREIGN TRADE CLUB PREPARES FOR MEETING ::

Arriving in Atlanta Thursday morning to be uncrated and set up at the chamber of commerce for the first regional southeastern foreign trade conference to be held there March 17 and 18, was the magnificent sesquicentennial exhibit of the United States shipping board.

H. C. Littlefield, special representative of the board, accompanied the great charts and other features of the exhibit on its trip south.

The exhibit will be ready for display by 10 o'clock this morning, Mr. Littlefield stated, and Atlantans are cordially invited to view the various features. The exhibit will be on display all of next week and Mr. Littlefield will be in attendance.

Magnificent Map.

Features are a 20-foot, cross-section painting of the S. S. Leviathan in colors and a mammoth map of the world, 16-feet in length, on which is portrayed, by means of colored jewels, the foreign ports of the world with which the United States carried on foreign commerce during 1926. These are segregated to show those ports which received exports from the United States, those which received nothing but imported commodities into our country and those which had business in both directions. In addition to this, the 24 lines now operated by the shipping board, as well as the nine services which have been disposed of to private owners, are shown in order that the manner in which the world's surface is covered by government-owned lines may be understood.

Other interesting features are charts showing the countries to which goods produced in Georgia, North and South Carolina and other nearby states are shipped, a marvelous collection of photographs showing loading and unloading facilities, docks, lighters, etc., in practically every port in the world, a complete collection of house flags carried by the steamers in the American merchant marine service and a moving picture of the thrilling rescue of the Italian steamship "Antinoe" by the crew of the American vessel "President Roosevelt." School children, particularly, as well as their parents and business men and students interested in foreign trade, are invited to visit the exhibit.

Trade Club Meets.

Atlanta's initiative in staging a foreign trade conference, despite her inland position, was given high praise by I. Apolin, commissioner of the Lake Worth Inlet district of the port of Palm Beach, addressing the Atlanta Foreign Trade club Thursday night at a banquet in the Ramsey Tea room. Mr. Apolin is in Atlanta attending sessions of the American Railway association.

"It amazing to find an inland city so keenly interested in world trade, he declared. "The interest shown by Atlantans in the southeastern foreign trade conference, to be held here next week, indicates remarkable enterprise among the city's industrial and commercial interests and reflects credit upon the leaders who are sponsoring this big event."

The meeting was held to discuss final arrangements for the conference, which will open Thursday morning of next week in the assembly hall of the chamber of commerce. H. O. Williamson, export manager of the Atlantic Steel company and president of the club, presided.

Fred Houser, secretary of the convention bureau, declared that he had never seen a more representative or enthusiastic lineup for an Atlanta convention.

Committees Report.

Reports of various committees were presented and it was stated that all arrangements were in readiness for receiving out-of-town delegates. Harry O. Mitchell, secretary-treasurer, stated that registrations had been received to date from Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee and indications are that delegations representing the leading port cities and industrial centers of the southeast would attend. Chambers of commerce throughout this section are cooperating with the Atlanta Foreign Trade club in circularizing their local manufacturers.

A feature of the conference will be special entertainment provided for visiting ladies. Mrs. Charles F. Hoke is chairman of the ladies hospitality committee and reported that arrangements had been made for a theater party, an automobile trip, a shopping tour and a luncheon. Announcement was made that headquarters for the ladies would be the mezzanine floor of the Biltmore hotel.

It was announced that a final preconference meeting would be held next Wednesday at a luncheon in the chamber of commerce.

Cases Nol Prossed Against Policeman On Gaming Charges

Misdemeanor indictments charging Lieutenant O. R. Jones and K. O. Wooster, members of the Atlanta police department, with operating a gaming device known as a "punch board" were nol prossed Thursday by Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy in Fulton superior court upon recommendation of the solicitor.

Jones, Wooster and Jack Holland, proprietor of a West End grocery store, were named in the indictments as joint defendants. Holland was tried Thursday by a jury in Judge Pomeroy's division of Fulton superior court and was acquitted of the charge. The nol prossing of the indictments against the Atlanta policeman followed.

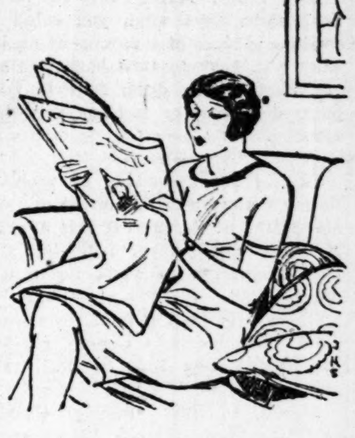
In addition to the indictment charging maintaining gaming houses, Holland is under indictment on a charge of perjury in connection with his testimony before the police committee of city council in regard to the activities of Officers Jones and Wooster. This case is pending in superior court.

FINE OF SPRAGUE NOT PAID AT THOMSON

Thomson, Ga., March 10.—(AP)—No steps had been taken to pay the fine of Warren T. Sprague, of Staten Island, N. Y., who pleaded guilty here of a charge of kidnaping. Sprague was sentenced to a fine of $500 or 12 months' imprisonment when he pleaded guilty of a "technical violation of the law," it being alleged that he kidnaped Miss Georgia Lowe, 15-year-old high school girl of Thomson, and took her with him to Florida. He stated yesterday that he was going to pay the fine, but later told the sheriff that he had no money and did not know where he could get it.

Kitty McKay

By Nina Wilcox Putnam



Honest, I don't know where that "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown" stuff got started unless it was the custom to wear them in bed.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

SHIPPERS' BOARD CONVENES TODAY

The southeast shippers' advisory board, composed of representatives of every branch of agriculture, production and industry, together with railroad officials of prominence, will meet at the Ansley hotel this morning with approximately 750 visitors in attendance.

Governor Clifford Walker will deliver the address of welcome and Charles A. Wickersham, president of the Atlanta & West Point and Georgia railroads, and James A. Hollomon, of The Constitution, will be principal speakers.

The morning session will be given over to receiving commodity committee reports forecasting car requirements of every industry in the southeast. With this advance forecast as to the demands of the shipping public railroads will be able to arrange an adequate car supply ahead of the actual movement, it is said.

Commodity committee reports presenting a picture of current and prospective industrial conditions, and railroad reports reflecting activities on the part of the southeastern lines toward increasing their own operating efficiency and reducing transportation costs will be of much interest to those dependent on an accurate index to industrial conditions and efficient transportation for the intelligent control of their business, officials declared.

W. C. Kendall, manager car service division American Railway association, Washington, D. C., will report on the general transportation conditions throughout the country, while the local situation in the southeast will be covered by R. W. Edwards, district manager of the American Railway association, with headquarters in Birmingham

The afternoon session will be devoted to the consideration by the board in its capacity as an institution of arbitration and adjustment of the many subjects to be presented, the discussion of which will be interesting and helpful.

A. G. T. Moore, traffic manager Southern Pine association, New Orleans, La., who is general chairman of the board, will preside. Other board officers are S. L. Yerkes, vice president Grider Coal Sales agency, Birmingham, Ala., vice chairman; Thomas J. Burke, commissioner Charleston traffic bureau, Charleston, S. C., general secretary, and T. M. Healy, New Orleans, La., field secretary.

King Is Ill.

Madrid, March 10.—(AP)—An official statement issued this afternoon says King Alfonso is ill from grippe which has been localized in the right lung.

RICE'S
101 Whitehall Street
CLOSING OUT MEN'S SHOES
High Tops $6.00 Values
Low Cuts $8.00 Values
Blacks, Tans $10.00 Values
$3.00 Pair
Mostly conservative styles. All sizes, but not in every style. Every sale final. No mail orders.
SALE STARTS 9 A. M.

Going Out of Business!
E. J. Perkerson Co.
77 Peachtree Street
If you failed to attend Our Wonderful Closing-Out Sale of MEN'S CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS and FURNISHINGS
Don't Fail To Be on Hand Today, "Friday," and participate in the Great Price Savings MERCHANDISE SACRIFICED AT MANUFACTURERS' COST AND LESS
E. J. PERKERSON CO.
77 PEACHTREE ST.
3 Doors North of Auburn Avenue

CLEARAWAY SALES
IN THE SPECIAL CLEARAWAY SECTION--SECOND FLOOR

Silk and Woolen Remnants
59c yd.
Voile and Marquisette Curtains
59c pr.
Women's Full Fashioned Silk Hose
89c pr.
Women's Kid Gloves
49c pr.
Children's Knit Unions
39c
Men's Madras and Percale Shirts
44c
Smoking Stands
25c

Move!--- Move!!--- Move!!!---
Our day and night motto. Every ounce of our effort is concentrated on moving to our new store at Peachtree and Ellis Streets. AND BEFORE WE MOVE, WE MUST MOVE OUR STOCKS. These clearaway items listed here are only typical of the countless things in the special clearaway sales section which have been reduced to MOVE!

DAVISON-PAXON Co.
ATLANTA
Affiliated with MACY'S—New York

Women's Confiners
15c
Narrow confiners in small sizes. Made of striped and figured batiste. Hook in the back. Formerly priced 50c.
Women's Corselettes
79c
Satin striped and figured batiste, hooking at side, and lightly boned across diaphragm. Sections of elastic at side. Formerly $2.00.
Girdles and Corselettes
$1.95
14 inch girdles of coutil, combined with elastic, and lightly boned. Corselettes are of coutil, too, boned and combined with elastic. Formerly $5.00.
Women's Winter Coats
$3.50
15 Coats, some plain, some trimmed with fur. Formerly $16.74!
Crepe de Chine Negligees
$3.50
Dainty negligees—about a dozen of them. Lace trimmed. Pastel shades. Of excellent quality and attractive style.

THE CONSTITUTION
CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager.
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

THE SOUTH'S STANDARD NEWSPAPER · CONSTITUTION · ESTABLISHED 1868

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone WAL 6565.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

	1 Wk.	1 Mo.	3 Mos.	6 Mos.	1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday	20c	90c	$2.50	$5.00	$9.50
Daily	16c	70c	2.00	4.00	7.50

Single Copies—Daily, 5c. Sunday, 10c.
By Mail Only.

Sunday	10c	45c	$1.25	$2.50	$5.00

ATLANTA, GA., MARCH 11, 1927.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, sole advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hotaling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third street (Times building corner); Schultz News Agency, at Bryant Park, and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published herein.

GOD'S REQUIREMENT—"Go serve the Lord your God: but who are they that shall go? And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters; with our flocks and with our herds." Ex. 10:8-9.

PRAYER—So would we, O Lord, bring all to Thee—surrender all to Thee.

IF "PRECEDENT," A BAD ONE!

Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, apparently thinks it all right for him, as chairman of the senate's foreign relations committee, to assume the functions of the state department which is by constitutional mandate charged with complete supervision and direction of the nation's foreign and diplomatic affairs.

In a recent secret meeting of the senate committee he proudly boasted of the fact that he had "set the precedent."

This statement came as a rejoinder to a committeeman's criticism that the chairman's acknowledged correspondence with President Calles, of Mexico, in which the latter, also unprecedentedly, furnished certain information of a purely diplomatic nature, had been "without precedent."

If such a "precedent" has been established, as Senator Borah has declared, then it is a bad precedent.

The secretary of state is charged, under the direction of the president, with the duties appertaining to correspondence with the public ministers and the consuls of the United States, and with the representatives of foreign powers, and "with negotiations of whatever character relating to foreign affairs."

Under the constitution he is also "the medium of correspondence between the president and the chief executives of other nations."

It is unmistakable therefore that the action of Senator Borah in seeking and receiving information from the president of Mexico was a clear constitutional violation, and the "precedent," of which he now boasts, can and should be immediately challenged and overturned.

It matters not how commendable may have been the purposes of the Idaho senator in gaining certain information which he sought and which was not made available to him privately at the state department, it must be realized that such an attack upon the functions of the government's foreign affairs department can eventually result only in chaos, and a virtual overthrow of executive power and discretion, if persisted in without the invoking of constitutional inhibition.

International negotiations must at times be of the most secret nature in order to avert impending troubles.

If any member of congress, who must and does have the same authority if the "precedent" shall stand—can set himself up as the "foreign office," or as the nation's official mediator in foreign relations, the Good Lord only knows what will eventually become of this nation, or how seriously such a hazardous "precedent" will involve this country and the lives and interests of her people.

THE TEXAS PRIMARY LAW.

The decision of the United States supreme court declaring as unconstitutional the Texas law barring negroes from democratic primaries is being widely discussed throughout the nation, and the opinion is general that it will force changes in the primary laws of several states.

The Georgia primary law makes no reference to party, nor race, and the author, Representative Neill, of Muscogee, is of the opinion that it does not affect this state. It was passed in 1917, and it was drawn with the purpose of not violating the 14th amendment.

The court's decision as to the Texas law held that the primary law of that state violated the 14th amendment.

At any rate, if the decision has the effect of restricting the ballot in primaries or otherwise, to intelligence limitations, it will serve a good purpose.

Whatever changes in state primary laws the decision may make necessary will be made with the view of preserving white supremacy. This will always continue, as now, but under laws that will be constitutional.

A REPUBLICAN BOOMERANG!

The action of republican leaders in blocking and embarrassing the senate's slush-fund committee can only result in a general condemnation of such proceedings regardless of political affiliations.

The average citizen, whether republican or democrat or what not, is fair.

The average citizen does not indorse corruption in elections, whether primary or general.

This was evidenced, perhaps, as never before when, in the rock-ribbed republican state of Pennsylvania, the democratic candidate for the senate in the November general election polled a clear majority in the entire state with the exception of Philadelphia alone, the tremendous republican majority in that city, as announced officially after the count, serving to overcome the democratic lead in all the rest of the state.

This election followed the astounding evidences of primary corruption, including the expenditures of millions of dollars, in both the Vare and Pepper primary campaigns.

It merely demonstrated and emphasized that in spite of party alliances the average citizen believes in honest elections.

The democratic candidate, former Secretary of Labor Wilson, and his managers, claim that the Philadelphia primary count was fraudulent.

The senate committee, headed by Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, had taken definite steps to determine whether or not this charge could be sustained.

Thereupon the republican senator from Pennsylvania, Reed, instituted the disgraceful filibuster to end the life of the senate committee.

To any sensible person there is but one conclusion. He was determined to stop the investigation into the Philadelphia primary vote.

This filibuster was expensive, and lost to the nation some important and pressing legislation, including appropriations for many routine functions of government.

Following the adjournment of congress Senator Reed, of Missouri, the chairman announced that the committee would continue its work until the original appropriation of $65,000 to bear the expense was exhausted.

Any lawyer who understands special committee assignments will agree that such a committee, created without limitation as to its life, can continue its work until the appropriation for its maintenance has been exhausted. On that basis, and that alone, despite the pressing demand for completing the Pennsylvania investigations, the chairman announced a continuation of the hearings.

The latest development is now told of in Washington dispatches of Wednesday. Senator Keyes, republican of New Hampshire, chairman of the committee on audit, refuses to sign further warrants against the $65,000 expense fund, although a considerable balance remains.

Thus, automatically, the committee's official action is terminated, unless court proceedings intervene.

All of this illustrates the attitude of the republican leaders in obstructing a fair and impartial inquiry into republican election methods, and alleged frauds.

It can only serve one purpose, however differently the leaders may feel about it—

It will react as a political boomerang in 1928.

It must become a leading issue in that campaign, and it will help to defeat the party if the democrats in the meantime act with wisdom and coordination.

JAMES H. DOZIER.

The death at his home in Athens of James H. Dozier, state tax commissioner, will carry deep sorrow into the hearts of thousands of warm personal friends throughout the state. That he passed away almost at the identicial hour that the body of his father, Captain T. H. Dozier, who died Wednesday, was being interred, adds a touch of tragedy that makes his death all the more sorrowful.

"Jim" Dozier, an outstanding figure in Georgia politics, a close personal friend of Governor Walker, a tireless worker for the university and for the state's educational system in general, was one of the best and noblest men in the state. In all of his political battles, waged vigorously for friends only, as he never held elective office, his fairness and his integrity were never challenged. He was enterprising, forward-looking and progressive and he held friendship as a sacred trust.

In his death the state loses a faithful and efficient and worthy public servant.

President Coolidge has recommended the expenditure of $430,000 to have the upper and lower houses of congress ventilated. Evidently the next congress will be so efficient that it will not be aired by the press.

BITS OF NEW YORK LIFE

BY JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

New York, March 10.—In New York these days when you catch a headline glimpse of a prominent man's name you have to turn back to find out whether he's dead, gone to jail, founded a home or is being sued for alimony.

If they keep on using up prohibition "enforcement" directors in Manhattan at the present rate Wayne B. Wheeler will have to dip into the next generation in quest for candidates.

There have been nine of them since 1920. Charles R. O'Connor wielded the blotter from 1920 to 1921. He said: "Liquor is going."

Harold L. Hart succeeded Charlie in 1921. Quoth Harold: "Bootleggers are fleeing."

Then came E. C. Yellowley that same year. "We are gettin' them," he cried.

John F. Kramer was the next to drop into the swivel chair with a sigh of deep content. "The end is in sight," chirped John, which went both ways 'cause Brother Haynes—Roy A. Haynes—came next. "It is only the work of a few months," Roy assured newspapermen. The Worthy Brother kept a strangle hold on the job till 1925 when Ralph Day presented his credentials and lowered his form into the place that Roy had been warming so assiduously for him.

Nobody knows what happened to Ralph. "Bootleggers are gone," he assured New Yorkers one morning, and the following day he was gone

Then Palmer Canfield breezed along with the assurance that "the tide has turned."

Sure enough it had, and in turning, carried Palmer so far out that John A. Foster had to be called in to pinch hit.

"I am not prophesying," cuckooed Jawn.

He didn't have to prophesy. The bunch did it for him, which was just as well.

And now we have Brother Mills, who has cheered up the whole town by solemnly declaring that the Eighteenth amendment will never amount to "a hill of beans until love of the constitution in the average man's heart becomes greater than his thirst."

New York will hate to see Mr. Mills go. He's so darn interestin'.

A New York newspaper man mailed out a $25 money order to a creditor at Christmas time and got the envelope back the day after New Year's. The creditor had moved from his old abode without notifying the postoffice of his change of address.

The newspaper man thinks that perhaps his luck is changing.

Since Eighth avenue has been torn up by subway contractors, the thoroughfare has taken on the wild, weird look of a chorus girl just before she puts the make-up on.

Even the trolley cars that operate through the line of trenches have lost their old-time gloss and finish. They have taken on a dirty, dusty appearance that has communicated itself to the brain workers in the uniform who adorn the front and rear piazzas.

Observing that their motormen and conductors were beginning to wilt, and fearing the worst, the company, seeking to rehabilitate their morale, have posted signs on the car windows that read as follows:

"Not every man in New York can be a street car conductor or a motorman."

They go on from there to explain that only mental giants—men of super-intelligence are selected by the company for such work.

The signs are strangely silent, not to say peculiarly reticent about the question of—shall I say money?

But after all, why shatter an ideal by dragging in any such material consideration as filthy lucre?

Hang the expense! Bring on another herring!

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

The Value of Commercial Fertilizer

By Harvie Jordan, Greenville, S. C.

Editor Constitution: On the eve of planting another cotton crop, commercial fertilizer becomes one of the necessary supplies which farmers in the south Atlantic states must purchase to promote plant growth and fruitage. The natural plant foods of our soils have been largely exhausted by persistent methods of inefficient and improvident farming during the past sixty years.

There is greater need for economy in crop production today than ever before. The cost of production decreases in proportion to the acreage increase in yields of all crops and of cotton especially. As our farm lands now depend upon commercial fertilizers to largely furnish the needed elements of plant foods required by crops, their intelligent use is of prime importance. In buying commercial fertilizers farmers should be guided by the total available plant food contained in a ton, as plant food is what is needed. Fertilizers low in analysis of plant food availability, though cheaper in price, are much more costly in results than the more expensive goods of higher analysis.

The old method of using one sack mixed goods, or 200 pounds to the acre for cotton should be discarded as totally inadequate. A minimum of 500 pounds of a high grade complete fertilizer per acre at planting followed by a subsequent application of 100 pounds sulphate of ammonia or nitrate of soda fifty to sixty days after planting should be the guide for most farmers. It is more profitable to reduce the acreage per plow and fertilize well that which is planted to reduce the acreage per plow than to plant a larger acreage half fertilized and inefficiently worked.

This advice is not based upon guess work, but the results of years of actual practice in counties all over the south Atlantic states. Unproductive soils should not be planted in cotton, but gradually improved with crops of beans or peas. The present average cost of growing cotton is $40 per acre. Land that cannot be made to produce at least 400 pounds lint per acre by liberal fertilization and intensive culture will be unprofitable to the growers at present prices for the staple. Furthermore, it has been clearly demonstrated in field test that cotton requires more nitrogen and potash than is being used by a large majority of the growers. Nitrogen is needed to stimulate and promote quick growth, while phosphates and potash combine to develop and perfect the fruitage. A shortage in either of the three major elements of plant food will show unsatisfactory results in the crop at harvesting.

Restrict the acreage planted in cotton down to the ability to fertilize liberally, cultivate efficiently and produce a profitable yield of lint per acre. Plant the balance of the land in food and feed crops. This is a program for profit and a farm operated at a loss is a poor investment to either landlord or tenant. Recent reports from Texas indicate that there will be no reduction of the enormous acreage planted in cotton in the southwest.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN.

Babylon's Glory.

A cemetery nearly 5,000 years old, in which nearly every grave contains ornaments of gold and silver and richly colored stones, has been found at Ur, in Mesopotamia, the birthplace of Abraham. The report of the expedition states that the cemetery, which dates back to 3,000 B. C., was found near Nebuchadnezzar's sacred temple. The distinguishing feature of the graves was their wealth in precious metals. "Diadems and chains, rings and amulets in gold and silver are quite common," states the report, "and some of them are wonderful illustrations of the art of the early goldsmith. Particularly interesting to students of Semitic religion are the plaques, showing priests offering human sacrifices. It may have been this practice which caused Abraham to leave the country and start his nomadic wanderings.

* * * *

Mutinies In the War.

Mr. Churchill, writing in The London Times, writes on a subject, the French do not relish, that is the mutinies in their armies and the spirit of defeatism at home. He says: "The demoralization of the French army was proceeding apace. Want of confidence in their leader, cruel losses and an active defeatist propaganda had produced an intense spasm throughout its ranks. Mutinies, some of a very dangerous character, occurred in 16 separate army corps. Some of the finest troops were involved. Divisions elected councils. Whole regiments set out for Paris to demand a peace by negotiation, and more home leave. A Russian force of about 15,000 infantry had before the revolution been sent to be armed and equipped in France. These men were affected by the political developments in their own country. They had put it to the vote whether they should take part in the battle of April 16, and had decided by a majority to do so. They were used by the French in a ruthless manner, and nearly 6,000 survivors went into open revolt. One sentence in their manifesto reveals the propaganda of a master hand. "We have been told," so the complaint begins, "that we have been sent to France to pay for munitions sold to Russia." It was not until prolonged artillery fire had been employed against these troops that they were reduced to submission and disbanded. Over all a veil of secrecy was thrown so impenetrable that, though scores of thousands of Frenchmen were concerned, no whisper ever reached the enemy."

* * * *

Important Manifesto.

"Figaro," published across two columns in the most prominent place on its front page what is, in fact, an editorial manifesto supporting the "Action Francaise" in its conflict with Rome. The manifesto, which is much more respectfully worded than M. Daudet's articles in the "Action Francaise" and professes, no doubt sincerely, profound attachment to the Catholic church, nevertheless demands some limitation of the power of the pope to interfere in political matters in France. This is very significant, since it undoubtedly expresses the opinion of a large number of French Catholics. The manifesto begins by saying that recent events have given the French public the impression that the diplomatic representative of the highest spiritual authority "appeared to be encroaching on the legitimate autonomy of our national life." If the present situation continues it will lead to the "monstrous anomaly" that the church and the patrie will appear to be opposed to each other. The profound cause is the abolition of the concordat, which defined the frontier between the vatican and France and laid down the limits beyond which the power of the head of the church cannot go without wounding the national sentiment, adds the paper.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

ANSWERED BY

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman.

Stamford, Conn.

What is your opinion of the book, "The Conquest of Fear," by Basil King?

What do you think of Mr. King's conception of the Deity?

It cannot be denied that any book which obtains the circulation of the volume you name successfully appeals to the emotional centers in which fear resides. Promise men and women conquest over that fear "which has a thousand eyes to plague its beating heart," and their response is sure to be large and enthusiastic. Besides, Mr. King is a student of mental and moral facts which he closely relates to practical life and behavior. His conception of Deity in "The Conquest of Fear" corresponds with that given in his later volume: "Faith and Success." Its general import finds expression in the phrase: "God is the God of almighty good will."

The argument Mr. King presents may be summed up as follows: Link yourself with the encompassing powers of divine omnipotence and you will gain the end in view. It is not fatal to Mr. King's reasoning to say that it is unconvincing for many minds. The fact remains that it is helpful to even more, and also that its gist is a legitimate demand upon faith. In the words as Shakespeare: "Thinking makes it so" for Mr. King and his disciples.

***

Youngstown, Ohio.

What have been some of the blessings and also some of the detriments arising from the immigration which has flooded this country during the last fifty years?

What do you think has been the effect of this immigration upon the development of this country?

The rapid expansion of the nation, not only in its population and material enterprises but also in its cultural provisions, owes much to the immigration that has taken place since the civil war.

Many great works have been done by the last half century's immigrants in our basic industries and also in the financial and commercial realms. Science, art, literature, the drama and the religious world are deeply indebted to the men and women who have come here or to their children who have grown up here during the period you name.

Without its millions of foreignborn thinkers and toilers in every sphere of service, the United States could not have built its railroads, mined its minerals, cultivated its land, smelted and manufactured its steel products or carried out huge projects entailing technical and professional knowledge and unskilled as well as skilled labor.

In truth, the pace has been so fast that it bewilders many native-born Americans, not a few of whom inquire as you do about the moral and spiritual phases of this unparalleled development. These I believe to be a mixed quantity. Yet with all the drawbacks involved in crowding into our larger cities representatives of nearly every land on earth there is a broadening influence in their cosmopolitan contacts.

It is pertinent to ask what effect America has upon the immigrant as well as what effect the immigrant has upon America. A balanced view shows the gains I have named accompanied by some decided losses. The openly expressed contempt of many foreign-born citizens for the "narrow-souled, blue and bigoted Puritans," who nevertheless helped to establish our national life and freedom is neither correct nor courteous. Yet, since some native-born citizens are given to this vituperation, one does not wonder at it in the foreignborn.

The late Goldwin Smith declared that our growth has been too swift for our national morale. This view I do not accept in toto. But it has enough in it to give pause to some worshipers of bigness and to undiluted cosmopolitans.

The legal restrictions upon immigration are both timely and wise. Let us digest what we have before taking on more. However, if amalgamation is the final goal of human development the United States has made a historic record in that direction.

***

Mineola, L. I.

What is your opinion as to the literary value and philosophy of the works of James B. Cabell? I have in mind particularly his volumes entitled "Beyond Life" and "Straws and Prayer Books."

There can be no doubt about the literary value of Mr. Cabell's books He is a scholar and a thinker, and occupies the position to which significant imaginative work raises its creator.

So far as I can determine his philosophy it seems to consist in his own experience of life. He is in no sense a systematic metaphysician, but a keenly observant mind following the stream of tendency in ways reminiscent of Thomas Hardy. Sometimes his observations impress one as too detached from reality. But after reading "Beyond Life," I take it that the author believes in a world with an innate power of self-direction to which everything else has to be subservent.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Your Boy and Your Girl

BY ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.
The Parent Counsellor.

YOUTH'S CONTRIBUTION DAY.

Wow! The pen is mightier than the sword. "Twenty Summers" gave us a little exhibition of an intellectual Goliath slaying religious ideas and ideals, and here comes along a little sixteen-year-old miss (what's the feminine for David?) and slam bangs "Twenty Summers."

She writes "To the Boy of Twenty Summers":

"You begin your letter 'as a knight of old, etc.,' but you are not a knight because they didn't, or would not, impose upon two different religious denominations as you have done by going to a Catholic school and living at a Protestant home. Nor would a knight of old believe the stuff you wrote.

"Be a man! Come out from behind the bush. You go to a Catholic school on a free scholarship, a school that is religiously supported, and have the nerve to stay at the parsonage of a Protestant church. Shame on you! In the school you go through a form of worship; you go to your home and go through an altogether different form while all the time deep down in your heart you do not believe in either.

"Like you, I am not blaming 'Thinking Girl' for declining to accept the same facts concerning religion that our great-grandmothers as far back as 1609 believed in. Why should we? You cannot put the spectacles of old age on the bright eyes of youth. If more of the parents of today would look on life through the same glasses as the young folks what a glorious world this would be.

"My word of advice, 'Twenty Summers,' is to find out what religion comes the nearest to fitting in with your ideas and stick to and help support that one religion. Don't be a betwixter and betweener. Blow your nose and get the dust off your brain, for I cannot believe a boy with the education you say you have writes as you did. If you do believe this rot—well all I got to say for you is you are off where the second story begins. "SIXTEEN."

Wanted: A Balm.

I believe that any belief which gives solace to the human soul is sacred. "Twenty Summers" has no snow on his head. Perhaps after forty winters he may discover that faith, love and work lead in the permanent satisfactions of life.

Here's a letter from a member of the "illiterate mass" whom "Twenty Summers" slammed:

"Dear Dr. Dean:

"In my opinion 'Twenty Summers' is the type that talks a lot but says nothing. It isn't fair that he should take advantage of an education in a university of the church since he is an unbeliever. Perhaps he believes in that little axiom—'Everybody for himself' or words to that effect.

"He claims the nincompoops condemn 'Thinking Girl' for her beliefs, but does he not, in turn, condemn the nincompoops for their beliefs?

"We, the people, are of common clay—'The Illiterate Mass' as he so genially terms us, yet he throws at our heads the books of authors we have never heard of.

"Who can say whether the text of the Jews or that of the free thinkers—the philosophers that he speaks of is the right text to believe in? Are not these philosophers merely expressing their own beliefs on paper? Are they more learned than the Jews of old?

"We, the people, must have something to believe in, something to have faith in, something to look up to and we are happy in our beliefs, even as are the Jews, the Hindus, the Moslems, and the Chinese who are happy in theirs. A man without faith is egotistical, dissatisfied, unhappy; he is searching for something, he knows not what. And without a faith he will never find it.

"I am neither championing one cause nor condemning the other I am of common clay—illiterate—therefore incapable, you would say, of thinking. I am not a church-goer, my beliefs were taught me by my mother and they are embodied in the following verse:

"There is a little Chinese rule
Taught in every Chinese school
Speak no evil, hear no evil,
See no evil, and you will always be happy.

"Is not happiness the secret of life? "INTERESTED."

Now, bleacherites, are we proving Doctor Dean's point that we young people have ideas and that all of our thoughts are not on petting, speeding, loafing and fooling?

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER.
Fifteen Doses To Cure.

I do not want to grow up an old maid, I want to be a true wife and mother. Should I spend more time cultivating friends and let my school studies go, because the two do not mix? How can I get over being self-conscious?
HIGH SCHOOL GIRL.

Answer—Where do you get that idea that studies and friends do not mix? Choose among your companions those who do study, for a girl who is recommended as you say you are for the national honor society will never be happy cultivating wild friends.

Cure self-consciousness and discouragement by taking fifteen doses of the "Morning Beam." Directions for making this will be found in the enclosed leaflet

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY.

BETTER NOW THAN MAYBE.

Communication from a reader—and incidentally, readers suggest many subjects for discussion here—

Dear Dr. Brady:

Will you kindly send me a list of good books on prenatal care and the care of a baby in the first year?

I have been disturbed by the insistence of relatives that my husband and I are too young to have children. My mother says that parents of mature age have brighter children than young parents do. She cites George Washington, Ben Franklin and other notables as examples, and brings the illustration closer home with case of my brother and sister-in-law who married late and certainly have one of the brigthest boys I have ever known.

I studied heredity in college, and I cannot see any scientific basis for such an idea. However, my knowledge is superficial, and I have had examples pointed out to me by the score.

I am 22 and my husband is 24. We are both university graduates and both almost vulgarly healthy. He was distinguished in athletics during his undergraduate days, and I wear a Phi Beta Kappa key. We were married last June, and having now $1,000 saved up and our furniture all paid for, we want to have a baby. We'd rather have a baby than a car or a trip to Europe, and we cherish hopes that we may produce an all-American quarterback, a channel swimmer or a Rhodes scholar. Please reassure me on this point if you can.

Yours very truly,
....

Sure, Mike, I can.

Take my advice and go ahead and have your babies now while the having is good. When you reach a mature age, say 35 or 40, you may learn to your dismay that there ain't gonna be no babies for your house. A lot of foolish young people are headed for just such a modern tragedy.

Send five cents to the superintendent of documents, government printing office, Washington, D. C., and ask for "Prenatal Care," a pamphlet issued by the children's bureau of the labor department. The best book I know is Dr. J. M. Slemons' "The Prospective Mother," published by D. Appleton & Co., New York city, at about two berries, if I recollect. For the care of the baby in the first year I advise you to follow Dr. Frank H. Richardson's "Simplifying Motherhood," published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York city, at $1.75.

One, Casper Redfield, wrote an interesting book in which the theory that older parents bear the brighter children is very ably set forth, with many citations of great people who were born when their parents were rather old. Redfield manages to find a good many families where the first born are not so bright and the last or later child or children are conspicuous for their intellectual attainments. There is probably some sense in this theory. We are generally more experienced and wiser at 50 than we were at 20, and it is reasonable to assume that a child born of a well-educated parent will have a mentality like the parent's, though I think that if there really is any such advantage it is more than offset by other circumstances.

A normal woman is at her best physically at 30. Many women are as well developed in every sense at 21 as they are going to be. Many women are physically perfect, or as nearly perfect as a woman should be, up to and beyond 40. Some women are quite as fit for motherhood at 42 or 44 as a woman should be.

But if you take my advice you will go ahead and have your children now. Better to have just ordinary children, such as most of us have, now, than wait a number of years to have them, maybe.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Prevention and Treatment.

I read in your column how to prevent goiter but you did not state if there is any treatment to check it or prevent the growth from getting unsightly. I am interested in a case . . . (C. R. A.)

Answer.—I told about the prevention of goiter, but I advised anyone who has a goiter to submit the matter to his or her physician and not trifle with it.

Paint Up and Brighten the World.

Is it injurious to an expectant mother or to the child if the mother does painting and varnishing or is in the house where this kind of work is being done? (W. B. R.)

Answer.—Not more so than it is for anyone else.

Bovine Tuberculosis.

Do you think tuberculosis in cows can be transferred to human beings? (J. F. S.)

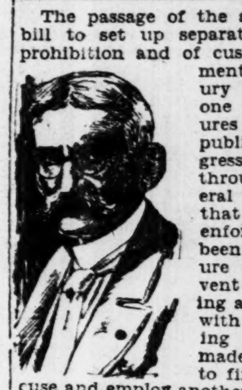
Answer.—There can be no doubt of it. Perhaps one out of every four cases of lymphatic ("glandular") and bone tuberculosis in children is bovine tuberculosis, the infection being acquired by drinking milk from tuberculous cows. Pasteurization kills tubercle bacilli in market milk. Tuberculin testing of the herd, and constant medical supervision of the dairy, keeps this and other disease germs out of certified milk. If you are in doubt about the purity of milk, boil it five minutes before preparing food for the baby. If you feed the baby mainly with pasteurized or boiled milk you must be sure to supply the baby with the necessary daily ration of fresh fruit or vegetable juice, in order to restore the vitamin which prevents scurvy and which is destroyed by pasteurizing or boiling.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL

The New Prohibition Law Will Be a Most Disappointing Dud.



The passage of the administration bill to set up separate bureaus of prohibition and of customs enforcement in the treasury department is one of the measures that the republicans in congress had to push through. The general public verdict that prohibition enforcement has been a dismal failure since the advent of the Harding administration, with Mellon heading the treasury, made it imperative to find a good excuse and employ another wide gesture. The dry people "back home" demanded something better and General Andrews was called upon to construct the tub to be thrown to the whale. He invented the scheme embodied in the new act and called upon the prohibition elements to get behind it and put it over. They did, and it is over!

But it is going to be a bitter disappointment to the drys of the country.

The demand for it was based on the desire to make the enforcement of the Volstead law independent and keep the hands and power of Secretary Mellon out of the job; but the new act does not do anything of the sort. Rather, it puts the control of government prohibition enforcement activities more absolutely in the power of Mellon than ever heretofore. It is a perfect boomerang to the people who demanded an "independent prohibition unit."

* * * *

The Civil Service Clap-Trap.

A big argument made for the bill was that it would put the prohibition constabulary—the minor enforcement employees—under civil service, and that would rob the politicians, congressional and state, of influencing their appointments. That desideratum was fine—to listen to. But if congress and so large a majority of the states are as radically for prohibition as has been claimed, why did they not demand all along that only honest and competent officials should be employed to enforce Volsteadism? The service has been notoriously packed with crooks and incompetents. General Andrews had to confess as much in testimony to congress why he has secured no better enforcement results.

Many people want to know how, under the regulations and open competitions of the civil service, the country is to be guaranteed a prohibition police made up of only impeccable scholars who can successfully answer where to find Cape Sable and the Belearic Isles?

There are accomplished bootleggers and rum-runners, now temporarily recreating in the Atlanta federal penitentiary, who could produce civil service examination papers that would rank them first in any class. And when a crook runs the gauntlet and gets on the rolls, under civil service protection, how is he to be eliminated until he is caught foul in his crimes? Civil service rules are wholly out of place in making up the right sort of force to enforce criminal laws.

* * * *

The Act Is a Parachute.

This new act is nothing more than a cleverly-constructed parachute to let the republican administration down easily and safely to solid earth. More has been expected from them by their prohibition constituents than they could perform. Reproachful sentiment against Mellon and Andrews was piling up on the office table of President Coolidge. Something had to be done that would switch away a gathering storm. The obvious device was to proclaim that the mechanism of the service is faulty and needing readjustment—again! The former readjustment by General Andrews had not satisfied. So this new scheme is forced through and will give the administration another year or two in which to revamp its methods. It is to laugh!

Has not General Andrews, with the approval of the president and the secretary of the treasury, informed the country positively that the federal forces can do no more than try to bring up sources of liquor supplies and prosecute "higher up" conspirators to violate the Volstead act?

Has he not notified the authorities of all the states that the catching and convicting of peripatetic bootleggers, highway rum-runners and speakeasies, must be looked after by state and municipal law enforcement officers?

Has he not brought the country back virtually, except as to open saloons, to the prohibition conditions of state and local option that prevailed before the ratification of the 18th amendment?

If not, then what has he done?

* * * *

An Anomalous Attitude.

The clean character and sincerity of General Andrews are above question. The explanation of why he continues to undertake enforcement of the Volstead act in any of its requisitions is that it is the duty of the government to do the best it can to that end. Because he is loyal to the administration and faithful to his commission, he has done and is doing the best he can with the job.

But he is honest enough to openly confess that what he has accomplished is not satisfactory. Hence he has been willing to propose these latest measures. When, however, they fail, as they will, to satisfy the country, what will be left to him to do but say to the people that their law is unworkable and their relief must come to them through some other system?

The belief is growing throughout the country, and is very strongly warranted, that the Washington administration does not believe that the Volstead law can be enforced to any satisfying extent with the resources at government command.

That is not to say that President Coolidge and his auxiliaries do not wish to enforce it. He and most of them would be greatly relieved, and officially rejoiced, if the law could be made to work like a perfectly adjusted Waltham watch. But they know that it will never work that way. So they will continue to operate with it, in spite of missing cylinders, dead spark plugs and unmeshing gears, and camouflage their failures by calling for additional new laws by congress "to reenforce enforcement!"

* * * *

Back to State Prohibition.

The action of the senate democratic caucus on Saturday evidences the way that public opinion regarding prohibition is setting. The democratic senators were almost unanimous in agreement that the prohibition problem is not a partisan one; that the popular sentiment in the states is diverse on the subject; and that the people in each state should be free to express their feeling upon the matter, either in congress or in national conventions, without regard for party politics.

Such action foreshadows the attitude toward prohibition that will be taken by both major parties, in all probability, next year. The sane and safe leaders of neither party have any desire to make it a national issue between them in the presidential campaign.

When, in 1880, General Hancock, democratic nominee for president, said "the tariff is a local issue," he was hooted at generally and the protectionists of the country beat him to a fare-you-well! But, the tariff is a local issue just the same, for democrats vote for high protective duties and republicans often kick like western steers at some of them.

Prohibition is swinging back to the local issue status and future congresses will reflect the major sentiments of the congressional districts and states. The policy regarding it will be at the will of the people "back home."

If the majority wish to continue the experiment of nationwide prohibition, congress and the administrations will continue to tinker the law and try to work it; but some day the common sense of the people will demand a law that can be worked.

Time and Tide

BY JOHN HUBERT GREUSEL

DON'T BE TOO CONCEITED.

The young girl reads love stories; the young man tales of adventure; the citizen, politics; the business man trade reports; here and there, a scattered few to history, biography.

But suppose for the next year or two you turn your mind to a few good books, showing man's real place in the universe?

The study of the atom, beyond the vision of the most powerful super-microscope, introduces you to a mysterious physical battle vitalized by dynamic electrons darting about at the inconceivable speed of 250,000 miles a second.

Next, read books on the wonders of millions of organic cell-forms, of which your body is builded.

Finally, astronomy. You will find, for example, that the prodigious storm-cloud in the southern heavens known as Magellanic cluster or Milky Way, has a diameter of 91,554,400,000,000,000 miles, distant from our earth 670,665,500,000,000,000 miles.

In comparison, man and his "little world" sink into an obscurity that is bottomless. Man, a mere speck in the order of nature, lives on a third-rate ball of mud, originally composed of stardust thrown off the sun. After millions of years, earth is still molten hot at the core, belching sulphur and hot ashes through pipes in the earth. Round about us, 60,000,000 other globes hold mysterious courses in outer space; 2,000 or more nebula of star-mist whirl in spirals to fashion new worlds; 100,000,000 dead stars whose light is gone, roll through the vast celestial uncharted seas.

What means all this to man? True wisdom and humility.

Read good books on these important subjects.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Down in Dixie.

My heart is down in Dixie,
Where lovely women grow,
Where courtesy and honor
The gentlemen all know;
Where love will reign supremely,
In happy, loving hearts,
And tenderness and pleasure,
Such love, to man, imparts.

O, take me down to Dixie,
The land I love so well,
Where there is more to please me
Than I can ever tell.
Where sunshine and sweet flowers
Will fill me with delight,
And where the hearts are warming,
As eyes reveal love-light.
—Martha Shepard Lippincott.

Farmer Needs Most Fair Prices for What He Produces

Editor Constitution: The farmer knows his trouble. He is not getting a living price for what he produces. There is too much spread between the price he gets and the price the consumer pays for his products. Sweet potatoes bring 1 1-2 cents per pound f. o. b. Atlanta. Atlanta people are paying 4 to 6 cents for these same potatoes.

It is said the farmer needs loans. Merciful heavens. He owes more now than he can ever pay. It is said that 90 per cent of the farms in some counties are under mortgage. He needs money, yes, but not borrowed money. Give him a market for his stuff at a living price and he will take care of himself. The biggest crops of everything was made last year. Seeming prosperity, and yet I have not seen a new wagon on the farm, bought with its proceeds, in five years. Houses are unpainted, roofs rotten and general signs of pinched circumstances.

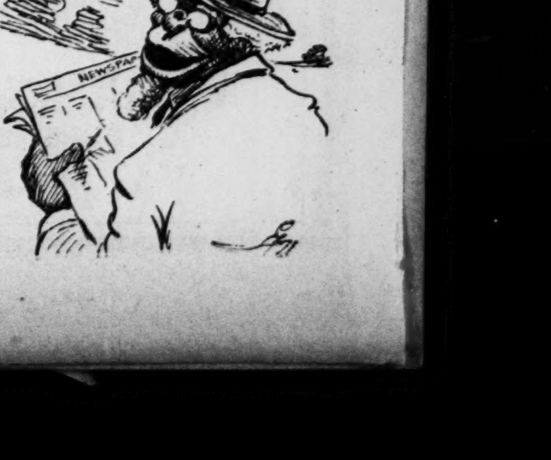
You may call me a kicker. You won't print this. But it is bald facts. We are up against a big proposition.

As I said before, if the farmer can get a living price for his stuff he will take care of himself.

O. L. COWAN.
Doraville, Ga., March 10, 1927.

OLD SI SAYS:

BY SAM W. SMALL.



SO FUR EZ I KIN SEE YIT DE GEN'RUL INTRUSTS OB DE NASHUN AINT SUFFER'D NONE FUM DE SOO-ICIDES OB A FEW FOOL STUJENTS WHUT HAD YALLER STREAKS DOWN DERE BACKBONES!
NEWSPAPER

The Marriage Problem

BY JESSE LYNCH WILLIAMS

Author of "Why Marry?" and "The Married Life of Frederick Carrolls"

Marriage Will Increase, Not Diminish, and Will Be of Two Kinds—A Family Marriage and a Mating Marriage—We Shall Have to Restrict Voluntary Parenthood and Establish Competitive Parenthood

There are radicals who say, and even believe, that in the future there will be no such nonsense as marriage at all. There are conservatives who say, and try to believe, that in the future there will be no change in marriage whatever.

Both, of course, are wrong. They are merely voicing their preferences. That is all most of us use our minds for, anyhow—as mere accomplices to our prejudices and desires. So long as we have not only the mating instinct but the gregarious instinct, we shall have to have an organized society. And so long as we have an organized society we shall have to have some rules and regulations for the control of mating.

So marriage we shall always have with us. In fact, in the future, in my opinion, there will be more marrying than ever; and, instead of no marriage at all, there will probably be at least two different kinds.

I will touch on that again. But first, before we look into the future, we must take a glance at the past in order to understand the present. There is already today a tremendous change taking place in marriage right under our very eyes, though some of us are not aware of it, because, as yet, this change has not been incorporated in the rules and regulations of the game.

In fact, there are two enormous changes which really reach the dimensions of a revolution in our ideas and in our practice of our most ancient and most important institution.

Sex has always been a bit of a puzzle to civilization, a problem which it has never satisfactorily solved, and probably never will. In the early stages of our Christian culture the church fathers did not think much of sex, or, rather, they thought a great deal about it; but they thought badly of it. They regarded it as an evil to be avoided or overcome. If that proved impossible, then the offices of the church might be called into compromise with this inherent defect in human nature.

Even to this day, in the introduction to the marriage service in the English prayerbook there is an apologetic reference to the thing, stating that marriage has been instituted for those who have not the gift of continence, and for the purpose of having children.

It is along the line of those two ideas that the present-day revolution is taking place, and it is along those two lines that I base my prediction for the two kinds of marriage that will be evolved by the future.

We no longer regard the love of man and woman as an unfortunate weakness. Just as a plain, unromantic matter of scientific fact, we know that love begets the highest aspirations of which human nature is capable. We now regard the divine spark of life which glorifies and perpetuates it as the one eternal thing we share with God.

The old view of the matter is now considered not only unworthy, but as a kind of blasphemy against the Creator, who knew what He was doing when He made these arrangements for life and the continuance of it.

This higher, healthier and nobler conception of sex love has come to stay, and is now shared by nearly all enlightened people, even by the church itself.

In fact, in modern times the reactionary view of love as something purely, or impurely, physical is seldom proclaimed, except by reactionary young writers, who, strangely enough, consider themselves advanced.

The other and still more notable revolution which is taking place in modern marriage, and will be a tremendous factor in determining the new marriage forms of the future, is due to what is called birth control or voluntary parenthood.

This matter is still in a controversial stage. The moral issue involved does not concern our predictions as to the future of marriage.

We have, then these two enormously significant changes operating today upon which to base a guess or two as to the immediate future of marriage. Let us see how it will work out.

Of course, there are ever so many subsidiary ideas and changes in the evolution of society which will also influence the change in marriage — the status of women, for example; her new freedom and her increasing economic independence.

But, with or without these and other evolutionary changes which have not yet come to birth, I see in the future two kinds of marriages — a family marriage and a mere mating marriage.

We have these two kinds with us already, but the distinction is not recognized by our laws, customs or ideals. Childless marriages have not been prevalent enough to require a specialized classification and rules and regulations of their own. "Law," Woodrow Wilson used to tell us, "is the established habit of the community."

In the future there will be a sufficient number of childless marriages to be regarded as the established habit of such a large class that special laws will be required for them.

Let us see what will happen. As matters are arranged today, youth is the time for love, but not for marriage. All of the forces of nature say "Come!" All of the forces of civilization say, "But you mustn't!"

In the high tide of youth comes the natural mating time, and it is the actual mating time in all forms of life except the highest. Among professional men, for example, the average marrying age is nearer 40 than 20.

The evils and misfortunes of this state of affairs need no expansion; they suggest themselves. Besides, we see them all about us. In the future I see young people marrying at the natural age. Many of them have begun to do so already, as they used to do when life was simpler and our population was largely rural.

Now the corollary to early mating is undoubtedly a considerable amount of mismating, and, therefore, remating. That will be unfortunate but inevitable. Easier marriage must mean easier divorce. Regrettable but true.

But I am not here concerned with what we want to happen, but what will happen. And this is what I frankly believe will happen; but it will doubtless be regarded as the lesser of two evils in the future.

And the true object and function of marriage will be something higher and better than merely staying married.

As for the family marriage, there will always be plenty of couples who desire children. Pessimists need never fear in regard to that.

In fact, the time will come when we shall even have to restrict voluntary parenthood and establish competitive parenthood.

I mean that the most important work in the world, namely, continuing the race, will not be intrusted to mere luck, as at present, with the result that the unfittest replenish the earth.

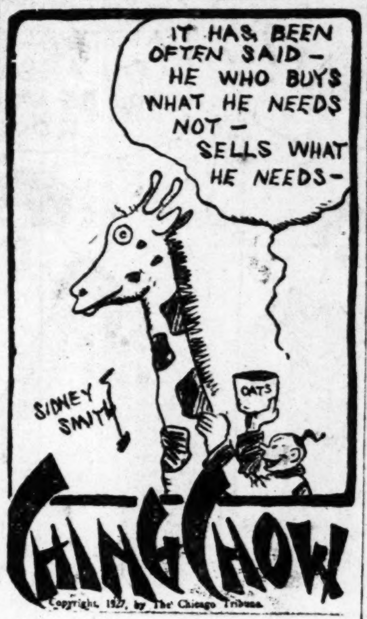
Parenthood will be regarded as such an important privilege that it will be limited to a few, and they the fittest.

And that does not mean merely the physically fittest, but also the mentally and temperamentally most fit.

In short, we shall have an aristocracy of parenthood, and it will be the greatest aristocracy and the only sound one the world has ever known.

Tomorrow—Alice M. Williamson.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)



IT HAS BEEN OFTEN SAID – HE WHO BUYS WHAT HE NEEDS NOT – SELLS WHAT HE NEEDS –
OATS
SIDNEY SMITH
CHING CHOW
Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune.

ATLANTA YOUTH DIES ON NAVAL HOSPITAL SHIP

News of the death of G. F. J. Bernard, 25, who died early Sunday morning on board a hospital relief ship just off the Panama canal zone, has been received here by his mother, Mrs. Rose Bernard, of 211 East Hunter street.

Mr. Bernard has been a member of the United States navy for the past eight years and has been stationed on the U. S. S. Carilfornia for the past several years. He became ill about two weeks ago and was immediately transferred to a hospital ship and was en route to a government hospital at the time of his death.

The body will be brought to Atlanta for funeral services and interment. Arrangements will be announced later by T. C. Bazemore, funeral directors, in charge.

In addition to his mother, Mr. Bernard is survived by a sister, Mrs. James Gibson and three brothers, G. J., E. G. and A. C. Bernard, of Newport, R. I.

COUNTY OFFICER SENT FOR JACK SPRATLIN

M. E. Malone, Jones county policeman, passed through Atlanta Thursday en route to Chicago, Ill., to return Jack Spratlin, escaped convict, to the Jones county chaingang. Officer Malone was given extradition papers for Spratlin at the office of Governor Walker.

Spratlin stated that he will waive extradition proceedings, but Officer Malone has been given the papers in the event the escaped convict changes his mind, it was announced at the office of the state prison commission.

ATLANTA SEEKS METHODIST MEET

Shreveport, March 10.—(AP)—America can play a prominent part in the promotion of peace and good-will between other nations in spite of the fact that her new rich swagger makes her the jest of nations, Dr. J. E. McAfee told the Woman's Missionary council of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, here tonight.

The wealth, the native good-will and the religious passion of the American people enable them to aid in welding the human race into a brotherhood of love and hope, Dr. McAfee said. Dr. McAfee is director of the social service department of the Community church, of New York.

"Ten years ago we were hard at work on our job and were the best loved and most admired people on earth," he said. "Today we are the most hated and despised. Our greed for dividends has brought us the hatred of mankind. We shall be collecting war debts for at least two generations.

"Already we are calling in dividends from our investments in foreign securities which mount to tens of billions and are rapidly pyramiding. These 'profits' we have originally bled from our own industries. Under this policy our civilization is bleeding. It will bleed us to an early death unless we devise means of stopping this effusion of the life blood."

We must learn a new diplomacy, he said, the nature and proper uses of charity, the nature and proper uses of religion.

Nashville, Tenn., and Atlanta, Ga., are bidding for the next meeting; Atlanta on the ground that the 1928 meeting will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the council in Atlanta and the meeting should be held there to commemorate the founding of the movement.

W. O. LEWIS VISITS SEARS-ROEBUCK PLANT

W. O. Lewis, of Chicago, treasurer of Sears-Roebuck company, is in Atlanta on business connected with the local plant of the company.

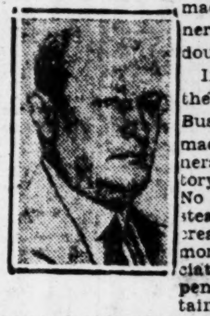
Mr. Lewis was entertained Thursday night with an informal dinner party by Atlanta friends.

Milton C. Work's Pointer On How To Play Bridge

(Milton C. Work, the international bridge authority, will answer your auction bridge questions. A stamped self-addressed envelope must accompany each request for replies.)

The pointer for today is:

A business pass shows great strength, and a subsequent double made by the partner is a business double.



In these days the number of Business Passes made by the partners of informatory doubles of one No Trump, is steadily on the increase. More and more is it appreciated that heavy penalties are obtainable by passing a double of one No Trump with strength, when facing a dependable doubler. The Business Pass transforms an informatory double into a business double. Such a pass (of a double of one No Trump) should never be made without at least three, and better still four, high cards divided between two suits at least.

When the Business Pass is made and the No Trumper, sandwiched between two strong adversaries and with a partner who can be of little or no assistance, attempts to rescue himself from his awkward situation by bidding a suit, a repeated double by the original doubler is business, in spite of the fact that his partner has not bid or doubled. The Business Pass is par excellence a strength-shower and any double is business when made by the partner of a player who has made a Business Pass.

For example: South one No Trump, West double, North Pass, East pass (the Business Pass), South two Diamonds, West double. The first double by West was informatory, but the second was distinctly business and indicated that West was prepared to set South's Diamonds severely. South probably has jumped from the frying pan into the fire, and for East to treat West's second double as informatory and take it out would be most unfortunte—for East and West, but sweetly welcome to North and South.

I once saw a case in which a Dealer (South), with:

Sp: A-x-x. Ht: A-x-x. Di: A-J-x-x-x. Cl: x-x bid one No Trump. After West's informatory double had been businessed-passed (if I may coin a new term) by West, South tried to escape via the two-Diamond route. West doubled a second time and the result was 430 for the double, which East properly read as business.

LONG HIKE PLANNED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The Atlanta Tramp and Trail club, under directions of Mrs. Elizabeth L. Reamer, director of health education for the Atlanta Y. W. C. A., will conduct a hike Sunday afternoon to Camp Highland, the summer camp maintained by the association.

The group will meet at the Walton street car terminal in time for the 3 o'clock Marietta car, and the hike will be from the Oakdale station to the camp, a distance of two and one-half miles over a dirt road. Supper will be cooked at the camp. The club committee will furnish bacon, coffee and marshmallows, and each hiker is asked to bring the rest of the supper. The party will return about 7 o'clock.

Diamonds of the Finest Quality —for engagement rings.

Our experts carefully grade and weigh every diamond as it comes to us from the largest diamond merchants in the world. When purchasing a diamond here you have our guarantee as to its quality, weight and value.

Here you will find diamonds of the finest quality obtainable, appropriate for engagement rings. Wide price range.

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.
31 Whitehall St. Established 39 Years

No More Piles

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID.

This Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting, he discovered the cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Every pile sufferer should benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay, Jacobs Drug Stores and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today.—(adv.)

140 SHOPS AND DISPLAY ROOMS IN THE PEACHTREE ARCADE

as opposed to 95 separate shops on Peachtree Street from Viaduct to Ellis Street.

Garage, Postoffice, Rest Room, Information Desk and every modern service under this roof. Normal changes provide an occasional vacancy.

Locate in Atlanta's Completest Business Building

FOUR ROUND TRIPS DAILY

You'll like the convenience of the Peach Belt Line service but better still, you'll thoroughly enjoy riding in the big safety coaches, on the air cushioned leather chairs. Make your next trip via Peach Belt bus!

PEACH BELT LINES
Motor Coach Service
Atlanta-Griffin-Macon

Atlanta Terminal
148 Peachtree Street
Phone WAlnut 6300

Selling Out ENTIRE STOCK OF
McDONALD-STRIBLING
1 Block From Five Points PRYOR AT DECATUR ST.

YOU CAN'T JUDGE A MAN BY HIS WALK OR TALK---IT'S THE CLOTHES THAT TELL THE STORY

SELLING OUT! CLOSING OUT! GETTING OUT!

"Come on, Atlanta," was our call, and thousands have answered! They came, they saw, and were overwhelmed by the most amazing clothing values ever offered in Atlanta. Here is your opportunity. Come now, before it's too late. Come while you can take your choice of merchandise where your dollar buys double.

Men and Young Men's
93 SUITS 93
Never prices like this before. Here are suits in every way identical with $25 and $30 values you purchase in high-class clothing stores. There are many styles and many patterns. Buy two or more of these suits at this amazingly low price $7.65

WORK SHIRTS "Uncle Sam" brand. Regular $1 seller, guaranteed perfect, all sizes, each 79c

One Special Lot Men's 163 Prs. PANTS 163 Prs.
Regular $6 value, SPECIAL $1.89
Speaking of trouser values, when it comes to values these certainly will appeal to you. Strictly all-wool and well tailored from high-grade woolens. Entire stock of pants has been divided into four separate and distinct groups as follows:
$5.00 Pants, $2.65 $7.50 Pants, $4.65
$6.00 Pants, $3.65 $9.00 Pants, $6.95

BOYS' LONGIES New Spring Goods, every desirable shade, grays, tans, blues, fawns, browns. Sizes from 6 to 17. Regular $3 sellers; pair $1.85

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS
Hundreds of men, with economy in mind, flocked here last week to take advantage of these wonderful savings. We have added to this lot another hundred better suits, in order to take care of those who did not have the opportunity to profit. Every suit perfect in style and workmanship, new patterns and shades. Suits worth regularly $30 to $40.
$19.65

CAPS
Over 500 men's regular $2 and $3 Caps, full of snap, style and color. Your choice—
95c

"DUCKHEAD" OVERALLS
This reliable Union Made, 220 weight overall, special at—
$1.39 Pr.
ALL SIZES
We are exclusive "Duckhead" distributors for Atlanta.

IDE SHIRTS
Men, what a treat. 190 dozen, brand new, clean, Spring merchandise, to be offered at less than actual wholesale cost. Quality shirts made by America's foremost shirt manufacturers, with every label bearing the name of Geo. P. Ide & Co. In this lot you will find shirts of every type and description, collars attached, neckbands, and shirts with stiff collars to match. Broadcloths, pongees, madras and fine count percales, every pattern desirable to the utmost. This unusual offer has been divided into two groups as follows:
Group No. 1—Shirts ranging in selling prices $2.50 to $3.00
$1.35
Group No. 2—Shirts ranging in selling prices $3.50 to $5.00
$1.85
Don't pass up this wonderful opportunity. Come prepared to see the finest assortment of shirts that has ever been offered the buying public of Atlanta. Come early, buy several. You'll profit by it.

Athletic Union Suits
Summer weight. The kind that fit. All sizes. Values to $1.50, choice .... 69c Suit

MUNSINGWEAR AND COOPER'S
UNION SUITS
Spring needle winter weight. Regular $2.50 and $3 suits; sell-out price $1.65

PHILLIPS-JONES
PAJAMAS
This well known, standard brand of men's PAJAMAS to be sold at prices never yet offered to men of Atlanta. 38 dozen pajamas of every description, regular style with or without collars, also the pullover middy style. Fancy patterns as well as solid colors. All sizes. Regular $2 and $2.25 values to go at $1.35
Regular $2.50 to $4.00 values to go at $1.65

$1 Ties
New Patterns
Choice
59c

MEN'S QUALITY
HATS
A real opportunity to buy a real bargain. We are cutting the heart out of the prices of men's HATS. All new snappy merchandise, every wanted color and style. Shapes to suit the taste of every age. Finest quality merchandise to be sold at prices far less than the cost of replacement. A tremendous stock to select from, containing every size from 6¾ to 7½. A mighty attempt to clear out every man's felt hat in the house in short time. Men, your choice of hats ranging in price from $5 to $8 .... $2.65

SHOES
They came by the hundreds, and hundreds left satisfied. There are plenty left. Shoes for MEN, WOMEN, and CHILDREN, priced without regard to former cost or selling price. Every pair new and full of style, featuring the Quality lines of the HAMILTON BROWN SHOE CO. and the CRADDOCK TERRY SHOE CO. Don't hesitate but come now while you can still pick from the cream of the stock.
$6.00 Shoes $3.85
$7.50 Shoes $4.85
$9 and $10 Shoes $5.85

BOYS' SUITS With two pairs long pants and vest. Spring patterns in fine woolens. Single and double-breasted models. Sizes from 8 to 17. Values to $15 .... $7.95

Blue Serge Suits
They're the "Talk of the Town." The quality, style and workmanship of these serges are not to be found elsewhere for less than $40. Hand-tailored garments, especially trimmed, and built for the wear you always expect of a real serge. Mr. Value Hunter, buy now, while sizes are complete. They can't last long at the ridiculously low price of—
$21.65

Topcoats 58 Fine Topcoats left. Combine all that is desired in the way of style, snap and quality. A wonderful opportunity. Values to $25, choice $11.65

Tropical Worsteds
Men of wisdom will look ahead just a bit. Tropicals like those we offer can't just be picked up any old time. Brand new Spring merchandise bought to sell this season for $30. Beautiful weaves, correct styles and perfect tailoring. These suits made by the best Tropical Clothing House in America, and offered by us to you at the unheard of figure of—$17.65

PRYOR AT DECATUR STREET
One Block From Five Points

Silk Stripe Pongette UNION SUITS.... 95c
PARIS GARTERS........ 18c
PRESIDENT SUSPENDERS.... 33c
INTERWOVEN SOX SACRIFICED

Starring Dulcie Jayne

By Virginia Tracy.

INSTALLMENT XLI.

CONFIDENCES.

It was the Marsh ladies' first experience of rolling through electric starred and thronging darkness, between traffic block and traffic whistle, in the tooting, gliding, creeping, waiting, racing of a motor's progress theaterwards through the streets of New York at shortly past 8 o'clock in the evening. For long afterwards all Cornelia's impression of it was filled with the small, rumbling thunder of Dulcie's voice and the sensation of Dulcie's little fist on her knee, pressing down passionate emphasis. But she could never quite remember whether it was in the limousine or in their box, between the acts, that this martyrdom turned into a story of rebellion.

She liked to recall distinctly that moment of their arrival at the theater when a man in uniform opened the door of the car and, like goddesses, they descended. The storm was dying and there were some brilliant toilettes in the crowd—though few with finer hand embroidery than Cornelia's! She saw Mrs. Marsh sniff with pleasure the air of rolling equipages, of function, of privilege. The hasty coming forward of the house manager with the box seats, the terrific impressiveness with which the ladies were given in charge of an usher who drew their chairs with an air of prostrating himself beneath them were all, Cornelia saw, acceptable and seemly; Mrs. Marsh breathed them in like a pleasant odor. It was an almost tremulous delight to watch her adjust her gloves, glasses, opera glasses, savor the perusal of her program to the sounds of the orchestra, and gaze with delicate relish about the house, once more smiling down upon the audience; sparkling at last, so brightly yet so composedly; at home.

But to Cornelia herself, there with the play spread bright before her, much of it chattered as idly as an aviary. Doubtless a rich form of entertainment, the drama; but it could scarcely expect to compete with the richness of Cornelia's own life! The middle aged maiden lady, office broke, watched the composite head of the audience, its whisper and its opera glass turned where Dulcie sat, a trifle self-conscious until she grew absorbed in the acting, a trifle restive, as if she were a captive princess, gracing some alien triumph; Cornelia noted the actors hanging out various signs of awareness, bloomingly friendly or elaborately indifferent. But none of these people were on the inside, like Cornelia! None of them were having poured into their ears those confidences which Dulcie would begin the instant the curtain struck the stage and which, even while the curtain was up, went on and on in Cornelia's mind until at last they all flowed together into a single stream of light, illuminating the whole past year.

"It was 'Heart of Fire' really woke us up. We realized the minute we read it that it was my stuff. And then what we realized, as soon as we began talking about the way to do it, was that at Hertzog's we could never do it right. It'd be just like putting it down the sewer! And if I failed in such a story as that I'd be worse off with the public than ever. So Henry refused it, hoping to heaven nobody would take it before we got my contract broken. And we began getting in all the most expensive lawyers to see couldn't they break it. So, thinking we had hopes, we started going over all the big companies, looking for one where we could do 'Heart of Fire' right. There wasn't one, Miss Marsh, not the best of 'em would give us a perfect free hand. So it was then we said: 'We got to form our own company!'

"'Tisn't the producer's fault. Dan'd tell you how, ten or twelve years ago, when pictures made their biggest strike to be as good as ever their producers could make 'em, the highbrows all stayed at home sneering at what they thought must be bad, and the lowbrows all stayed home complaining at what was good, so the best pictures starved to death and scared the exhibitors stiff. They're scared to be anything but corpses yet. Not one of 'em but sees the money in 'Heart of Fire,' and not the best of 'em but would think they had to leave out the soul to get it! The same way with my acting, Miss Marsh, they want to rubber stamp that, too. Are you acquainted with the works of the English novelist, Charles Dickens?"

Cornelia, her galloping sympathies thus suddenly reined in, managed to reply in the affirmative.

"Henry showed me his story, 'The Cricket on the Hearth.' It's not much of a story, but there's a kind of a feeling in it I'd like to play. And in that title there's something homely, sounds like me. Only Lyman was afraid it would let on there wasn't any party dresses in it and better call it 'The Butterfly's Dream.' How'd you like their taking 'Briar Rose' and calling it 'The Orchid?' They can't see it's no good, me trying to turn myself into one of the latest standard patterns. What I'm good for is kicking like a pony when I'm mad, and looking ugly when that's the way to look, and not to smile so sweet at meanness or danger, but to spit in its face—funny or not, as the scene goes. The managers saw the public liking me cranky like that, a regular little crabapple, and thought how much better it'd like me if I could be turned into cream puff. Oh well, Miss Marsh—and your mother, too, if she isn't worn out listening to me—I can't be that way. I've got queer things inside me and deep things. Oh!" Ducie's breast heaved. She struck it a light, fierce blow with her small fist. "Oh, if I don't get them out they'll go off on me and blow me all to pieces! But not a lawyer could break the contract for us.

"Maybe you think there's something phoney about my feelings, or I'd let the contract go to the dickens. And of course, if it was only the indemnity, Miss Marsh, Henry and me'd be an old marired couple by now. A hundred thousand dollars—six months salary—pshaw! But six months salary when, besides that, you've got to stay off the screen for three years and can't make any salary at all—that is surely something else again! Specially when papa's formed the habit of his children supporting him, and I'm determined no child'll do any supporting except me. Why, just me, Henry could always take care of. And, if he couldn't, I'd as soon sit in a field with him and eat roots. But when you've got kids dependent on you, you can kick all you like, you can rear around saying why should you, but there they just are. So we settled down to waiting for that secret marriage when I was 18, and for forming our own company till Hertzog's had lost so much money on me it'd be glad to let me go. Then along comes Lyman Hertzog and gets stuck on me.

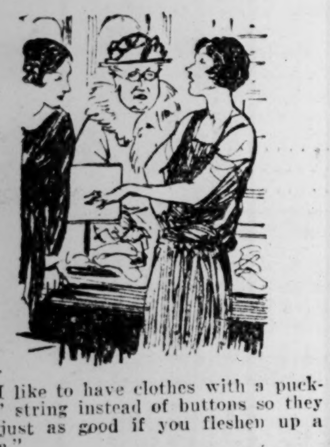
"Well, then! Aside from never lettin me go, probably, he was always noseying for why I couldn't stand him. Absolutely fatal if he got onto Henry and me! Lucky for us, the person he and everybody suspected was Dan.

"Well, no doubt about it, Dan certainly is attractive to women—not like Henry, of course—but this reputation alone's enough to make us talked about. Out on the coast people never bothered about me knowing that for him it was only girls with red hair. Maybe it's because he can't get married again, poor fellow, but the way he acts there's lots of those psycho people say some woman with red hair must have bent over his cradle when he was an awful impressionable age. It does get terribly trying in casting the smaller parts, because it isn't as if red photographed, even. But pshaw, it's his only fault and I'm just grateful it wasn't a woman with light, taffy colored hair—certainly would have complicated my life all right! Heaven's own mercy, Dan said the talk was about him and me. And we certainly did whoop it up like a masquerade ball. Though Henry did act quite ungrateful, sometimes, about what we were making people think. And then, anyhow, Lyman never got on to me about Henry, he did get on to Henry about me. And fired him. If I hadn't had Dan to keep my courage up I'd have hoped to die.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

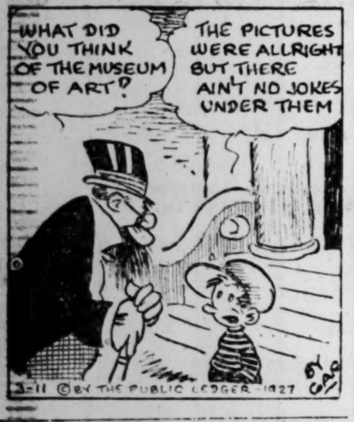
Aunt Het



"I like to have clothes with a puckerin' string instead of buttons so they fit just as good if you fleshen up a little."

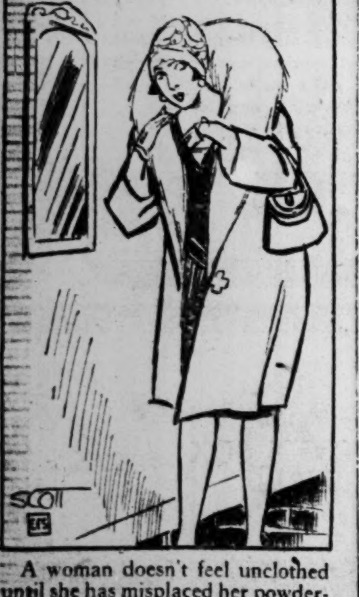
(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Just Nuts



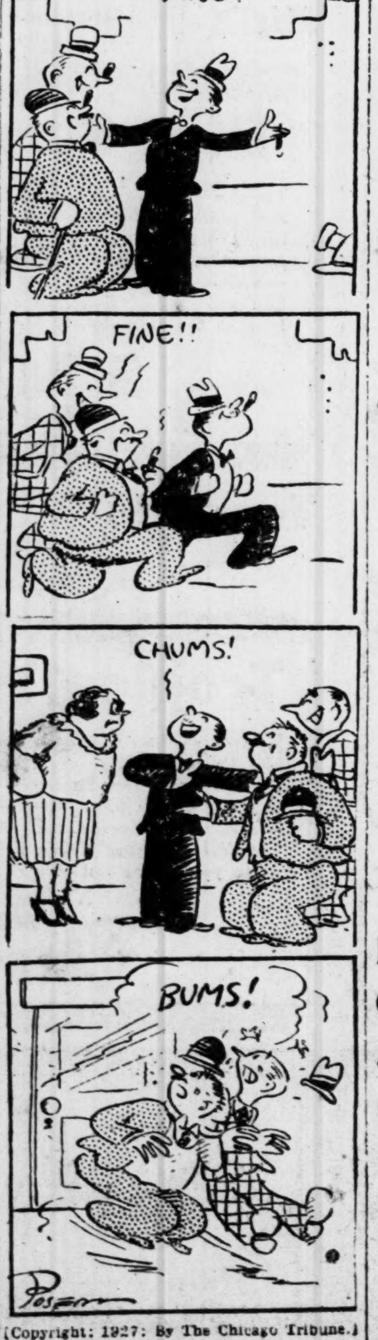
WHAT DID YOU THINK OF THE MUSEUM OF ART?
THE PICTURES WERE ALLRIGHT BUT THERE AIN'T NO JOKES UNDER THEM
3-11 © BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER 1927
BY GAG

SALLYS SALLIES



A woman doesn't feel unclothed until she has misplaced her powder-puff.

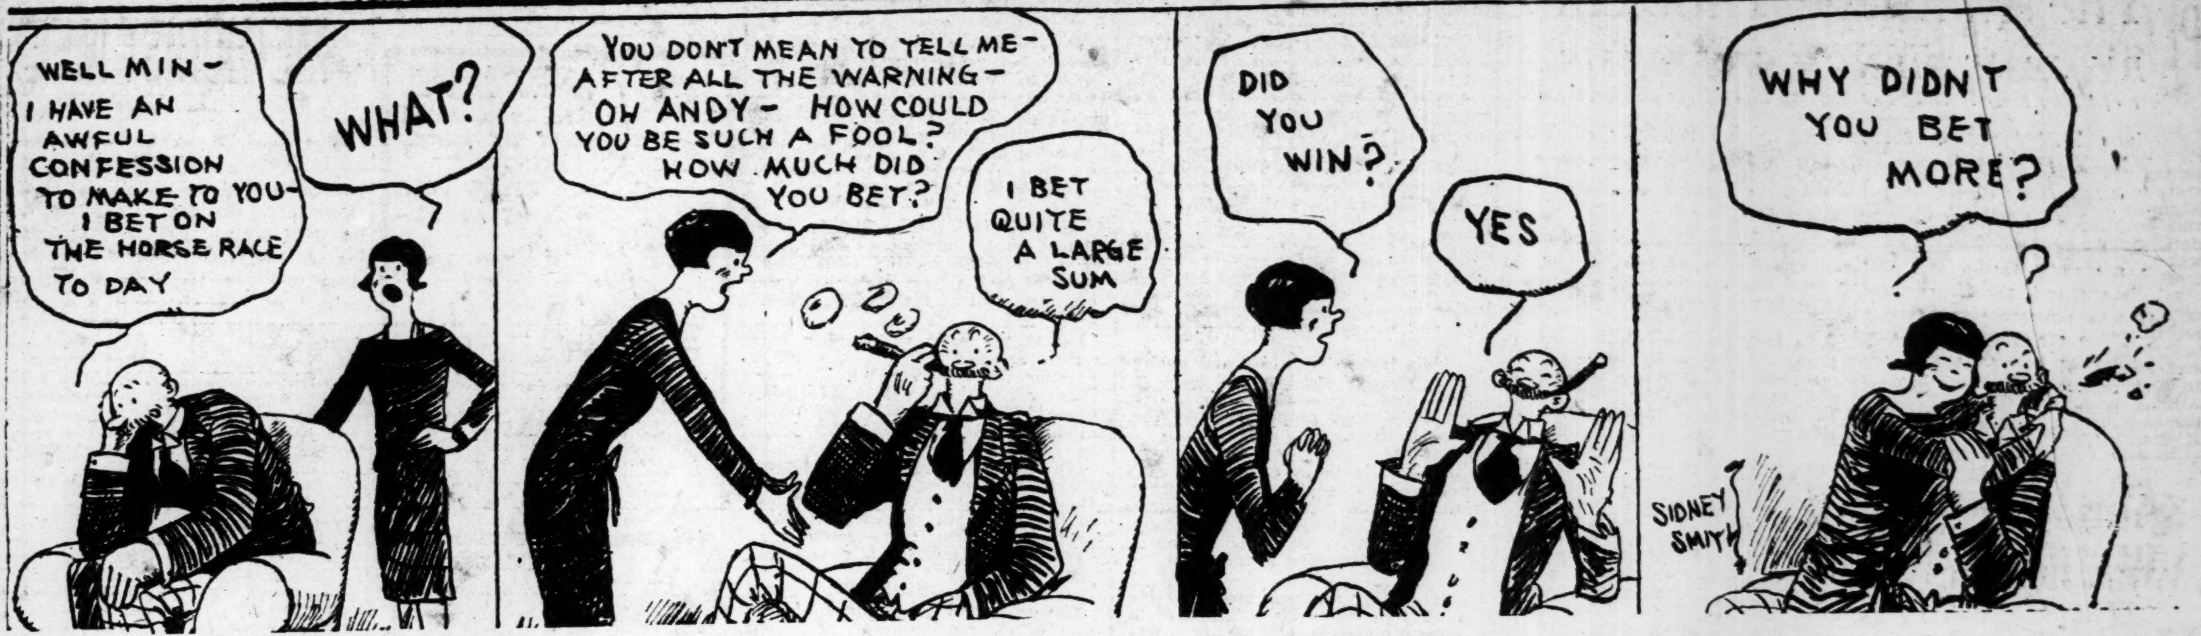
JINGLETS



DINE?
FINE!!
CHUMS!
BUMS!
POSEN

(Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.)

THE GUMPS—FIFTY-FIFTY



WELL MIN - I HAVE AN AWFUL CONFESSION TO MAKE TO YOU - I BET ON THE HORSE RACE TO DAY WHAT?
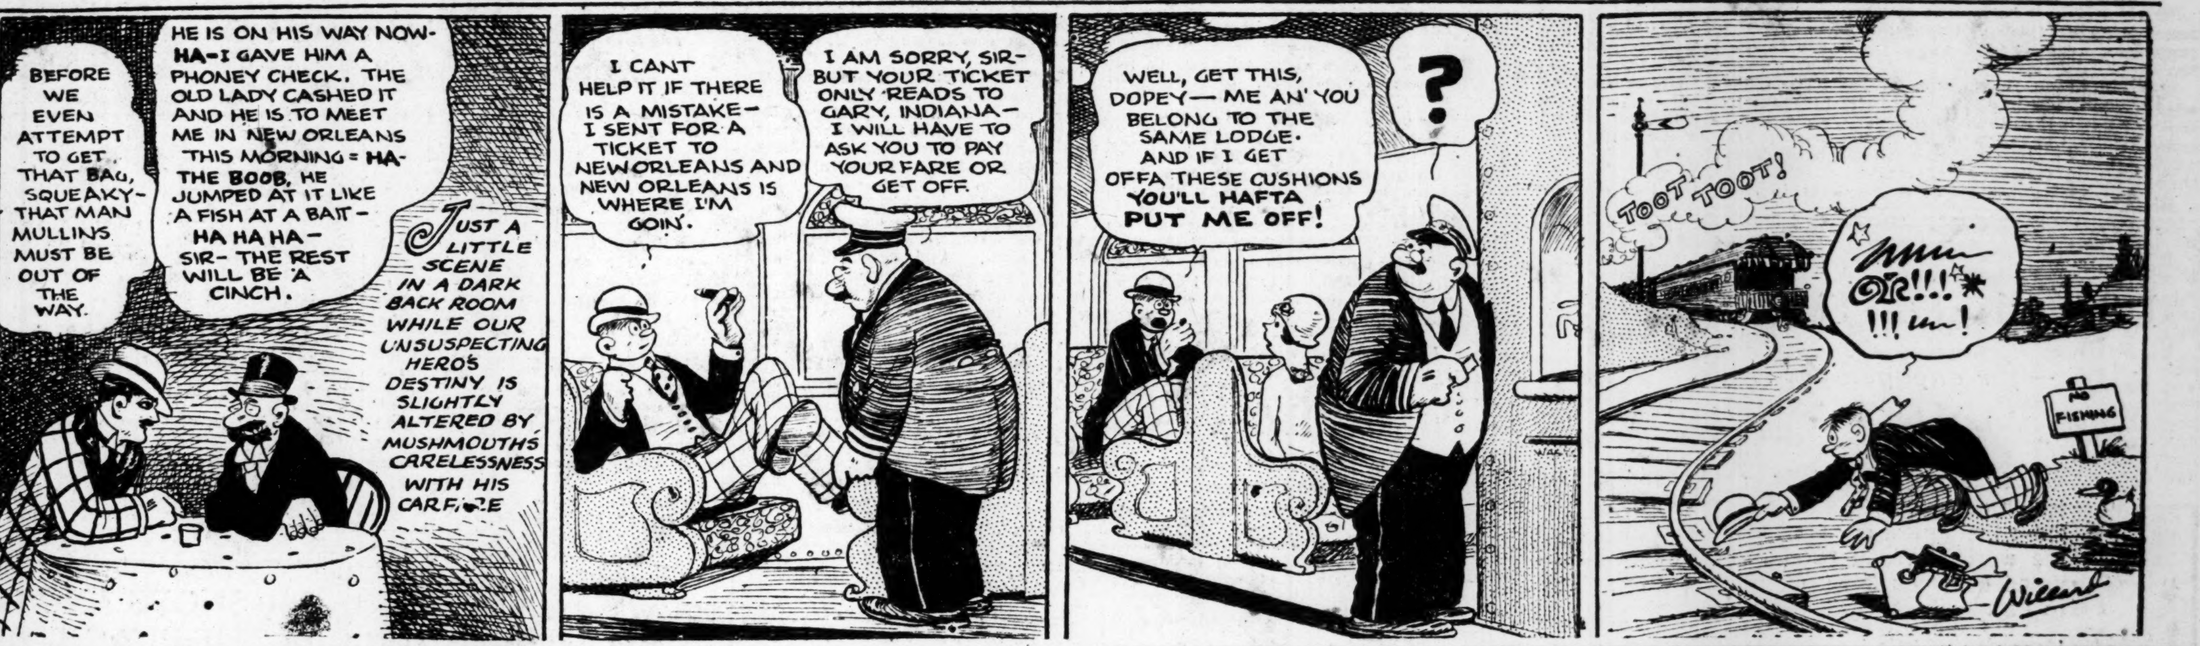
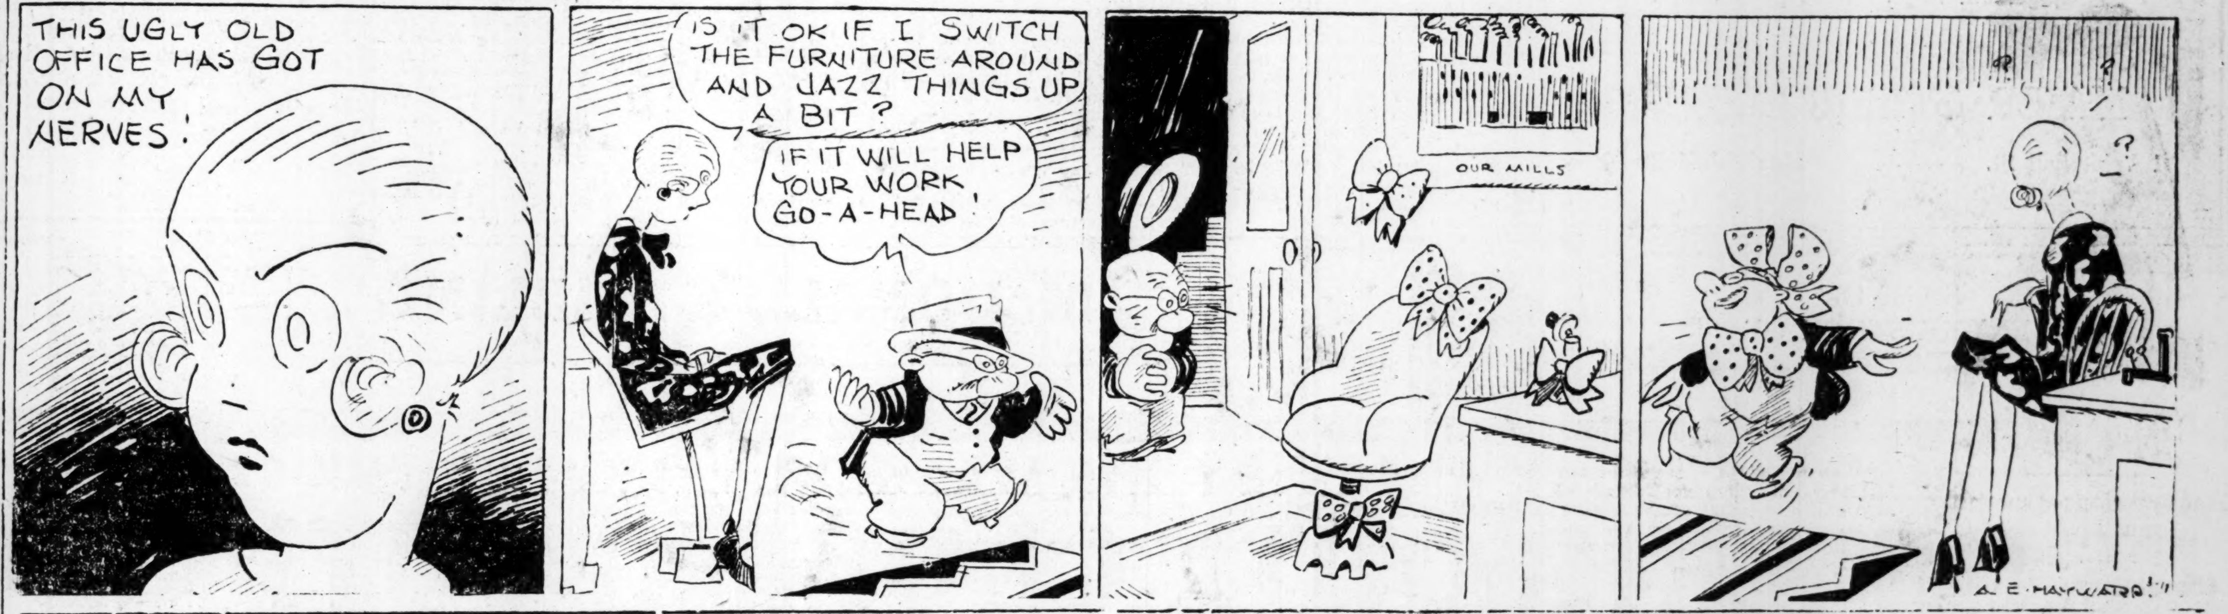
YOU DONT MEAN TO TELL ME - AFTER ALL THE WARNING - OH ANDY - HOW COULD YOU BE SUCH A FOOL? HOW MUCH DID YOU BET?
I BET QUITE A LARGE SUM
DID YOU WIN?
YES
WHY DIDN'T YOU BET MORE?
SIDNEY SMITH

MOON MULLINS—THERE SEEMS TO BE DIRTY WORK AFLOAT



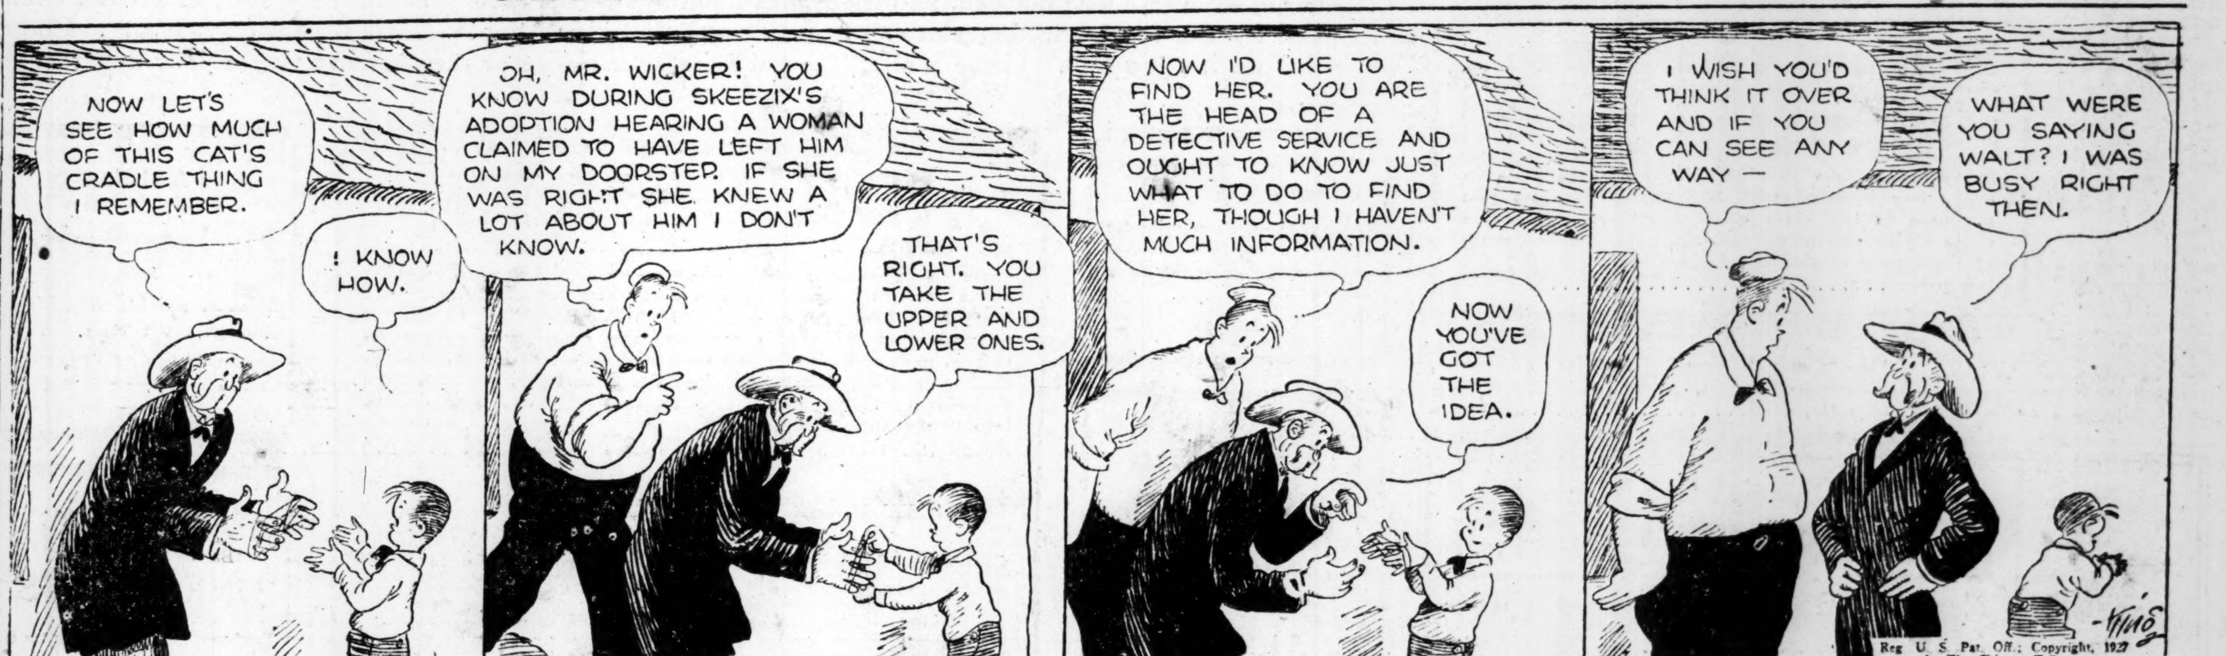
BEFORE WE EVEN ATTEMPT TO GET THAT BAG, SQUEAKY - THAT MAN MULLINS MUST BE OUT OF THE WAY.
HE IS ON HIS WAY NOW - HA - I GAVE HIM A PHONEY CHECK. THE OLD LADY CASHED IT AND HE IS TO MEET ME IN NEW ORLEANS THIS MORNING = HA - THE BOOB, HE JUMPED AT IT LIKE A FISH AT A BAIT - HA HA HA - SIR - THE REST WILL BE A CINCH.
JUST A LITTLE SCENE IN A DARK BACK ROOM WHILE OUR UNSUSPECTING HERO'S DESTINY IS SLIGHTLY ALTERED BY MUSHMOUTH'S CARELESSNESS WITH HIS CARFARE
I CANT HELP IT IF THERE IS A MISTAKE - I SENT FOR A TICKET TO NEW ORLEANS AND NEW ORLEANS IS WHERE I'M GOIN'.
I AM SORRY, SIR - BUT YOUR TICKET ONLY READS TO GARY, INDIANA - I WILL HAVE TO ASK YOU TO PAY YOUR FARE OR GET OFF.
WELL, GET THIS, DOPEY — ME AN' YOU BELONG TO THE SAME LODGE. AND IF I GET OFFA THESE CUSHIONS YOU'LL HAFTA PUT ME OFF!
?
TOOT TOOT!
NO FISHING
WILLARD

SOMEBODY'S STENOG—Brighten the Corner Where You Are :: :: :: :: :: :: :: By Hayward



THIS UGLY OLD OFFICE HAS GOT ON MY NERVES!
IS IT OK IF I SWITCH THE FURNITURE AROUND AND JAZZ THINGS UP A BIT?
IF IT WILL HELP YOUR WORK GO-A-HEAD!
OUR MILLS
A. E. HAYWARD

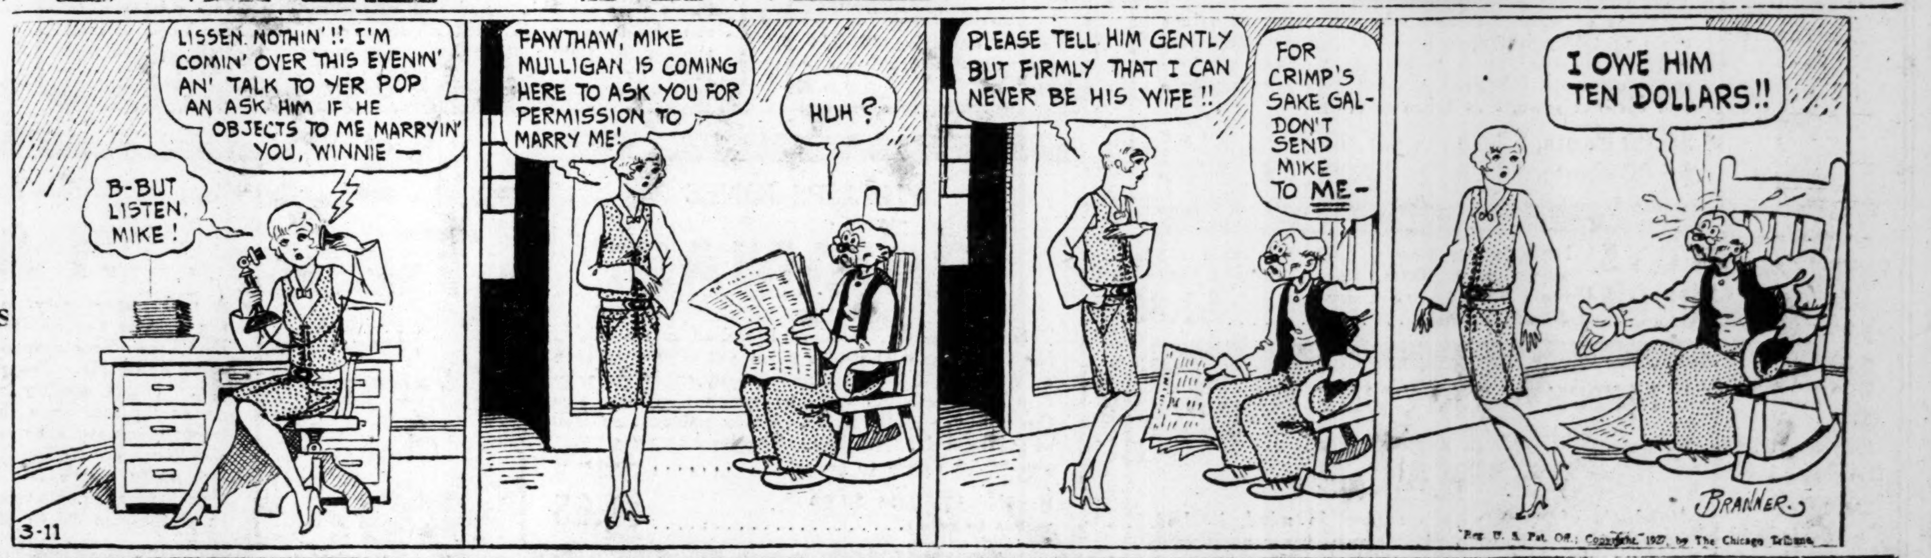
GASOLINE ALLEY—MR. WICKER TAKES THEM IN ROTATION



NOW LET'S SEE HOW MUCH OF THIS CAT'S CRADLE THING I REMEMBER.
I KNOW HOW.
OH, MR. WICKER! YOU KNOW DURING SKEEZIX'S ADOPTION HEARING A WOMAN CLAIMED TO HAVE LEFT HIM ON MY DOORSTEP. IF SHE WAS RIGHT SHE KNEW A LOT ABOUT HIM I DON'T KNOW.
THAT'S RIGHT. YOU TAKE THE UPPER AND LOWER ONES.
NOW I'D LIKE TO FIND HER. YOU ARE THE HEAD OF A DETECTIVE SERVICE AND OUGHT TO KNOW JUST WHAT TO DO TO FIND HER, THOUGH I HAVEN'T MUCH INFORMATION.
NOW YOU'VE GOT THE IDEA.
I WISH YOU'D THINK IT OVER AND IF YOU CAN SEE ANY WAY —
WHAT WERE YOU SAYING WALT? I WAS BUSY RIGHT THEN.
KING
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1927

Winnie Winkle,
The Breadwinner

Fawthah Changes
the Subject.



LISSEN. NOTHIN'!! I'M COMIN' OVER THIS EVENIN' AN' TALK TO YER POP AN ASK HIM IF HE OBJECTS TO ME MARRYIN' YOU, WINNIE — B-BUT LISTEN, MIKE!
3-11
FAWTHAW, MIKE MULLIGAN IS COMING HERE TO ASK YOU FOR PERMISSION TO MARRY ME!
HUH?
PLEASE TELL HIM GENTLY BUT FIRMLY THAT I CAN NEVER BE HIS WIFE!!
FOR CRIMP'S SAKE GAL - DON'T SEND MIKE TO ME - I OWE HIM TEN DOLLARS!!
BRANNER
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune

LITTLE ORPHAN
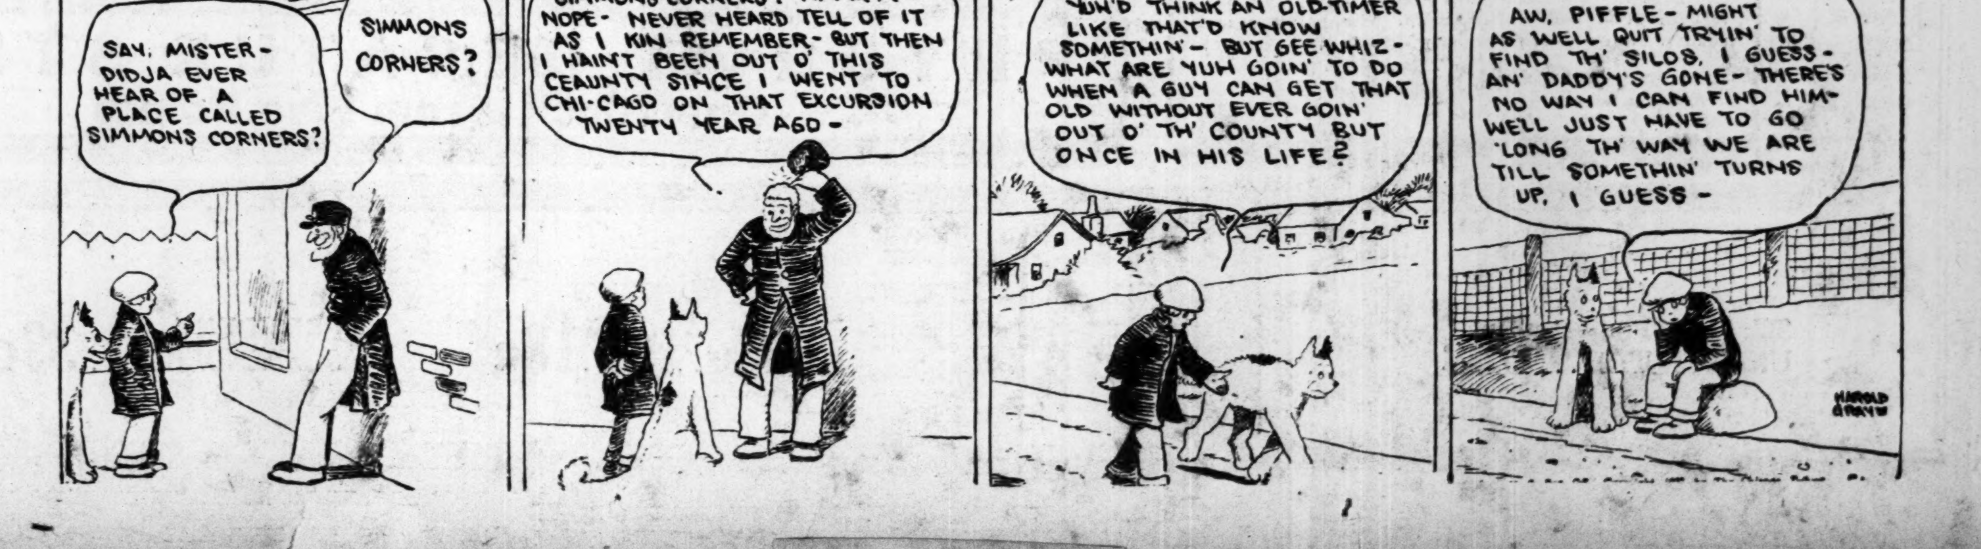
ANNIE—

The Oracle
That Failed.



SAY, MISTER - DIDJA EVER HEAR OF A PLACE CALLED SIMMONS CORNERS?
SIMMONS CORNERS?
SIMMONS CORNERS? HM-M-M - NOPE - NEVER HEARD TELL OF IT AS I KIN REMEMBER - BUT THEN I HAIN'T BEEN OUT O' THIS CEAUNTY SINCE I WENT TO CHI-CAGO ON THAT EXCURSION TWENTY YEAR AGO - YUH'D THINK AN OLD-TIMER LIKE THAT'D KNOW SOMETHIN' - BUT GEE WHIZ - WHAT ARE YUH GOIN' TO DO WHEN A GUY CAN GET THAT OLD WITHOUT EVER GOIN' OUT O' TH' COUNTY BUT ONCE IN HIS LIFE?
AW, PIFFLE - MIGHT AS WELL QUIT TRYIN' TO FIND TH' SILOS, I GUESS - AN' DADDY'S GONE - THERE'S NO WAY I CAN FIND HIM - WELL JUST HAVE TO GO 'LONG TH' WAY WE ARE TILL SOMETHIN' TURNS UP, I GUESS -
HAROLD GRAY

ROAD BOND ISSUE PLANNEDATMACON

Macon, Ga., March 10.—(AP)—Proponents of a state bond issue for paving the principal highways of the state and officials of the Georgia Highway association gathered here this morning for a meeting to plan details of an intensive campaign that will be conducted in every county of Georgia.

It is the expectation of association officials to arouse sufficient pro-bond sentiment between now and June to insure favorable action by the general assembly when it convenes late in that month. C. C. Thomas, of Athens, president of the association, presided over the sessions. Mrs. R. K. Rambo, of Atlanta, in charge of woman's work, is expected to play a prominent part in the county organization plans.

The district vice presidents of the association attending the meeting were: First congressional district, S. A. Lewis, Statesboro; second, M. A. Nussbaum, Bainbridge; third, Lovelace Eve, Americus; fourth, Rhodes Browne, Columbus; fifth, John E. Smith, Atlanta; sixth, W. E. Pendleton, Macon; seventh, Arthur Hamilton, Rome; eighth, Sam Bowers, Royston; ninth, R. E. A. Hamby, Clayton; tenth, C. B. McCullar, Milledgeville; eleventh, Clarence R. Leavy, Brunswick; twelfth, W. H. Proctor, Dublin.

To Continue Paper.

The association voted to continue publication of the Georgia Highway Gazette, official magazine, and approved plans for publicity on the road bond problem.

President Thomas was authorized to appoint a legislative committee that will draft the bond bill to be submitted in the house and senate on the first day of the session in June.

Mr. Thomas declared that the recent changes in the ranks of the state representatives and senators have been "very favorable" to the road bond cause and that he believes the two-thirds majority necessary to put the question before the people will be obtainable. In the last session, he pointed out, there were 100 house votes for bonds with 138 required to carry, and in the senate there were about 25 votes with 34 required.

Meetings to arouse sentiment will be held in each of the 12 congressional districts at various dates within the next 60 days, according to decision of the vice presidents. They will be followed by meetings in each county, with a state-wide rally in Atlanta before the assembly convenes to climax the campaign.

Almost Wild With Eczema

Happy To-day

When the dreadful itching of eczema drives you frantic and you are praying for relief you need Peterson's Ointment.

Make no mistake—many thousands who have turned to this tried and true ointment as a last resort have ended all the terrible misery so quickly that they blessed the day they bought the first box.

Because it acts so quickly millions of homes consider Peterson's Ointment a necessity.

It's so wonderful for skin eruptions, pimples, acne and salt rheum, for instance, that many times only two or three applications are needed to make the skin clear and healthy.

Its mighty healing power is clearly shown when used for ulcers, piles and rashes, while as a household remedy for burns, scalds, abrasions, bruises, insect bites, windburn and chafing, druggists will tell you it is unsurpassed. Big box 35 cents.—(adv.)

So many suffer needlessly

MARTYR TO PAIN FOR 16 YEARS

Finds relief after spending much money in vain

After spending a great deal of money on medicines without results, a woman who had suffered from a long-standing case of rheumatism, got quick and complete relief by a simple home treatment.

"I have suffered from rheumatism for 16 years and I have spent a great deal of money in trying to get something which would ease the pain," she writes. "I am grateful to say that in Sloan's Liniment I have found instant relief."

Sloan's helps when other remedies fail because Sloan's doesn't just deaden the nerves. It stirs up the bodily forces to throw off the poisons that are causing the pain. Then relief comes as a natural consequence.

So easy, pleasant and clean to use, too. You don't even have to rub it in. Just apply gently, and the medicine brings the relief.

Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

BIG SHOW TONIGHT GIVEN FOR SCHOOL

Continued from First Page.

the first unit of the big show will be offered and from then on for two and one-half hours the monster show will unfold in clock-like order, revealing a series of special feature productions exceeding any yet appearing on a single program of any kind offered in Atlanta. From Loew's Grand theater will come five units which will be headed by Joe Morris and Flo Campbell, noted musical comedy stars, singers and dancers, who are now appearing in their sketch, "Any Apartmen." They are supported by a clever company of players. From Keith's Georgia will come five other units, including Benny Rubin, comedian, and a big company.

Other Acts Scheduled.

Besides the Morris and Campbell act Loew's Grand will furnish Al H. Wilson, he of "golden voice" fame, with his new comedy monologue; the Fridkin and Rhoda dancers; Phil Nolan and Eleanor Gates, harmony singers; and Bordne, and Boyer, trampoline novelty artists in "Jumping Around."

From Keith's Georgia, in addition to Benny Rubin will come Berk and Suan, Francis Armes, Deiro, noted accordeonist, and other features of Benny Rubin's unit show. The Howard theater will furnish Paul Oscard's Publix production, "Moonlight," with Harriet Krauth and Arthur Martel, guest organist.

The entire "Blossom Time" company, which is appearing at the Erlanger theater, will present numbers from that attraction, which in itself will be worth far more than the $1 charged for the whole all-star show.

The special comedy skits and surprises will be handled by members of the Forsyth Players and by special artists furnished by the Metropolitan, Rialto, Tudor, Alamo, Cameo and other cooperating theaters.

Representatives of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees took charge of the auditorium stage Thursday in preparation for giving the monster midnight show a perfect staging and lighting. The theaters sent truck loads of special scenery and special lighting effects to the auditorium to be used in the big show.

Special Scenery for Show.

Musical features of the monster revue will be handled by the Atlanta Federation of Musicians and there will be more than 100 musicians in the orchestra. The musicians not only are cooperating in furnishing the music for the show, but have been giving daily concerts at the Grady monument to advertise the production. Representatives of the Atlanta Federation of Woman's Clubs and the Young Matrons' Club of Atlanta sent special ticket-selling committees to booths located at prominent points in the city Thursday and these will be maintained through Friday. Tickets will be sold at all theaters up to the time of the performance Friday night—that is if there are any tickets left by that time. The way the tickets are going now all indications point to an early sell-out and the managers have agreed not to sell more than the capacity of the theater, hence there is a great probability that the procrastinators will not be able to get tickets to the show.

Every penny of the proceeds goes to the Tallulah Falls schools. The managers, stage crews, the motion picture machine operators, the ushers, the theater staffs cooperating, the publicity staffs and the musicians, the artists and every person cooperating in the production will serve without 1 cent of remuneration of any kind.

Gift of $1,000 to the Tallulah Falls school, to be used in purchasing 1,000 tickets to the big midnight revue to be staged at the auditorium tonight, was announced Thursday night by Mrs. Passie Fenton Ottley, head of the Tallulah school activities in the Georgia Federation of Woman's clubs. The name of the Atlanta woman who made the gift was not made public by Mrs. Ottley, acting at the request of the giver. The money was turned over to the chairman of the committee of theatrical managers who are presenting the monster midnight show.

In her letter to Mrs. Ottley the Atlanta woman said she had long believed in the work of the school and wanted to help it. At the same time she said she appreciated the work of the people who are presenting the show and asked that the $1,000 be added to the benefit performance fund.

"I have long been a friend of the Tallulah Falls school and have helped it from time to time in the big work it is doing to give a chance in life to mountain children. I want to make a special gift now to the school, but even more to express appreciation of the generosity of the folks who are giving your midnight revue at the auditorium Friday night," she wrote.

"So I am sending you a check for $1,000 which I'll ask you to get to the proper place to say how highly some of us value what the theater managers, the artists, the stage people, the musicians and the movie people are doing for our great cause. Please don't use my name but simply have it recorded as the price of 1,000 tickets. I'm going to the midnight revue, but I'll buy some other tickets."

M'NARY TO RETAIN SLUSH FUND POST

Continued from First Page.

further embarrassed, and its future activities discredited by the withdrawal of the "regular" republican members, which would subject the committee to the charge that it was a "democratic-insurgent republican" report.

Goff submitted his resignation to Vice President Dawes, last Monday, just before the latter left for a vacation trip to Florida, Cuba and Panama. The senator, it is understood, plans a voyage to Australia and New Zealand to recover his health.

"I though of resigning from the committee some months ago when it became apparent that the fight for farm legislation would occupy much of my time," declared McNary. "But I was persuaded to continue and although any work the committee may undertake this summer will mean a hardship to me in the way of travel. I certainly will not resign now that the committee is under fire."

Meanwhile, Senator Keyes, republican, New Hampshire, chairman of the senate committee on audit and control, repeated his refusal to approve an advance of $1,000 from the senate contingent fund to pay the expenses of the sergeant-at-arms to get the ballots of Pennsylvania counties in the Vare-Wilson election contest, which is under scrutiny by the committee.

The sergeant-at-arms appealed to Edwin A. Thayer, secretary of the senate, to advance the money out of the special fund set aside for emergencies, to pay the funeral expenses of senators who die during a recess, and again was refused. Keyes based his refusal on the ground that the Reed committee expired with the congress on March 4.

BORAH PROTESTS AGAINST CRITICS

Continued from First Page.

of that agony which comes from a fear of facts," Borah declared in a letter to Guy Stevens, director of the Association of Producers of Petroleum in Mexico.

Break Wanted, He Says.

"But I know what I want to do and I know that no amount of criticism will prevent my doing it," Borah added defiantly.

His letter also declared that powerful interests would like to see a break with Mexico.

"I felt justified in attempting to gather facts upon this important subject from all proper sources," Borah wrote.

"I haven't the slightest doubt but what there are powerful interests which would like to see a complete break with Mexico, and as a distinguished representative of the oil interests has declared, to see Mexico Cubanized. I have no desire in the world to see the oil companies or interests deprived of their legitimate rights or to see their legitimate interests unprotected. But, I utterly disagree with the policy which would seek that protection by a break with Mexico. In doing what I have done, I have had in mind nothing more than to secure facts from all proper sources and I have not intended to unjustly reflect upon anyone, whether they were oil interests or other interests."

Little has been heard of the Logan law in recent years. It was enacted in the administration of John Adams to prevent opponents of the French war party in the United States from investigating conditions on their own responsibility.

Charges that the Mexican ambassador at Washington and the Mexican consul general at New York had organized "the most damnable anti-American propaganda that has appeared since Bernstorff was handed his passports," were made in a statement issued by Representative Gallivan, Massachusetts democrat.

"Upon my responsibility as a member of the house I charge that the Mexican government through its ambassador at Washington and its consul general at New York has expended almost $2,000,000 for the purpose of discrediting the president of the United States and the secretary of state," Gallivan said.

"They have subsidized preachers and professors to attack the president. They have underwritten radical, religious and uplift organizations to circularize the country in defamation of our government."

"They have made a filthy alliance with the Ku Klux Klan to inject religious bigotry into the controversy between this country and Mexico, and that in genera they have done anything that the corrupt use of money would assist them in doing to spread falsehoods throughout the country in the hope of confusing public opinion to the end that President Coolidge might be deterred from carrying out the identical policy initiated by Woodrow Wilson in protection of the rights of American citizens."

Tension Increases.

Tension over the Mexican controversy appears to be increasing with indications that this government may abrogate its anti-smuggling treaty with Mexico.

Such a step would be serious for the Calles government because it probably would lead to lifting of the embargo on shipment of arms to Mexican revolutionists. To make the lifting of the embargo effective, the anti-smuggling treaty would first have to be denounced because it requires this government to notify Mexico of all shipments of liquor, narcotics, merchandise and arms, enabling the Calles government to intercept shipments at the border.

This treaty, signed in 1926, can be denounced by either government on thirty days' notice.

Lifting of the arms embargo was contemplated almost a year ago but was abandoned when the religious controversy developed, the United States not wishing to appear to be taking side. Meantime, the oil land law controversy became acute and this government has lost sympathy with Calles and has looked forward to lifting the arms embargo as a retaliatory step. Many here believe that Calles could not hold his government together if the United States allowed free shipments of arms to his enemies who are trying to foment revolution.

State department officials say that they have not given formal notice that the anti-smuggling treaty will be denounced. They have not definitely said the embargo will be lifted.

Such possibilities have been freely considered here but because of the opposition that these severe measures would provoke definite action has been held in abeyance until conditions make them seem more imperative.

FOUR MISSING FLIERS RETURN

Continued from First Page.

system. This compelled a forced landing on the sea off the coast. Giant waves battered the plane and one of the pontoons was smashed.

Faced with certain death, the aviators leaped from the plane into the sea and swam to shore. Their plane was tossed on the beach while the flyers, after a long battle, managed to make the landing also.

The major said that they were met by native Moroccans who took them to their village and showed them hospitality of a kind but at the same time robbed them of their possessions, money, watches, arms and other personal belongings. The men managed to have rings and military decorations by hiding them, Major Larre-Borges being particularly careful to hide a military decoration left to him by his grandfather, a Spanish soldier.

Clothing and other valuables stored aboard the plane was stripped off by the Moors. The major said that he managed to keep on good terms with his captors by making promises of the payment of ransom. The Moors kept particularly close watch on their guests since they were fearful that they might fall prey of desert bandits.

CONFESSION NOT REPUDIATED, CLAIM

Continued from First Page.

Friday. It was reported from Chattanooga that a continuance will be asked in the case against Fitchett there so he can be returned to Atlanta for further questioning.

Can Convict Fitchett.

Confidence that he could convict the former policeman of the murder of Bert Donaldson on the strength of his confession was expressed Thursday by Mr. Boykin.

"There is not a jury in the world," said Mr. Boykin, "that would not convict this man on his confession which dovetails nicely with much that we already knew concerning this murder."

In his confession Fitchett said that he shot Donaldson to death when the investigator of the solicitor general was lured to a room in the Georgian Terrace hotel last July.

J. Fleming King and Ike Sneed, named by Fitchett in his confession, as companions of his in the Donaldson slaying were transferred to the Fulton county jail Thursday. They surrendered when Fitchett's confession was published. They denied any knowledge of the Donaldson killing as did Jack Lance, also named by Fitchett. Lance has been in jail several months.

Donaldson, one of Solicitor Boykin's investigating staff, was assassinated on the night of July 29, 1926, in a room in the Georgian Terrace hotel, where he had been lured on the pretext of securing information on a case he was investigating. He was shot in the back with a shotgun. The body was not discovered until the following afternoon.

BOYKIN TELLS OF GRILLING FITCHETT.

Solicitor General John A. Boykin Thursday afternoon emphatically asserted to The Constitution that not at any time has C. H. Fitchett ever repudiated any part of his confession in the Donaldson murder and that he had merely asked to see his counsel and ascertain if he would be compelled to testify to being the actual perpetrator of the crime or had fired the shots.

"In the presence of Sheriff James I. Lowry, George Chamblee, Fitchett's attorney; Sheriff Tom Selman, of Hamilton county, Tennessee; Frank Shipp, Chattanooga detective; Marvin Baker, "Red" Foster, George Pounds, special investigators of my staff; myself and possibly Dolph Riley, who was in the office for some time, Fitchett was told by Sheriff Lowry that he did not have to swear anything but the truth," Boykin said Thursday.

Sheriff Lowry was a close personal friend of Fitchett's family, the prisoner's father having served under the sheriff as a flagman on the Southern railroad and was later promoted to conductor. The sheriff was a pallbearer at Fitchett's father's funeral and was considered by Fitchett as his personal friend, the solicitor pointed out.

Lowry Visits Prisoner.

On Sheriff Lowry's visit to Chattanooga to question the prisoner, who at that time told the same story as was published in The Constitution last Monday, after being told by the sheriff that it would mean his life. At no time has he denied any part of the statement and has continually "stuck to his story," the solicitor said.

"While in my office with the persons named, I asked Fitchett about newspaper reports that he was going to repudiate some part of his statement, and he declared to us: 'I am not going to swear that I was the actual perpetrator of the murder or fired the shots, but all other parts of my story I am going to stick to,'" Mr. Boykin said.

The solicitor Thursday was pressing relentlessly his investigation of the confession, and declared he would proceed with the probe without the slightest interruption. Mr. Boykin, who had gathered evidence to corroborate practically every detail of the confession of Fitchett prior to its publication in The Constitution, has always worked on the theory that Atlanta gangsters killed Donaldson to halt his operations against them.

"I am convinced beyond the shadow of all doubt that Fitchett was in on the plot and took part in it," the solicitor has repeatedly said. "I feel sure we are on the right track and have the right men, but of course I am not and never have been prepared to say that Fitchett actually fired the shots.

Knows About Plot.

"Fitchett has said entirely too much to have this thing drop. He has shown the most intimate knowledge of details which I have substantiated in connection with the case months ago. In Fitchett's confession lies the solution to the mystery surrounding Donaldson's death, and I'm going after the solution hard."

Solicitor Boykin, it was learned Thursday, believes that a man known variously as Tony Gilete and "Hollis," who is a member of a ship's crew and recently said he knew about the Donaldson murder during a drinking bout in Rotterdam, Holland, is "Kid" Harless, an Atlanta gangster who dropped out of sight here some time ago.

He has forwarded photos of Harless to Pensacola and Mobile, where the vessel, the City of Alton, is expected to dock about March 21, and will have men on hand to question him.

The solicitor will hold Flim King and Ike Snead, two of eight men implicated in Fitchett's confession, while the grand jury today will resume consideration of the case. Meanwhile a nation-wide search for the others alleged to have participated in the plot is in progress.

INFLUENCE USED, STATES SELMAN

Continued from First Page.

Donaldson. "In fact, Fitchett never did claim that Lance fired the shot," continued Attorney Chamblee. Lance denied any knowledge of the Donaldson killing, as did several others who were named by Fitchett.

Attorney Chamlee said, concerning his recent trip to Atlanta at the instigation of Solicitor General Boykin to aid in clarifying the case: "I was invited to Atlanta because Fitchett said he wanted to see me before going before the Fulton county grand jury. I had a confidential consultation with him and then he went before the grand jury. Of course, the proceedings there were secret, but Fitchett told me what he said.

"The good people of Atlanta may be assured of one thing, that the killing of Bert Donaldson was accomplished by as big a crowd of gamblers and liquor dealers as usually assembles for gun operations.

Believes "Confession."

"I have tried about 500 murder cases. I have had some opportunity to experiment with men who know about the commission of crimes and the conduct of men accused of crime. In the light of this experience, I have reached certain conclusions in regard to this case. Fitchett's testimony will in all probability be made public some time in a public trial. Until his story is destroyed by more than mere newspaper rumors, I believe in what he says.

"Fitchett voluntarily made his statement. He voluntarily revised certain portions of it. He clarified certain statements to meet new conditions and new information he received He 'stands pat' on the main features of this Donaldson killing. My suggestion is to give Solicitor General Boykin time."

DEATH ENDS FIGHT TO SAVE FRICK

Continued from First Page.

silently from the entrance to room 108, where Frick had lain, at a 45-degree angle, for 108 hours and 12 minutes.

That was the end of the epic battle to sustain life.

A week ago Wednesday Frick had two teeth extracted. The following day he complained of abdominal pains and went to Dr. Conley.

The physician ordered him to St. Francis hospital, Evanston, where paralysis set in on Sunday. Then came the long vigil. Frick was unable to breathe, but life must be sustained, Dr. Conley said.

Co-Workers Aid.

Eight of Frick's co-workers, men who had won distinction in artificial resuscitation work, were chosen to press down on the boy's chest, to give him life. They worked in pairs, in half hour relays. But the work soon became too strenuous; the 30-minute strain on the hands was more than they could bear, and besides it looked as though this might last a long time.

More men were called and more men volunteered. Finally the figure rose to 57 men, who worked in pairs in 15-minute relays.

Frick had been unable to eat or sleep. In the 108 hours he had slept but 55 minutes, and had eaten only in drops.

Because his palate was paralyzed, he was unable to speak. He could not swallow food. Intravenous injections of glucose were administered to give him nourishment. When the patient rallied, some 85 hours later, he was given three drops of egg nog from an eye-dropper. Then, further encouraged, doctors allowed him to have three spoons of water and two of soup.

Given Water.

Finally he was given half a glass of water. That was only a few hours before the end. Toward the final minutes he lapsed into unconsciousness and doctors announced hope was gone.

Dr. Conley, who fought to keep the spark of life glowing, felt justified in his stand.

"I don't care what any physician thinks. As long as that boy's heart can beat, I'll try to keep him alive," he said about half an hour before the end.

YOUTH JESTS GRIMLY AS END APPROACHES.

Chicago, March 10.—(AP)—Albert Frick, the 22-year-old youth who lived for four and one-half days although powerless to breathe, lost his game battle for life tonight.

He died after a valiant fight for life and with many of the threescore men who had worked over him in tears as they saw their efforts proven unavailing to check the creeping palsy that started in his limbs last Saturday and mounted Sunday morning to his diaphragm.

At 10 o'clock last Sunday morning Frick stopped breathing. His heart was still beating, however, and doctors resorted to artificial respiration.

While the youth gasped out encouragement or a jest, his friends, working in pairs one on each side of the paralyzed boy, compressed his diaphragm. Then they relaxed. Then they compressed. Thus they produced the same effect as though Frick himself were breathing.

About an hour before he died Frick lapsed into unconsciousness. Previously he had been conscious throughout the four and a half days of his fight and had directed the efforts to save him.

Up until a few hours before his death Frick jested grimly with his fellow-workers and several times during the day had mumbled brief instructions regarding their work.

SHEPPARD SENTENCED TO DIE IN CHAIR

Continued from First Page.

a fair and just trial," Sheppard stated.

"This court has endeavored to see that your trial was conducted in absolute fairness," Judge Humphries replied. "I believe that has been done. I can see no errors in its proceedings."

"I can," Sheppard said. "I know of several errors. The trial wasn't fair."

Without continuing the discussion, Judge Humphries passed the death sentence, which is to take effect on the last Friday preceding the termination of 60 days required by law to expire between the date of passing sentence and the execution.

Returned to Tower.

Sheppard then was returned to the Fulton Tower, where he has been held since his indictment some weeks ago, and was placed in his old cell.

The case, which got under way Thursday morning, was featured by a statement made by Sheppard, which consumed hardly more than one minute and which is said by courthouse officials to set a record for its briefness in Fulton county courts. Then the state presented several witnesses in rebuttal, the jury receiving the case at 3:20 o'clock.

The state introduced five witnesses to the murder, Mrs. Dovie Braswell, Mrs. Venie Black, John Fowler, Roy Fowler and W. P. Finch.

Testimony was to the effect that Sheppard, Johnnie Fowler and Homer Fowler went to the Marietta street address apparently intoxicated; that an argument ensued when Homer Fowler refused to make Sheppard a loan of $3, and that Sheppard picked up an ax and struck Homer Fowler on the head after running Johnnie Fowler from the house.

Sheppard's Statement.

Sheppard left the room immediately after striking Fowler the first time, it is stated, but returned and is supposed to have hit Fowler again with the ax.

The defendant said in his statement: "I was sitting on the bed playing with Venie Black's baby when Homer Fowler came in the room. He leaned his arm on the mantelpiece and said: 'Where's that———?' I told him, wait a minute, big boy, you are taking in too much territory and are using pretty strong language there. He advanced on me and struck me in the mouth with a blackjack, knocking out three of my teeth. I struck him with my fist and knocked him against the door. He had pulled out a knife. I didn't know nothing about an ax."

Assistant Solicitor E. A. Stevens prosecuted the case for the state and asked for the death penalty. W. B. Knight, of Knight & Patterson, and C. J. Graham, represented the defendant.

The following composed theh murder jury: Dee Daniel, R. O. Barnett, R. E. Haygood, W. J. Hearn, C. A. Whittle, W. R. Phillips, Sr., W. C. Wallace, J. L. Patrick, Leon V. Hall, J. H. Bickerstaff, V. C. Criswell and Gilbert Little.

When the verdict was returned in open court only the defendant was present, his counsel having waived their presence and no poll of the jury was taken. Assistant Solicitor Stephens, who prosecuted the case, received the verdict and handed it to Judge Humphries.

The case against Sheppard was worked up by County Policemen Tom Davis, L. J. Dickerson, W. A. Vinson and J. E. Roberts, cooperating with aides of Solicitor General John A. Boykin.

DEATH TAKES J. H. DOZIER

Continued from First Page.

and only a few weeks ago resigned as county school superintendent of Clarke county after a long period of service.

After graduating from the University of Georgia with the class of 1890 with a degree in engineering, Mr. Dozier became engaged in the lumber and real estate business and became one of the leading civic and business men of Athens.

He had served on the board of directors of a number of banks here and came into political prominence when Governor Clifford Walker became a candidate for and later governor of Georgia. He was prominently identified with Governor Walker's headquarters during the three campaigns he made for the governorship.

Declined Bank Post.

In addition to being tax commissioner he was a member of the state game and fish commission and a trustee of the University of Georgia and member of the Prudential committee. He was tendered the office of bank superintendent when T. R. Bennett resigned in 1926, but he declined the appointment.

He was a prominent member of the Odd Fellows, being past grand master of the lodge of the state. He was a member of the Baptist church. He never married.

Governor Walker, who was in Columbus Thursday afternoon on the state "hog, cow and hog" campaign, was communicated with by John Wilson, his secretary, and announced that he was returning to Atlanta immediately.

The flag on the state capitol will be kept at half-mast for the next 30 days in respect for Mr. Dozier, it was announced Thursday afternoon at the governor's offices. Governor Walker and his staff will attend the funeral services.

The office of the state tax commissioner was closed Wednesday in respect for Mr. Dozier's father, and will be closed again today in the commissioner's memory.

WAS LOYAL GEORGIAN SAYS GOVERNOR.

Columbus, Ga., March 10.—(AP)—Governor Clifford Walker was deeply grieved when he was informed tonight that James H. Dozier, tax commissioner of Georgia, had died in Athens.

"He was a most unselfish friend and a most loyal Georgian," said the governor. "His every thought was the advancement of the state and his untimely death is a calamity to the entire state.

"I have ordered that the state flag be carried at half mast for 30 days," continued the governor, "and that the capitol be closed on the day of his funeral."

The governor's staff, of which Mr. Dozier was a member, will attend the funeral services in a body, and the governor will also attend.

HOTEL FORT SHELBY

Lafayette Blvd. at First St.

DETROIT

One of the Principal Hotels of the North American Continent

Constant growth in patronage has necessitated a twenty-one story addition to Hotel Fort Shelby, more than doubling the number of guest rooms. This great addition will give the hotel housing capacity for almost two thousand people and the equipment will be upon a scale entitling the Fort Shelby to high rank among the world's leading hotels.

New accommodations, new facilities, but the same hospitality and courtesy which have won the good-will of so many thousands of guests.

Time-saving, tip-saving Servidor. Moderate rates in all departments, including the famous Restaurant and Coffee Shop. Less than five minutes walk from wholesale, shopping, financial and theatrical districts. Convenient to every form of transportation.

An especially pleasant room with private bath $3.50 a day and up —other rooms from $2.50 up.

Garage close by.

14 East Sixtieth Street

Exclusive Town Quarters For Your New York Visit

The traditional prestige of this superb hostelry—its superlative equipment and service—do not imply extravagant rates . . . Room and bath accommodations range from $4 to $10 a day—less for an extended visit . . . Select 14 East 60th as town quarters on your next visit—partake of its exceptional cuisine—and its distinguished desirability will become quickly apparent.

WRITE FOR BROCHURE, "THE ART OF LIVING"

Clear Your Skin

Of Disfiguring Blemishes

Use Cuticura

Sample Soap, Ointment, Talcum free. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden, Mass.

An Easy Way to Soothe and Heal Skin Eruptions

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ringworm, eczema, etc., a pleasant odored ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

Tetterine, through its clean, cooling, soothing, antiseptic effect, kills the germs that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c for a large box, or sent direct, postpaid, upon receipt of price. Shuptrine Co., Desk A, Savannah, Ga.—(adv.)

FRECKLES

Get Rid of These Ugly Spots Safely and Surely and Have a Beautiful Complexion With

OTHINE

(DOUBLE STRENGTH)

MONEY BACK IF IT FAILS. SOLD BY DRUG AND DEPARTMENT STORES EVERYWHERE

TO-DAY is TEA-DAY

When you do your marketing today, don't forget Ridgways Orange Label Tea. Remember the delicious blend that combines the fragrance of Orange Pekoe with the full rich flavor of the fully matured Pekoe leaf. It's better than any straight Orange Pekoe which you can buy at a popular price.

Ridgways ORANGE LABEL Tea

28 to 30 cups to the 10c package

W.L.DOUGLAS

Made of fine Imported Black and Tan Calfskin

$7

$5 $6 & $7 Shoes for Men

You may not be a banker

but that's no reason why you shouldn't wear good, smart-looking shoes. In this new French Toe oxford for Spring you get correct style and real foot comfort.

This shoe is made to look well, be comfortable and wear long—and, of course, being a W. L. Douglas Shoe, it is an unusual value at $7.00.

America's Best Known Shoes

Men's $5, $6 and $7

Sturdy Shoes for Boys' $3.50 and $4

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE CO.

Manufacturers and Retailers—Factories at Brockton, Mass.

Stores in all principal cities of the United States

W. L. DOUGLAS STORE IN ATLANTA

11 PEACHTREE STREET

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

Late winter days are treacherous. A chilly home brings cold in the head, illness, doctors' bills. Keep the house comfortable.

CAMPBELL COAL "MOST HEAT PER DOLLAR"

Good coke is an excellent furnace fuel for these days. It keeps a fire all day or all night, with little tending—and it's clean.

Campbell Coal Co.

Call IVy 5000

SUFFRAGE LEADER AND SENATOR DILL TO MARRY TUESDAY

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, March 10.—Miss Rosalie Gardner Jones, one time "general" of the suffragist movement in New York state, will be married to United States Senator Clarence C. Dill, of Spokane, Wash., next Tuesday, Miss Jones announced through her secretary this afternoon. The ceremony will be performed in private by the Rev. Barrett, in the Episcopal Church of St. John at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., of which Miss Jones is a communicant.

At 3 o'clock in the same afternoon a reception will be held in honor of the couple in the Hotel Gotham, this city.

Announcement of Miss Jones' engagement was made yesterday when it was said that the wedding would take place "soon." Senator Dill, the "baby" of the senate, is 42 years old. He was elected three years ago and is the first democrat ever to represent the state of Washington in the upper chamber. He is a bachelor. Miss Jones is joint heir with her two brothers to the $5,000,000 estate of her father.

ERLANGER THEATRE
TONIGHT TOMORROW MAT. AND NIGHT
BLOSSOM TIME
THE MOST BRILLIANT, BEAUTIFUL AND ARTISTICALLY SATISFYING OPERETTA IN THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN STAGE
WITH AN IDEAL SINGING CAST
SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA—ENSEMBLE OF SPRIGHTLY & CHARMING GIRLS
PRICES: NIGHTS, 50c to $2.50
POP. SAT. MAT., 50c to $1.50

President Invited.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 10.—(AP)—President Coolidge was asked by the Missouri house of representatives today to spend a part of his vacation in Missouri. A resolution inviting the president to come to Excelsior Springs, Mo., was amended to include the Missouri Ozarks, and was adopted unanimously.

RIALTO
ZANE GREY'S
"The Mysterious Rider"
With JACK HOLT

LOEW'S GRAND
CONTINUOUS 1 TO 11 P. M. CONTINUOUS 1 TO 11 P. M.
AT 3:30—6:50—9 P. M.
JOE FLO
MORRIS & CAMPBELL in a NEW MUSICAL FARCE
"ANY APARTMENT"
WITH REBA MORGAN AND PHIL SHIVERS
4—OTHER LOEW ACTS—4
AT 2—4:30—7:55—10 P. M.
JOHN GILBERT —in— "THE FLESH AND THE DEVIL"
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE
Don't Forget All of the Shows of all the Theatres in Atlanta Combined in One MONSTER SHOW
AT THE AUDITORIUM
FRIDAY, MARCH 11TH, AT 11 P. M. — ADMISSION $1.00

GEORGIA KEITH-ALBEE
KEITH-ALBEE VAUDEVILLE
THE BIG LAUGH SHOW
CO-STARS
BENNY RUBIN
FRANCES ARMS
IN A COMEDY
"20 MINUTES OF YOUR LIFE"
Deiro—Piano-Accordionist
BIG ROUND-UP OF COMEDY
PICK O' THE PICTURES
VERA REYNOLDS
in "Corporal Kate"
Don't Forget All of the Shows of All the Theatres in Atlanta combined in One
MONSTER SHOW AT THE AUDITORIUM
Friday, March 11, at 11 p.m.
ADMISSION $1.00

AUDITORIUM-ARMORY
TONIGHT ONLY
MONSTER MIDNIGHT REVUE
Most Stupendous Aggregation of Professional Talent Ever Staged Under One Roof in Atlanta!
EVERY ACT A HEADLINER!
A $10.00 PERFORMANCE FOR $1.00
All the shows from all the theaters in Atlanta COMBINED into one gigantic show
HERE THEY ARE:
1.—BORDNER & BOYER and Company.
2.—Phil—DOLAN & GALE—Eleanor.
3.—AL WILSON, Famous Musical Comedy Star.
4.—Joe—MORRIS & CAMPBELL—Flo, with Reba Morgan and Phil Silvers.
5.—FRIDKA & RHODA, with Frances Sole and Paul Jones.
6.—FRIEDA SULLIVAN.
7.—Sam—BERK & SUAN—Juanita.
8.—DEIRO, Celebrated Accordionist.
9.—FRANCES ARMS, in a Series of Song Types.
10.—BENNY RUBIN & CO., with Frank Garfield, Mabel Smith, Ben Reubens, Ray Gold, Bat Nelsen and Young and Garfield.
11.—BLOSSOM TIME COMPANY, with Genevieve Naegele, Fiamma Reale, Gloria Dawn, Dorothy McKeon, Pearl Kincaid, Aida Geneen, Reginald Pasch, John Charles Gilbert and others.
12.—FORSYTH PLAYERS CO., including Jay Mulrey, Jack Haggerty, Alan Devitt, Ellis Baker, Theodosia Shaler, Rhea Dively, Gus Forbes, Richard Stephenson, Lawrence Keating.
13.—HARRIETT KRAUTH, Soprano.
14.—ARTHUR MARTEL, Famous Organist.
15.—PAUL OSCARD'S "MOONLIGHT" CO., with Hunter Kimball, Emily Day, Speransera and Violet Velasco, Leah Le Roux, Nancy Fulton, Dorothy Henley, Vera Strelskaya, Frank Guild, Hilda Ramon, Van Haar, Van Berkom.
COMBINED ORCHESTRA OF 120!
TO AID TALLULAH FALLS SCHOOL
The All-Theater Midnight Revue given for the benefit of Tallulah Falls Industrial School for the education of Georgia's mountain children, is sponsored by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs and backed by every theater in Atlanta and suburbs, in cooperation with the American Federation of Musicians, Motion Picture Machine Operators and International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees. Every dollar received goes to the school, as there will be no deductions for expenses.
BUY YOUR TICKETS NOW!
Tickets on sale at box offices of all theaters and at Department Stores
Doors Open 10:30 P. M.——Show Starts at 11 P. M.

AT THE THEATERS

ERLANGER—"Blossom Time."

FORSYTH (Permanent Stock)—"American Born."

GEORGIA (K-A Vaudeville, Pictures)—Five acts—"Corporal Kate."

GRAND—(Loew vaudeville, pictures)—Five acts—"Flesh and the Devil."

HOWARD—(Featured pictures, Publix stage shows)—"The Third Degree;" "Moonlight."

METROPOLITAN—(Featured pictures)—"The Night of Love."

RIALTO—Featured pictures)—"The Mysterious Rider."

ALAMO I.—Western picture and comedy.

ALAMO II.—"The Bonded Woman."

ALPHA—Western pictures and comedy.

CAMEO—"Subway Sadie."

TUDOR—"Don Mike."

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSES.

FAIRFAX—"Phantom of the Opera."

PALACE—"Still Alarm."

PONCE DE LEON—"Red Dice."

TENTH STREET—"Kid Boots."

WEST END—"The Savage."

Rialto.

The Mysterious Rider—John Waters' talent runs to unique westerns. He now offers one that is minus a single cowboy.

For the characters in "The Mysterious Rider" at the Rialto theater are desert homesteaders, ranchers, not cowboys, and the film depicts the actual conditions among homesteaders trying to wrest a living from the arid wastes of the west.

Loew's Grand.

Vaudeville and Pictures.—Joe Morris and Flo Campbell in a whirlwind comedy sketch, entitled "Any Apartment," heads a great vaudeville bill on the boards at Loew's Grand theater this week. It is full of clever lines, funny situations and includes some pretty singing by Miss Campbell. Al H. Wilson, famous actor-comedian, appears in a new comedy monologue and sings some songs. Fridkin and Rhoda offer a beautiful dancing act which contains some pretty musical numbers. Phil Nolan and Eleanor Gates sing a pretty song program while Bordner and Boyer open the bill in a trampoline novelty entitled "Jump Around." The feature picture is "Flesh and the Devil," with John Gilbert, Greta Garbo and Lars Hansen in leading roles.

West End.

"The Savage," with Ben Lyon and May McAvoy in the featured roles, will be shown at the West End theater for the last times Friday. The picture shows Ben in the role of a white savage roaming about a jungle island. "Below the Line," starring Rin-Tin-Tin, the wonder dog, will be the feature for Saturday.

Metropolitan.

"The Night of Love."—Samuel Goldwyn's brilliant production, starring Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, is being enjoyed by capacity audiences at each performance this week at the Metropolitan theater and from all indications the engagement is destined to be one of the season's biggest successes. Supporting Colman and the beautiful Vilma Banky in roles that critics everywhere have acclaimed their best characterizations is a distingushed cast including Montague Love, Natalie Kingston and others. Next week Viola Dana in "Homestruck."

Tudor.

"Don Mike" is Fred Thomson's latest screen success, presenting that popular star as a young man, half-Spanish, half Irish, and with the fighting qualities of both, battling for his rights against foreign encroachers on his extensive properties. During the picture the star continues to risk neck and life in daring riding on his wonderful horse, Silver King.

Fairfax.

Lon Chaney—The super-feature, "Phantom of the Opera," with Lon Chaney the man of a thousand faces, as the featured player, closes its engagement at the Fairfax theater, Friday night. "The Wreck," a melodrama of crooks and romance, will be the attraction for Saturday.

Tenth Street.

Eddie Cantor, Clara Bow and Billie Dove are the featured players in the screen version of Florenz Ziegfeld's wonderful musical comedy success which is the current attraction at the Tenth Street theater.

An exceptionally fine film attraction is scheduled for Saturday when "Sea Horses" will be shown.

Howard.

"The Third Degree," which is being shown at the Howard theater this week, is the film version of the noted stage success by Charles Klein. Doloros Costello, the screen's most beautiful girl, is starred in this gripping police melodrama. "The Third Degree" gives you the highest degree of thrills and entertainment of any of the recent films, because of story, acting and marvelous direction.

Paul Oscard's colorful Publix presentation, "Moonlight," is this week's stage feature.

Ponce de Leon.

"Red Dice"—What is said to prove a winner from the opening scenes. "Red Dice," a rum running picture co-staring Rod LaRocque and Marguerite De La Motte, is scheduled as the feature attraction at the new Ponce de Leon theater Friday.

"The Texas Streak," a lively western comedy-drama for Saturday.

Palace.

"The Still Alarm," romantic story of the fire department, is the attraction at the Palace theater, Inman Park, Friday.

"The Great Deception," Robert Kane's new picture which will be the attraction Saturday, is a romance of the British secret service during the world war. George Gibbs wrote the story under the title of "The Yellow Dove."

Midnight Frolic.

Smart Set Minstrels—"Tonight's the night" is the watchword among negro show fans and all lovers of good entertainment, for "Smart Set Minstrels" hailed as the biggest colored show of the season, is billed at the 81 theater for a bigger than ever midnight frolic tonight at 10:30 o'clock. We open earlier this week than in the past, so everyone will get the opportunity to attend the Tallulah Falls show. Advance seat sales indicate that the largest audience of the season will be on hand at the first curtain tonight to greet this band of funsters.

Some of the foremost stars of the colored entertainment realm are featured in the big cast of 50, which stamps the "Smart Set" company in a class by itself. Every conceivable type of entertainer is included in this big 1927 edition of the famous Holtkamp minstrels. Minstrel and musical comedy ranks were searched for the stars of this show, which is a big-time combination of the best elements of both the minstrel and the musical comedy.

The chorus, which is always the making or breaking of a musical comedy, is found in its finest form in the "Smart Set" company. Backed by many years of experience as a colored show producer, L. B. Holtkamp has selected for this 1927 edition a chorus that is the finest of his career, according to his own announcement. A big jazz band and orchestra is another feature that will send the show over in whirlwind fashion tonight. It is announced that there are still a few choice seats to be had at Chess' place until 9 o'clock and at the theater until the hour of the performance.

EMERGENCY FLEET DAMAGE ACTION CAN BE RETRIED

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—The District of Columbia supreme court today granted a new trial to Maurice Richberg, representing the National Timber company, Mobile, Ala., in his $120,000 suit against the United States Emergency Fleet corporation for an alleged breach of contract. The case has been before a jury twice.

At its final trial, Richberg was awarded a verdict of more than $100,000, which was set aside on appeal. Recently the second jury gave him $9,800 with interest for nine years, which brought the total close to $15,000.

The court suggested that a compromise should be reached.

MIZNER IS REELECTED BY FLORIDA COMPANY

Boca Raton, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Addison Mizner, Palma Beach, was reelected president of the Mizner Development corporation at a meeting of the board of directors and stock holders here.

The session was announced as the regular annual meeting for the election of additional directors and the transaction of routine business, and not due to the involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed yesterday in Jacksonville by three alleged creditors.

In addition to Mr. Mizner the board elected James F. Schaperkotter, Philadelphia, chairman; E. T. Halter, Boca Raton, secretary and treasurer, re-elected; Clark L. Poole, Chicago, chairman of the executive committee, with E. Edin Karstrom, Chicago, and Mr. Schaperkotter as members.

2ND WEEK OF—
Reduced Prices!
Entire Balcony (nights) 50c
Entire Orchestra (nights) 75c
The Forsyth Players
Present
Geo. M. Cohan's Latest Success
"AMERICAN BORN"
Mats.—Tues., Thurs., Sat—2:30
Evenings—8:30
Forsyth

Fast as lightning!
FRED THOMSON
IN DON MIKE
TUDOR Now Showing

PONCE DE LEON
at Boulevard
Today—ROD LaROCQUE and MARGUERITE De La MOTTE in
"RED DICE"
Saturday, HOOT GIBSON in "THE TEXAS STREAK"

HOWARD
One of the Publix Theatres
DOLORES COSTELLO
IN
"THE THIRD DEGREE"
PUBLIX STAGE SHOW
"MOONLIGHT"
2D BIG WEEK
ARTHUR MARTEL
GUEST ORGANIST
BARGAIN MATINEES
11 A. M. to 1 P. M.—25c

ATLANTA'S METROPOLITAN Better Pictures Better Music
Now Playing
"THE NIGHT OF LOVE"
WITH Ronald Colman
Vilma Banky
AND Other Big Features
Bargain Matinee Daily
11 A. M. to 1 P. M., 25 cents.
Coming Next Week
VIOLA DANA
IN "HOMESTRUCK"

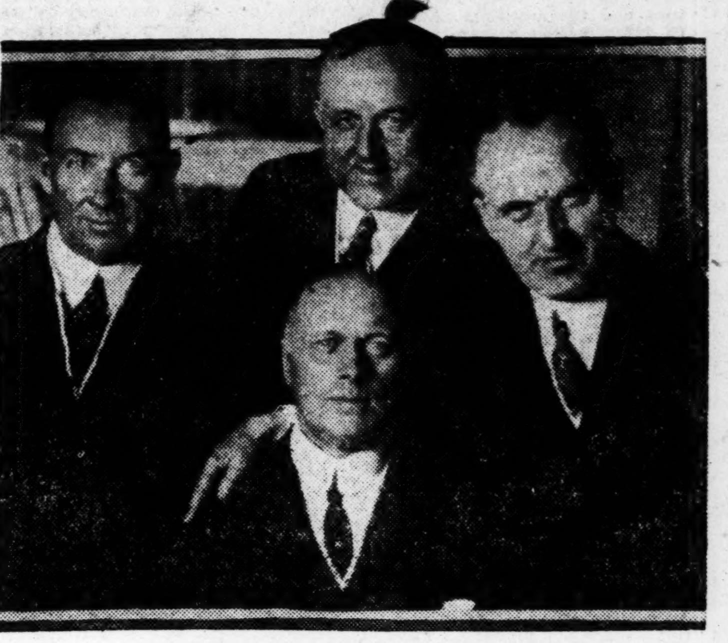
TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT!
Show Starts Promptly —at 10:30 o'clock
MIDNIGHT FROLIC
Grab a ticket while the grabbin's good—for this funniest of all colored shows! Big cast of fifty stars in a combination minstrels and musical comedy! Red Hot Chorus! Swing on for this wild, wild show!
MIDNIGHT FROLIC
"SMART SET MINSTRELS"
81 THEATRE DECATUR STREET
Seats on Sale at Chess' Place, 5 Points, & Theatre, WA. 1440-1154

Six Famous Bible Teachers Speak at Conference Today



THE LOTUS MALE QUARTETTE.

Six of the most famous preachers and Bible teachers in America will speak today at the Bible conference, now being held at the Baptist Tabernacle and which is slated to continue through Sunday. In addition to the six distinguished pulpiteers, the Lotus Male quartet, of Boston, internationally known singers of old-time gospel hymns, will appear at all sessions of the conference.

Speakers at the three sessions held Thursday included Dr. Melvin Grove Kyle, famous archaeologist; Dr. Clovis G. Chappell, pastor of the First Methodist church, of Memphis; Dr. Curtis Lee Laws, editor of the Watchman-Examiner; Dr. Max Wertheimer, former rabbi and Christian science reader, but now a Baptist minister, and Dr. A. T. Robertson, of the Louisville seminary.

Today Dr. Wertheimer will speak at 10 a. m., taking as his subject "The Second Coming of Christ." Dr. Laws will preach at 11 o'clock.

At the afternoon session today, beginning at 2:30, Dr. Kyle will give his last archaeology lecture of the conference. He will be followed at 3:30 by Dr. Robertson, who will continue his series on the Book of Hebrews.

At 7:15 tonight Bishop Warren A. Candler will preach and at 8:15 Dr. Chappell will occupy the pulpit for the second time during the series of meetings. The Lotus quartet will sing at each service.

Capacity crowds greeted the speakers at all sessions Thursday. The Thursday night meeting was particularly enthusiastic, when Dr. Campbell gave his first sermon of the week and Dr. Kyle also spoke. Dr. Chappell began a series of sermons on Bible characters, which he will continue to the end of the conference. Last night he took Abraham and Lot as his characters and showed how both were believers in God, but the difference between the two men was that religion dominated the life of Abraham, while Lot was willing to sidetrack his religion for business or pleasure. He said that Lot moved to Sodom to aid his business interests and prospered there, in a worldly sense, but lost touch with God, which Abraham, living the simpler life of an agriculturalist under his tents, retained.

BIRTH RATE CUT IN U. S. BLAMED ON "CONTROL"

New York, March 10.—(United News.)—The birth rate in the United States has been reduced one-half since the civil war owing to the wide dissemination of birth control information, said Professor Warren Simpson Thompson, director of the Scripps foundation at Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, today before sailing for Europe.

The Anglo-Saxon stock still is the most prolific—rather than the Latin or Slavic part of the population, he said. He denied that the "old American stock" is dying out. While it is true that the first generation of foreigners have large families, he said the second generation often is childless.

"American mothers," Professor Thompson said, "undoubtedly give birth to more children than French, Italian or German mothers."

Mother! Now You Know How To Help Your Puny, Weak Child

It's Your Duty to Aid Him to Grow Strong, Active and Sound in Body and Mind.

That little boy or girl of yours—that doesn't weigh enough—that isn't strong—has no appetite—lacks vigor and is perhaps backward, listless and timid.

What are you going to do with him?

Have you ever heard of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar coated and as easy for ailing children to take as candy?

Every druggist in America sells them—60 tablets, 60 cents—and the supremely good combination of up-building agents surely does help the sickly, run down, puny, frail little ones.

No need to give him any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—McCoy's Tablets, rich in vitamines, are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach upsetting medicine, and they surely do.

Try them as directed for 30 days, mother; and if at the end of that time you are not delighted with the improvement in your dear little one, get your money back.

You can get them at Jacobs Drug Store or any druggist and remember, too, they are fine for thin, run down, underweight men and women who need more flesh, strength, vigor and vitality. Demand McCoy's—the original and genuine.—(adv.)

"COAST TO COAST"
Trivers Clothes
Established in 1902
GUARANTEED SAVINGS!
We make the following condition with every purchase. Trivers clothes must prove better value than you can get elsewhere. Otherwise we will cheerfully refund your money. You are the judge and jury!!
TRIVERS GREATEST VALUES for SPRING are NOW READY
Save $10 to $20 on Every Garment
Our windows and interior stock show the style tendencies, the patterns and colorings for the new season. Discard your Winter suit and overcoat now and get into new, Trivers clothes—you will feel better and incidentally save from $10 to $20 on your purchase.
2 PANTS SUITS
Topcoats & Tuxedos
$25 and $35
For Men or Young Men—All Sizes
Every man, regardless of how liberally he can spend, appreciates the importance of value. Trivers clothes for 25 years have always represented economy in this direction. Yet, nothing has ever been spared to produce clothes of high character, in every detail. Our tremendous buying power of woolens, our own manufacturing and selling direct through our chain of Coast to Coast stores assure you of liberal savings.
Our New Department Presents
SUITS at $22.50 With 1 Pair of Trousers
Choice of Serges, Worsteds, Cheviots, Cassimeres — all 100% pure wool quality. Newest shades. Single, double breasted and college models. All sizes.
Extra Trousers to Match, $6
Trivers Service in Every City Where We Have a Store
28 Trivers Stores from Coast to Coast
"COAST TO COAST"
Trivers Clothes
35 Peachtree St. At 5 Points
ATLANTA
Open Saturdays Till 9 P. M.

Midnight Revue To Be Greatest Show Ever Offered To Public

Marking an epoch in theatrical performances presented to the Atlanta public will be the Midnight Revue at the city auditorium this evening, beginning at 11 o'clock. The doors will open at 10:30 o'clock, as there are no reserved seats for the performance. The tickets are $1 each and every dollar will be used for the support of the Tallulah Falls school, which was established and is maintained by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs for the children of the north Georgia mountains.

From advance information, the show gives promise of being the greatest amusement ever offered in this city and will include only professional artists. The play will be in the nature of a vaudeville show and will include the headline acts shown in the theaters of Atlanta this week.

Atlanta society will make up a large part of the audience at this great democratic affair. A number of dinner parties and bridge-suppers will be given in the early part of the evening, the hosts and guests to proceed to the auditorium later for the mammoth performance. Tickets for the show may be secured at the box office of the auditorium or from any local theater box office. Knowing the full dollar for the tickets for the Tallulah Midnight Revue goes to the Tallulah Falls school, many friends of the school are purchasing tickets who will not be able to attend the revue.

B. Y. P. U. Group Is Entertained.

Group A-1 of the Pep B. Y. P. U. held its regular monthly business meeting at the home of Miss Edith McKinney, on Metropolitan avenue. Miss Harriet Robison, captain of the group, presided over the meeting. The regular monthly meeting was planned.

The group was later entertained by Miss Gladys McKinney. Those present were Miss Harriet Robison, Miss Emely Jones, Miss Edith McKinney, Miss Gladys McKinney, George Burton and Fred Henderson.

Girl Scout Officers Meet Next Monday.

The Girls Scout Officer's association holds its monthly meeting Monday afternoon, March 14, at 3:30 o'clock at scout headquarters. Troop No. 1 of Decatur will give a demonstration scout meeting with Misses Josephine Newberry and Jean Cook directing. Plans for sending a delegate from each troop to the girl scout convention at Charleston on April 8, 9 and 10 will be discussed. Leaders are urged to be present and bring representatives from their troops.

Church Society Sponsors Pageant.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Pattillo Memorial Methodist church will sponsor a pageant entitled "Tell the Tidings" to be presented at the church Sunday evening, March 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

Those taking part are as follows: Mrs. M. E. Hill, Miss Ada Rumbley, Mrs. C. J. Johnson, Mrs. R. H. Bush, Mrs. L. L. Barnes, Mrs. G. M Connor, Mrs. O. D. Posey, Mrs. W. M. Twiggs, Mrs. T. E. Whitaker, Mrs. J. R. Sullivan, Mrs. H. L. Folger, Mrs. W. E. Scott, Mrs. Phoenix, Mrs. Grady Goode, Mrs. H. W. Bush, Mrs. Henry Martin, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Atkinson, Miss Gladys Glausen, Francess Adams, Eunice Hill, Doris Holt, Frances Shuford, Etta Ruth Van Winkle, Martha Arnall, Margaret Asher, Mary Hill, Charlie Bob Connor, Katherine Werner, Mrs. L. D. Jolly.

Music will be furnished by the choir of the Pattillo Memorial church.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Mitchell Entertain Club.

Lieutenant and Mrs. William L. Mitchell entertained the members of their bridge club Thursday evening at their home at Fort McPherson. The members included Lieutenant and Mrs. Mitchell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Cyril E. Faine, Lieutenant and Mrs. George P. Lynch and Lieutenant and Mrs. Marvin W. Peck.

Every Day
Aching Feet

Why should one walk on their feet every day and suffer the pain and discomfort, all of which may be caused by one of the small bones in the foot being out of its normal position, from the above cause. You can have instant relief by consulting our Foot Specialist and have your feet examined and the proper appliance fitted to correct the cause.

EXAMINATION FREE
Wizard System
R. A. PARKER
Orthopraxic Foot Specialist
Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

KAMPER'S
FREE
SUGAR
5 Pounds
BEST Granulated Sugar
FREE with every $3.00
Retail Purchase
(Except Sugar)
Until Wednesday,
March 16th
Kamper's
ATLANTA

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Give Bridge-Supper At Decatur Home

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Arnold entertained at a bridge-supper Thursday evening at their home in Decatur in honor of Miss Mary Will Montgomery, a bride-elect of April and T. J. Stewart.

Pink and white carnations graced the mantels and consoles and found the centerpiece for the lovely table. Silver candlesticks held pink tapers. The place cards carried out the pink and white color scheme.

Miss Montgomery wore a beautiful gown of pink georgette crepe trimmed with gold sequins.

Mrs. Arnold wore yellow georgette crepe trimmed in chripstals.

The guests were Miss Mary Will Montgomery, Mr. T. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McFail, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobbins, Jr., Miss Zalia Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Weekerlin, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hollinshead, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Branch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carithers.

Alpha Gamma Deltas Plan Benefit Bridge.

The Atlanta alumnae club of Alpha Gamma Delta will give a benefit bridge at the Orange Villa grill, 766 Peachtree street Saturday afternoon, March 19 at 3 o'clock.

The charge will be only two dollars a table, the proceeds to be donated to Alpha Gamma Delta summer camp at Jackson, Michigan, which cares for thousands of poor and undernourished children. Call Hemlock 1086 for reservations.

A number of novel prizes will be given, and chances may be taken on cakes and boxes of candy.

Gregory-Wesley Bible Class Holds Meeting.

The Gregory-Wesley Bible class of the Calvary Methodist church, Mrs. A. D. Gregory teacher, held its monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. A. R. Marbut in West End park, Friday morning.

Splendid reports were given by the different committees and new officers were installed as follows: Mrs. F. B. Magee, president; Mrs. T. S. Blalock, first vice president; Mrs. A. P. Syers, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Himebough, recording secretary; Mrs. L. Moody, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. George A. Campbell, treasurer. Mrs. M. J. Morse has accepted the chairmanship of the visiting committee and Mrs. Mary Eubanks chairmanship of the social service work. An interesting "Bible Question" contest was conducted by Mrs. Gregory in which the "odds" were victorious over the "evens" by six.

Those enjoying Mrs. Marbut's hospitality were: Mrs. A. P. Himebaugh, Mrs. L. H. Caveny, Mrs. L. Moody, Mrs. C. E. Burnett, Mrs. Mary Eubanks, Mrs. W. B. Winn, Mrs. S. E. M. Johns, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Caudill, Mrs. A. R. Marbut, Mrs. T. S. Blalock, Mrs. S. D. Mullineaux, Mrs. Florrid, Mrs. George A. Campbell, Mrs. F. B. Magee, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. A. D. Gregory.

Mrs. DeGive Writes On Music Club Musical.

Mrs. Julius L. De Give, publicity chairman and excellent musical critic, has the following to say of Professor I. M. Mayer's monthly artists program sponsored by the Atlanta Music club.

"The monthly artists program of the Atlanta Music club was given in the auditorium of the Women's club wednesday morning, March 9, at 11 o'clock, by Professor I. M. Mayer, well known pianist, assisted by Miss Maude Eberhardt, pianiste; Miss Margaret Battle, soprano, and Miss Helen Battle, accompanist.

Professor Mayer, an outstanding figure in the musical development of Atlanta, played the beautiful tonepoem, Concerto in G minor, Op. 25, of Mendelssohn. It was interpreted with individual artistry. The emotional and technical value of this composition was brought out by the hand of a refined artist and a master of the pianistic efforts required. In the facility of the finger work of the brilliant climaxes and the glittering tone shower of the fanciful cadenzas, Professor Mayer proved himself a finished artist.

"Miss Eberhardt's playing of the orchestral accompaniment on second piano was praiseworthy in every respect. She played with rhythmic feeling and musicianly interpretation. Miss Battle possesses a voice of deep resonance, wide range and clear carrying quality. She sings with musical temperament and expression and justly warranted the appreciation and enthusiasm demonstrated by the responsive audience.

The following songs were sung in two groups: "Dove Song," from the Lorely, Catalani; "La Ninna-Nanna Della Vergine," Max Reger; Quede Souffrance, Lenormand; "March Wind," Meade; "Quiet," Sanderson; "To Me Thou Art Lovely," Goodel; "The Cat Bird," Clokey.

Miss Battle responded very generously to the applause with "The Market" by Carew. Miss Helen Battle accompanied Miss Battle in an admirable and pleasing way. The next meeting of the Atlanta Music club will be on March 16, when Miss Keipp will lecture on "Modern Wind Instruments."

Story Hour Announced For Children.

Friday afternoon, March 11, at 3 o'clock, the regular story hour for children, will be conducted by Mrs. Spencer Stone, presenting the progress of art from the early Christian era to the children in simple language, illustrated with colored reproductions. These story hours have proved very popular, and much favorable comment is heard from parents who have sent their children. The hour is free to any child who desires to come, it is hoped that the attendance will continue as large as the past three weeks have indicated. The Atlanta Art association sponsors these story hours at the High Museum of Art, 1032 Peachtree street.

Mrs. W. J. Morrison Will Assist in Lecture Recital

All the way from her home in Orlando, Fla., a former Atlanta woman, Mrs. W. J. Morrison, will come to Atlanta this week for the express purpose of assisting in the management of business detail preliminary to the lecture-recital to be given by Mrs. Edward McDowell, one of the most distinguished figures in music in America, at the Woman's club on Monday night.

Mrs. Morrison's devotion to music is unique in that it has taken a practical form seldom selected by any but professional agents or promoters, because of the hard work involved.

Among the results of her leadership and excellent management is the Orlando Symphony orchestra, now well manned and supported; substantial achievement for the endowment fund and scholarships of the National Federation of Music Clubs; and the popularizing in Florida of the Peterborough idea—the artist colony established to commemorate the contribution to music of Edward McDowell, and to carry out his scheme for ideal studio life on the New Hampshire farm where the great composer himself lived and worked.

Mrs. Morrison's promotion of the Peterborough fund has also taken artistic form in lecture recitals she herself gives, from which Peterborough gets all the receipts except expenses. While Mrs. McDowell devotes the lecture feature of her recital largely to an explanation of the artist colony, Mrs. Morrison, on the other hand, confines her commentary to the life of McDowell and the particular works on her programs.

One of these lecture recitals Mrs. Morrison put on at Sebring, Fla., last week under the auspices of the Senior High School Glee club. Her interpretations of McDowell's "To the Sea," and "The Eagle," which were recorded a few months ago by the Duo Art are now published. Their main purpose is for use in England and McDowell in schools and colleges America to illustrate the work of where authoritative interpretations could not otherwise be presented the pupils. The schools in Florida are making this "McDowell Week," which they are observing with McDowell programs.

Miss Pamela Johnston Is Honored at Luncheon.

Miss Pamela Johnston, lovely debutante of the season, was honored Wednesday at the luncheon at which Mrs. Reuben Arnold entertained at 1:30 o'clock at her home, "Waverly," on Pace's Ferry road.

Beautiful flowers from the garden of the hostess were attractively used to decorate the table. Thirty guests were present including debutantes and members of the unmarried contingent.

Mrs. Lamar Hostess.

Mrs. Joseph Lamar entertained a group of the young of the younger social set at bridge Wednesday afternoon at her home on Muscogee road in compliment to Misses Isabelle and Pamela Johnston and Miss Linda Walke, the guest of Mrs. Hunt Chipley.

Chicken Supper At St. Paul Church.

A chicken supper will be given at St. Paul church Friday evening, March 11, by circle No. 9, of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, in the Sunday school room for the benefit of new building. In connection with the supper the teachers' council meeting will be held. Dr. R. L. Russell, from Druid Hill church, will give a talk; others on the program will be Miss Virginia Owen, who will give a reading. Miss Owen is a pupil of Dr. Watson, of the Atlanta School of Oratory and Expression. Musical numbers by Mrs. J. T. Cagle and Miss Helen Trabu and Miss Ruth Will. The public is invited. Supper will be served from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, at 50 cents a plate, including baked chicken and dressing, gravy, rice, cranberries and lemon pie.

Mrs. Ashby Visits Annual O. E. S. Session.

Mrs. Rose Mae Ashby, worthy grand marshal of the general grand chapter, O. E. S., attended the session of the grand chapter of Tennessee, in Nashville, recently, where she was one of the guests of honor.

Mrs. Ashby received many social and fraternal courtesies extended through the various past grands of Tennessee. She was one of the guests at the banquet given at the Masonic home and luncheon given by Mrs. Jane Ewing, past grand matron.

Mrs. Ashby gave an address before the grand chapter and was honored by being the worthy grand marshal in installation of the grand officers. Mrs. Madeline B. Conklin, past most worthy grand matron, was the installing officer, and Mrs. Dora Johnson, worthy grand Adah of the general grand chapter, acted worthy grand chaplain. Mrs. Ashby, with the other general grand chapter officers, received beautiful gifts of silver.

A pilgrimage to the Hermitage, the home of Andrew Jackson, who was twice grand master of the grand lodge of Tennessee and twice president of the United States, was enjoyed by Mrs. Ashby and other distinguished guests.

Rob Morris, son of the founder of the order and past worthy grand patron of Kentucky, was the most outstanding visitor of this grand session.

Mrs. Ben Kaplan Is Complimented.

Mrs. Ben Kaplan, a recent bride, was honor guest at a miscellaneous shower Monday evening given by Miss Nell Pendley at her home, 1441 Lanier place.

In the dining room the gifts were arranged on a beautifully-appointed table, which had for its central decoration a large white wedding bell which hung from the chandelier, being held with pink and white ribbons which were caught at intervals to the edge of the table, Unshaded pink table. Unshaded pink tapers completed this decoration.

Miss Pendley was assisted in entertaining by her sisters, Mrs. C. H. Pendley and Mrs. H. V. Shelton. Those invited were: Misses Esther Goldberg, Lola Swords, Ruby Warren, Helen Burdette, Mary Putnam, Ellen Walker, Eunice Veitch, Blanche Johnson, Myrtis Timms, Jessie Hicks, Ethel Jones, Frances Philpot, Mary McHan, Mrs. Welch Hooper, Mrs. W. P. Parrish and Mrs. James E. Hargis.

Dr. Rawizer Is Honored.

An affair of Tuesday evening was a dinner party given Dr. Hubert Rawizer at the Henry Grady hotel celebrating his birthday by the manager and assistant managers of the Stone Mountain district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Dr. Rawizer was presented a handsome smoking jackets.

Those present were Frank G. Gooding, L. M. McGriff, Cecil Lee, E. H. Williams, S. J. Snyder, C. N. Johnson, H. W. Ragland and Dr. H. Rawizer.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

A mammoth benefit in the form of an elaborate midnight revue will be held at the city auditorium at 11 o'clock for the Tallulah Falls school.

The faculty of the Library school of Carnegie library will entertain at an invitation lecture at 3:30 o'clock, featuring Henry Seidel Canby.

Teas at the Atlanta Woman's club.

Alpha Lambda Tau fraternity will give a formal dance at the Atlanta Biltmore.

Military Bridge club meets at Officers' club in Fort McPherson at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. M. B. Arnold will give a bridge-supper honoring Miss Mary Will Montgomery and her fiance, Terah James Stewart.

Mrs. D. T. Robinson will entertain the Randolph-Macon club at tea at her home, 857 Oakdale road, N. E., in honor of founder's day.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity will give a dance at the Druid Hills Golf club.

Miss Beatrice Hirsh and Leonard Haas, whose marriage will be an event of spring, will be honor guests at the dinner party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Underwood at their home in Ansley Park.

Henry Seidel Canby, former professor of English at Yale university, and editor of the Saturday Review, will lecture before the members of the Fine Arts club at the Piedmont Driving club this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Shorter College club will entertain at an elaborate tea at the home of Mrs. Clarke Shewmake on West Peachtree street, the occasion to honor the seniors of the various girls' schools in the city.

The officers of the missionary society of the South Atlanta district are invited to luncheon at the Stewart Avenue Methodist church.

A Biblical pageant will be presented by the Young People's Bible class of St. John's Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school room.

A private view of an exhibition of paintings of Tunisia (North Africa), St. Trope (French Riviera) and New England by Frank Townsend Hutchens, of New York, will be held at the High Museum of Art from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Dr. W. A. Shelton, of Emory university, will give his illustrated lecture on his trip through the Holy Land at the Trinity Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school room.

The members of the 1926-27 Debutante club will meet with Miss Pamela Johnston at the home of her mother, Mrs. Richard Johnston, on Wesley road.

Guy Woolford will entertain at a buffet supper at his home on Springdale road honoring Miss Louise Harned, of Davenport, Iowa, the guest of Miss Anne Lane Newell.

Mrs. Allen C. Gottschaldt will be hostess at a luncheon at her home on Hutington road as a compliment to Mrs. Warren Bartlett, of New York.

The Atlanta Art association will give an informal reception at the High Museum of Art for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townsend Hutchens, of New York, distinguished members of the American Art association.

Mrs. Ward Wight will entertain Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, distinguished editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, at a luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club.

The Ladies' Altar society of the Immaculate Conception church will serve luncheon in the Sunday school hall from 11:30 to 2 o'clock.

Delta Phi Sigma Alumni Meet.

Monday evening a supper was given by the alumni members of the Delta Phi Sigma fraternity of Marist college. An Atlanta alumni association was formed and officers for the year 1927 were elected. R. J. Reynolds, Jr., prominent Atlanta attorney, was elected president. David E. Miller and John Huggins, well-known young business men, were elected to the offices of vice president and secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The alumni includes Harvey Alexander, Armond Arteago, John Bradley, John Campbell, Frank Corrigan, Victor Corrigan, William Farrell, Joseph Gailmard, John Hines, Frank Hicks, John Higgins, Ralph Holland, Harry Holland, Joseph Holliday, Ed Inman, Jr., John Lambert, Pat Lunch, Winter Luckett, Boykin Madden, Paul Madden, Dave Miller, Rowan Murphy, William McAlphin, P. J. McCormack, Jr., Frank Player, Homer Prater, Nevil Reed, J. B. Reynolds, Jr., Glascock Reynolds, R. J. Reynolds, Jr., Lee Richardson, Conril Smith, Graves Smith, Dan Sutter, Curtis Taylor, Jack Tway, Max Williams and Rowland Williams.

Patent One Straps
For Smart Youngsters

For Tiny Tots and Grown Ups with a Taste for what's Young!

Sizes 2 to 5 .... $1.75
Sizes 5 to 8 .... $2.50
Sizes 8½ to 11 .... $3.
Sizes 11½ to 2 .... $4.
Sizes 2½ to 7 .... $5.

Mail Orders Promptly Filled
CHILDREN'S DEPT.
M. RICH & BROS. CO

MUSE'S
Permanent Wave
$12.50

Marcel Wave $1.00
Manicure 75c
Facial, plain $1.00
Shampoo, plain .... 75c up
Violet Ray Facial $2.00
Vibrator Facial $2.00
French Clay Pack $2.50
Scalp Treatments $1.00
Singeing .... 50c and 75c

WAlnut 5400
MUSE'S
BEAUTY SHOP
Sixth Floor—Muse's

Only experts in attendance with every facility and modern equipment to insure best results.

Gate City Guard Gives Brilliant Entertainment

A brilliant event of Thursday evening was the theater and supper party at which the Gate City Guard of Atlanta entertained at the Keith's Georgia and the ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel. This was the initial formal affair at which members of "The Guard" have appeared since receiving the magnificent new uniforms. The Confederate gray uniforms, trimmed with handsome gold braid and the beautiful shaded costumes worn by the ladies, provided a colorful background for the brilliant occasion. The event assembled two hundred members of Atlanta's social and military contingents. Among the distinguished guardsmen present were: Captain George M. Hope, commissioner of Fulton county; Major Emanuel Furth, commander of the Old Guard State Fencibles of Philadelphia; Brigadier General Charles H. Cox, adjutant general of Georgia, a corporal in the Gate City Guard; Captain Peter F. Clarke, veteran national guardsman; Colonel W. M. Camp, an honorary member by virtue of being commander of the Atlanta Old Guard; Captain Robert B. Ennis, United States army, regular army instructor on duty with the Georgia national guard; Major General C. C. Hammond, chief of the militia bureau of the United States; Colonel James M. Kimbrough, regular army instructor on duty with the Georgia national guard; Captain Basil Stockbridge, former state commander of the American Legion.

The Gate City Guard was formed in 1855, and is one of the most important military organizations in Atlanta. Lieutenant Colonel Eugene Oberdorfer, Jr., is the popular commandant. Members of the Gate City Guard, staff officers of the fourth corps area, the commanding officer and others at Fort McPherson, and other military dignitaries attended.

Mrs. R. K. Rambo Issues Notice.

All federated clubwomen selling tickets for the Tallulah Midnight Revue are requested to meet Mrs. R. K. Rambo in the lobby of Keith's Georgia on Friday between 12 and 2 o'clock and turn in all funds and unsold tickets.

Col. Baltzell Named Head of Officers' Bridge Club

Colonel George T. Baltzell, of the Twenty-Second infantry, was elected president of the Officers Bridge club of Fort McPherson at the annual meeting held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Officers club.

Other officers named at this meeting included, vice president, Col. M. S. Jarvis, infantry; secretary and treasurer, Lieutenant William L. Mitchell, Twenty-Second infantry; hop director, Lieutenant George P. Lynch; house director, Captain Glenn A. Ross, Q. M. C.; tennis director, Lieutenant G. Steinmeyer.

The Officers Bridge club is strictly a social organization, its entertainments and activities forming a distinctive part in the life of the army social contingent. The fortnightly bridge parties given at the Officers' club under the auspices of this organization are very popular and are largely attended by members of the military set.

Miss Mamie Garley Weds Mr. Lewis.

Griffin, Ga., March 10.—Miss Mamie Garley and B. P. Lewis, both of Griffin, were quietly married Monday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. James A. Drewry, on North Thirteenth street. A few friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony.

Fine Arts Club To Hear Lecture By H. S. Canby

Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, national literary authority and critic will lecture at the Piedmont Driving club Friday morning at 11 o'clock. He is here under the auspices of the Fine Arts club. Mrs. W. F. Shallenberger, president of the club, has announced that guests' cards for the lecture may be obtained from Mrs. Ewell Gay at her home on Seventeenth street. The cards will be $1 each.

The subject of Dr. Canby's lecture will be "The History of the Book," in which he will attempt to show the typical things that happen to a book from its first inception on through the hands of the publishers and critics. He will illustrate his lecture with current books of considerable importance. Dr. Canby delivered this same lecture at the home of Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt February 17.

Dr. Canby's long experience in the lecture hall and on the public platforms has made this penetrating and profound critic, a witty, forceful and fluent speaker.

MUSE
BOBS . . 50c
Get the Spring Bob!
6th floor
MUSE'S

RICH'S

new phases of fashion bows!
simplicity of line!
navy georgette!
$49.50
stitched crepe facing! crepe bow! palmi collar!
$58
black silk faille! tan facing! broadtail collar! matronly!
$58
carolyn! navy crepe! grosgrain ribbon bands! pleated ruffles!
$39.50
third floor

M. RICH & BROS. CO.
BROAD-ALABAMA & FORSYTH STS.—PHONE WALNUT 4636

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. Harry English and Mrs. Graham Johnson will leave Saturday for New York.

***

Mrs. Thomas Kinney is recuperating at her quarters at Camp Jessup, from an operation for appendicitis.

***

Mrs. A. E. Williams is convalescing at the Fort McPherson hospital, following a recent operation.

***

Mrs. Alonzo Richardson and Mrs. Ira Farmer will attend the sixth district Georgia federation meeting, held Saturday, March 12, in Griffin.

***

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, are guests at the Atlanta Biltmore.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Croom Partridge have returned from their wedding journey and are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Spalding in West End where they will remain until about April 1, after which date they will take possession of their own home on Peachtree Heights.

***

Miss Pearl Wilkerson, of San Antonio, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Lowndes, after spending two months at the Roney Plaza in Miami.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Connally, of Chattanooga, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Daniels.

***

Mrs. Thomas W. Davenport, of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., is at the Biltmore.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Belsham, of Augusta, are spending this week in the city. Mrs. Belsham will be remembered as the popular Miss Evelyn Orme, of Atlanta.

***

Thomas Nabors, of Amarillo, Texas, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Forrest M. Pittard.

***

The Sigma Nu house party at Emory Little Commencement will have the following young ladies: Misses Marguerite Snelling, Harriette Wynne, Kate Irby, Sonita Foster, Martha Worth Rogers, Jinx White, Hazel Stamps, Margie Cargill, Marjorie Barr, Margaret Arnold, Virginia Myrick, Ruth Miller, Virginia Hale and Ruth Hendrix.

***

Mr. and Mrs. William Huntley have returned to their home in Buffalo after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Speer, on Peachtree circle.

***

Mrs. Rutherford Lipscomb, Mrs. George Forrester and Mrs. Ernest Hyde returned Thursday after an enjoyable motor trip through Florida.

***

Major H. R. W. Herwig returned to the fourth corps area Thursday after spending two weeks on an official inspection trip throughout Florida.

***

Major General William Weigel sailed from Manila on the transport Thomas early in February, and will arrive in San Francisco the middle of March, and will come immediately to Atlanta.

***

Mrs. Channing Cope has returned to her home on Briarcliff place after spending two months in Florida.

***

Alfredo Barili, Sr., is able to be out and has resumed his classes after a three months' illness.

***

Russell Johnson is improving after a recent serious illness.

***

Mrs. P. L. Shaefer, of Carrollton, is at St. Joseph's infirmary for an operation.

***

Mrs. Luther Z. Rosser, Sr., and Mrs. Charles Shelton left Thursday for New York.

***

Mrs. Helen Dargan Lowndes is recuperating from a recent tonsil operation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan, Sr., on Ponce de Leon avenue.

***

Miss Sue Tanner, of Carrollton, is the attractive guest of Mrs. John J. Woodside, Jr. Miss Tanner returned recently from Daytona, Fla., where she spent the winter season.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sisson, Miss Laurie Larendon, and Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Newton, of Griffin, will sail Saturday, March 12, on the "Heredia" from New Orleans for Panama and Havana, Cuba. They will return to Atlanta April 1.

***

Mrs. Channing Cope has returned to her home on Briarcliff place after spending two months in Florida.

***

Mrs. Clara McCullough left Thursday for a motor trip to California She will be the guest of Miss Rose Ashby at a house party on the Catalina islands for two weeks and will spend two months touring west.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey C. Kelly, of Charlotte, N. C., are among the recent arrivals at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edwin May announce the birth of a little girl March first at Georgia Baptist hospital, who has been given the name, Sarah Catherine.

***

Mr. and Mrs. William Vinson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending several days at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Smythe Gambrell have returned from their wedding journey and are registered at the Biltmore hotel. Mrs. Gambrell was before her recent marriage Miss Kitty Hagood, daughter of General and Mrs. Johnson Haygood.

***

Mrs. Paul Jones, of Canton, Ga., is spending several days at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

***

Mrs. W. J. Morrison, of Orlando, Fla., has arrived in Atlanta to spend several weeks.

***

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams, of Tacoa, Fla., are at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Law have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at 856 Briarcliff road. Mrs. Law was formerly Miss Margaret Rogers and her marriage to Mr. Law was a brilliant event of February.

***

The many friends of Mrs. Walter S. Coleman will regret to learn of her illness with influenza at her home on Peachtree street.

***

Misses Victoria A. Encore, Amanda Eniscon, of Chicago, Ill., are spending several days at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

***

Gus Loyless has returned to Athens to resume his studies at the University of Georgia, after a visit to his mother, Mrs. D. A. Loyless, on East Fourteenth street.

James-Farmer Marriage Is Announced.

Atlanta friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. James formerly distinguished educators in the city have received the following announcements:

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carroll James announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Allen Meador Farmer, Wednesday, March 2, in Salem, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Meador Farmer will be at home after the fifteenth of March, at 356 Adams street, Decatur, Georgia.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The Friday Morning Reading club meets at 10:30 o'clock this morning at Pinehill, the home of Mrs. Clark Howell, Sr., on Wesley road.

The Dolly Madison chapter, Children of the American Revolution, will meet at 3:30 o'clock at Craigie, 1204 Piedmont avenue, N. E.

The executive board of Kirkwood P.-T. A. will meet at 10 o'clock in the school room.

The regular meeting of the Georgia Baptist hospital auxiliary will be held at 10:30 o'clock in the Joe Brown Connally reception room.

The Tech High P.-T. A. will hold its meeting at 8 o'clock in the military building.

The meeting of the English Avenue P.-T. A. will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Atlanta chapter No. 57, O. E. S., will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock at Joseph C. Greenfield lodge on Moreland avenue.

The regular monthly meeting of the business woman's circle of the Central Presbyterian church will be held at the church. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

Oglethorpe chapter No. 112, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold the regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple on Peachtree road at Buckhead.

The regular meeting of the executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club will meet at 10:30 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the Agnes Lee chapter, U. D. C., will be held at 3 o'clock at the chapter house in Decatur.

The Atlanta chapter, Winthrop Alumnae association, meets at the home of Miss Alice Rivers, 101 College place, in Decatur, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas H. Johnston will conduct the mission study class of the Young Women's auxiliary at St. Philip's cathedral chapter house at 6 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, Argonne unit, will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building at 8 o'clock.

The Ladies' auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will meet at the "Y" rooms at 3 o'clock. Executive board meeting at 2 o'clock.

Joint Hostesses at Ft. McPherson Party.

Mrs. Cyril C. Chandler and Mrs. Syril E. Faine were joint hostesses at a St. Patrick's bridge-tea at the home of Mrs. Faine's, at Fort McPherson Thursday afternoon.

The guests included Misses Margaret Casaday and Gertrude Rowell, Mesdames Nelson A. Myll, George W. Teachout, Glenn A. Ross, Ernest Eddy Haskell and her mother, Mrs. John Montgomery Rice, of San Francisco, Calif.; Frank Rowell, Robert S. Moore, Robal Johnson, George F. Baltzelle, R. M. Wilson, John Hall, DeWitt Smith, Malcolm Fortier, Winfred Skelton and her mother, Mrs. James Cantey Alexander, of Columbus, Ga.; A. M. Parsons and her aunt, Mrs. Hodges, of Boston, Mass.; E. I. Dunham, Jesse Graham, Roy Turrentine, Samuel C. Harrison, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Samuel C. Harrison, Sr.; Furman Hardee and sister, Mrs. Stanley G. Blanton; William L. Mitchell, A. W. Cunningham, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. A. W. Cunningham, Sr.; Marvin W. Peck, George P. Lynch, Bert N. Bryan, George E. Steinmeyer, Harry J. Keely and Arthur C. Blain.

Alpha Lambda Taus Give Lovely Tea-Dance.

Among the delightful social affairs attendant upon the sixth annual convention of the Alpha Lamba Tau fraternity was the tea-dance given Thursday afternoon by the fraternity at the Georgian ballroom of the Atlanta Biltmore hotel from 5 to 7 o'clock.

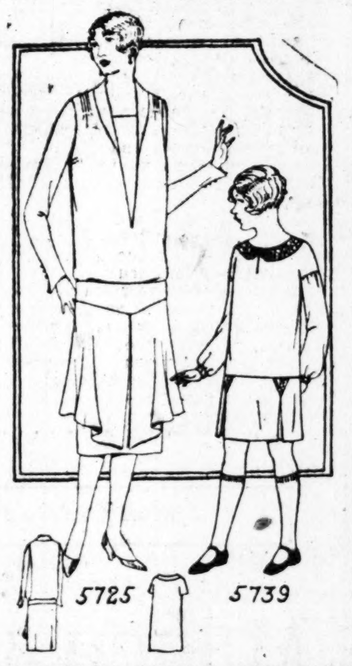
The fraternity colors of gold and black were artistically used to decorate the ballroom.

All meetings and social events are being held at the Biltmore hotel.

The national officers are. T. V. Morrison, grand regent; J. D. Baxter, grand baron; J. D. Chestnut, grand scribe; T. M. Wells, grand master of the exchequer; C. D. Harrell, social scribe; H. C. Hooter, grand sentinel; D. V. Gray, grand warden; R. L. Sides, grand chaplain.

The invited guests included a group of prominent Atlantans, the fraternity members and a group of young girls.

The Constitution's Patterns



A STYLISH DRESS FOR THE WOMAN OF MATURE FIGURE WITH SLENDER HIPS.

5725. Broadcloth, moire or satin would be very good for this style.

The pattern is cut in nine sizes: 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52 and 54 inches bust measure. A 42-inch size will require 5 1-2 yards of 40-inch material. The width of the skirt at the foot is 1 3-4 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

A CHARMING DRESS FOR THE GROWING GIRL.

5739. Crepe de chine with metal embroidery or figured silk would be an attractive development for this design. The long sleeve portion may be omitted.

This pattern is cut in four sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. A 10-year size will require 2 5-8 yards of 32-inch material together with 3-8 yard of contrasting material 18 inches wide for inserts and facing on collar and cuffs, if made with long sleeves. If made with short sleeves, 3-8 yard less of 32-inch material is required.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Send 12c in silver or stamps for our up-to-date spring and summer 1927 book of fashions.

In ordering patterns write name and address plainly on a sheet of paper. Order by number and include price in silver or stamps. Do not mail letter to The Constitution building in Atlanta, but address as follows: Fashion Department. The Constitution. 11-13 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Davidson Honors Visitors at Luncheon.

Mrs. Alfred Odell, of Bridgeport, Conn., who is visiting Mrs. H. H. Lamar and Mrs. Joseph Carmilla, of Pittsburgh, the guest of Mrs. W. Y. Roper, were honored by Mrs. Joseph Davidson Thursday at a very lovely bridge-luncheon at the home in Boulevard park.

Mrs. Davidson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Bess Winn. The guests included Mesdames J. W. Archer, Milton Berry, Everett Wrigley, C. B. Cannon, H. G. Voorhis, Eleanor McAuliffe, H. M. Lamar, P. A. Aicklen, W. Y. Roper, Jack Bothamley, J. M. White, J. Marshall and Miss Noel Hanriham.

Jackie Coogan in Picture At Fairfax Saturday.

Jackie Coogan in "The Rag Man," will be the attraction at the Fairfax Saturday morning matinee for children. The story, by Willard Mack, is a comedy of New York life revealing the adventures of a 10-year-old Irish-American kid burned out of an orphanage who becomes the partner of an old Jewish junk man.

The cast includes Max Davidson, Robert Edeson, William Conklin and Lydia Yeamans Titus.

An appropriate prolog has been arranged by members of the Hapeville Woman's club, who have charge of the show. Ushers will be furnished by Mrs. W. A. Deitrick's division of the junior department of the club.

Dr. M. H. Armor To Give Lecture.

Dr. Mary Harris Armor, nationally-known lecturer, will address a mass meeting, in the interest of prohibition and law enforcement, in the Stewart Avenue Methodist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Armor has returned from a tour of Cuba and will tell some of her experiences while there. The meeting is being sponsored by the Tenth Ward W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Steed Honors Mrs. H. R. Collins.

Mrs. H. R. Collins, of San Francisco was honored by Mrs. E. E. Steed at a lovely seated tea Thursday afternoon at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel. Covers were placed for Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Cheston N. Weems, Mrs. Charles Hadden, Mrs. Ross Gardner, Mrs. J. C. Gentry, Mrs. John Milshaps, Mrs. Christian Clarke, Mrs. E. L. Roberts, Mrs. W. S. Coleman and Mrs. Steed.

Miss Nell House Is Feted Bride-Elect.

Mrs. Lester Lovvorn and Mrs. William Fullington were joint hostesses in honor of Miss Nell House, of Douglasville, a charming bride-elect of March, at the home of Mrs. Lester Lovvorn, 531 East Ontario avenue, Wednesday evening.

The house was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, the color scheme being carried out in yellow and white.

Those present were: Misses Nell House, Marie Price, Nammie Kirby, Lois Boatright, Julia Baggett, Winnie Belle House, Jo and Louise Powell, Mesdames Henry Abercrombie, Lonnie Roberts, William Fullington and Lester Lovvorn.

Miss Penelope Reeves Weds John Kentis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Reeves, former Atlantans, now of the American colony of Havana, Cuba, announce the marriage of their daughter, Penelope Charlotte, to John Bertram Kentis, also of the American colony of Havana, at Key West, Fla., Tuesday, March 1.

Only members of the immediate families witnessed the ceremony.

Children's Department To Give Recital.

The children's department of the Atlanta School of Oratory and Expression, 402 Wesley Memorial Church building, will give a recital of varied form and selections of interest and inspiration Saturday, March 12 at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Ask Georgia Charter.

Domesticating proceedings have been filed with S. G. McLendon, secretary of state, by the American Forest Products company, of Indianapolis, Ind., for introduction of the company's activities into Glynn county, it was announced Thursday. The corporation is represented by Bennet, Twitty and Reese.

CHARLES P. LOTT DIES IN FLORIDA, RELATIVES HEAR

News of the death of Charles P. Lott, 52 years of age, for many years vice president of the Fulton Ice & Coal company, who died Thursday morning at his residence in Miami, Fla., was received in Atlanta by relatives and friend here.

Although a native of Florida, Mr. Lott was well known here, having been connected with the local company for more than ten years prior to his removal to Florida five years ago. He was a member of the Stewart Avenue Methodist church and the Capitol View Masonic lodge No. 640. Mr. Lott was a member of the Humphrey & Lott real estate firm at Miami at the time of his death.

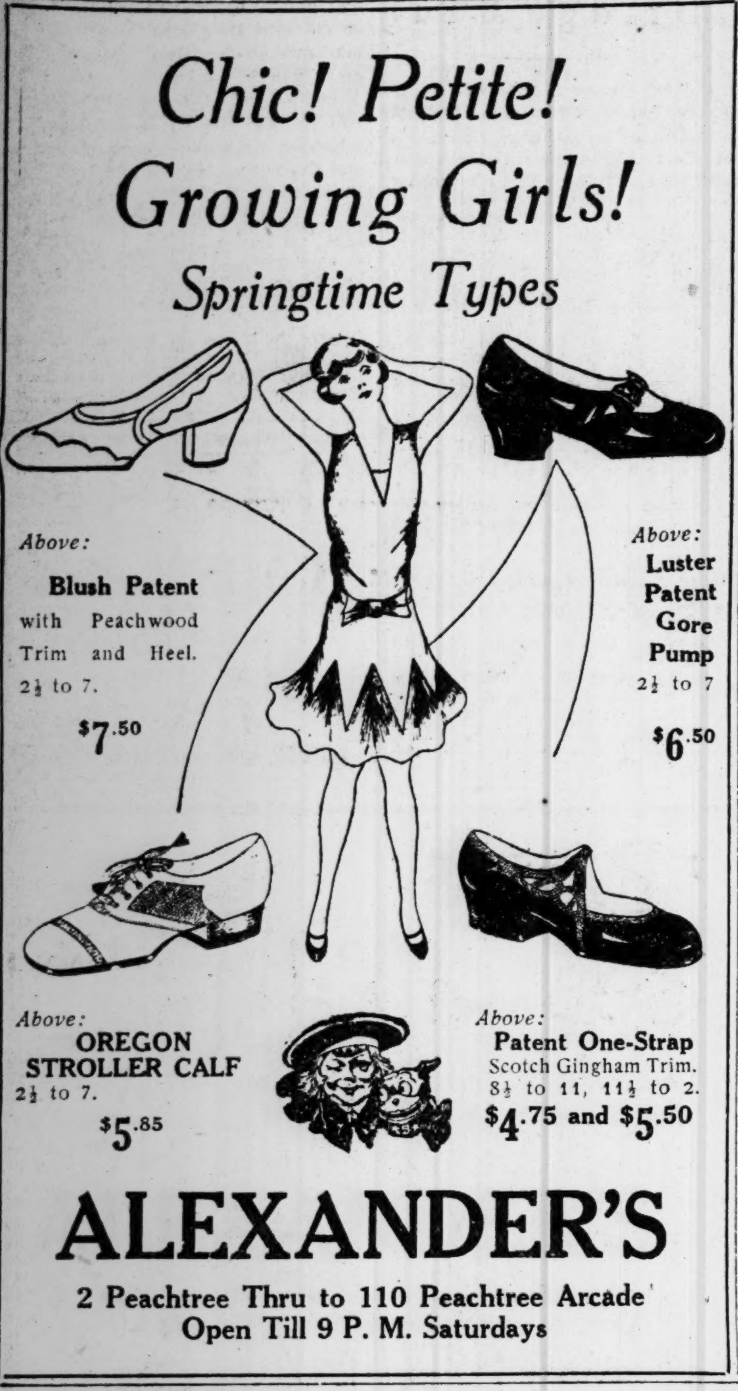
He is survived by two sons, Frank B. and Roy M. Lott; one brother, H. M. Lott, of Tampa; three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Bostick, of Havana, Fla.; Mrs. J. L. Heeley, of Miami, and Miss Lizzie May Lott.

The body will be brought to Atlanta Saturday morning for interment at Greenwood cemetery. The funeral party will meet at the chapel of Barclay & Brandon at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Masonic ceremonies at the grave will be conducted by the Capitol View lodge No. 640.

ASMON LEWIS BETTER AFTER OPERATION

Asmon Lewis, assistant superintendent of Grady hospital, was reported to be resting well late Thursday following an operation early Wednesday morning for an acute attack of appendicitis. He was taken suddenly ill Tuesday afternoon and was operated on at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. He has been connected with Grady hospital as assistant superintendent for several years.

You Know a Tonic is Good when it makes you eat like a hungry boy and brings back the color to your cheeks. You can soon feel the Strengthening, Invigorating Effect of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. 60c.—(adv.)



Chic! Petite! Growing Girls!
Springtime Types

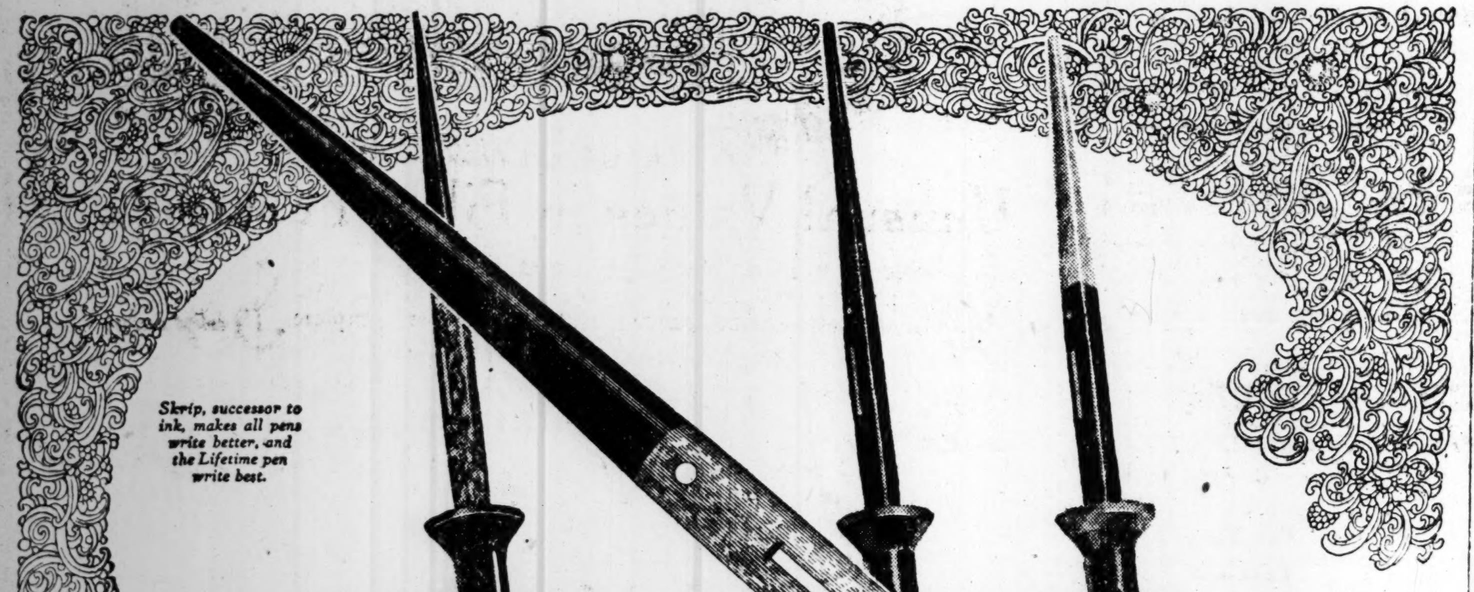
Above:
Blush Patent with Peachwood Trim and Heel.
2½ to 7.
$7.50

Above:
Luster Patent Gore Pump
2½ to 7
$6.50

Above:
OREGON STROLLER CALF
2½ to 7.
$5.85

Above:
Patent One-Strap
Scotch Gingham Trim.
8½ to 11, 11½ to 2.
$4.75 and $5.50

ALEXANDER'S
2 Peachtree Thru to 110 Peachtree Arcade
Open Till 9 P. M. Saturdays



Skrip, successor to ink, makes all pens write better, and the Lifetime pen write best.

Identify the Lifetime pen by this white dot

Here's the greatest improvement ever made in writing instruments

You can't begin to appreciate how great the improvement really is until you have actually tried, on your own desk, the Sheaffer fountain pen desk set. Other desk sets are only imitations. Sturdy, fixed sockets hold the gracefully tapering pens, always ready, at an easy angle, for the writing hand to grasp. And the pens, specially designed for desk set use, are the famous Lifetimes°—the pens that are made so well that they can be unconditionally guaranteed by the maker for a lifetime. This means that there can be no repair costs whatever for the owner. Get the original. Do not be satisfied with imitations,

Prices $10 to $35, complete with Lifetime pens
De luxe Desk Set Lamp, $75. Special decorated single sets for ladies' desks—$15 and up
Regular Lifetime pen, $8.75. Others lower. All, at better stores everywhere

SHEAFFER'S
PENS · PENCILS · SKRIP
W. A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPANY · FORT MADISON, IOWA
LONDON OFFICE, 199 REGENT STREET
°Reg. U.S. Pat Off

SHEAFFER'S LEADS
Blue Label Leads 15 cents

SHEAFFER PENS—PENCILS—SCRIPT
LIFETIME PENS
MILLER'S BOOK STORE
DESK SETS
64 NORTH BROAD
SALES AND SERVICE

H. G. Lewis & Co.—70-72 Whitehall

Reduced from Higher Prices
200 HATS
Banded Styles $1.95 Sports Styles

Hats that sell, ordinarily up to $5! Over two hundred of them have been reduced from Lewis' higher-priced lines for Friday! There are many attractive styles, mostly banded and sports models. Large selection of colors.

Clearance!
65 Hats Reduced
Just a little clearance of odds and ends of much higher priced lines. Trimmed, banded and sports styles. Variety of shapes and colors. You'll have to hurry for these!
$1.00

H. G. Lewis & Co

Dress Clearance!
$8.75
Georgettes
Flat Crepes
Crepes de Chine
Sports Frocks
Street Frocks
Dress Frocks

2 for $16.00

All new spring dresses in alluring styles. Some are manufacturer's short lines of higher priced lots, some are short lines from our own better frocks. All are of this season's favorite silks, in this season's new styles. And all were made to sell for around twice today's selling price!

Sizes 14 to 44

Every New Spring Color Including Navy and Black

H. G. Lewis & Co
70-72 Whitehall

Slams and Salaams

By Louise Dooly

WHO SAYS romance is dead in a world given over to realism?

Why, I know a woman so enamored of the moonlight that she has arranged to have it shine on her garden every night in the year.

The way I happened to hear about it was this:

The last of a heavy snow fall up here in North Carolina was thawing so rapidly that it sounded like rain running off the roof and dripping from the trees. But the sun which made the thaw was so warm that a whole terrace full of people from the still frozen north and west were basking in it, while they enjoyed the fairly unusual picture of mantles of white on southern mountains, contrasted with the green of the golf course, coaxed out a month too soon by a deceptive spring, but now showing up uninjured where its white blanket was melting away.

A WOMAN near me was quietly busy with a pencil and a catalogue.

"There!" she exclaimed presently. "My garden is all planned."

"Flowers or vegetables?" I inquired politely, all unsuspicious that modern science, in about a minute, was going to bowl me over, figuratively speaking.

A long experience has led all of us to expect to do without the moon for quite a few nights every month. But it seems that is just because we have been willing to sit back and wait for things to happen. Moonlight can be had every night if we have enterprise. Even when it rains.

Let the woman tell it who told me.

"Our home" (in a large northern city) "is being encroached upon by business but we have a great attachment to it, and are not willing to give it up. It is set in four acres of ground, so we can afford to stay put.

"Gardens lie between us and the world, and it was the carrots and beans part you saw me plotting.

"But I am busiest now improving my own pet garden, a thing purely for ornament. The drawing room opens out on it, and a high wall is going to inclose it, with trees outside and beyond the wall, for an effect of distance.

"In the center is a fountain, and because we travel in the summer, the growing things are those of spring and winter—flowers which will be showing a little when I reach home soon and trees and shrubs which keep green all year.

"One of the evergreens is the 'living' Christmas tree, which is wired for the Star of Bethlehem each year and many lights. Even though the weather be inclement, we can enjoy the outdoor tree from the house. We can see Santa Claus make his entry, too, through the gate in the garden wall and my Girl Scouts enter the same gate for their Christmas candle ceremony on Christmas Eve, when they always have supper with me." (The speaker is one of the scout directors.)

"I like to change the garden sometimes, and add to it, and just now my chief concerns are the wall and the moon.

"The wall will probably be of brick, but I have not decided on the style of its ornamentation, except for one extraneous bit. It is to have a black cat painted on it. Black cats mean luck to me, and painted ones don't yowl at night.

A RESIDENT DIANA.

"THE OTHER permanent detail will be the moon. All I'll have to do on the darkest nights will be to press a button in the drawing room, and the silvery light, wooed alike by poets and lovers, will flood the garden and make shadows, too, that will flirt with this moon mockery, all unsuspecting. What if it is artificial? So is the bloom sometimes on the face of youth. But if it achieves illusion . . .?"

Modern romance was what I set out to prove. But have I, when it is mechanical?

THEN THERE'S FICTION.

ANY NOVELIST those days would sue you for libel if you accused his new book of teaching a moral. And yet—

Have you noticed—doubtless you have—the great amount of fiction founded on ruthlessness and its results?

Ruthlessness I need not remark, is the fashionable word for putting out of the way by any method short of murder (usually) father, mother, husband, wife, children (especially if they are helpless or dependent), who stand in the way of living one's own life.

A strict old time moralist would have defined the very care of such dependent or dependents, as living one's own life, however, cramping such exercise of the humanities might be to the business of expressing oneself. He might even achieve a novel on the character-building possibilities of the self-denial thus involved.

A modern fiction-philosopher would never be so crude.

Rather would he have his hero (or a heroine is sometimes the protagonist) trample down his natural obligations to heed, instead, the clamorous demands of his artistic soul.

True, he gets in the end what's coming to him.

The wages of sin is death (in this case death of the soul) but—beware that you are not guilty of the worse sin of banality in calling it that.

On the contrary, he, the hero, has fought down fortuitous circumstances and such, and if as a secondary fact of his reaching his high goal he has a whole graveyard behind him of slain duties and buried chances of sweetness and light, that is mere debris in his building for self.

He gets lots of applause. But there are so many more moments which even heroes must live out alone. And those are the moments of the intimate memories and the loving. What price, then, ruthlessness?

THE MODERN WRITER goes thus at his business negatively. His is the philosophy of denial. Stories with a moral are Victorian. Character building, as a theme, he would tell you, lacks the essential dramatic element of action, of conflict.

Shades of King Lear!

ART ON BROADWAY.

For a Follies girl now to get front page publicity, marrying a millionaire or getting another divorce won't do. That is no longer news.

She has to be found teaching Sunday school.

$7,500,000 BONDS OF BRISBANE CITY ON MARKET TODAY

The National City Company, of New York, will place on the market today a $7,500,000 issue of City of Brisbane 30-year sinking fund gold bonds at a price of $96, with interest to yield over 5.26, it was announced by local representatives of the company at 66 North Broad street.

Brisbane is the fifth largest city in Australia and the capital of one of the country's richest states. The loan will be guaranteed by the state of Queensland with an indorsement on each bond. Queensland's credit has been favorably regarded in the American market for many years, and its two previous issues are quoted at considerably above the purchase price of the new issue. Its net debt, exclusive of the last issue, amounts to $27,130,700, backed by property and investment values, including electric street railway systems and wharves, totaling $25,305,800, while the public and private wealth of the state is estimated at $1,500,000,000. The revenue for the bonds will be used to construct public works of a permanent nature, such as roads, parks and water supply systems.

COCA-COLA BOTTLERS GIVE DINNER-DANCE

Talks by H. F. Barnard, president American Institute of Baking; Ralph J. Ramer, George J. Dominick, division sales manager of the Sherwin-Williams company; John L. Leary and Turner Jones, vice president of the Coca-Cola company, featured the second day's program of a national coca-cola bottlers' convention at the Atlanta Athletic club Thursday.

During the afternoon open house was observed at the company's plant at 560 Edgewood avenue, when local officials of the company were hosts to a large number of visitors.

An entertainment program, including music and dance numbers, arranged by Signor E. Volpi, followed by a dinner-dance, was given Thursday night at the Athletic club. The "Coca-Cola" song, written by Signor Volpi and sung by Alice Claire McKenzie, was a feature of the program.

A business session and an open discussion will feature the closing program of the convention today. Among the speakers for today are A. B. Freeman, of New Orleans; J. W. McIver, of Harrison, N. J.; Charles H. Mackintosh, of Chicago, and Charles V. Rainwater.

FACE POWDER

My Powder For Girls

By Edna Wallace Hopper

Countless girls and women asked me about my powders. I did not supply them at first. In fact, I was paying $5 per box, and only stage stars will do that.

But now I am having these powders made by the hundred thousands boxes. And those boxes now sell at 50c and $1—the powders used by movie stars, the finest that skill can produce. All toilet counters supply them in my name.

There are two types. One is my Youth Cream Powder—a heavy cold cream powder that clings and stays. I use that type. Many women prefer a light and fluffy powder, so I have the same powders made in that way, and the price is only 50c.

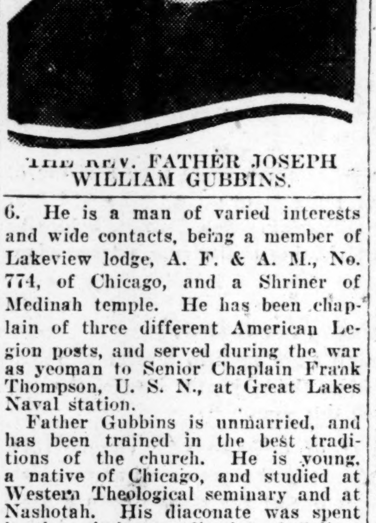
Let me send you some samples on little vanity tabs. Let me treat you to the finest powders in the world. Mark and clip the coupon now.

Sample Free A-57

Edna Wallace Hopper,
536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.
I want to try
☐ Youth Cream Powder ☐ Face Powder,
White, Flesh, Brunette.

NEW RECTOR COMES FOR LOCAL CHURCH

The Rev. Father Joseph William Gubbins, new rector of the Church of Our Savior, at Highland and Los Angeles avenues, assumed charge and held his first services Sunday, March 6. He is a man of varied interests and wide contacts, being a member of Lakeview lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 774, of Chicago, and a Shriner of Medinah temple. He has been chaplain of three different American Legion posts, and served during the war as yeoman to Senior Chaplain Frank Thompson, U. S. N., at Great Lakes Naval station.



THE REV. FATHER JOSEPH WILLIAM GUBBINS.

Father Gubbins is unmarried, and has been trained in the best traditions of the church. He is young, a native of Chicago, and studied at Western Theological seminary and at Nashotah. His diaconate was spent in the missionary district of Salina, Kan., and after his ordination at the hands of the Rt. Rev. Reginald H. Weller, bishop of Fond du Lac, he was appointed his vicar at St. Ignatius' church, Eagle River, Wis., where he ministered during the past year, until he was called to the Atlanta diocese to become rector of the church which was dubbed by its first rector "The Miracle Church."

Father Gubbins has the additional honor of being priest associate of the Order of the Holy Cross, one of the most famous preaching orders in America.

His nomination to this parish rectorate was made by Dean Thomas H. Johnston, of St. Philips cathedral. Father Gubbins has taken up temporary residence at the Atlanta Athletic club. Installation services are to be held soon, at a date to be named.

The union Lenten service of the Atlanta Episcopal churches is scheduled to be held at the Church of Our Savior Thursday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock.

JURY TO HEAR FACTS IN SMALL LOAN CASE

The case of W. B. and Rosa Perry against Harris Brothers, Inc., and the Fulton National bank, which was decided upon demurrer Thursday by Judge Virlyn Moore in Fulton superior court, determined a question of interest to banking institutions, involving loans and endorsements which come under operation of the uniform small loan law of Georgia.

The petition alleged in substance that W. B. and Rosa Perry had borrowed money from the bank upon the endorsement of Harris brothers on three different occasions, and had paid to the bank the sum of $5 as discount and to Harris brothers the sum of $20 as endorsement fee on each occasion upon the renewal of the notes by the bank on the endorsement of Harris brothers.

The petition further alleged that the plaintiffs had made the renewals to prevent proceedings of attachment and bail trover process under a bill of sale which they had executed to Harris Brothers to secure the original endorsement.

The defendants filed a demurrer on the ground that plaintiffs would have no cause of action if the allegations of their petition were true.

The demurrer was overruled and the facts in the case will be submitted to the determination of a jury which will decide whether the alleged arrangements under which a separate fee was paid Harris Brothers for endorsing the plaintiffs' notes was merely an arrangement intended to evade the provisions of the Georgia small loan law.

The decision, if sustained, will merely affect endorsements of loans limited to $300, as the statute known as the small loan law applies only to loan transactions not exceeding that sum.

The plaintiffs were represented by J. L. R. Boyd, general counsel of the Atlanta Legal Aid society, which is engaged in a campaign to correct alleged extortions from small borrowers, and Morris Macks. The defendants were represented by Little, Powell, Smith & Goldstein, and by McElreath & Scott.

PASSENGER AGENTS PLAN EXCURSIONS

Discussion of week-end summer excursion rates on practically every railroad line in the southeastern states featured the annual spring meeting of the Southeastern Passenger Agents' association Thursday morning at the Biltmore hotel. W. H. Howard, president, presided.

There will be the usual summer week-end excursions to all principal points of interest in the southeast, it was announced, but details and dates of the excursions were not made public and will be left to the different railroads to decide.

5 PERSONS RECEIVE PASTEUR TREATMENT

Three children and two elderly persons received treatment at Grady hospital Thursday morning, after two of them had been bitten by a small dog which was found to be suffering from rabies. The children had been playing with the dog and were given the treatment as a protective measure.

Mrs. D. C. Melton, of 15 Southerland drive, and her sister, Miss Lila Mae Mann, also of the same address, were said to have been bitten, while the children were Jack Lade, Archie Lade and R. C. Lade, all of 414 Simpson street.

SCOTTI POSTPONES EUROPEAN TOUR TO VISIT ATLANTA

Antonio Scotti will come to Atlanta this year.

Joy will reign among Atlanta music lovers at this announcement, for there was something very near consternation when it was found that his name was not included among the casts recently announced for the 1927 season of Metropolitan grand opera in Atlanta, April 25-30.

For 17 years the announcement of the spring festival of grand opera has meant the announcement of the coming of Scotti. On the tentative cast it was stated that he would sing the role of Sharpless in "Madame Butterfly" on Saturday night. When it was found that he was not included in the final cast every member of the board of directors and many personal friends of the artist made known their disappointment to Edward Zeigler, assistant general manager of the Metropolitan.

In a wire received to H. M. Atkinson, president of the Music Festival association, Mr. Zeigler stated that Scotti had entirely capitulated to the wishes of Atlanta friends, and had arranged to postpone his European tour set for late April, to come to Atlanta.

Scotti will sing on Saturday night in the role originally assigned to him in "Butterfly."

BAKING AUTHORITY ADDRESSES DIETITIANS

Dr. Harry E. Barnard, president of the American Institute of Baking and one of the leading authorities in the United States on food, was principal speaker at a gathering of physicians, nurses and dietitians at the Biltmore hotel Thursday night. Dr. Barnard spoke on "Food and Diet," and gave a lengthy talk on the different qualities of various foods.

The address followed a dinner given in honor of Dr. Barnard and was sponsored by the American Bakeries company.

Dr. Barnard has been head of the baking institute since its organization several years ago and was said to be one of the most influential men that caused state and national legislation respecting foods. It was his idea which first caused bread to be wrapped, a custom which it at present practically universal.

He was food commissioner of Indiana for 14 years and federal food administrator under Herbert Hoover during the war. After the war he helped to organize the American institute of baking and was secretary of the national association of bakers for four years.

He is here in the interest of food welfare and through his talks the company is striving to acquaint professional and public interests with what is being done by the baking industry in the interest of better health and better bread it was stated.

L. F. Rogers, secretary of the American Bakeries company, presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. Dr. Barnard was the guest of officials of the American Bakeries company during his stay in the city.

BOETHIAN CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY AT ADAIR SCHOOL

Filled with highly amusing entertainment, "The High Brown Breach of Promise Suit" will be presented tonight at the Adair school by the Boethian class of Capitol View Presbyterian church.

Several music and dialogue specialties will be given before the curtain goes up on the court comedy. The performance is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock. Particular pains have been taken by class members to have everything move smoothly in the entertainment, and those who attend are promised an interesting evening of fun and frolic, it was said.

PRESBYTERIANS URGE FASTING AND PRAYER

In obedience to the call of Rev. J. W. Skinner, D. D., moderator of the general assembly; Rev. Neal L. Anderson, D. D., moderator of the synod, and of Rev. Ernest L. Barber, moderator of Atlanta Presbytery, setting apart Friday, March 11, as a day of fasting and prayer, the Atlanta Presbyterian Ministers' association has called upon all churches to cooperate in the observance of the day, according to announcement Thursday.

Harold Shields is president, and T. P. Burgess, secretary of the ministers' association.

Alabama Extradition.

The state department Thursday sent to the governor of Alabama requisition for extradition of Charlie Pound, wantwanted in Macon county on a charge of assault with intent to murder B. F. Oliver in December, 1926.

TEXTILE MEETING OPENS HERE TODAY

Walker D. Hines, president of the Cotton-Textile institute, and George A. Sloan, secretary of the institute, will be principal speakers at a conference of leading textile men throughout the state today and Saturday at the Biltmore hotel. The conferences are in conjunction with a series of conferences that will be held next week with cotton manufacturers of the southeastern states.

The two-day conference here will be under the direction of George S. Harris, president of the Exposition Cotton Mills, who has been very active in the formation of the institute and who is now a member of its executive committee and board of directors.

Mr. Hines and Mr. Sloan are on a trip to various southern states following a series of conferences held recently in North and South Carolina cities. They have just completed a tour of various cities in the New England state, speaking in the interest of the cotton industry.

In addition to representatives from Georgia cities, all the cotton manufacturers of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Tennessee have been invited to atttend the general conference here and reports indicate a large attendance.

After the general meeting, Mr. Hines has called a conference of all cotton manufacturers of the entire southeast who are engaged in the production of "narrow sheetings." The institute intends eventually to group all mills according to the kind of goods produced and it will conduct its major activities through these groups. This "narrow sheeting" group is the first to be organized.

Practically every problem that confronts the cotton manufacturer of today will be discussed by experts at the two-day conference today and Saturday, it was stated.

SONS OF VETERANS ELECT OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR

The John B. Gordon camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, elected the following officers for the ensuing year, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon:

Commander, William Candler; first lieutenant commander, W. Bayne Gibson; second lieutenant commander, A R. Ailey; adjutant, Martine L. Harmsen; treasurer, John Ashley Jones; quartermaster, Albert I. Almand, judge advocate, Van Astor Batchelor; surgeon, Dr. C. A. Rhodes; historian Dr. Lucien Lamar Knight; color sergeant, H. M. Turner; chaplain, Bishop H. M. Mikell.

The camp voted unanimously to indorse the invitation of Atlanta to the Confederate veterans to hold their annual reunion in Atlanta in June, 1928. The camp also indorsed the movement now on foot by the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial association to enroll every living veteran in a special book of honor.

OFFICE EQUIPMENT MEN HEAR CREDIT EXPERT

T. Guy Woolford, president of the Atlanta Retail Credit company, was principal speaker at a dinner Thursday night at the Atlanta Athletic club of the National Association of Office Appliances Manufacturers, which opened an annual convention at the Athletic club Thursday morning. Mr. Woolford talked on "Modern Tendencies in Credits and Collections."

A business session is to be held this morning and an open discussion on various phases of the industry will close the convention this afternoon.

Gilbert H. Montague, prominent New York attorney, opened the meeting Thursday morning with a talk on "The Government's Present Attitude Toward Business." His address was followed by a business session, after which delegates were guests at a luncheon at the Athletic club. During the afternoon a golf tournament was held at East Lake Country club, as the main recreational feature of the convention.

Officers of the association are G. E. Hancock, of the Remington Typewriter company, New York, president; R. N. Fellows, of the Addressograph company, Chicago, vice president, and H. R. Russell, of the Powers Accounting Machine corporation, New York, secretary and treasurer.

Right Now!

We are showing beautiful new slippers and oxfords—for boys and girls of every age.

All Patent $6.50

For the Beginner The "Balancer"
—Tan Elk ...
—White Kid ...
—Sizes 2 to 6
$2.75

The "Ritz" All Patent $6.95

Girls' and Misses' Sport Oxfords $5.00 to $6.75

Children's and Misses' Strap Slippers
Sizes 2 to 5 ..... $1.65
Sizes 5 to 8 ..... $2.25
Sizes 8½ to 11 ..... $3.50

Byck's

Mail Orders 127-29 WHITEHALL ST. Phone Orders

Dorothy Dodd

Shoes Moderately Priced

"Prado" $6

—Shown in black patent leather and black satin. A matching plain pump in black patent only also at $6.

"Jenny" $6

—A block heel walking shoe in tan calf, black patent leather and black satin. Especially suitable with the tailored frock.

Tots' Oxfords $2.95
Patent—Tan Trim
Tan—Brown Trim
Sizes 5 to 8 .... $2.95
Sizes 8½ to 11 .... $3.45

Patent Strap $1.95
Sizes 2½ to 5 .... $1.95
Sizes 5½ to 8 .... $2.25
Sizes 8½ to 11 .... $2.95
Sizes 11½ to 2 .... $3.45

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

J. M. HIGH CO.

44 Years of Faithful Service and Value-giving

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Two-Day Specials For Friday and Saturday

We are offering, for two days only, the following unusual values that should have widespread appeal. Come early and make your selections.

Genuine Aromatic Red Cedar Chests $11.75 Up

Unusual Values in Fibre Furniture

Three-piece fibre suite, consisting of Chair, Rocker and Settee. Covered in cretonne—brown, trimmed in red and green. Automobile spring cushions, padded backs. Price for complete suite $44

Price of individual pieces: Chair or Rocker, each $14. Settee, $16. Table and Fernery to match if desired. Table, $9. Fernery, $6.50.

Beautiful three-piece fibre suite. Colored cream and trimmed in green. Suite complete $30

Individual pieces: Settee, $14.50. Chair and Rocker, $7.50 each. Swing, Table and Fernery to match, if desired. Swing, $14.50. Table, $9. Fernery, $6.

Three-piece fibre suite in brown, trimmed in green. Price complete $35

Individidal pieces: Settee, $16. Chairs, $9.50 each. Table and Fernery to match if desired. Table, $9. Fernery, $6.

Freight Paid Within Radius of 100 Miles
Convenient Terms of Payment if Desired

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.
FURNITURE DEPARTMENT—Fourth Floor

There's Something In a Name—Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Today Only—Our Regular

$2.75 Washable Flat Crepe

All Silk $1.95 Pure Dye

No silk is quicker in the fashionable demand than Flat Crepe. This is a quality sold regularly over our counter in reams, bolts, quantities, at $2.75 a yard. A rich and beautiful silk, 39 inches wide, of substance, weight and service, with fresh bloom and mellow touch, adapting itself graciously and gracefully to all spring needs—sports, street, dress, evening wear, lingerie and children's frocks. Now, draw a ring about this—for one day only—Friday, March 11, we will sell it at $1.95 a yard!

There is a complete range of colors:

White, black, flesh, light and deep pink, flesh, orchid, peach, light blue, honey, Mother Goose, lark, money skin, tan, fag gray, crane gray, gooseberry green, palmetto green, acquamarine, old rose, lotus, queen blue, robin blue, Flemish blue, medium light and dark navy, and black.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Niehoff Puts Crackers Through First Real Workout

Leggett, Backstopper, Is Latest Addition To Spiller's Roster

Pepper Practice, Medicine Ball, and Plenty of Hurling Enliven Usual Day of Skull Practice—Manager Bert Keeps Careful Eye on Charges.

BY TOM THOMPSON.

Atlanta's Crackers celebrated the first fair day since Monday with a strenuous workout at Spiller's athletic emporium Thursday afternoon in which 20 willing but somewhat sluggish baseball players participated.

The 20 includes Bert Niehoff, the manager and Leggett, a backstopper who reported among the first of the late van some time early Thursday.

The order of the day included pepper games, batting practice with the inimitable Mule Haas hurling to the pitchers, a little medicine ball and plenty of hurling. Mr. Haas seemed brimming with ambition and more than once the careful eye of Niehoff hurled a warning look in his direction as he was putting some hot ones over to Frank Kohlbecker in a side-line catch duo.

Step Lively.

With Hack Eibler holding down one of the infield positions, the A bearing gentlemen had to step pretty lively, but the cold was a retarding element. While the Crackers have a gallant layout, willing to an extremity, some of the rookies that pranced around that infield Thursday afternoon bore unmistakable signs of "going away."

No envy can be directed at Bert Niehoff, Gene Suggs, Manuel Cueto, Rod Murphy, Bruce Galloway, and several of the others are the infield material on hand. With that layout it is almost a certainty that Manager Niehoff, himself, will perform on second Saturday against Tech. Rod Murphy will probably be at first, Cueto, if he ever shows up, will be at short. Gene Suggs may draw the keystone job, but it is not likely.

However Niehoff is making no plans for the Saturday game. What, with the late arrivals and the rotten weather, he is perfectly right in assuming that he is doing pretty darn well to be able to even contemplate playing a baseball game.

Despite the greenness of a number of the players already reported, Rod Murphy, the eminent utility man of last year who is expected to hug the initial sack this season, Thursday afternoon voiced an optimistic note that finds a strange concord with the words of the optimistic Mr. Spiller. Incidentally, Spiller is so optimistic that he has had one of the largest green score boards printed in such manner as to represent Fort Worth—though just what he is going to do with it is a matter of conjecture. Or maybe it's the one that the Crackers used in the Dixie series of 1925.

Look Good.

"These boys here, as a whole, look pretty good to me," the prospective first sacker declared. "The Crackers ought to do well this year—this is certainly a better than fair congregation of rookies assembled."

Thus spake Zarathushtra. However, Rod's classification as a prophet is yet to be established. It is a safe bet that though Spiller may not be aware of the declarations, he certainly hopes it is prophesied with some accuracy.

Manuel Cueto is the Cracker's chief hope for shortstop. Durocher gone, Mr. Cueto will have the infield job put aside for him if nothing goes wrong. Sages advance the opinion that he was shifted to the Mobile outfield last year as the result of a pair of tricky props, but then others more closely in touch with the situation declare that it was not Cueto's instability that caused his shift but was due to a small amount of internal dissension among the Bear infield.

Spake Rell Jackson.

Rell Jackson concurred stoutly in this Thursday night. "Cueto is the boy for shortstop, provided nothing goes radically wrong," Spiller declared. It was learned Thursday that Bert Niehoff will take a cleanup swing about the Florida training camps about March 29, at which time he will attempt to round up several capable infielders together with a couple of hurlers. An outfielder or two will not go amiss with the Crackers, either.

Bert denied that anything further toward an agreement with the Senators concerning dickerings tending to bring Nick Cullop and maybe Stuffy Stewart to Atlanta had been reached. If anything conclusive is reached it will be made on the Florida trip, it was declared.

CRUICKSHANK, ARMOUR WIN MIAMI TITLE

Miami, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Shooting trained balls that seldom deviated when they started their journeys across the greens to the cups, Bobby Cruickshank and Tommy Armour won the 36-hole play-off for the international four-ball championship over the Miami-Biltmore course this afternoon by defeating Walter Hagen and Jock Hutchison, 9 and 8.

Displaying by far the most brilliant teamwork of the tournament in which 32 professionals participated, the pair took the lead early in the morning and were never in danger of being headed.

Today's play resulted when Cruickshank and Armour missed putts of three and five feet, respectively, to allow their opponents to square he 36-hole finals play yesterday.

CHAS. E. LUMPKIN TAILORS X-CEL

Announces the Opening of New SALES OFFICES and Fitting Rooms.

Suite 418-419 Norris Building

Imported and Domestic Fabrics, including the famous handwoven Biltmore Homespuns, from Asheville, tailored to your measure, $45.00 and upwards, the suit. Order now; it takes a little time to tailor well.

New Schedule

Memphis, Tenn., March 10.—(AP)—A new playing schedule for the Southern association will be released "within a week or so," according to President John D. Martin. Necessity of the new schedule to take the place of the already released official calendar was made necessary because of the failure of the Arkansas general assembly to legalize Sunday baseball in that state. Little Rock had been allotted a number of Sunday games on the schedule.

DOBBS VISITS SENATOR CAMP SEEKING MEN

The hit, run and throw drill of major league baseballers in Florida was light Thursday but the laxity was slight.

As Jack Hendricks' Redlegs capered at Orlando, announcement came from Cincinnati that Wally Hipp, first baseman, has signed his contract, leaving only Hugh Critts to report. Pipp is in Florida at present and should be in uniform shortly.

The world titlebearing Cardinals worked out lightly at Avon park and looked to five exhibition games next week to furnish plenty of tapering off work. A number of the St. Louisians are nursing sore muscles, including Hafey, Flowers and Manager O'Farrell. Bob whiffed the ball with speed aplenty Thursday against the Braves and felt it today. He has let it be known that hitting practice is one thing ahead for the next few days, as the bingles of the squad have been few and far between so far.

Good Order.

Everything is in "apple pie" order at Tarpon Springs where the capricious St. Louis Browns are encamped. Dan Hewley has succeeded in putting his hurling staff in excellent condition and now feels that Gaston, Zachary and Ballou are ready.

A sore shank had no worries for Addie Collins and he surprised his Philadelphia Athletic mates at Fort Myers today by going through with a full workout. He was as peppery as a rookie who has just drawn a managerial smile of approval. Joe Pate, southpaw of the A.'s staff has turned in his contract with it bearing his "sign" and now the Macks have nothing to worry over except bringing Connie his sixty-fifth birthday wish—a long-sought pennant.

The Washington Senators were worried a little about an injured leg that "Old Barney" Johnson suffered when he made contact with an over live spheroid. The X-ray is to be turned on the leg if it continues to bother Walter. Johnny Dobbs, manager of the Birmingham Southern League club is at the Senator's Tampa quarters looking for a few recruits that he believed Ducky Harris will turn loose.

Stuffy McInnis sent his Phillies through the regular routine workout at Bradenton.

Sox Visit Mostil.

Over in Louisiana, the Chicago White Sox divided their time between the hospital and baseball field. Before and after a snappy workout, the Schalkmen went to the hospital to inquire of Johnny Mostil's condition. The star centerfielder is still in a critical condition from self-inflicted knife wounds. The absentees of the Sox have dwindled to only Earl Sheely, first sacker, and Shortstop Hunnefield.

At New Orleans, the Boston Red Sox yannigans trounced the regulars, 3 to 0 in a seven-inning practice tilt. Welzer, Adams and Quill worked for the Yannies to hold the more highly touted mates scoreless.

Moriarity declared at San Antonio, Texas, during the day that the Detroit Tigers would be kept out of practice tilts for a few days and that his 35 candidates would indulge in mere throwing of the ball and infield and outfield drills.

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

·BY · DICK · HAWKINS·

Tech Rounding Out.

While the Atlanta Crackers are three down to old Jupe Pluv in their endurance contest at Spiller's park the white-clad college boys at Georgia Tech are rapidly rounding out a team which holds some promise for a repetition of the championship stuff pulled by that outfit last season.

The loss of Wycoff, Reeves and Merkle will be sadly felt by the Jackets but there are other hard hitters coming along, and despite the fact that Bob Reeves was considered the best shortstop in several counties last season he has a worthy successor in the person of Shorty Smith.

Smith, who went out in a doubtful capacity, seems to be assured of a berth in the short field if he keeps up his good work. He is loose lightning in fielding, and hits the ball surely and hard for his size. With Wilder or Moreland on second and Brewer on first the Jackets should have a fine double-play combination.

The diminutive Smith is the best thing we have seen in action at shortstop on a college team for many a day, and if he does not fail under fire, his name will be as common in the newspapers as it is in the phone book.

It seems hardly likely that the Jackets can sport such a string of clouters as they did last season but there is one chap who will bear watching unless his foot slips very noticeably. Bob Parham, before he leaves Tech, should develop a natural hitting ability into a tremendous asset.

* * * * *

Who'll Replace Niehaus?

In looking over the Crackers we are wont to wonder who will take the place of Al Niehaus as the raspberry king of the cannibalistic fans at Spiller's Dell this year.

Al was the victim of something or other—maybe circumstance. You will remember that he came to Atlanta last season amid a great blaring of press agent trumpets and went out of the picture with a great blaring of fruit from the fans. There were times that Al handled himself like a major leaguer, and there were other times that he didn't handle himself at all. He would make an unassisted double play and follow that feat with an unassisted double blunder of the deepest tint.

The fans who saw Al on his good days praised him and the others razzed him. Having seen him on nearly all of his days and striking an average we were inclined to join the ranks of the latter division.

Wouldn't it be the next thing to the millenium if there were no raspberry monarch at the Dell this year?

BILL TILDEN PLAYS ALONSO IN NET FINALS

Palm Beach, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—America's two first ranking net stars today smashed their way into the finals of the Florida state men's tennis championship tourney on the Royal Poinciana courts and tomorrow will battle for the prized crown.

William T. Tilden, II, number one ranking player, won three straight sets to trounce Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., Olympic doubles champion, 6-2, 8-6, and 6-3. The former national titleholder, playing in his best form, was pressed throughout and repeatedly carried to deuce scores. In the second set, both annexed love games, while Tilden in the final set took two love games on his own serve, although the remainder of play was exceedingly close.

In the finals, Tilden will oppose Manuel Alonso, Spain's Davis cup luminary and America's number 2 ranking player, who lost to the Philadelphian last week in the south Florida tourney finals at Miami Beach.

Alonso today triumphed over George M. Lott, Jr., Chicago, former national junior champion in three straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-0. Like Tilden, the Spaniard continually was pressed. After fighting his opponent to a three game standstill in the opening set, Lott dropped three in a row. Lott evidenced his best play in the second set, but the tremendous lead of his rival showed its effects on the youthful Chicago player in the last set and Lott six in succession after carrying three to deuce.

Babe Hurts Ankle; Yanks Win, 8 to 5

Orlando, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—The New York Yankees bunched hits in the fourth inning here this afternoon, which, coupled with Dyer's wildness, enabled them to defeat the Cincinnati Reds 8 to 5. Babe Ruth tripped over third base in the fourth and was removed from the game with an injured left ankle.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
New York (A.)	8	11	4
Cincinnati (N.)	5	3	0

Pipgrass, Moore, Beall and Grabowski, Phillips; Mays, Dyer, Wykoff, Meeker and Picinich.

Tough Luck

Washington, March 10.—(AP) Walter Johnson, star pitcher of the Washington Senators, has broken a small bone in his ankle and will be delayed in his spring training approximately three weeks, Clark Griffith, president of the club, reported tonight to The Washington Post.

The injury occurred yesterday when a hot liner from Joe Judge's bat caught the hurler squarely on the ankle and the fracture was revealed in an X-ray photograph taken today.

The break has been set and the leg is in a plaster cast, the message said. Johnson will return to Washington Sunday to remain while the limb mends.

SMITH BEATS O'KEEFE FIVE IN EASY GAME

Two games were played Thursday afternoon by teams in the Junior high school league. Hoke Smith, leading the league by a large margin, had little trouble in winning from O'Keefe, 21 to 13. Decatur continued its winning streak, and defeated Joe Brown high, 27 to 14.

Bothwell starred for Decatur, with his 11 points, the largest total of pointage made during the game. The game was close during the first half, ending 9-6 in Decatur's favor. One of the outstanding features was the passing and floorwork of the Decatur team.

Bizanski, star forward for Hoke Smith, was the material factor in his team's victory, amassing a total of 14 points, and performing well on the floor. Norman, the other forward, scored a total of five points.

Lineups and Summaries.

O'KEEFE (13)		SMITH (21)
Mullenix (8)	rf	Bizanski (14)
Ramey (5)	lf	Norman (5)
Davis	c	Human
Mize	rg	Andrews
Gillespie	lg	Barber

Substitutions, O'Keefe, Roberts, Green, Hitt; Smith, Pollock (2), Lance, Gaddy. Referee—Wykle.

DECATUR (27)		BROWN (14)
Steele (4)	rf	Howard (8)
Bothwell (11)	lf	Detsill (3)
Richards (5)	c	Turner (3)
Flint	rg	Mason
Bond (7)	lg	Philpot

Sewanee Loop Finals Saturday

The final round of the Sewanee loop in the "Y" church Association will be played Saturday night, instead of next Thursday, as regularly scheduled. This is being done in order that the season may be ended more quickly.

In Thursday night's play, Epworth Workers beat Pep Freshmen, 32 to 14, Anchor Feds defeated Confederate Avenue, 14 to 4; All Saints won from First Methodist, 19 to 10; F. E. F. Class was victor over Associate Reform Presbyterian, 20 to 9, and Pattillo Memorial nosed out Wesley Memorial, 16 to 15.

A girls' volley ball league is being formed by the "Y" association, and at present five teams have signed up. A total of eight is needed, and all teams desiring to enter are requested to get in touch with Mr. Cunningham, at the Y. M. C. A.

EPWORTH (32)	Pos.	PEP FRSH. (14)
Mayo (18)	r. f.	Hale (4)
McLoud (7)	l. f.	Alexander (7)
Dillard	c.	Vandergriff (3)
Embry (2)	r. g.	Maddox
B. Mayo	l. g.	McDonald

Substitutions: Epworth, Wilkie (5), Mins; Pep Freshmen, Braswell, Russell. Referee, Kopf.

AN. FDS. (14)	Pos.	CON. AV. (4)
Abernathy (4)	r. f.	Lewanda (1)
Tedder (2)	l. f.	Crouch (1)
Johnson (6)	c.	W. Starr
Wilkins	r. g.	Hill
Deck (2)	l. g.	Starr (2)

Substitutions: Anchor Feds, Sewell, J. Williams; Confederate Ave., McGinnis, Gordon. Referee, Kopf.

ALL SAINTS (19)	Pos.	1ST. MTH. 10)
Sechinger (4)	r. f.	Rose
Speer (11)	l. f.	Hardin
Hudson (4)	c.	Hallman
Strickland	r. g.	Coleman (4)
Dobbins	l. g.	Wells

Substitutions: First Methodist, Reed (6), Johnson; All Saints, Dean, Kingsberry. Referee, Collins.

F. E. F. (20)	Pos.	ASSO. REF. (9)
Halloway (2)	r. f.	Berry
Adams (9)	l. f.	Ramsey (4)
Smith (4)	c.	Plaxico (1)
Langston	r. g.	Wright
Hunter (5)	l. g.	H. Ramsey (3)

Substitutions: F. E. F., none; Associate Reform, Gordon (1). Referee, Collins.

WES. ME. (15)	Pos.	PAT. ME. (16)
Allgood (11)	r. f.	Clark (8)
Williams	l. f.	Reid (3)
Speer	c.	Chambers (2)
Curtis (2)	r. g.	McGee
Williams (2)	l. g.	McIntyre (1)

Substitutions: Wesley, Stephens; Patillo, Pickett (2), Baxter, McMahon. Referee, Collins.

N. Y. Commission Reinstates Hull

New York, March 10.—The state athletic commission on Friday will reinstate Clyde Hull, the Texas welterweight who recently outpointed Pete Latzo in a bout at Dallas.

New Yorkers, therefore, will get their first look at Clyde in Madison Square Garden Monday night, when the Texan meets Billy Leonard, of Troy. The Dallas youngster will be the center of attention, as was Eddie Roberts when the Tacoma terror came east with a knockout victory over Joe Dundee to his credit.

Cleveland Beats Boston Braves

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10.—(AP) Cleveland defeated Boston Nationals here today, 5 to 3. The Indians pounded consistently to win their second straight game.

Boston (N)	3	7	1
Cleveland (A)	5	10	2

Knight, Mills, Graham and Gibson; Karr, Buckeye, Hudlin and Myatt.

Duval To Chicago.

Chicago, March 10.—(AP)—Duval school, of Jacksonville, champion of Florida, today accepted an invitation to play in the Chicago university basketball tournament here March 29-April 7. It was the third school out of ten invited, to accept.

Invitations were sent today to Central High school of Washington, D. C., winner of the Pennsylvania university tournament last Saturday, and to Reno, Nevada, High school, champion of its state.

Local Walton League To Be Formed Tonight

The Atlanta chapter of the Izaak Walton league will be organized tonight when a representative body of Atlanta sportsmen gather at the Central Y. M. C. A. for this purpose. The meeting is scheduled to get under way at 8 o'clock.

W. R. C. Smith and Peter S. Twitty, state game commissioner, will be the speakers. Hunting and fishing pictures hitherto not exhibited in Atlanta will be shown, and altogether the session is expected to result in much enthusiasm being worked up over the formation of a local chapter of the league.

At a meeting held in Decatur Wednesday night a Decatur chapter was organized. Officers were elected temporarily, the elections to become permanent when the Decatur chapter is ratified by the national organization. One of the first actions of the Decatur organization was to pass a resolution deploring the legal sale of black bass in Georgia. It is one of many steps that are being taken to have legislative measures against the practice enacted at the next state lawmaking session.

Georgia, Florida, Virginia and Maryland are the only states in the nation in which such an enactment is not yet in effect. It is one of the many measures taken by the Izaak Walton league toward the preservation of the game and fish resources of the nation.

Dr. Ralph E. Wager was elected president of the Decatur chapter; Dr. Louis Estes, first vice president; C. W. Austin, second vice president, and Dr. W. S. Elkins, secretary and treasurer.

Scott Candler, Jr., age 1 year, paid his annual dues and became a member of the chapter, by proxy of course. Proxy was also called in to vote for him during the session. It was his father, Scott Candler.

Georgia already has a number of chapters, and Atlanta is expected to be one of the largest in the state once it is organized and begins functioning in the manner expected. Quitman, Columbus, Waycross, Valdosta, Hiwassee and a number of other Georgia communities have already organized chapters. Hugh Gulley, of Tallahassee, Fla., is directing the organization plans of the local chapter.

POMPANOCARD OFF FOR DAY; TO CONTINUE

Miami, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—In a formal statement given out this afternoon, Paul M. Beacom, president of the Pompano Horse club, announced that the 24-day race meeting will be continued as originally planned.

Mr. Beacom said the pari-muteul plant would be operated, as he had been advised by his attorneys "that the mandate enjoining betting will not be handed down for 30 days in accordance with the ruling of the court."

Today's card at Pompano was postponed, but Thursday's entries will hold good for Friday, Mr. Beacom said.

The scheduled 24-day Pompano meeting opened March 7.

NO "30 DAYS," SAYS COURT.

Tallahassee, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Horse and dog racing plants in Florida, with one exception, were closed today following the setting aside of supersedeases in injunction cases restraining three tracks from operating under the certificate selling system.

Members of the supreme court last night said that there was no 30-day clause in the decision and that if the Pompano tracks operated in the face of the decision officials of the plant "would find themselves in an unpleasant predicament."

The Biscayne Kennel club track was in operation without the sale of the pari-mutuel certificates.

Governor John W. Martin issued instructions today to all sheriffs in Florida to "break up the practice of gambling on horse and dog races." He called attention to the fact that the supreme court decision did not prohibit horse or dog racing in the state but that it did prohibit betting on the results of such races.

Directors of the St. Petersburg Kennel club announced that there would be no more dog racing at its plant until such time as the legislature may legalize the pari-mutuel system.

Attorneys for the Biscayne Kennel club said that races would be continued at their tracks without the sale of certificates, but the pari-mutuel plants at the South Miami Kenney club and the Miami Kennel club were closed last night after officers had ordered a suspension of betting.

Petitions asking the legislature to legalize the certificate selling systems or appoint a racing commission similar to that of Kentucky to control the operation of race tracks, were in circulation in several Florida cities today. Mass meetings were held in cities near tracks and the situation discussed.

Governor Martin, in issuing instructions to sheriffs to break up the betting systems, said that "the decision of the supreme court leaves no grounds for debate. The interpretation of this decision does not prohibit racing of dogs and horses. There is no law in Florida prohibiting that. But the opinion clearly and distinctly prohibits gambling at the tracks."

Girls' Cage Meet Held at Cochran

Cochran, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) The annual twelfth district girls' basketball tournament will get under way here Friday morning with 14 teams contesting for the title.

The teams entered and pairings for the first round are: Alamo vs. Fort Valley, Eastman vs. Wrightsville, Cochran vs. Hawkinsville, Lyons vs. Abbeville, Rochelle vs. Vidalia, Cochran A. & M. vs. Stillmore and Chauncey vs. Dublin. The first game will be played at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Spalding Baseball Loop Reorganized

Spalding will organize the Spalding Baseball league for this year at 7:30 o'clock Friday night at 74 North Broad street.

The league will have 10 teams, and is expected to be much better than last year's. Tom Slate stated there were five applications for admittance to the league and all teams wishing to enter must have a representative at the meeting.

Miss Wall Winner In Semi-Finals

Belleair Heights, Fla., 10.—(AP)—Miss Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., and Mrs. Stewart Hanley, of Detroit, are the finalists in the Belleair championship of women as the result of semi-finals played here today. Miss Wall defeated Miss Ruth Perry, of Philadelphia, 4 to 2, and Mrs. Hanley won from Mrs. Dalton Raymond, Baton Rouge, 3 to 1.

National Tourney.

Omaha, Neb., March 10.—(AP)—Pairings for the 54 teams from 16 states in the annual National Amateur Athletic association basketball tournament, which starts Saturday at Kansas City, were announced today. The states of Louisiana, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Oklahoma, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kansas, South Dakota, Colorado, Arizona, Minnesota and California are entered.

Coca-Cola Bottlers

We Are Glad You Came

And hope that your convention in our city has been the most profitable one to you from a business viewpoint and the most pleasant in a personal way ever held.

As you return to your homes and your businesses we trust that you will carry with you a memory of the Atlanta session which will remain ever green in your memory.

You have had a profitable convention and a jolly good time and when you get back into the daily grind "back home" remember—

"Keep Smiling With Kellys"

HEAVY DUTY CORD

Made especially to meet a demand for a pneumatic that would stand up under weight and speed and is especially well appreciated by bottlers everywhere for their light and medium weight equipment.

KELLY SPRINGFIELD AIRCORE

The Aircore is hollow center, double cushioned and intended for use where a high degree of cushioning is necessary but where the operating costs of pneumatics would be excessive. Use this on the "Big Truck."

The Holland Tire Company, 25 and 27 Ivy Street, are exclusive distributors in Atlanta for the Kelly-Springfield Tires. Telephone WAlnut 1262.

Kelly-Springfield Tire Co.

557 Whitehall Street : : : : Telephone MAin 0740

Double Grip 35¢ and up

If garters were worn around the neck you'd change them frequently.

PARIS GARTERS
NO METAL CAN TOUCH YOU
25c to $1

STEWART'S SPECIAL HATS
$5.00
Take a look at this special feature Hat before you buy

STEWART'S SPECIAL Underwear
3 $1.00
Suits $2.65
Men's Dept.
8 W. Alabama St.
Stewart
FRED S. STEWART CO.
25 Whitehall St.

Browning Loses Match to Londos in Three-Fall Battle

Deaf Mute Cage Meet Opens at Auditorium

The Dixie basketball tournament to decide the champion among the southern schools for deaf mutes will begin this morning at 10 o'clock at the city auditorium.

The second round of the tourney will be staged at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the first round of Saturday is to begin at 10 o'clock. Saturday's semi-final round will start at 2 o'clock and the final game is to be presented Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A large number of schools, representing Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, Arkansas and Tennessee, have entered the tournament. It will decide the superiority of a number of large southern schools and will probably present one of the finest basketball spectacles, barring the southern conference tournament, seen in Atlanta this year.

O. W. Underhill, of the North Carolina school for the deaf, and Percy W. Lyon, of Atlanta, are in charge of arrangements for the tournament.

TECH FROSH PLAY VARSITY LONG GAME

Coach Mundorff's freshmen baseball candidates grew rather ambitious yesterday afternoon and decided to take the varsity on for a little game. However, it did not turn out to be a little game, due to the fact that it lasted most of the afternoon.

This being the second real workout for the teams this week they were put through a tough session in the form of a scrimmage. Most of the men were only too glad to call it a day when Coach Clay ordered them to the showers. The scrimmage turned out to be a one-sided slugging match with the varsity holding the big end of the runs.

Captain Angley demonstrated that he could still hit them on the nose by busting the right-field fence continually. "Shorty" Smith also had a big day at bat, besides playing a perfect game in the field, and stealing several bases. Waddy, Parham, Moreland, Wilder and McCash looked good in the field.

Coach Clay will give his charges a light workout this afternoon to polish off a few rough places before the opening game tomorrow afternoon at Spiller's park.

Jake Schaeffer Beaten in Upset

Washington, March 10.—(United News.)—Young Jake Schaefer, favorite in the world championship 18.2 balkline billiard tournament, was defeated today by Erich Hagenlacher, 400 to 156 in six innings. This was the biggest upset of the tournament. Schaefer was down 293 to 1 in the fourth when he made a run of 141. But his late spurt was not sufficient to head off his German rival. Schaefer got a bad start with blanks in the

FOUR STATE MEET TILTS ARE PLAYED

Athens, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Four games in the annual Georgia state basketball tournament were played here today. Perry beat LaGrange, 28 to 17; Thomaston defeated Sparta, 22 to 11; Vienna won from Lawrenceville, 30 to 27, and Athens whipped Doerun, 41 to 16.

The Vienna-Lawrenceville tilt was the best of the day's play. Both teams flashed a strong passing attack, and also put up a good defensive game. Vienna, winner of the Cotton States title, in the tournament held at Auburn recently, was hard put to forge ahead of the team from Lawrenceville.

Play at all times was close, and the lead changed hands continually.

Four teams, Tech High, of Atlanta; Trion, Pembroke, and Adel, drew byes, and will see action in tomorrow's games.

The second round will be played Friday, with the following games scheduled:

Thomaston vs. Pembroke, 4:00.
Trion vs. Tech High, 5:00.
Adel vs. Vienna, 8:00.
Athens vs. Perry, 9:00.

The semi-finals will be played Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. The finals will be played Saturday night, and the winner will be declared the state basketball champion.

This is the second cage tourney that has been held of this kind, and last year, Tech High school, of Atlanta, was the winner.

LEFT-HANDED LEFT-FIELDER

:: SOX HAVE UMPS IN SPRING TRAINING ::

TURNS OUT TO BE HURLER

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Shreveport, La., March 10.—The White Sox played themselves another shortweight ball game today. They had a certified Texas league umpire in full lingerie behind the plate practicing for his summer mistakes. The umpire's name is McIntosh McInnis and he can chew tobacco without removing his mask. He is very conscientious and attached himself to the White Sox for a period of spring training, although some of the athletes allege that a real umpire is able to call them wrong in season or out.

McIntosh McInnis was given a locker in the clubhouse and when he unpacked his equipment it was discovered that it consisted of several spare bird cages.

How Many?

"How many masks does an umpire use in one summer in your league?" inquired Lena Blackburne, the coach.

"I generally buy them by the gross," said McIntosh McInnis, "sometimes along in July and August the heat melts the wires and sometimes when the pitchers get throwing real swift, they bust them in."

"That's what I call real fast throwing," Mr. Blackburne marveled.

"That 'ain't fast," said McIntosh McInnis. "An umpire's got to have special eyesight in this league to see them when they're throwing real swift. We had a fellow last summer called three balks in succession on a fast ball thrower! When his kin-people up north sent down for the body we had to explain that those three were just so fast that this poor fellow couldn't see 'em."

Figure This Out.

One of the teams in today's game was called the Whites because some of the players had on shirts and caps that used to be white. Some of the players on the other team, called the Blues, had on shirts and caps that used to be white, too. They had just as much right to be called the Whites. In fact, your correspondent thought they were the Whites and there was a lot of confusison. The only sure way to tell them apart was to look for a left-handed left fielder in a white uniform. If you saw him out there then those were the Blues. The left-handed left fielder was Hoodlum Cole, the pitcher. That is he is a pitcher but was outfielder today.

Is this all perfectly clear?

Lefty Kennedy pitched a few innings for the Blues. He is called "Lefty" because he throws with his left hand.

Senators Rally, Beat Phils, 6-3

Bradenton, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—A ninth inning rally with the score tied gave the Washington Senators a 6 to 3 victory over the Philadelphia Nationals here today. The Phils fielded shakily, making six errors, four of which were chalked up against Thomson, second sacker.

Washington (A)	6	11	1
Philadelphia (N)	3	8	6

Burke, Coffman and Berger, Tate; Taber, O'Neal, Baecht and Wilson.

Giants Nose Out Buffalo, 7 to 6

Palmetto, Fla., March 10.—The New York Giants pulled out a close victory over Buffalo here Thursday, defeating Derby Bill Clymer's International leaguers, 7 to 6.

The score:

		R.	H.	E.
Giants	140 010 010	7	15	6
Buffalo	000 002 112	6	8	0

STRIBLING K. O.'S CIVEL IN SECOND

Macon, Ga., March 10.—(AP)—Young Stribling, making his first appearance in a Macon ring under direction of a new trainer and manager, scored a knockout over Eddie Civel, 215-pound Kentucky giant, in the second round of their scheduled 10-round affair here tonight. Stribling weighed 180 pounds.

The knockout came after a minute of fighting in the second round. A left hook to the jaw, followed by a terrific right sent Civel down. He was five minutes in regaining consciousness. Examination of Civel after the bout revealed that his nose had been broken.

Tiny Roberts won a referee's decision over Harry Van Patten in the semi-final. They are heavyweights.

Bobby Lee, of Miami, was beaten in 10 rounds by Gene Martin, of Macon. They are lightweights.

Red Causey and Bob Ratteree, local welterweights, fought six rounds to a draw. Harry Williams won a four-round decision over Edgar Reeves. They are Macon welterweights.

Florida 'Gators Badly Whipped

Clearwater, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Brooklyn batters slugged Marshall, Florida university hurler, to all corners of the field here today, to win a 12 to 0 exhibition game. The collegians reached base often, but were cut down by fast fielding. It was Brooklyn's first game of the spring season.

Florida (U)	0	8	2
Brooklyn (N)	12	14	3

Vance, McWeeny and O'Neil, Henline, Deberry; Marshall and Sarra.

Ammonia Tank Bursts, Spectators in Tears As Firemen Arrive

Pedestrians collected in a weeping group Tuesday night. From streaming eyes they saw a little band of determined firemen and police enter a building at the rear of the Cecil hotel. While the pavement moistened under a salty torrent, new arrivals rushed up to look on and stuck around to join the lamentation.

No one needed to be told that a large tank of ammonia had exploded. When the officers emerged from the reeking portals they wiped their eyes and told the crowd they had quelled the disturbance by cutting off escape valves in the refrigerating plant which the building contained.

COLLEGE PARK IN EPWORTH CAGE FINALS

College Park battled its way into the finals of the Epworth tournament Thursday night on the Wesley Memorial court, by defeating the fast Druid Hills five, 30 to 18.

Park Street five also fought its way to a chance at the title by defeating the St. Paul lads, 31 to 9.

The best game of the evening was a struggle in which the Emory Nurses barely nosed out a win, 17 to 15. Misses Morrison and Darden did the scoring for the winners, and Misses Quinton and Dean did some mighty fine defensive work for the Nurses. Miss Torres was the best for the losing side and she was given some fine support by her teammates.

Lineups and Summaries.

(Boys.)

PARK ST. (31)		ST. PAUL. (9)
Martin (10)	r.f.	Brown (4)
Burton (10)	l.f.	Chilton (3)
McHenry (7)	c.	Kelley
Smith (2)	r.g.	Pharr (2)
Tankersley	l.g.	England

Substitutions: Park Street, Therrell (2). Referee, Holt. Umpire, Styron.

(Boys).

DRUID HILLS (10)		COL .PARK (30)
Whittenberg (2)	r.f.	R. Hutcheson (4)
Rankin (8)	l.f.	Connor (12)
Gilbreath	c.	L. Hutcheson (6)
Alexander	r.g.	O. Hutcheson (2)
Roane (6)	l.g.	Richardson (2)

Substitutions: College Park, Davis; Druid Hills, Holsinger. Referee, Styron. Umpire, Holt.

(Girls)

EMORY NURSES (17)		CAP. VIEW (15)
Morrison (9)	r.f.	Dodson
Bo[illegible]ker	l.f.	Torress (14)
Darden (8)	c.	Foster
Combs	r.g.	Askew
Quinton	l.g.	Sheppard
Dean	c.g.	Garner

Substitutions: Capitol View, Threlkel (1). Referee, Kimberly. Umpire, Styron.

CHARLESTONER 11 BEATEN BY BLACK BOTTOM

BY HOWARD EATON.

Coach Alexander put his moleskin candidates through another spirited scrimmage yesterday afternoon on Grant Field. The scrimmage was in the form of a game, of which only the first half was played. The second half will be played off at a later date, probably the first of next week.

The two teams have been dubbed the "Black Bottoms" and "The Charlestoners." The "Black Bottoms" won the first half of the game after making a series of first downs in succession, starting from their own 35-yard line.

Thomason and Mizell were the shining lights in the "Black Bottoms'" backfield and it was the work of these two freshmen, coupled with the brilliant line play of Hearne and Hood that spelled defeat for the "Charlestoners." Time after time these backs would run through holes in the line for gains of from three to 12 yards. It was Thomason's 12-yard run off tackle that scored the winning touchdown. He kicked goal.

In the second quarter the "Charlestoners" came back strong and it looked like they would get together and launch a drive that would put them in scoring distance but this drive was short lived. However, the "Black Bottoms" were fought to a standstill during the second quarter, being held to only one first down to three for "The Charlestoners."

The "Charlestoners" were penalized 55 yards during the fray for holding and offsides, while the "Black Bottoms" drew only two five-yard penalties for offsides. Reed, Randolph, Martin and Largen played best for the "Charlestoners."

MEXICO EXPECTED TO YIELD TO U. S.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Mexico City, March 10.—It is reported here in semi-official circles that the Mexican government after a conference between President Calles, Manuel Tellez, Mexican ambassador to Washington who has just returned to Mexico City, and Foreign Minister Saenz, is on the point of granting concessions asked by Washington. It is said former President General Alvaro Obregon has thrown his weight in the balance in favor of an amicable adjustment of the differences between the two governments.

Ambassador Tellez is said to have emphasized the determined attitude of President Coolidge and that there is no hope of changing President Coolidge at least.

Undoubtedly the seriousness of the last two American notes is pre-occupying the Mexican authorities as the contents were not communicated even to those very close to the government who have known the contents of former notes.

Among the points on which Mexico is expected to yield is the attitude of consistently refusing payment for American lands seized for agrarian and other ends, and it will propose a scheme for gradual payment for these lands. It is said concessions will be made to the oil interests sufficient to satisfy them and guarantees will be given for the protection of lives and properties of foreigners resident in Mexico, especially Americans.

It is said here in semi-official circles that the recent American note threatened the removal of the embargo on arms and that Ambassador Tellez indicated in his conference with President Calles and Foreign Minister Saenz that the American government would make the removal of the embargo effective on April 1 if an agreement with Mexico is not reached or steps made in that direction before that date.

AUTOMOBILE HITS TROLLEY HEAD-ON

Three were hurt late Thursday night in a head-on collision between an automobile and a street car at Peachtree and North avenue. The injured are J. W. Freeman, 564 Rosalia street, who was driving a coupe south on Peachtree street; Miss L. Gambley, 88 West Alexander street, and Mrs. M. L. Causey, of 108 West Peachtree place, who were riding in the car with Freeman.

The automobile, according to police reports, collided head-on with the street car. The three injured motorists were given treatment at Grady hospital, and a charge of reckless driving was made against Freeman.

Hellenic Grappler Proves Too Capable For Big Opponent

Flying Head Holds Prove Too Much for Browning. Daviscourt Turns in Win Over Belgian Behemoth. Jones Wins Contest With Stangle.

BY DICK HAWKINS.

The conqueror of Rough Richard Daviscourt, the mat's meanest man, met more than his match in the form of the mat's smallest man, and Jim Browning, the Wichita giant, went down to defeat Thursday night before the attack of Jimmie Londos, the little Greek champion.

The falls stood two to one in favor of Londos when the curtain was lowered on one of the greatest wrestling cards ever staged in Atlanta. Londos won his two falls with the flying mare while Browning's flying head scissors accounted for the one setback given the Greek.

The match was fast throughout though the defensive tactics of Londos tended to slow it in spots. Browning's advantage of nearly 30 pounds in weight was much in his favor but his anxiety to score a win over the redoubtable Greek was the cause of his downfall.

The first fall, which was won by Londos after 52 minutes and 17 seconds of labor, came as a surprise. Londos seemed to be suffering in the grip of a series of headlocks. His feet seemed to be unsteady and in fact he seemed all but out on his feet.

But things are not what they seem in the case of Jimmy Londos and when Browning rushed to get what he hoped would be a final headlock the Greek turned the tables with the quickness of a cat and the fall was ended. Londos applied several flying headlocks followed by a flying mare and the latter hold scored the fall.

Browning took the offensive immediately at the beginning of the second fall and his flying head scissors succeeded in subduing Londos in 11 minutes and 58 seconds. The head scissors is a hold which must be applied with exactness to be effective and though Browning used the hold on many occasions there was but one time when it was applied just as he desired. On that occasion it meant a fall for him.

The second fall for the winner came in 19 minutes and 34 seconds, and was almost an exact repetition of the first fall. London appeared groggy but Browning became overconfident and rushed into a flying mare and the match was over.

In the semi-final go Dick Daviscourt disposed of one champion in the form of Tom Draak, claimant to the mat title of Belgium. For a time it seemed that the Belgian might be able to exchange buffets with Mr. Daviscourt and emerge from the melee as a winner, but that was reckoning without the last named gentleman.

Daviscourt had different arrangements and after 41 minutes and 59 seconds of rough stuff the Californian won with his side headlock. There was much of the questionable in the tactics used by both men, but it can safely be said that Draak committed at least his share of the questionable movements—this in justice to Mr. Daviscourt, whose name is black enough without undeserved soot.

The fastest match of the evening was the curtain raiser in which Paul Jones, the Texas cowboy, further cemented his friendship with Atlanta fans by tossing Joe Stangle with a body scissors in 19 minutes and 42 seconds.

Both men are fast wrestlers and well versed in the tricks and trimmings of the trade, but Jones' superior strength won for him and the gentleman from the home state of Champion Stecher must go back without the honor of having beaten Atlanta's favorite.

It was announced during the main match that Yusoph Hussane, the "terrible Turk" of wrestling fame, had challenged the winner of the main bout on a "winner take all" basis. Announcer Elrod exhibited the telegram from Hussane and declared that Promoter Woodruff and Matchmaker Contos would stage the match next Friday night. Hussane's opponent on that night will be Londos, as he was the winner of the main go.

JACK'S MYTH PROVES TO BE DURABLE ONE

BY FRANK GETTY.

New York, March 10—The Dempsey myth is the most durable thing in boxing.

No matter who is heavyweight champion at the end of the present campaign, the prospective return of the greatest hitter of modern times will be a matter of more importance in the minds of the most fight fans.

Tex Rickard, who abhors logic and revels in myths, is all enthused over the statement that Jack Dempsey's future has been placed in the hands of his favorite promoter.

As a matter of fact, there is neither truth nor logic in the statement.

Dempsey has said emphatically that he would try to get back into shape and then decide upon what boxing he would undertake this year. This is logical and sensible.

But for Rickard to pretend that a telegram from the former champion, dispatched at a time when Dempsey had done no work for several months and is only just recovering from a severe attack of blood poison, is assurance that Jack is coming back to fight Paolino, Sharkey, Maloney, Delaney or whom have you, is sheer nonsense.

Dempsey's future is not in Rickard's hands. Mother Nature, who once provided Jack with one of the most perfect fighting machines man ever had for a body, will decide about Jack's future, and the ex-champion knows it.

Ballyhoo.

The reason Dempsey takes part in the false ballyhoo is because he knows it will be good for his business—no matter what his business may be. The reason Tex Rickard fans the flame with phony telegrams the moment the tumult dies down a bit is because it is good for the fight business, no matter who is fighting.

Why, then, it is asked, would anyone disinterested lend lungs and tongue to the ballyhoo?

It is because Jack Dempsey, in that well-remembered prime, with the flush of hard work instead of that of Hollywood shining on his polished body, could have whipped the entire lot of present-day heavyweights, one after another, on the same evening.

It is because there was more color in Dempsey's little finger than in all the flabby, erudite young financiers now engaged in highly profitable elimination work.

This accounts for the durability of the Dempsey myth.

MACDOWELL CONCERT TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for Mrs. Edward MacDowell's concert at 8:30 o'clock Monday night at the Woman's club auditorium are now on sale at Phillips & Crew Piano company, it was announced Thursday night. Tickets are half price for students, $1 being charged for adults and 50 cents for students.

GOOD THES
SPRING & S
WENTY SEVEN

KUPPENHEIMER

How Do You Do
your clothes buying?

If you're a thinking fellow . . . you know that what you get, in Styleage and Mileage, is more important than what you pay.

And so, for men like you . . . Atlanta men who "clock" their clothes for quality and service . . . Eiseman's feature extraordinary values in Kuppenheimer Sack Suits, Sport Suits and Topcoats this Spring.

Sponsored by John Barrymore and Richard Barthelmess! Suave styles . . . the handicraft of the custom cutter . . . the blooded patterns of the limited yardage weaver . . . at a price made possible only by volume production.

Kuppenheimer
$50. FAMOUS FIFTIES $50.
Patrician quality for the prudent purse.

EISEMAN'S
The House of Kuppenheimer Good Clothes
56-58 Peachtree "Thru to Broad"
"AN INVESTMENT IN GOOD APPEARANCE"

Men!

AN EIGHT DOLLAR
OXFORD
FOR

Men—this sporty, trim eight-dollar oxford for $6.00. Comes in genuine Golden Tan or Black calfskin and is made on a combination last. Has rubber heels! We guarantee it to give eight dollars worth of wear. Only 150 pairs! Come—save $2. Get yours today! All sizes and widths NOW!

$6

Men's Dept.
Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.— 25 Whitehall St.
8 W. Alabama St.

Most Styles
$10

They're chummy, Men!
FLORSHEIM
SHOES are as chummy as a good pipe. You wouldn't consider a substitute once you knew them. The more you see of them the better you like them. The longer you wear them the more lasting the bond between you and Florsheims becomes.

Florsheim Shoe Store
77-A Peachtree Street

Cotton Prices Slip Downward, Market Is Firm at Close

NEW YORK COTTON RANGE.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
Mar	13.95	14.05	13.93	13.95	13.97
May	14.08	14.16	14.05	14.05-06	14.10
July	14.26	14.33	14.21	14.21-23	14.28
Oct	14.41	14.48	14.36	14.37	14.46
Dec	14.56	14.34	14.51	14.53	14.62

SPOTS IN NEW YORK.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Spot cotton, quiet; middling, 14.25.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON RANGE.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
Mar	13.99	14.00	13.98	13.98-00	14.02
May	14.06	14.16	14.04	14.07-08	14.10
July	14.23	14.31	13.19	14.20-21	14.27
Oct	14.33	14.40	14.28	14.29-30	14.27
Dec	14.44	14.50	14.37	14.39	14.47

SPOTS IN NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, March 10—(AP)—Spot cotton closed steady at revised quotations; middling unchanged; sales 4,228; low middling 12.20; middling 14.10; good middling 15.05; receipts 5,477; stock 645,811.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—The cotton market showed further slight declines today. A lower opening was followed by rallies on covering and trade buying, but the advance met increased coverings, and prices sold off from 14.15 to 14.05 for May in late trading.

May closed at that level, the general market closing very steady at net declines of 2 to 13 points.

The opening decline of 1 to 7 points reflected continuation of yesterday's selling movement promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables and better weather news from the south. Initial offerings were readily absorbed, trade interests buying old crop months while there seemed to be local buying of new crop deliveries.

Failure of southern advices to show and easing of the spot situation, following yesterday's reports of a less active demand probably led to considerable covering. This was promoted by rumors that trade buying orders were in the market for execution at slightly lower prices. The tone was very steady in the forenoon, prices working up to 14.05 for March and 14.48 for October, or about 2 to 8 points net higher.

Buyers did not show much disposition to follow up the advances of purchases, however, and the market weakened again in the afternoon under renewed liquidation of new crop months, while there also seemed to be a little hedge selling in late trading. Prices broke back to or slightly below the opening quotations, selling off to 13.95 for March at the close, while October declined to 14.36, closing at 14.40.

Part of the selling of the new crop months during the afternoon was attributed to liquidation of long accounts, influenced by belief that the reduction in acreage would be comparatively moderate.

Exports today were 25,469 bales, making 7,973,005 so far this season. Port receipts 19,622. U. S. port stocks 2,720,251.

LACKING SUPPORT MARKET EASES OFF.

New Orleans, March 10.—(AP)—Despite an upward movement in midsession, which carried price levels 9 to 12 points above the early lows, lack of support to the move allowed the cotton market to ease off in the afternoon to close with net losses for the day of 3 to 8 points.

Easy cables caused first trades to show losses of 3 to 4 points and further losses in early trading carried all active positions down to losses of 6 points from the previous close with May trading at 14.04, July 14.21 and October at 14.31.

Trade buying, unfavorable weather prospects, good spot demand and trade, and outside buying induced a rally which before mid-season had carried May to 14.16, July to 14.31 and October to 14.40, 9 to 12 points above the early lows and 3 to 6 points above the previous close.

Weakness in the late trading sent July to 14.19 and October to 14.28, 12 points under the highs and 6 to 9 points under the previous close. The close was a shade above the lowest.

Exports, 25,469 bales.

The Day in Finance

By

R. L. BARNUM

Market Continues To Gain Strength With a Number of Issues Making New Highs for the Year.

New York, March 10.—In the second hour there was a marked slowing down in trading in stocks awaiting the February unfilled order statement of the United States Steel corporation, published at noon. Throughout the day, however, the stock market continued to gain strength with a number of leading issues making new highs for the year, some for all time. Some estimates placed the loss in February unfilled orders of the Steel corporation as high as 250,000 tons. A loss of 203,000 tons was reported, compared with the decline of 160,000 for January of this year and 265,000 for February of last year. Steel common advanced over a point before 12:15 with the new stock when issued, making a new high for the year.

Conservative financiers are reluctant to throw over old rules, but it is realized that a falling off in monthly unfilled orders of the Steel corporation does not mean today what it meant a few years ago. A few years ago a sharp falling off in such orders would have reflected uncertainty regarding the general trade outlook. With the country now buying from hand to mouth and in a position to get quick deliveries of raw and unfinished goods, a falling off in unfilled orders can occur through speeding up of deliveries of finished goods at a time when confidence in the general outlook is growing. That appears to be what is happening now in the case of the Steel corporation.

Atchison Advances.

Atchison advanced sharply to a new high with other seasoned dividend-paying rails, such as New York Central and Norfolk & Western, following. All high-class securities are advancing in response to the pressure of idle funds seeking employment. In the case of railroad stocks, however, a number of companies are expected before the end of this year to raise working capital through sale of new stock to shareholders with rights.

Youngstown Sheet and Tube shares were again strong on revived rumors of a merger of that company with other independents. Some day these rumors will make good. Youngstown has made remarkable progress in recent years but the company still needs more facilities to get into the class with Bethlehem which is the strongest competitor of the United States steel corporation.

Insiders in Hudson Motors are telling their friends that the company is now turning out 1,400 cars a day; that the output for March will reach 35,000 cars against 26,000 for February. It is predicted that production will be increased to 1,500 cars a day with 100,000 turned out in three months, close to capacity. Hudson is expected to show this year close to its high record earnings. The pool operating in Hudson is making the most of these figures.

Tax Rumor.

Washington reports that the government is getting ready to get more income tax out of corporations with large surpluses. There are a number of companies whose shares are traded in on the stock exchange having a very large accumulated surplus. The list includes Atchison, New York Central, Norfolk and Western, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern and a number of other railroads. An increase in stock would pull down the accumulated surplus by a corresponding amount.

Stocks of some of the railroads known as junk began to advance today. Speculative Wall street argued that with good stocks and bonds advancing the stocks of the junk roads should be worth something. Some of these very low priced rails had not moved in years until blind buying occurred a few weeks ago on the Wheeling and Lake Erie corner.

Even then, however, the activity of these shares were short lived.

Within the last 11 years directors of Atchison have put surplus earnings back into the property over and above dividends equal to a total of $95 a share on the common stock. On the basis of earnings for the past six months Atchison is earning at the rate of $25 a share for its common stock. It would not be difficult for Atchison to either increase its dividend or sell a large block of new stock at par.

General Motors.

Much favorable comment is being heard on the way the market for General Motors is being handled. There is not much doubt that leadership in General Motors is the same that was responsible for the advance last year from 113 1-4 in March to 225 3-4 in August in anticipation of the 50 per cent stock dividend. General Motors remarkable earning power, together with continued short selling on adventurous professional traders make the handling of the stock comparatively easy this spring as was the case of a year ago.

Some talk is being heard of a split up in General Motors on the basis of two new shares for one with the new stock paying 5 per cent. These rumors, however, are not credited in usually well-informed quarters. At 170 a stock paying 8 per cent dividend is selling on a 4.7 per cent basis. The best guess is that General Motors is going to pay extra dividends this year after having recently increased its regular dividend from 7 per cent to 8 making the full payments for 1927 foot up 12 per cent. At 200 a stock paying 12 per cent is selling on a 5 per cent basis.

WORLD COTTON SUPPLY REPORTED BY BRITISH

Washington, March 10.—A cable from the International Federation at Manchester to the United States department of agriculture places the world's cotton stock at 4,681,000 bales, of which American stock is 2,980,000 bales.

Greeters' Chapter Will Be Organized By Hotel Leaders

A Georgia chapter of the American Greeters, an organization of hotel men devoted to furthering the interests and improving general conditions of hotel executives and "front office" employes, will be organized tonight at a meeting at the Piedmont hotel.

Kurt A. Deikelman, Piedmont manager, will be chairman of the meeting, which will be attended by leading hotel men from all sections of the state.

The Georgia chapter of the organization has been inactive since 1918, but before that time held an influential position in Georgia hotel affairs, Mr. Dickelman said. In addition to the business of reorganization, plans for attending the annual convention in St. Petersburg, Fla. March 28-April 2, will be discussed at the meeting.

Among hotel men who are expected to attend the meeting are Jack Walton, of Columbus; L. W. Nelson, of Athens, and Joe Cracy, John Loti, A. S. Hatcher, J. Stiedel, John Dunwoody, Harry Zobel, L. L. Tucker, Jr. and R. F. Altmayer, of Atlanta.

MISS CARRIE KING PASSES AT WRENS

Wrens, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Miss Carrie Donalson King, 24, died today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James King. She is survived by her parents and two sisters, Mrs. R. M. Weeks and Miss Hattie King, and one brother, Herbert King.

She was educated at the Wrens High school and at the Georgai State College for Women.

Funeral services will be held at Ways Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Sugar.

New York, March 10.—The raw sugar market had a steadier tone today, but prices were unchanged at 4.90 for Cuban, duty paid. Sales totaled about 35,000 bags of Cuban at 4.90, and 26,000 bags of Cuban at 4.93, all for March shipment.

Opening losses of 1 to 2 points in raw futures on liquidation, promoted by disappointing European cables, were partially recovered on covering and buying for trade and Cuban account. The late steadiness reflected the better tone in the spot market and final prices were 1 point higher to 2 net lower. Approximate sales 35,000 tons. March closed 3.09; May, 3.17; July, 3.29; September, 3.38; December, 3.26; March (1928), 2.88.

Refined was quiet and unchanged at 6.00 to 6.20 for fine granulated.

Money Market.

New York, March 10.—Call money steady; all loans 4; closing bid 4. Time loans firmer; mixed collateral, 60 to 90 days 4¼@4½; 4-6 months 4¼@4½; prime mercantile paper 4@4¼.

Foreign exchanges mixed. Quotations in cents.

Great Britain demand 484 13-16; cables 485 7-32; 60-day bills on banks 480⅞.

France demand 3.90¾; cables 3.91¼. Italy demand 4.44½; cables 4.45. Belgium demand 13.90. Holland demand 39.98½. Norway demand 25.96. Sweden demand 26.70½. Denmark demand 26.62½. Switzerland demand 19.24. Spain demand 17.21. Greece demand 1.28½. Poland demand 11.50. Czecho-Slovakia demand 2.96. Jugo-Slavia demand 1.76. Rumania demand .61½. Argentina demand 42.18½. Brazil demand 11.87½. Tokio demand 49.18¾. Shanghai demand 61.61. Montreal demand 99.81¼.

Bar silver 55; Mexican dollars 41¾.

London, March 10.—Bar silver 27 7-16d per ounce; money 4 per cent; discount rates, short bills 4⅝@4 7-16 per cent; three months bills 4 5-16@4⅜ per cent.

Cottonseed Oil.

New York, March 10.—Cottonseed oil was inactive but steady today on covering and commission house buying, in anticipation of a bullish consumption report for February. Prices advanced 5 to 13 points, but reacted partially near the close under realizing and were finally unchanged to 7 points net higher. Sales 7,500 barrels. Prime crude, 7.75; prime summer yellow, spot, March and May, 9.50; July, 9.69; September 9.79; October, 9.52.

New Orleans, March 10.—The market for cotton oil futures was steadier today, owing to firmer prices for crude and more or less trade buying, particularly of new crop months. Prime summer yellow oil closed unchanged at 8.50 and prime crude closed at 7.75. Futures closed steady: March, 8.60; May, 8.80; July, 9.12; September and October, 9.00.

Rice.

New Orleans, March 10.—Rough rice quiet; sales none; receipts, 922; clean rice dull; sales 940 Blue Rose, 4½@4¾; 150 second heads, 3; 200 screenings, 2½@2¾; 285 Lady Wright, 6@6½; receipts, 6,501.

CURB IS ERRATIC, PRICES CLIMBING

New York, March 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Highly erratic movements again characterized today's curb market, but with the general price tendency still upward. Business picked up slightly in volume and there were indications of a reawakening of public interest in a few issues. Oils showed better resistance to pressure. Vacuum standing out with a jump of 4 points to a new high record at 110 1-2 in anticipation of an excellent 1926 earnings report.

With public imagination aroused by recent theatrical and "movie" mergers, a brisk demand developed for Universal Pictures, which was bid up over 3 points to a new high record at 43. Rand Kardex issues touched new highs in anticipation of a formal ratification tomorrow of its merger with Remington Typewriter and other units. Johns Manville new stock reacted on the traditional "selling on the good news" following the inauguration of dividends.

Withdrawal of buying support for the Estey Welte issues caused another bad break, the "A" stock dropping 5 1-2 points to 12 3-4, after having sold as high as 48 7-8 earlier in the year, while the "B" stock dropped more than 2 points to 3 7-8 and then rallied slightly.

A 2 1-2-point drop in Brokway was the only change of consequence in the motor group. Artificial Silk shares held firm. Pillsbury Flour broke nearly 5 points on odd lot transactions and heaviness also developed in Glen Alden coal, Richmond Radiator and Atlas Portland Cement.

A brisk inquiry for United Gas Improvement, which advanced 1 1-2 points, featured the quiet trading in public utility stocks.

Regular Statement Atlanta Reserve Bank

Statement of resources and liabilities Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta at the close of business, March 9, 1927:

Resources.
Gold with F. R. agent	$157,536,880.00
Gold redemption fund	2,146,499.02
Gold held exclusively against F. R. notes	$159,683,379.02
Gold settlement fund with F. R. board	27,971,704.63
Gold and gold certificates held by bank	4,455,117.50
Total gold reserves	$192,110,201.15
Reserves other than gold	11,742,710.00
Total reserves	$203,852,911.15
Non-reserve cash	4,446,593.73
Bills discounted—
Secured by U. S. government obligations	3,353,885.91
Other bills discounted	24,425,678.98
Total bills discounted	$ 27,979,564.89
Bills bought in open market	11,391,499.62
U. S. government securities—
Bonds	267,450.00
Treasury notes	1,583,800.00
Certificates of indebtedness	469,000.00
Total U. S. government securities	$ 2,320,250.00
Total bills and securities	$ 41,691,314.51
Uncollected items	28,438,413.20
Bank premises	2,893,621.33
All other resources	745,762.69
Total resources	$282,068,616.61
Liabilities.
F. R. notes in actual circulation	$168,369,630.00
Deposits—
Member banks—reserve account	71,908,940.27
Government	58,495.71
Foreign banks	220,159.43
Other deposits	103,383.96
Total deposits	$ 72,290,979.37
Deferred availability items	26,285,228.16
Capital paid in	5,029,200.00
Surplus	9,631,766.14
All other liabilities	461,812.94
Total liabilities	$282,068,616.61

Ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined: 84.7 per cent.

Contingent liability on bills purchased for foreign correspondents: $3,920,194.95.

Combined Statement Federal Reserve Banks

Resources and liabilities of the twelve federal reserve banks combined.

Resources.
Gold with F. R. agents	$1,573,277,000
Gold redemption fund with U. U. treasury	47,442,000
Gold held exclusively against F. R. notes	$1,620,719,000
Gold settlement fund with F. R. board	559,876,000
Gold and gold certificates held by banks	792,066,000
Total gold reserves	$3,012,661,000
Reserves other than gold	160,619,000
Total reserves	$3,173,280,000
Non-reserve cash	68,554,000
Bills Discounted:
Secured by U. S. government obligations	240,074,000
Other bills discounted	175,865,000
Total bills discounted	$ 415,939,000
Bills bought in open market	264,685,000
U. S. Government Securities:
Bonds	65,413,000
Treasury notes	80,251,000
Certificates of indebtedness	161,265,000
Total of U. S. government securities	$ 306,929,000
Other securities	2,000,000
Total bills and securities	$ 989,553,000
Due from foreign banks	658,000
Uncollected items	616,499,000
Bank premises	58,460,000
All other resources	12,730,000
Total resources	$4,919,734,000
Liabilities.
F. R. notes in actual circulation	$1,718,893,000
Deposits:
Member banks—reserve acct.	2,221,149,000
Government	15,189,000
Foreign deposits	4,650,000
Other deposits	19,767,000
Total deposits	$2,260,755,000
Deferred availability items	572,160,000
Capital paid in	127,700,000
Surplus	228,775,000
All other liabilities	11,451,000
Total liabilities	$4,919,734,000

Ratio of total reserves to deposits and F. R. note liabilities combined, 79.7%.

Contingent liability on bills purchased for foreign correspondents, $96,480,000.

Weekly Statements Of Foreign Banks

BANK OF FRANCE.

Paris, March 10.—The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows the following changes (in francs):

Gold at home unchanged.
Silver in hand increased 62,260.
Notes in circulation increased 301,771,815.
Treasury deposits decreased 23,283,212.
General deposits increased 66,763,281.
Bills discounted decreased 732,647,674.
Advances increased 33,973,101.
The state repaid the bank 200,000,000 francs.
The rate of discount 5½ per cent.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

London, March 10.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes (in pounds):

Total reserve increased 1,170,000.
Circulation decreased 532,000.
Bullion increased 638,000.
Other securities increased 778,000.
Public deposits increased 6,515,000.
Other deposits decreased 5,608,000.
Notes reserve increased 1,117,000.
Government securities decreased 1,045,000.
The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 27.85 per cent; last week it was 27.08 per cent.
Rate of discount 5 per cent.

Seeds.

Toledo, March 10.—Clover seed, cash imported, $16.85 bid; cash, domestic, $25.25; March, $16.85 bid; October, $17.10.

Alsike, cash and March, $22.75.

Timothy seed, old, $2.45; new and March, $2.60; April, $2.65.

Dividend Increased.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Directors of the Barnsdall corporation today increased the annual dividends on the class A and class B stocks from $2 to $2.50.

Market Gossip

News From Wall Street and New York Editorial Comment

(By Fenner & Beane Leased Wire to The Constitution)

BROKERS' STOCK OPINIONS.

Fenner & Beane—The emphatic way in which the special advances are carried on gives little encouragement to the bears.

Orvis Bros.—Rail group seems to be ready to retrace at least part of the ground lost in its 12-day recession.

Prince & Whitely—Some close observers of oils believe that the worst is over in them and that they will improve within a few days.

F. B. Keech & Co.—Payment of income taxes is only a few days off and a flurry might cause a setback.

DOW JONES REPORT.

When asked for confirmation of reports that Carib Syndicate was to figure in an important merger, W. Pack, first vice president, said: "It is too early to say definitely what policy will be pursued by the new Carib management. There is an option outstanding for purchase of Carib's 25 per cent interest in Colon Development company for $15,000,000 cash. This option expires April 1, 1927. Carib has received $250,000 in cash within the space of about a year for this option and two renewals.

"It is possible merger reports are due to the existence of this option. The new Carib management is planning to have an exhaustive examination made of its interests and properties, after which it is possible a statement regarding future policies will be issued."

Chicago—The steady increase in automobile output since the first of the year has been reflected in Stewart Warner Speedometer corporation's operations. Indications are that net earnings will closely approximate net of $1,353,000 reached for the first quarter last year which was equal to $2.25 a share on the 599,990 shares of capital stock, although the first quarter of the year is normally one of the poor quarters. The current quarterly dividend of $1.50 should be covered with a margin of around 50 per cent.

WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Stocks made further response today to the constructive character of recent developments in the business world. General Motors moved up to its record levels of last October, reflecting its extraordinary volume of sales in the first two months of the year and the expectation of equally satisfactory results during the current month.

U. S. Steel reached the best levels of the current movement, buying enthusiasm evoked by the steady gain the corporation's operations, while Mack Truck, Corn Products and various other industrial leaders were also stimulated by favorable conditions affecting their earnings. In the railroad list the outstanding performance was the achievement of a new high on the part of Atchison, which was believed to be discounting ultimate distribution of a 40 per cent stock dividend.

In the late afternoon the whole market turned reactionary. However, this was regarded as a normal technical development, and the recessions from their earlier highs which took place in the speculative leaders failed to disturb confidence regarding the underlying soundness of the general list.

Plan To Admit European Brokers To Curb Mooted

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Plans for broadening the scope of the New York curb market by the admission to associate membership of an unlimited number of European bankers and brokers was announced today in a letter from the board of governors to the members of the curb market. This is seen as another step toward the development of New York as a leading world securities market, following upon the movement of the stock exchange for legislation to permit the listing of foreign securities in their original form.

Hitherto associate memberships have been restricted to citizens of the United States and Canada. Applications have been received from a number of members of the London and Paris stock exchanges.

Yesterday's Markets In Brief

NEW YORK.

STOCKS—Firm; investment shares touch new peaks.

BONDS—Steady; United States government issues continue in demand.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES—Mixed; Spanish pesetas at new high.

COTTON—Barely steady; Wall street selling.

SUGAR—Steady; Cuban support.

COFFEE—Firmer; trade buying.

CHICAGO.

WHEAT—Easy; favorable winter wheat advices.

CORN—Barely steady; disappointing cash demand.

CATTLE—Firmer.

HOGS—Easy.

Live Stock.

Chicago, March 10.—Hogs: Receipts, 34,000; general market 10 to 15c lower than yesterday's best prices; spots on 190 to 240-pound averages 25c off; prices back to Tuesday's level; top, 12.15 paid for 140 to 150-pound weight; bulk desirable light hogs, 11.65@12.00; bulk, 210 to 240-pound average, 11.45@11.70; most 260 to 320-pound butchers, 11.25@11.40; bulk desirable packing sows, 10.35@10.65; most strong weight slaughter pigs, 11.75@12.00; shippers took 9,000; estimated holdover, 10,000.

Cattle: Receipts, 10,000; generally steady on most killing classes; bulls, 10 to 15c higher; vealers 25 to 50c lower; extreme top 1,570-pound steers, 13.50; bulk, 9.50@12.00; best yearlings, 11.75; stockers and feeders offered in odd lots at 7.50@8.75; light yearling heifers upward to 11.00; most fed heifers 7.75@9.50; fat cows, 6.00@7.50; vealers, 10.00@11.50 to packers.

Sheep: Receipts, 12,000; choice handy weight lambs in light supply; shipping competition keen; early sales steady to strong with yesterday, 16.00@16.25; spots, 50c down; bulk wooled lambs, 15.00@15.50; heavy lambs, 14.25@15.15; few extreme weights, 13.25@13.75; clipped lambs, 12.75@13.75; sheep scarce; steady; fat ewes, 8.00@9.00, feeding and shearing lambs unchanged, 13.75@14.75.

Richard Abby Ellis, Well Known Here, Succumbs in Tampa

News of the death of Richard Abby Ellis, 59, Wednesday in Tampa, Fla., has been received here by Judge Marcus W. Beck, a brother-in-law.

Mr. Ellis lived in Tampa for more than a quarter of a century. He formerly was editor of a magazine here for several years.

Mr. Ellis is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Anita Ellis Rogers, and three brothers, L. P. Ellis, of New York city; D. P. and E. R. Ellis, of Oakland, Cal.

Funeral services will be held in Tampa.

STUDENT REINSTATED

Investigation Asked on Gambling Charges.

Chapel Hill, N. C., March 10.—(AP) One of the 13 University of North Carolina students suspended Tuesday by the student council on charges of gambling has been ordered reinstated, Sidney Chappell, president of the council, announced today. This case was reconsidered, he said, adding that the cases of five others probably would be reviewed during the day.

Chappell said also that he had under consideration a petition signed by five of the suspended men requesting that he, as president of the student body, call a mass meeting to get the sentiment of the students regarding methods used in obtaining evidence against the suspended students. The complaint of the petitioners is that coercive and unethical methods were employed.

Chappell asserted that the petition charging unfair methods and asking reconsideration of the cases contained the names of less than 30 students. Statements last night were that 75 had signed the petition, which was in circulation all day yesterday.

MRS. JULIA G. RANKIN DIES IN ALABAMA

News of the recent death of Mrs. Julia G. Rankin, mother of a former Atlantan, Mrs. William F. Dukes, who died in Belle Mina, Ala., after a long illness, was received in Atlanta by friends Thursday.

Mrs. Rankin was a prominent church worker and a woman of unusual mental force, numbering many Atlantans among her friends from visits here. She is survived by three sons, Campbell, Marvin and J. G. Rankin, and three grandchildren, all of the Alabama city.

FERTILIZER TONNAGE DECREASES IN SOUTH

New Orleans, March 10.—(AP)—A decrease of 517,588 tons under the same period last year was shown in the sale of fertilizer tags for the seven months from August to March in nine of the cotton growing states, statistics compiled here by Secretary H. G. Hester revealed today.

The statistics, compiled from official reports by agricultural bureaus and state boards of the nine states, showed a total of 935,298 tons had been bought as compared to 1,452,886 tons last year.

The nine states showed a decrease of 71,340 tons as compared with the sales in 1925, and 483,363 tons when compared with 1924. Reports from North Carolina were not available. Those from the nine states available, with the amount sold in the same states during the same period last year were:

State.	Tons '27	Tons '26
Georgia	246,944	301,661
South Carolina	293,436	461,816
Alabama	120,850	284,850
Mississippi	81,086	160,625
Arkansas	10,203	23,056
Louisiana	74,290	84,468
Texas	56,000	77,000
Tennessee	49,693	54,000
Oklahoma	2,796	5,410
Total	935,298	1,452,886

Coffee.

New York, March 10.—Coffee futures opened today at a decline of about 3 points under selling probably promoted by reports of easier Brazilian exchange rates, but after easing off to 13.41 for May rallied to 13.55 for that delivery on covering accompanied by rumors of a Brazilian loan. The close was steady at a net advance of 3 to 17 points. Estimated sales 26,000 bags. Closing quotations: March 14.33; May 13.60; July 12.70; September 12.05; December 11.70; January 11.70; March (1928) 11.50.

Spot coffee steady; Rio 7s, 15½ to 15¾; Santos 4s, 17¾ to 18. Cost and freight offers included part Bourbon 3s and 5s at 16.80 to 17.20.

Rio exchange on London 1-64d lower; dollar buying rate 30 reis higher. Rio market 50 to 200 reis higher; Santos unchanged to 50 reis higher. Brazilian port receipts 3,000; Jundiahy receipts 21,000.

PRICES BUOYANT ON BOND MARKET

DAILY BOND AVERAGES.

	Thurs	Wed.
10 first grade rails	93.96	93.58
10 secondary rails	96.11	95.93
10 public utilities	95.57	95.48
10 industrials	101.46	101.43
Combined average	96.78	96.61
Combined month ago	96.58
Combined year ago	94.21

Total bond sales (par value), $14,851,000.

New York, March 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—While rapid accumulation of United States government issues continued in today's bond market, the demand spread out to include high-grade securities in practically every field. Buoyancy of prices indicated that buyers are reacting favorably to the treasury department's new financing with its implied belief in a continuance of easy money conditions. The ready and heavy oversubscription of the government short term obligations gave evidence that investors have accepted the reduced interest rates as a reliable barometer of credit conditions.

Treasury 4 1-4s, which have been leading the advance of government securities, was again the most active in the list today, moving up once more to a new high record price. The second Liberty 4 1-4s were accumulated in a large amount, but within a very narrow range of prices.

Strength of high-grade railway mortgages was an outstanding feature of the general list, the combined everage of 10 issues closing at the highest level of the year and carrying the combined average of 40 leading issues of all divisions also into new high ground.

Accumulation of bonds of some of the oil companies, presumably due to anticipated dividends actions, led the activities in the industrial list. General list. General Asphalt 6s and Barnsdall 6s were centers of attention. A few soft spots were attributed to profit taking. Granby 7s were particularly steady with buying centered chiefly in Fiat 7s and French governmental issues.

Country Produce.

Chicago, March 10.—Potatoes, receipts 83 cars; on track, 192; total U. S. shipments, 787; demand slow, market about steady; Wisconsin sacked round whites, $2.00@2.20; mostly around $2.10; Idaho sacked russets, $2.85@3.00, mostly $2.90.

Butter, lower; receipts, 6,589 tubs; creamery, extras, 51½c; standards, 50½c; extra firsts, 47@47½c; firsts, 48½@49½c; seconds, 47@47½c.

Eggs, higher; receipts, 11,016 cases; firsts, 24@24½c; ordinary firsts, 23c.

Kansas City, March 10.—Eggs, firsts 22½c. Potatoes, Red River Ohios, $2.50@2.70.

New York, March 10.—Butter, unsettled; receipts, 12,843; creamery, higher than extras, 52@52¾c; creamery, extras (92 score), 51½@51¾c; creamery, firsts (88 to 91 score), 50@51½c.

Eggs, firm; receipts, 21,210. Fresh gathered, firsts, 24¾@25½c; seconds and poorer, 23½@24½c; refrigerated eggs, 21@22½c; Pacific coast whites, firsts to extra firsts, 30½@32½c.

Cheese, steady; receipts, 81,985.

Live poultry, irregular. Broilers, by express, 50@55c; fowls, by freight, 29@30c; by express, 29@31c; dressed poultry irregular. Chickens, frozen, 20@42c.

St. Louis, March 10.—Eggs, fresh firsts, unchanged to 1c higher, 22@23c.

Butter, unchanged; creamery extras, 52½c.

Poultry, hens, ½c lower, 24c; others unchanged; heavy springs, 23c; light springs, 33c; turkeys, 37c; ducks, 25@29c; geese, 14c.

Heavy Profit Taking Holds Stock Prices Almost Level

DAILY STOCK SUMMARY.

	20 Industrials.	20 Railroads.
Thursday	149.06	133.95
Wednesday	148.56	132.84
Week ago	151.06	134.18
Year ago	138.46	114.46
High 1927	151.85	137.45
Low 1927	141.23	125.58

Total stock sales, 1,912,200 shares.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Resumption of the upward price movement in today's stock market sent more than a score issues to new high levels for the year, but heavy profit-taking developed just before the close in some of the recent favorites, leaving final quotations irregularly higher. Trading showed a further expansion, total sales again running close to the 2,000,000 mark.

Despite the decrease of slightly more than 200,000 tons in the February unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation, steel common was well bought, Wall street apparently paying more attention to the current expansion in mill operations. The new "when issued" stock crossed 117 to a new record high, but later lost part of its gain.

The credit situation continued easy, with call money in plentiful supply at 4 per cent, which rate has been maintained without change since the first of the month. There was no change in time money and commercial paper rates. The New York federal reserve bank announced after the close of the market the continuance of the 4 per cent rediscount rate. Earlier in the day the Bank of England rate was announced as unchanged at 5 per cent.

The demand for the rails was more sustained, but there was nothing in the day's news to explain the heavy accumulation of the leading carrier stocks. Some of them doubtless are attractive as investments in view of the relatively low yield on most high grade bonds. Gulf, Mobile and Northern jumped 6 5-8 points to 54 3-8 and Atchison, Wabash common, Bangor and Aroostock, Peoria and Eastern and St. Louis Southwestern preferred advanced 2 to nearly 4 points.

Remington Typewriter common soared 10 points to a new record high at 170 in anticipation of a formal declaration of the completion of its consolidation with Rand Dardex and other units. New peak prices for the year also were established by American Brake Shoe and Foundry, Shubert Theaters, Loew's, National Biscuit, Coca-Cola, Electric Boat, Manhattan Electric Supply, Owens Bottle, Sterling Products, Union Tank Car and a few others.

Reactionary price tendencies predominated in the principal commodity markets. Active wheat futures broke about a cent a bushel in reflection of disappointment over the foreign demand for the commodity. Cotton options also drifted lower, but coffee and sugar prices were slightly better.

In the foreign exchange market Spanish pesetas established another new high just below 17 1-4 cents and most of the other rates held firm. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.84 13-16 and French francs just above 3.90 cents.

Selma Telephone Calls England For Cotton Talk

Selma, Ala., March 10.—(Special.) M. Hohenberg, president of the Selma Cotton exchange; Norman Clegg and G. H. Howard, visitors of the president and prominent cotton men from Liverpool, England, talked to that city Tuesday morning to firms they represent and to Mr. Clegg's wife for eight minutes at 9 o'clock, at a cost of $216, the distance being 5,500 miles.

Mr. Hohenberg, in relating the incident to The Birmingham News representative after the unusual proceedings and the first long distance conversation ever carried on between Selma and a foreign city, stated that the service was excellent and voices from across the continent were heard as distinctly as if the talk had been over the local telephone.

An interesting fact connected with the first long distance conversation ever held between Selma and a foreign country developed when Mr. Hohenberg stated that the old firm of M. Hohenberg, of Wetumpka, Ala., was the first to have a long distance line in the state 45 years ago, this being between Wetumpka and Montgomery and the first in the south. Mr. Hohenberg was at that time a young man and talked to his fiancee, Miss Pauline Rodenberg, of Selma, reaching her over the local Western Union office.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, March 10.—Cotton spot, good demand; but business moderate; prices easier. American, strict good middling, 8.66; good middling, 8.31; strict middling, 7.96; middling, 7.71; strict low middling, 7.21; low middling, 6.71; strict good ordinary, 6.41; good ordinary, 5.96.

Sales 12,000 bales, including 9,600 American; receipts, 6,000 bales, American 5,200.

Futures closed quiet and steady: March, 7.37; May, 7.55; July, 7.67; October, 7.73; December, 7.77; January, 7.79.

Local Stock Quotations.

Supplied by Courts & Co., Hurt Building.

	Bid.	Asked.
Atlanta Trust company, 8%	129½	131½
Atlanta & Lowry National bank 16%	339	344
Citizens & Southern banks, 13.2%	259	263
Fourth National bank, 16%	356	....
Fulton National bank, 7%	130	132½
Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co., 14%	250	....
American Savings bank, 8%	122	125
Atlantic Ice & Coal Co., 7½% preferred	107	108½
Atlantic Ice & Coal Co., 8% common	54	54½
Bibb Mfg. Co., 6% preferred	100	102
Bibb Mfg. Co., 6% common	119	122
Continental Gin company, 7% preferred	104	...
Continental Gin, common	55	....
Columbus Electric & Power Co., 7% preferred	104	....
Columbus Electric & Power Co., 6½% preferred	99	100
Dinkler Hotels, "A" 8%	21½	22½
Exposition Cotton Mills, 7% preferred	106	....
Georgia Railway & Power company, 7% first preferred	107	108
Georgia Railway & Power company, 8% first preferred	121½	123½
Thomaston Cotton Mills, 8% preferred	100	....

Naval Stores.

Savannah, March 10.—Turpentine firm, 70½@71; sales 234; receipts 46; shipments 378; stock 5,396.

Rosin firm; sales 358; receipts 270; shipments 577; stock 39,067.

Quote: B 8.00@8.20; D 8.50@8.75; E 9.00@9.25; F 9.25; G 9.52@9.52½; H 9.75@10.00; I 10.00@10.25; K 11.00; M 11.25; N 11.75; WG 12.00; WW, X 15.00.

Jacksonville, March 10.—Turpentine, firm at 70c; sales, 21; receipts, none; shipments, 755; stock, 19,539.

Rosin, firm; sales, 68; receipts, 88; shipments, 1,596; stock, 61,217.

Quote: B, 8.50; D, 8.60; E, 9.10; F, 9.50; G, 9.70; H, 10.00; I, 10.25; K, 10.75; M, 11.10; N, 11.75; WG, 12.50; WW, 15.00; X, 17.00.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. The Safe and Proven Remedy. (The First and Original Cold and Grip Tablet.) Signature of E. W. Grove on the box. 30c.—(adv.)

Unconditionally Guaranteed by the State of Queensland
As to Principal and Interest by Endorsement on Each Bond

$7,500,000
City of Brisbane
Thirty-Year Sinking Fund 5% Gold Bonds

Dated March 1, 1927 — Due March 1, 1957

Not Redeemable for Twenty Years Except for Sinking Fund

Interest payable March 1 and September 1. Coupon Bonds in denomination of $1,000, registerable as to principal only. Principal and interest payable in New York City, in United States gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, at The National City Bank of New York, Fiscal Agent of the Loan. Principal and interest of the Bonds are payable without deduction for any present or future taxes or duties levied by the City of Brisbane, the State of Queensland or the Commonwealth of Australia, or by or within any political sub-division or taxing authority thereof, and are payable in time of war as in time of peace, irrespective of the nationality of the holder or owner.

The bonds are redeemable prior to maturity at 100% of the principal thereof, either as a whole, at the option of the City of Brisbane, on March 1, 1947, or on any interest date thereafter, or in part, through the operation of a sinking fund, on September 1, 1927, or on any interest date thereafter. Approximately 65.8% of the bonds will be retired, prior to maturity, through a cumulative sinking fund of 1% per annum, operating semi-annually.

These Bonds are the direct obligations of the City of Brisbane and are authorized by a Resolution of the Brisbane City Council, dated December 18, 1926, and approved by the Governor-in-Council of the State of Queensland on the same date, in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the City of Brisbane (The City of Brisbane Act of 1924, dated October 30, 1924). The City agrees that if, in the future, it shall sell, offer for public subscription, or in any manner dispose of any bonds or contract any loan secured by any charge or pledge on or of any revenues or assets of the City, the service of this Loan shall be secured equally and ratably with such bonds or loan.

Application will be made to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

We offer these Bonds if, as and when issued to and received by us, subject to approval of counsel. Delivery in temporary form is expected on or about March 24, 1927.

Price 96 and interest, to yield over 5.26% to maturity

Further information regarding the City of Brisbane and the State of Queensland is contained in the circular descriptive of this issue, copies of which will be furnished upon request.

The National City Company
Head Office: National City Bank Building, New York
Atlanta—68 Peachtree Street
Telephone—WAlnut 5069-70-71
Offices in more than 50 cities in the United States and Canada

The above information has been obtained, partly by cable, from official statements and statistics and from other sources which we consider reliable. We do not guarantee, but believe it to be correct.

Closing Reports Only Complete

QUOTATIONS ON COTTON, STOCKS, BONDS, GRAINS, LIVE STOCK

Markets of World Fully Covered

BOND MARKET

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, March 10.—Following are today's high, low and closing prices of bonds on the New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond.

(U. S. Government bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds of dollars.)

U. S. Bonds.

Sales (In $1,000.)	High.	Low.	Close.
11 Liberty 3½s '32-47	101.19	101.14	101.14
5 Liberty 2d 4s reg	100.	100.	100.
12 Liberty 1st 4¼s	103.25	103.16	103.16
2048 Liberty 2d 4¼s	100.26	100.24	100.24
18 Liberty 2d 4¼s reg	100.22	100.20	100.20
101 Liberty 3d 4¼s	101.11	101.9	101.9
11 Liberty 3d 4¼s reg	101.7	101.6	101.6
374 Liberty 4th 4¼s	104.10	104.3	104.8
12 Liberty 4th 4¼s reg	104.5	104.2	104.2
622 Treasury 3¾s '46-56	105.22	105.7	105.15
228 Treasury 4s '44-54	108.15	108.10	108.10
715 Treasury 4½s '47-52	114.	112.26	113.10
320 Tres 4¼s '47-52 reg	112.26	112.23	112.26

Corporation Bonds.

	High.	Low.	Close.
9 Am Agri Chem 7½s	104	104	104
9 Am Chain sf db 6s	103	102¾	102¾
1 Am Rep Cor db 6s	99½	99½	99½
10 Am Smelting 6s	108½	108½	108½
38 Am Smelting 5s	101⅞	101½	101½
35 Am Tel & Tel 5½s	106⅛	106	106⅛
15 Am T & T col 5s '46	103½	103¼	103¼
8 Am T & T sf 5s '60	102	101⅞	102
1 Am T & T cvt 4½s	100	100	100
24 Am T & T col 4s	99	98¾	98¾
6 Am Type Fdrs 6s '40	105½	105½	105½
20 Am W W & Elec 5s	98⅞	98⅞	98⅞
13 Am Writ Pa 6s ctfs	62½	62½	62½
61 Anacon Cop 7s '38	108⅞	108	108⅛
68 Anacon Cop 6s '53	104⅛	104¼	104⅛
35 Andes C M 7s '43	108	107¾	107¾
28 Ang Chil Ni Corp 7s	87½	87	87
13 Arm & Co Del 5½s	95½	95	95½
15 Arm & Co r est 4½s	92⅛	92½	92½
5 Asso Oil rct 6s	102½	102½	102½
26 A T & S F gen 4s	94	93¾	93¾
1 A T & S F adj 4s st	89	89	89
1 A T & S F cvt 4s '05	89	89	89
12 A T & S F 4s Ok div	99⅛	99⅛	99⅛
3 Atlanta & Bir 4s	93½	93	93
3 Atl Coast Line 7s	103½	103½	103½
3 A C Line 1st gld 4s	94⅛	94⅛	94⅛
10 ACL-L&N col tr 4s	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
1 L & N 5s B 2003	106½	106½	106½
6 L & N 1st rfg 4½s	101	100⅞	101
15 Lou Gas & El 5s	100¼	100¼	100¼
8 Manati Sug 7½s '42	105¼	105¼	105¼
1 Manhat Ry 2d 4s	60	60	60
3 Market St Ry 7s	97	96½	96½
4 Met Ed 6s	108½	108½	108½
1 Met Ed 5s	100½	100½	100½
17 Midvale Stl cvt 5s	98½	98⅞	98⅞
7 Mil ER&L 1st 5s B '61	99	98⅞	99
1 Mil ER&L 1st 5s B '51	99⅞	99⅞	99⅞
2 Mil El Ry & Lt 4½s	98¾	98¾	98¾
4 Milwaukee Gas L 4s	100	99⅞	100
7 M & St L 1st rfg 4s	19½	19½	19½
6 MSP&SSM 6½s	101½	101½	101½
2 MSP&SSM con 5s	98	97	98
11 MSP&SSM 1st con 4s	88¼	88⅛	88⅛
1 M K & T 1st 4s	86⅞	86⅞	86⅞
1 M K & T pl 6s C	103½	103½	103½
12 M K & T nw pl 5s A	103	102	102
93 M K & T adj 5s A	100¼	100½	100¼
1 M K & T pl 4s B	86	86	86
12 Mo Pac 1st 6s D	108	107¼	107¼
6 Mo Pac 6s E	107⅞	107⅞	107⅞
32 Mo Pac rfg 5s '65	100¼	100	100
94 Mo Pac gen 4s	77¼	76¾	76¾
1 Mob & Oh gen 4s	94	94	94
12 M & O 4s SL&C div	97½	97½	97½
9 Montreal Tr col 5s '41	99¼	99¼	99¼
2 Morris & Co 1st 4½s	89½	89½	89½
1 Murray Body 6½s	97½	97½	97½
6 Nassau El con 4s stp	61	60¾	61
1 National Acme 7½s	99½	99½	99½
3 Nat Dairy Prod 6s	102	102	102
1 Nt Ry Mex 4½s '57 assd	17	17	17
12 N Eng T & T 5s	104	103¾	103¾
52 N Eng T & T gen 4½s B	96½	96½	96½
1 New & Cin Bdge 4½s	97¼	97¼	97¼
1 N Y Air Brake cvt 6s	101¼	101¼	101¼
1 NYC&HR deb 6s	107¼	107¼	107¼
36 NYC&HR rf imp 5s	106⅛	106⅛	106⅛
34 NYC&HR deb 4s '34	98	97	97½
12 NYC&HR con 4s	91½	91½	91½
17 NYC&HR rf&im 4½s	99¼	99¼	99¼
12 NYC&HR rfg 3½s	80⅛	80⅞	80⅞
6 NYCMiCen col tr 3½s	80¼	80¼	80¼
1 N Y Chic & St L 6s	103	103	103
5 NYC&StL 5½s B	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

8 Caldas 7½s '46	97½	97½	97½
31 Can 5½s notes '29	102	101⅞	102
26 Canadian 5s '52	104¼	104⅛	104¼
4 Canadian 4½s '36	98¾	98¾	98¾
9 Chile Mtg Bk 6½s '57	95¼	94¾	95½
7 Chile Mtg Bk 6¾s ct '51	97	96½	97
6 Chile 8s '41	108	107½	108
10 Chile 8s '46	108¼	108¼	108¼
40 Chile 7s '42	100⅞	100	100¼
25 Chile 6s '60	93⅛	93½	93½
4 Chris Oslo 6s '54	100⅞	100½	100⅞
18 Cologne 6½s '56	99½	99¼	99½
8 Cuba 5½s '53	102¾	102¾	102¾
2 Cuba 4½s '49	95	95	95
5 Czecho 8s '51	108⅞	108¾	108⅞
1 Czecho 8s '52	108¾	108¾	108¾
9 Czecho 7½s '45	107	106¾	106¾
5 Danish 6s '42	104½	104⅛	104⅛
1 Danish Mun 8s A	110½	110½	110½
2 Danish Mun 8s B	110¼	110½	110½
5 Dom Rep sf 5½s	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

UNFILLED ORDERS FOR STEEL LOWER

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation on February 28, made public today, totaled 3,597,119 tons, a decrease of 203,058 tons compared with the end of the preceding month.

The total of the corporation's forward business at the end of the month was the lowest since September, 1926, when unfilled orders amounted to 3,593,507 tons. The gain in operations, however, which are now at an average of 97 per cent indicated that shipments to customers in February had increased materially over the preceding month.

It is considered in the trade that a few years ago a decrease as large as that reported today would have had greater significance to the industry, but owing to the basic change in the character of demand for steel at the present time, resulting from the general hand-to-mouth buying policy in vogue, little importance is attached to the size of the drop.

The low prices for most contracts placed in the last month or two are regarded as a favorable aspect of the comparative lightness of forward business, the probability being that these prices now apply virtually to all unfilled tonnage. Should prices advance, which it is believed likely in the trade, less low profit business will have to be worked off in the next few months.

Bank Clearings, Cotton And Other Quotations

ATLANTA BANK CLEARINGS.

Yesterday	$ 8,887,201.69
Same day last year	12,098,042.50
Decrease	$ 3,210,840.81
Same day last week	9,248,078.94
Same day 1925	11,942,813.76
Same day 1924	9,633,468.85

Atlanta spot	13.45
Receipts	553
Shipments	1,766
Sales	1,200
Stock	60,589

Atlanta Produce Market Basis Atlanta.

Crude oil basis, prime tank	$ 7.75
C. S. meal 7 per cent car lot	29.00@30.00
C. S. meal 7 per cent car lot	28.00@29.00
C. S. hulls, loose	6.50@ 7.50
C. S. hulls, sacked	9.50@10.50
Linters, first cut	.05½@ .06
Linters, clean mill run	.03 @ .03½
Linters, second cut	.02½@ .02¾

Provisions.

Chicago, March 10.—Cash: Lard, 12.32; ribs, 16.50; bellies, 17.12.

Minneapolis, March 10.—Flour unchanged; shipments, 33,000 barrels.

Bran, $27.00@27.50.

Wheat, No. 1 northern, $1.37½@1.39½; May, $1.38½; July, $1.39¾.

Corn, No. 3 yellow, 68@70c.

Oats, No. 3 white, 43¾@44⅛c.

Flax, No. 1, $2.16½@2.29½.

New York, March 10.—Rye barely steady; No. 2 western, $1.17 f. o. b. New York and $1.15¼ c. i. f. export.

Barley firm; malting, 88¾@90¼c c. i. f. New York.

Tallow easier; special, 7½c; extra, 7⅛c.

Wheat futures opened steady; domestic, May, $1.43¾.

Metals.

New York, March 10.—Copper steady; electrolytic, spot and futures, 13.37.

Tin easier; spot and nearby, 70.37; May, 68.00.

Iron steady and unchanged.

Lead quiet; spot, 7.65.

Zinc steady; East St. Louis, spot and futures, 6.75@6.77½.

Antimony, spot 12.50.

N. Y. Stock Transactions

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, March 10.—Following is the complete closing list of today's transactions on the New York Stock Exchange:

Sales (In Hundreds).	High.	Low.	Last.
8 Abitibi Pow & Pap	90½	89½	89¾
1 Adams Express	134½	134½	134½
3 Adv Rumely	14	13¾	14
2 Ahumada Lead	5	5	5
25 Air Reduction	149	146	147
55 Ajax Rubber	11⅛	11¼	11¼
1 Alaska Juneau Gold	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
5 All Am Cables	170	167¼	170
10 Alliance Realty	50	50	50
140 Al Chem & Dye	141	139¾	140½
2 Al Ch & Dye pfd	121½	121½	121½
10 Allis Chalmers Mfg	96¼	95¼	95¾
1 Allis Chalmers pfd	110½	110½	110½
5 Amal Leather	18½	18	18
1 Amal Leather pfd	104	104	104
39 Amerada Corp	33½	33	33
1 Am Agri Chem	12¼	12¼	12¼
5 Am Agri Chem pfd	41	40⅞	41
1 Am Bank Note	47	47	47
20 Am Bank Note pfd	58½	58½	58½
1 Am Beet Sug	24	24	24
4 Am Bosch Mag	15⅛	15½	15⅝
41 Am Brake Shoe Fdy	148⅞	144½	148⅞
20 Am Br Shoe Fdy pfd	125	121	125
19 Am Brown Bov Elec	33½	32¼	32⅞
60 Am Can	48⅞	48	48⅞
2 Am Can pfd	129¼	129¼	129¼
28 Am Car & Fdy	105⅛	104¾	104⅞
1 Am Car & F pfd	129½	129½	129½
2 Am Chain A	30¼	30¼	30¼
7 Am Chicle	47	45¾	47
5 Am Drug Syn	10½	10	10
7 Am Express	133¾	132½	133
44 Am & For Pow	21¼	20½	20¾
2 Am & For Pow pfd	90½	90	90
4 Am Hide & Leath pfd	51¾	51½	51½
3 Am Home Prod	32⅞	32¾	32¾
3 Am Ice	130	130	130
7 Am Internatl Corp	39⅜	39	39
1 Am-La Fr Fire Eng	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

CROP ADVICES DEPRESS WHEAT

Chicago, March 10.—(AP)—Increased selling on the part of houses with connections northwest carried wheat sharply down-grade today at the last. Crop news was favorable and buyers relatively scarce. Wheat closed weak, 1c to 1 5-8c net lower, corn 5-8c to 7-8c down, oats 3-8c to 1 1-8c off and provisions varying from 7c decline to 10c advance.

At first the course of wheat here was largely a reflection of strength at Liverpool, where wheat for immediate use appeared to be in active demand, with European continental buyers reentering the market. Besides, good inquiry for wheat at the Gulf of Mexico was noted, and considerable No. 2 red in Chicago had been registered for outloading. On the other hand, snowstorms northwest and west, giving some promise of bumper crops, tended to induce selling, and so, likewise, did favorable crop reports from winter wheat territory southwest.

Lowest prices of the day in wheat came during the last half-hour, much of the selling then resulting from standing orders to stop losses at various fixed limits. The late break from the early high point carried prices down 2 1-4c a bushel in some cases. Meanwhile, however, the cash wheat trading basis was unchanged to 1c higher for hard winter and steady for red winter and spring.

Corn and oats went lower with wheat. Resistance to selling pressure was evident in corn, but weakness of oats was pronounced. Receipts both of corn and oats were in excess of requirements.

Provisions for the most part were lower, sympathizing with weakness of the hog market.

CHICAGO GRAIN QUOTATIONS.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. Close.
WHEAT—
May	1.40¼	1.41¼	1.38⅞	1.39¼	1.40⅞
July	1.34⅞	1.34½	1.33	1.33⅛	1.34⅞
Sept	1.31⅛	1.32	1.30⅛	1.30¼	1.31⅛
CORN—
May	.77	.77½	.76⅛	.76¼	.76⅞
July	.81½	.81⅞	.80⅞	.80⅞	.81⅜
Sept	.85⅛	.85¼	.84¼	.84¼	.85
OATS—
May	.46⅞	.46⅞	.45⅞	.45⅞	.46⅞
July	.46½	.46⅞	.45⅞	.45⅞	.46⅞
Sept	.43⅜	.43⅞	.44½	.44½	.45
RYE—
May	1.06½	1.06½	1.05⅛	1.05½	1.06
July	1.04½	1.04½	1.03⅛	1.03⅛	1.04½
Sept	....	.99⅜	.98⅞	.98⅞	.98⅞
LARD—
May	12.50	12.60	12.47	12.47	12.55
July	12.70	12.80	12.70	12.70	12.75
SIDES—
May	....	....	....	14.77	14.77
July	14.50	14.50	14.50	14.50	14.52
BELLIES—
May	....	....	....	17.00	16.90
July	....	....	....	16.75	16.70

Cash Grain.

Chicago, March 10.—Wheat, No. 1 red, $1.37@1.37½; No. 2 red, $1.36½@1.36⅞.

Corn, No. 4 mixed, 59@61c; No. 3 yellow, 66½c.

Oats, No. 2 white, 51c; No. 3 white, 42@47½c.

Rye, No. 3, 99@99½c.

Barley, 64@82c.

Timothy sed, $4.75@5.00.

Clover seed, $28.00@35.00.

Kansas City, March 10.—Wheat, No. 2 hard, $1.33½@1.38½; No. 2 red, $1.31@1.32; Close: May, $1.31¼; May, new, $1.31¼; July, $1.28¼.

Corn, No. 2 white, 71½@73c; No. 2 yellow, 74@75½c; No. 3 yellow, 71@74c; No. 2 mixed, 71@73½c. Close: May, 74c; July, 77¼c; September, 80⅛c.

Milomaize, $1.16@1.23.

Kafir, $1.07@1.17.

Rye, 99@99½c.

Barley, 72@73c.

Hay, mostly unchanged; choice and selected alfalfa, $1.00@2.00 higher; receipts, 57 cars.

Oats, No. 2 white, 47½@49c; No. 3 white, 46@48c.

St. Louis, March 10.—Wheat, No. 2 red, $1.35@1.36; No. 2 hard, $1.42.

Corn, No. 3 mixed, 63½@64c; No. 4 mixed, 59c; No. 2 yellow, 75c; No. 3 yellow, 68@70c; No. 5 white, 57@60c.

Oats, No. 2 white, 49@51½c; No. 3 white, 43@45½c.

Futures: Wheat, hard, May, $1.38 bid; hard, July, $1.31½ asked; red, May, $1.35¼ asked; red, July, $1.31 asked. Corn, May, 78½c split asked; July, 83c asked.

Flax.

Duluth, March 10.—Close flax: March, 2.21; April, 2.22¾; May, 2.22½; July, 2.25.

16 Skelly Oil	34	33⅞	33⅞
2 South Porto Rico Sug	170½	169	169
25 Sou Dairies A	34	33½	33½
31 Sou Dairies B	13⅛	12¼	12¼
30 Sou Pac	108⅞	108¼	108¼
30 Sou Ry	123¼	122¾	123¼
1 Sou Ry pfd	94	94	94
10 Spalding & Bros 1st pfd	106	106	106
2 Spicer Mfg	26⅛	26⅛	26⅛
1 Spicer Mfg pfd	108	108	108
116 Stan Gas & Elec	57⅛	56½	57
2 Stan Gas & Elec pfd	59⅛	59⅛	59¼
1 Stan Milling	76	76	76
11 Stan Oil Calif	57⅛	57⅛	57⅛
61 Stan Oil N J	38⅞	38⅛	38⅛
1 Stan Oil N J pfd	114⅞	114⅞	114⅞
43 Stan Oil N Y	31⅛	31⅛	31⅛
3 Stan Plate Glass	2½	2½	2½
9 Sterling Products	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

CURB MARKET

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York, March 10.—Following is the official list of transactions on the New York Curb Exchange giving all stocks and bond traded. (An x preceding name of issue indicates that prices are in cents):

Industrials.

Sales (In Hundreds).	High.	Low.	Close.
70 Alabam Gt So Ry	127	127	127
1 Allied Packers	1	1	1
3 Aluminum Co Am	72	71	72
2 Alum Co Am pf	102¼	102¼	102¼
1 Am Arch	104	102⅞	102⅞
3 Am Brown Bov Fgn vtc	17⅛	16½	17⅛
1 Am Cyan pf	88½	88½	88½
1 Am Gas & El pf	97¼	97¼	97¼
1 Am Haw S S	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
10 Am Piano	255	255	255
80 Am Pow & Lt pf	99¾	99½	99½
8 Am Rayon	6⅞	6½	6⅞
4 Am Seat ctf	45⅛	45⅛	45⅛
1 Am Superpow A	29⅛	29⅛	29⅛
2 Am Superpow B	29⅜	29⅜	29⅜
6 Am Superpow pt pf	27¼	27¼	27¼
12 Am Thread pf	3 15-16	3 13-16	3 13-16
3 Am Writ Pap vtc	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
1 Am W P pfd vtc	28¼	28¼	28¼
1 Anglo Chil Con Nitra	14½	14½	14½
17 Asso Gas & El	40¼	40¼	40¼
20 Atl Fruit & Sug	1	1	1
1 Atlas Port Cem new	41¼	41¼	41¼
6 Bancitaly	113¼	113¼	113¼
350 Blackstone Val G & El	101¼	101	101¼
2 Bliss Co	23	22⅞	23
13 Blyn Shoe	8½	8	8½
3 Borden Co	102	101⅞	102
28 Bordon Co rcts	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
1 Bridgeport Mach	5	5	5
1 Brockway Mot Truck	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

1 Trumbull Steel	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
2 Truscon Steel	10¼	10¼	10¼
80 Tub Art Silk B ctf	26¼	25½	26
3 Tung Sol Lamp A	190	185	190
1 Un Artist Thea ctf	19	19	19
1 Un Elec Coal ctf	99	99	99
23 Unit Gas Imp new	23	23	23
10 Un Lt & Pow A new	91½	90	91½
50 Un Lt & Pow A pf	12⅛	12¼	12⅜
22 U S Distrib Corp new	92	91½	91½
4 U S Distrib pf new	16¼	15¼	16
2 U S Lt & Ht new	87¼	86¾	86¾
7 U S Lt & Ht pf	47	46½	46½
1 U S Rub Reclaim	8	8	8
15 Univ Leaf Tob	12½	12½	12½
30 Universal Pict	47¼	46¾	46¾
1 Util Pow & Lt B ctf	43	40⅞	43
5 Warner Bros Pic	14	14	14
2 West Dairy Prod A	27½	27	27¼
6 White Sew Mach	49⅛	49	49
1 Yell Taxi Cab N Y	20½	19⅞	19⅞

Standard Oils.

2 Anglo-Am Oil	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
1 Borne & Scrymser	58	58	58
50 Buckeye Pipe Line	47	47	47
16 Cont Oil	21	20½	20¾
30 Cumberland Pipe	128	127	127
20 Galena Sig pf new	48	48	48
30 Humble Oil & Ref	57	56	56½
3 Ill Pipe Line	136½	135½	136
15 Imp Oil Can	43⅛	42½	43
35 Inter Pet	32⅛	31¾	32⅛
2 Nat Trans	14	14	14
50 North P L	78½	78½	78½
3 Ohio Oil	60½	60½	60⅜
2 Penn-Mex	17	16½	16½
34 Prairie Oil & Gas	52	51¼	51¼
9 Prairie Pipe Line	146¼	143½	146¼
30 Solar Ref	190	190	190
5 South Penn Oil	37¼	37⅛	37⅛
125 Stand Oil Ind	69⅜	68⅞	69
5 Stand Oil Ky	117⅞	117⅞	117⅞
1 Stand Oil Neb	47½	47½	47½
20 Stand Oil of Ohio	317	317	317
145 Vacuum Oil	110½	108½	110

Miscellaneous Oils.

36 Am Cont Oilfields	1⅛	1	1⅛
25 Am Maracaibo	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞
2 Beacon	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
86 Carib Syn	22⅛	21⅞	22⅛
2 Carib Synd cod	22⅛	21⅞	21⅞
94 Cities Serv new	51⅛	50⅛	51
12 Cities Serv B pf	8	8	8
28 Colom Synd	2½	2½	2½
16 Creole Synd	13⅛	12¾	12¾
18 Crown Central	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
26 Gibson Oil	2⅞	2⅛	2⅛
6 Gulf Oil Corp Pa	94½	94	94
3 Kirby Pet	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
33 Leonard Oil	9⅛	8⅞	9⅛
5 Lion Oil	26½	26¼	26¼
88 Lone Star Gas	46¼	44⅞	45¼
3 Magdalena Synd	1½	1⅛	1½
10 xMexico Oil	23	23	23

25 Sauda Falls Ltd 5s '55	13	13	13
2 Sax State Mtg 7s '45	99½	98½	98½
8 Sax St Mtg 6½s '46	101	101	101
36 Siemens & Halske 6½s	98½	98½	98½
66 Stinnes Corp 7s	105	104⅞	105
82 Stinnes Indus 7s	100¼	100	100
26 Swiss Confed 5½s '29	100¼	100	100
13 ThyssenIrStlWks 7s '30	101⅛	101⅛	101⅛
3 Tietz Leonhardt 7½s '46	102¼	102¼	102¼
3 TietzLeonhrt 7½s'46ww	109½	109½	109½
71 Unit Elec Serv 7s	101¼	101	101
3 Un Indust Corp 6½s	98¼	97⅞	98¼
10 Un St Wks Bur 7s '51	96⅛	96⅛	96⅛
11 Un St Wks Ger 6½s '51	102⅞	102¼	102⅞
	105¼	105	105¼

Sales of stocks 322,500 shares.

Sales of bonds $2,670,000.

Dry Goods.

New York, March 10.—Demand for silk and cottons, rayon and cottons and soft finished cottons, printed and plain, was unusually active today for wash fabrics sales. Printed lines were so much sought after that most mills were running overtime to fill orders. Gray cloths were firm. Burlaps were higher and more active. Silk was slightly easier, but trade was fair. Silk goods in sheer weaves were much sought after, crepes, printed and plain being especially active. New lines of worsted dress fabrics will be opened next week.

Rubber.

New York, March 10.—Rubber closed firm; March, 40.20; May, 41.40; July, 42.00.

4% Certificates of Deposit 4%

Interest at 4 per cent if left 90 days. We offer these as attractive investments for temporary idle funds.

Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Atlanta's Oldest Savings Bank. Organized 1899

74 Peachtree

Member Federal Reserve System

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $965,000.00

RADIO BOARD NAMES TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, March 10.—Three of the five members of the new radio commission held an informal meeting today. They named E. O. Sykes, of Mississippi, one of the two democratic members, to act as chairman until Rear Admiral W. H. G. Bullard, of Pennsylvania, designated as chairman by President Coolidge, arrives from China next month.

The first formal meeting of the commission will take place next Tuesday. At that time four of the five members will be present. Those on hand today besides Mr. Sykes, were O. H. Caldwell, of New York, and H. H. Bellows, of Minnesota. J. F. Dillon, of California, will arrive in time for Tuesday's meeting.

The three members already here conferred with S. B. Davis, solicitor for the department of commerce, who has been Secretary of Commerce Hoover's right hand man in working out radio problems.

America Immune From Air Attack, Wilbur Asserts

Chicago, March 10.—(AP)—The United States is safe from any foreign attack from the air because aircraft are incapable of making such an attack if they so desired, Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of the navy, declared here today.

Mr. Wilbur termed an attack from the skies, "an utter impossibility," explaining that to make a continuous flight over the Atlantic ocean an airplane would necessarily have to carry a minimum weight, thereby giving no chance to carry bombs or other destructive implements of war and even after reaching American shores, if the aviator met no mishaps en route, he would be forced to land for fuel.

"The only other way we might be attacked from the air," said Mr. Wilbur, "might be from planes carried from a mother ship which might penetrate our naval defenses. We are, however, well protected from such an invasion, by our own naval force."

Mr. Wilbur explained America's protection by saying that every ship in the American navy now or soon will carry planes on their decks and that battleships are now equipped or being equipped with a new type of powder propelled catapults which will enable them to send out heavy bombing and combat planes, as well as torpedo carrying planes, scouting planes and seaplanes.

While the country's air forces are being improved, Mr. Wilbur said, to meet foreign competition from the air, America's battleships also are being equipped to meet successfully an air attack.

To combat aircraft battling on the high seas, he explained, the United States is now spending $5,000,000 each on 13 first line battleships to protect them from an attack from the air.

EXPERTS CLASH ABOUT SANITY OF CROARKIN

Chicago, March 10.—(AP)—The inevitable clash of the opinions of expert witnesses occurred in the Harold J. Croarkin murder trial today.

As soon as the defense rested its case with the testimony of its third alienist that the 26-year-old defendant was insane when he slew little Walter Schmith, Jr., and remains in that condition, the prosecution introduced its first expert on mental conditions and he called Croarkin sane then and now.

Dr. William F. Lorenz, professor of nervous and mental diseases of the University of Wisconsin, today added his finding of insanity to those voiced yesterday by Dr. William J. Hickson, head of the Chicago Municipal Psychopathic laboratory, and the Rev. Dr. Thomas Moore, Benedictine monk and student of mental disorders.

Dr. Francis J. Gerty, of Chicago, said Croarkin flinched and cried at the mention of hanging for his crime; related a clear and connected narrative of what happened, and displayed remorse; admitting that he "felt rotten and conscience stricken" after the slaying. This testimony was directly opposite that of defense alienists.

He thought lucidly enough to reply: "My attorneys told me to admit killing the boy, but not to give the motive," Dr. Gerty testified."

FORMER OREGON SENATOR SUED FOR TROUSSEAU

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, March 10.—Washington society received a shock today when a New York modiste filed suit in the District of Columbia supreme court against former Senator Robert N. Stanfield, of Oregon, who retired March 4, to cover the cost of a trousseau for the former Miss Barbara Stanfield, whose marriage here on January 21, last, to Henry Teasdale Dunn, of Jacksonville, Fla., was one of the events of the winter season.

The suit is to recover $1,121 on behalf of Carrie Wallace and Annie Grantland, New York modistes, and includes the cost of Mrs. Grantland's railroad fare to Washington to try the clothes on Miss Stanfield.

Senator Stanfield and wife, who reside in one of the most fashionable apartment houses in the capital, declined today to discuss the matter

CANADA MOVES TO MAKE WAR ON SMUGGLING

Ottawa, Ont., March 10.—Drastic measures will be taken in the near future to curb smuggling between the United States and Canada, said to be costing the dominion an annual revenue loss of $51,000,000.

The advisory commission of the federal customs department has made recommendations to the government that the Canadian customs preventive force be increased from 92 to 229 men and that a fleet of fast cruisers be placed in Canadian waters all along the international boundary line.

It is recommended also that the water craft be augmented with a fleet of automobiles and motorcycles along the Canadian-United States frontier

20 BELIEVED DEAD IN ARGENTINE FLOOD

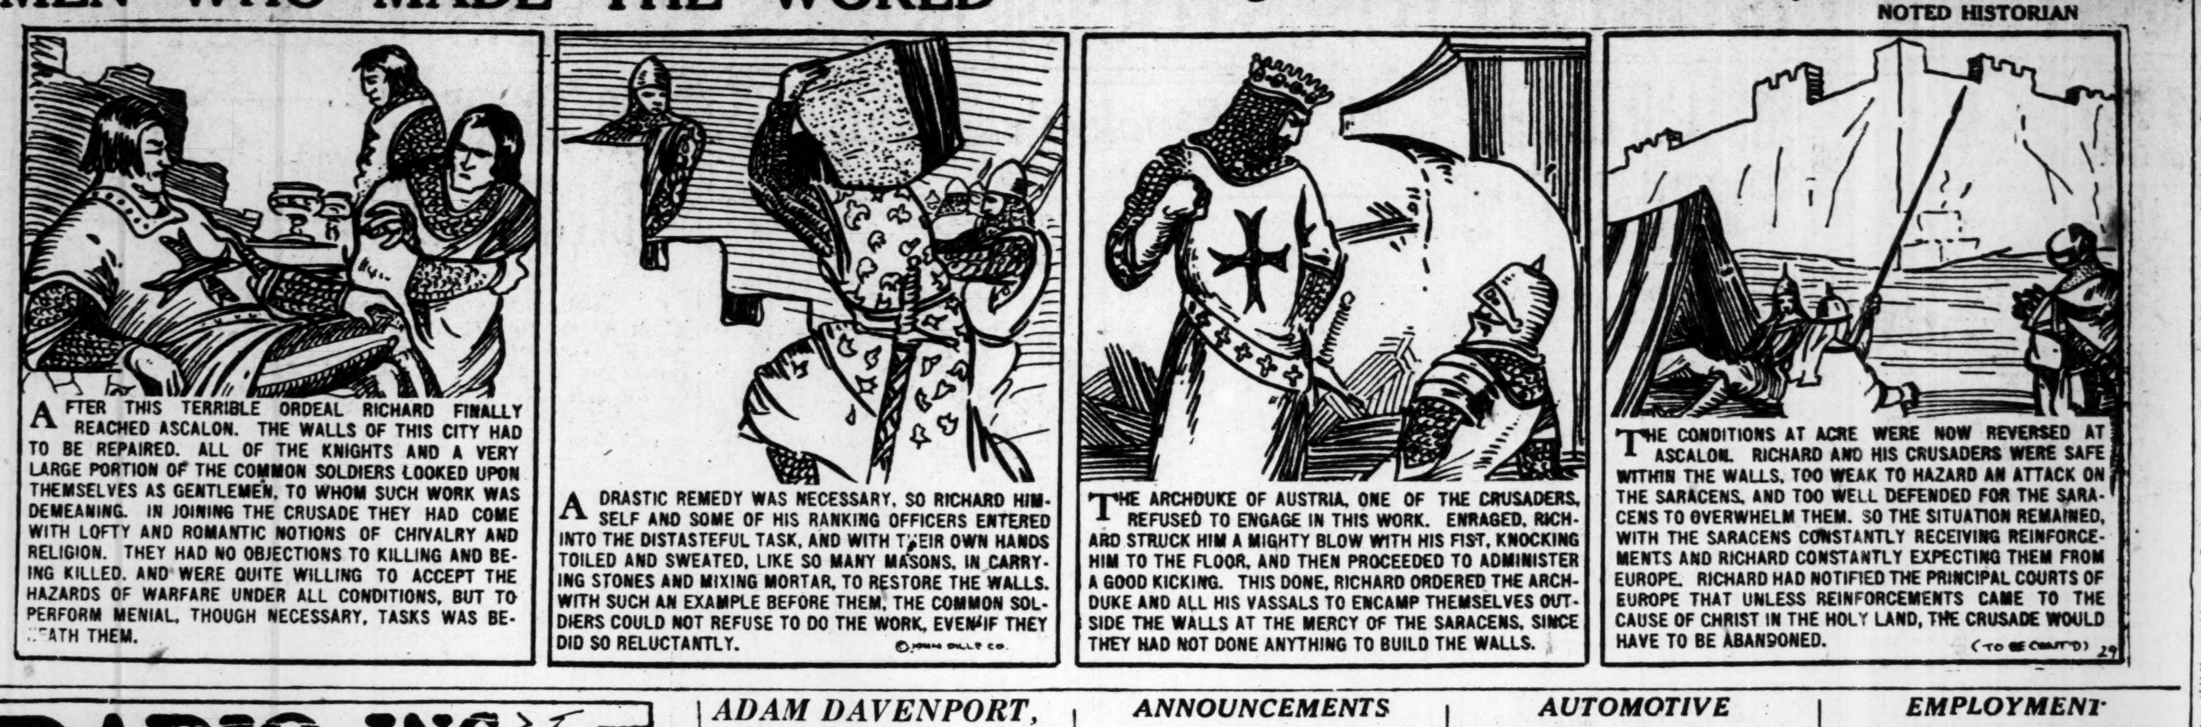
Buenos Aires, March 10.—(AP)—At least 20 lives have been lost as a result of floods in the province of Juy Juy, Argentina, say dispatches received here. Nine bodies have been recovered. Enormous damage was caused throughout the province and the International railway line to Bolivia was cut.

A large number of families are homeless as a result of the floods.

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

King Richard I.

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING, NOTED HISTORIAN



AFTER THIS TERRIBLE ORDEAL RICHARD FINALLY REACHED ASCALON. THE WALLS OF THIS CITY HAD TO BE REPAIRED. ALL OF THE KNIGHTS AND A VERY LARGE PORTION OF THE COMMON SOLDIERS LOOKED UPON THEMSELVES AS GENTLEMEN, TO WHOM SUCH WORK WAS DEMEANING. IN JOINING THE CRUSADE THEY HAD COME WITH LOFTY AND ROMANTIC NOTIONS OF CHIVALRY AND RELIGION. THEY HAD NO OBJECTIONS TO KILLING AND BEING KILLED. AND WERE QUITE WILLING TO ACCEPT THE HAZARDS OF WARFARE UNDER ALL CONDITIONS, BUT TO PERFORM MENIAL, THOUGH NECESSARY, TASKS WAS BENEATH THEM.

A DRASTIC REMEDY WAS NECESSARY, SO RICHARD HIMSELF AND SOME OF HIS RANKING OFFICERS ENTERED INTO THE DISTASTEFUL TASK, AND WITH THEIR OWN HANDS TOILED AND SWEATED, LIKE SO MANY MASONS, IN CARRYING STONES AND MIXING MORTAR, TO RESTORE THE WALLS. WITH SUCH AN EXAMPLE BEFORE THEM, THE COMMON SOLDIERS COULD NOT REFUSE TO DO THE WORK, EVEN IF THEY DID SO RELUCTANTLY.

© JOHN DILLE CO.

THE ARCHDUKE OF AUSTRIA, ONE OF THE CRUSADERS, REFUSED TO ENGAGE IN THIS WORK. ENRAGED, RICHARD STRUCK HIM A MIGHTY BLOW WITH HIS FIST, KNOCKING HIM TO THE FLOOR, AND THEN PROCEEDED TO ADMINISTER A GOOD KICKING. THIS DONE, RICHARD ORDERED THE ARCHDUKE AND ALL HIS VASSALS TO ENCAMP THEMSELVES OUTSIDE THE WALLS AT THE MERCY OF THE SARACENS, SINCE THEY HAD NOT DONE ANYTHING TO BUILD THE WALLS.

THE CONDITIONS AT ACRE WERE NOW REVERSED AT ASCALON. RICHARD AND HIS CRUSADERS WERE SAFE WITHIN THE WALLS, TOO WEAK TO HAZARD AN ATTACK ON THE SARACENS, AND TOO WELL DEFENDED FOR THE SARACENS TO OVERWHELM THEM. SO THE SITUATION REMAINED, WITH THE SARACENS CONSTANTLY RECEIVING REINFORCEMENTS AND RICHARD CONSTANTLY EXPECTING THEM FROM EUROPE. RICHARD HAD NOTIFIED THE PRINCIPAL COURTS OF EUROPE THAT UNLESS REINFORCEMENTS CAME TO THE CAUSE OF CHRIST IN THE HOLY LAND, THE CRUSADE WOULD HAVE TO BE ABANDONED.

(TO BE CONT'D) 29

RADIO-ING The Air Waves.

BY WILL H. SMITH.

Radio receptive conditions changed very much for the better Thursday night and the old dial twister was able to romp around the country at will with exceptionally good results. Tuning was sharp, volume strong and modulation it seemed, perfect. George Goza had predicted it would be a good radio night and we want to take this opportunity to tell him he was right in his Thursday night prediction.

FEATURE PROGRAMS ON AIR FRIDAY

7:00 p. m.—WTIC (475.9) Hartford, chamber of commerce program. WEAF (492) New York, Goldman band to chain.

7:20 p. m.—WRVA (256) Richmond, "Down South in Old Virginia."

7:30 p. m.—WHAS (399.8) Louisville, U. of Louisville concert.

8:00 p. m.—WJz (455) New York, Victor concert to chain. WLS (345) Chicago, Metropolitan church choir. WGY (379.5) Schenectady, WGY players, also WMAK.

8:30 p. m.—WHK (273) Cleveland, Hungarian music. WHAD (275) Milwaukee, American Legion state program.

9:00 p. m.—KFAB (341) Lincoln, girls' quintet. WBAL (246) Baltimore, John Hopkins U. music clubs.

9:15 p. m.—KOA (322.4) Denver, Tuesday Musical club.

9:30 p. m.—WGN (303) Chicago, The Phantom Violinist.

10:30 p. m.—WABP (375.9) Fort Worth, Ranger Jr. College concert.

11:00 p. m.—WGBS (315.6) New York, newspaper women's ball.

Radio Forecast

Tonight: Good

Predicted by George M. Goza, Mgr. M. Rich & Bros.' Radio Dept.

We did not park at any one station for any great length of time, though we did stay throughout the Goodrich Zipper program, which came to us through our local station from the WEAF network out of New York city.

There was one other bit we thoroughly enjoyed from WSB. We do not know whether all our readers got home to supper in time to hear Itsuji Isaka, a Japanese singer of considerable repute, who gave us the lowdown on the high-brow music of his home town. If his singing of this long-drawn-out wail was considered a bit of the great, we sure would hate to have to live through grand opera in Japanese. The cold shivers chased themselves up and down our spine, but we stuck it out.

Started Argument.

Earlier in the week we told our readers that we tuned into the local program Sunday night on our Stromberg-Carlson treasure chest, and stayed with it for three solid hours of perfect entertainment. Since making the statement the Dial Twister has had no end of a kick-back.

Each morning he is wont to attend the sessions of the Nine O'Clock Java club, which meets daily around the base-burner at Berry Cochran's establishment down on Spring street, and which is presided over by a little chap who professes to know radio in all its complexities, if you know what we mean.

As a rule the destinies of the nation are discussed with an unusual abandon at these daily sessions, but Monday morning Carl Brittain, more familiarly known as "Brit" to radio hounds, who presides, opened hostilities by accusing the Dial Twister of laziness because he stayed with the program for three hours.

No Calualties.

Now, the Dial Twister does not object to a bit of horse play once in awhile, but he does feel that "Brit" overstepped the bounds of good fellowship on this occasion, if you know what we mean. A man that is supposed to know all about sewer pipe and water mains, as "Brit" is, is not supposed to know all about radio. At least, he is not supposed to give everyone the impression that he knows more than others do about the baffling mysteries of ether navigation.

However, there were no calualties Monday morning, although there might have been if the Dial Twister had not shown the good judgment to retire from the scene while retiring was good. Between "Brit," who tells us all that happened the night before, and George Goza, who tells us what is sure to happen the next night, the Dial Twister is leading a most forlorn existence, if you know what we mean, if we mean it.

PROGRAM TONIGHT.

6:30 p. m.—KDA (309) E. Pittsburgh, farm news; address. WBAL (246) Baltimore, mixed quartet. WCAE (461) Pittsburgh, Uncle Kaybee. WEAF (492) New York, Happiness Boys. WFAA (475.9) Dallas, musical program. WJZ (455) New York, Bonnie Laddies. WLS (345) Chicago, sports; orchestra; scrap book.

7:00 p. m.—WBAL (246) Baltimore, WBAL trio; vocal. WCFL (492) Chicago, concert program. WEAF (492) New York, Goldman band to WEEI, WGR, WDAF, KVOO, WLIT, WRC, WCAE, WTAM, WSAI, WGN, WCCO, WGY, WWJ, WFAA. WFDF (234) Flint, Oriole club. WJR (517) Detroit, dance music; soloists. WJZ (455) New York, announced to KYW, KDKA, WBZ. WLS (345) Chicago, May and June. WMBF (384) Miami Beach, popular concert. WOS (441) Jefferson City, farm school; gospel hour. WPG (299.8) Atlantic City, dance music. WQJ (447.5) Chicago, studio program. WSM (282.8) Nashville, Vito's orchestra. WWJ (352.7) Detroit, Michigan night.

7:30 p. m.—KOA (322.4) Denver, dinner concert. WBAP (475.9) Fort Worth, traction employees' concert. WCX (517) Detroit, studio program. WFHH (355) Clearwater, organ; artists' recital. WHO (526) Des Moines, courtesy program. WHAS (399.8) Louisville, U. of Louisville concert. WJZ (455) New York, Royal hour to WBZ, KDKA, KYW. WMC (499.7) Memphis, talk. WOC (484) Davenport, Melody Mixers. WPG (299.8) Atlantic City, evening concert.

8:00 p. m.—KMOX (280.2) St. Louis, string quartet. WBAL (246) Baltimore, musical sketch. WCAE (461) Pittsburgh, Lutheran choir. WCFL (492) Chicago, entertainers; dance music (4 hours). WDAF (365.6) Kansas City, musical program. WENR (266) Chicago, musicale. WEAF (492) New York, concert artists to KSD, WTAG. WFDF (234) Flint, musical program. WGN (303) Chicago, concert program. WGY (379.5) Schenectady, WGY players to WMAK. WHO (526) Des Moines, musical program. WJZ (455) New York, Victor hour to WBZ, KDKA, KYW, WSB, WSM, WHAS, WMC. WMAQ (447.5) Chicago, orchestra; music guide.

8:30 p. m.—KOA (322.4) Denver, Sunday school. KFAB (341) Lincoln, Chase symphony. WBAL (246) Baltimore, string quartet. WEAF (492) New York, La France orchestra to WEEI, WGR, WDAF, WOC, WTAM, WWJ, LIT, KSD. WFAA (475.9) Dallas, musical program. WGN (303) Chicago, The Salernos. WMAQ (447.5) Chicago, reading; Women's club.

9:00 p. m.—KYW (536) Chicago, classical concert. KOA (322.4) Denver, instrumental program. KFAB (340.8) Lincoln, girls' quartet. KMOX (280.2) St. Louis, entertainment; soloists. KTHS (374.8) Hot Springs, grand ensemble. WBAL (246) Baltimore, John Hopkins U. of music club. WBBM (226) Chicago, Harmony Time. WBZ (333) Springfield, musicale. WEAF (492) New York, Anglo-Persians to WEEI, WGR, WTAM, WGN, WLIT, WJAR, WCAE, WOC, WCCO, WRC, KSD, WTAG, WGY, WWJ. WFHH (355) Clearwater, dance music. WIL (273) St. Louis, radio vaudeville (2 hours). WJZ (455) New York, Jubilee Singers. WLS (345) Chicago, Anthony Wons. WMBF (384) Miami Beach, frolic. WSM (282.8) Nashville, pianist; vocal.

9:30 p. m.—CNRV (291) Vancouver, talk; organ. WBAP (475.9) Fort Worth, school of music. WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, stag party. WEAF (492) New York, orchestra to WGY, WRC. WGN (303) Chicago, Phantom Violin. WHT (400) Chicago, varied music. WJZ (455) New York, dance music. WOC (484) Davenport, lecture "Abraham Lincoln." WOO (508.2) Philadelphia, dance music. WPG (299.8) Atlantic City, dance music. WTAM (389.4) Cleveland, Jade Room orchestra.

10:00 p. m.—CJGC (329.5) London, Joy Givers club (2 hours). KDKA (309) E. Pittsburgh, dance music. KGO (361.2) Oakland, opera "Pagliacci." KFI (467) Los Angeles, organ recital. KPO (428.3) San Francisco, dance music (4 hours). KTHS (374.8) Hot Springs, "Whozit;" dance music. KMOX (280.2) St. Louis, weather; dance music. WAMD (244) Minneapolis, Skyrocket frolic. WBAL (246) Baltimore, dance music. WCAE (461) Pittsburgh, dance music. WGR (319) Buffalo, Statler orchestra; organ (2 hours.) WGN (303) Chicago, Sam and Henry; Music Box. WLS (345) Chicago, Show Boat (2 hours). WQJ (447.5) Chicago, orchestra; popular program (4 hours.) WCCO (416.4) Minneapolis-St. Paul, dance music; soloist

10:30 p. m.—KYW (536) Chicago, Congress carnival (1½ hours). WBAP (475.9) Fort Worth, college concert. WEAF (492) New York, Farrell's orchestra. WPG (299.8) Atlantic City, dance music. WSM (282.8) Nashville, studio program.

10:45 p. m.—WSB (428.3) Atlanta, Junior Music club. KTHS (374.8) Hot Springs, pianist.

11:00 p. m.—CNRV (291) Vancouver, trio. KFI (467) Los Angeles, vocal; piano. KFAB (341) Lincoln, frolic (2 hours). WHO (526) Des Moines, Philbreck's orchestra (1 hour). WFHH (355) Clearwater, all dance program. WHT (400) Chicago, Your Hour league. WLIB (303) Chicago, dance music; organ. WMC (499.7) Memphis, orchestra. WMCA (341) New York, McAlpin entertainers. WOK (410) Chicago, dance program (2 hours).

11:30 p. m.—KLX (508.2) Oakland, dance music. WBAP (475.9) Fort Worth, musical program.

12:00 midnight—CNRV (291) Vancouver, dance music. WENR (266) Chicago, Samovar orchestra; vocal.

12:30 a. m.—KGW (491.5) Portland, Hoot Owls.

1:00 a. m.—KN (337) Hollywood, Arnheim's orchestra.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

FIVE MEET DEATH AS SPRING FLOODS RAVAGE FRANCE

Paris, March 10.—(AP)—Early spring floods to which France is subjected with the breaking up of winter have set in with unaccustomed fury, especially in southwest France. Five deaths, three from drowning and two from landslides, are reported from that section, where the rivers Garonne and Lot are overrunning their banks, flooding numerous towns and villages.

Spring planting has been seriously delayed because of the heavy rains which have been falling for a fortnight, the weather, incidentally, also putting a crimp in gaieties along the Riviera.

The Loire and its numerous tributaries are reported rising fast, while the Marne and Seine also are heavily swollen, although not sufficiently to cause alarm in Paris.

Due to prompt relief work of soldiers, there have been only a few casualties so far.

102-YEAR-OLD NEGRO TO MARRY NEAR AMERICUS

Americus, Ga., March 10.—(Special.)—A marriage license was issued here Wednesday to Allen Copeland, 102 years old, and Ann Carey, age 70. Both are negroes, and live near De Soto.

Copeland and the woman have both been married before, but it is planned by their neighbors to make the coming wedding an occasion of note in De Soto community because of the unusual age of both bride and groom.

W. J. EWING PASSES AT HOME IN ROME

Rome, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) W. J. Ewing died at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Linton L. Dean, in Rome, with whom he has made his home for the past 35 years.

Mr. Ewing was the father of Mrs. Warren Davidge, of Bloomfield, N. J., who was formerly Miss Annie Ewing. Mr. and Mrs. Davidge have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer on Peachtree road, Atlanta, being called to Rome Wednesday on account of the illness of Mr. Ewing.

ADAM DAVENPORT, FANNIN EDUCATOR, DIES IN ATLANTA

Funeral services for Adam Davenport, 83 years of age, Confederate veteran and former superintendent of Fannin county schools, who died Thursday at a local hospital, will be held Saturday at Hemp, Ga.

Serving through the war between the states with the Georgia Volunteers, Mr. Davenport was wounded during the battle of Atlanta. After the war he settled in Fannin county, where he was superintendent of public schools for 18 years.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by seven sons, D. S., of Wichita, Kan.; W. O. of Lafayette, Ga.; Herman, of Morganton, Ga.; C. D. and J. Z., both of Hemp, Ga.; W. P. of Dial, Ga., and M. L., of Atlanta, and three daughters, Mrs. William Rackley, of Morganton, Ga.; Mrs. E. A. Rivers, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. D. Y. Nichols, of Mineral Bluff, Ga.

Awtry & Lowndes company in charge of arrangements.

THE CONSTITUTION Classified Advertising

CLASSIFIED RATES.

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:

One time	20 cents
Three times	17 cents
Seven times	15 cents

Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears, and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Phone for our messenger.

WAlnut 6565

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedules Published as Information. (Central Standard Time.)

ATLANTA TERMINAL STATION

Arrives—	A., B. & C. RAILROAD	—Leaves
7:00 p.m.	Cordele-Waycross	7:50 a.m.
5:50 a.m.	Brunswick-Waycross	9:30 p.m.
5:50 a.m.	Tifton-Thomasville	9:30 p.m.

Arrives—	A. & W. P. R. R.	—Leaves
11:40 pm	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:00 am
7:35 pm	Newnan-Columbus	7:50 am
6:35 pm	Montgomery Local	8:25 am
2:10 am	New Orleans-Montgomery	1:25 pm
7:40 am	New Orleans-Montgomery	4:20 pm
10:40 am	Newnan-Columbus	4:45 pm
8:10 am	West Point Local	5:35 pm
12:30 pm	New Orleans-Montgomery	6:05 pm

Arrives—	C. OF GA. RY.	—Leaves
6:05 am	Mac-Sav-Alb-Thosvi	7:45 am
7:00 pm	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	8:20 am
5:55 pm	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	8:45 am
1:35 pm	Macon-Albany-Millen	1:00 pm
10:45 am	Macon	4:00 pm
8:35 am	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	6:50 pm
7:00 am	Mac-Jax-Miami-Tampa	9:20 pm
3:35 pm	Macon-Millen-Sav	9:40 pm
7:45 pm	Macon-Albany	11:30 pm

Arrives	SEABOARD AIR LINE	—Leaves
8:00 pm	Hamlet-Monroe	6:10 am
7:30 pm	Birmingham-Atlanta	6:50 am
4:10 pm	N. Y.-Wash-Rich-Norf	11:30 am
6:30 am	Birmingham	11:40 pm
8:45 am	Athens-Abbeville	4:15 pm
6:40 am	N. Y.-Richmd-Norf	8:00 pm
11:20 am	Birmingham-Memphis	4:35 pm

Arrives	SOUTHERN RAILWAY	—Leaves
6:10 am	Macon-Jacksonville	12:01 am
5:40 am	Columbia-Ashe-N Y.	12:10 am
8:15 pm	Anniston-Birmingham	5:45 am
7:10 pm	Charlotte	6:15 am
11:50 pm	Cincinnati-Chicago	6:30 am
8:40 pm	St. L.-K. C.-Birmingham	7:00 am
8:25 pm	Chic-Buffalo-Detroit	7:05 am
7:30 pm	Rome-Chatta-Local	7:10 am
7:05 pm	Valdosta-Bruns-Jax	7:45 am
3:55 pm	Piedmont Limited	8:00 am
7:20 pm	Columbus	8:00 am
4:40 pm	Jacksonville-Miami	8:35 am
4:55 pm	Richmond-Wash-N. Y.	11:55 am
3:30 pm	Tampa-Sarasota-St. Pete	12:15 pm
5:20 pm	Crescent Limited	12:50 pm
11:40 am	Rome-Chatta. Local	2:30 pm
12:01 pm	Cinn-Chicago-Detroit	3:40 pm
11:15 am	Columbus	4:00 pm
11:10 am	Fort Valley	4:05 pm
11:40 am	Macon	4:10 pm
11:35 am	B'ham-Mem-K. C.-Denv	4:50 pm
8:25 am	Cinn-L'ville-Detroit	5:00 pm
7:50 am	Air Line Belle	5:20 pm
7:40 am	Heflin Accommodation	*5:25 pm
5:25 am	Washington	7:40 pm
7:45 am	Valdosta-Jacksonville	7:50 pm
6:55 am	Jax-Miami-Sarasota	8:25 pm
6:15 am	Jax-Brunswick-Miami	8:50 pm
6:05 am	B'ham-Shreve-Ft. Worth	11:30 pm
	Following trains arrive and depart from PEACHTREE STATION ONLY
5:00 pm	Birmingham	9:35 am
9:35 am	Washington-New York	5:00 pm

*Daily except Sunday.

UNION PASSENGER STATION

Arrives—	GA. R. R.	—Leaves
12:30 pm	Augusta	6:10 am
3:30 pm	Augusta-Columbia	12:15 pm
8:10 pm	Augusta	3:00 pm
x7:35 am	Social Circle	6:10 pm
z8:30 am	Social Circle	6:10 pm
6:50 am	Charleston-Wilmington	8:00 pm
6:50 am	Augusta-Columbia	8:00 pm

xDaily except Sunday. zSunday only.

Arrives—	L. & N. R. R.	—Leaves
5:00 pm	Knoxville via Blue Ridge	6:50 am
8:55 pm	Cin-Chic-L'ville	7:25 am
10:50 am	Copperhill Local	4:10 pm
11:35 am	Knoxville-Cin-L'ville	3:35 pm
8:20 am	Cin-Detroit-Cleve	6:20 pm

Arrives—	N. C. & St. L. Ry.	—Leaves
7:15 p.m.	Nashville-Chatanooga	8:00 a.m.
6:29 p.m.	Chatta-Nash-Chgo-St. L.	9:00 a.m
8:00 a.m.	Chatta-St. Louis-Chgo.	7:20 pm.
7:10 a.m.	ChattaNash-St. Louis	8:30 p.m.
11:30 a.m.	Chattanooga Local	5:00 p.m.

INTERSTATE COACHES

BUSSES to all points from Union Bus Station 17-B N. Forsyth St. WAlnut 3351.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Travel Opportunities 1

DRIVING to all cities named below: passengers wanted: Miami, Fla.; St. Louis, Mo.: Detroit, Mich., and Cleveland, Ohio. WAlnut 6368. Wilmot hotel.

"Where-You-Can-Buy-It" 5A

CHARIS—Combination corselet adjustable abdomen support, brassiere, $6.75. 609 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg. WAlnut 7964

EDDY REFRIGERATORS—"The father of them all." 1847. Hightower Hardware company. 100 Whitehall.

KELVINATOR electrifies your refrigeration. Kelvinator Atlanta. Inc.. 25 Houston.

MASON & HAMLIN PIANO—Cable Piano company, 84 North Broad street.

RCA RADIOS. Cable Piano Co., 81 North Broad street.

VICTROLAS. Cable Piano company. 84 North Broad street.

Monuments and Cemetery Lots 6

CRESTLAWN CEMETERY LOTS
83 N. Forsyth St. WAlnut 1624

ROSELAND CEMETERY LOTS FOR SALE
WAlnut 8704 301 McGlawn-Bowen Bldg.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Beauty Aids 6A

EUGENE permanent, $8.50 Elizabeth Beauty Parlor, 514 Forsyth building. IVy 0462.

KATHLEEN'S BEAUTY PARLOR.
1131-A Hurt building. IVy 1526.

MARCEL PERMANENT, $10. Forsyth Beauty Shoppe, 600 Forsyth Bldg. IVy 4331.

MARCEL and Mae Murray permanent wave; limited number at $7. Call HEmlock 9120 for appointment. 731 Ponce de Leon Ave.

PERMANENT waves, evening appointments given business ladies. Ansley Beauty Shoppe, WAlnut 4449.

SPECIAL PRICES on permanent waving. Strasser's, 45 Fairlie, IVy 0271.

Personals 7

ALL KINDS curtains laundered. 25c pair. 209 N. E. Baker. WAlnut 2952.

ARE YOU SICK? Have you been treated by numerous doctors without results? If so consult us free; let us demonstrate to you what conscientious, skillful treatment can do for you; experience counts; charges reasonable; hours daily 9 to 6.
Public Health Doctors
34½ Peachtree Street.

BE SAFE IN WATER—Let the world's champion water marvel teach you floating secrets that assure safety, add to fun and pleasure, mystify and astonish the onlooker. Discoverer will send you copyrighted booklet for $1, telling all details. W. H. Ernest, The Water Marevl, 196 Ridge avenue, Macon, Ga.

DENTISTRY—Have your dental work done at cost of material and overhead expense. Difficult cases invited.
SOUTHERN DENTAL INSTITUTE.
Second floor of Peck Bldg., opposite Candler Bldg., on Houston St.
Open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. WAl. 3456.

DR. G. V. McELROY (colored), one of the world's greatest friends; if you are sick and worried in mind see me. 156 Harris street, N. E. WAlnut 6090.

GOOD laundress, curtains washed and stretched beautifully. WAlnut 2361.

LADIES' CUSTOM TAILORING—Imported novelty materials. "Arnone," 325 Peachtree, corner Ivy street.

MATERNITY HOSPITAL—Private, confidential. Children boarded. Mrs. M. T. Mitchell, 328 Windsor street, Atlanta.

PRIVATE instructions in clay modeling and designing. Mr. Daily, IVy 0594-J.

Strayed, Lost, Stolen 10

AIREDALE DOG, brown and black, lost Wednesday, strayed from 223 Hendrix avenue, S. W. Reward. MAin 5102-W.

GERMAN police dog, four months old, answers to name of "Rex." Reward. 216 Peachtree. IVy 9221.

LOST, strayed or stolen, small brown dog, white marks on breast, answers to name "Bozo;" reward. 600 Linwood avenue, N. E. WAlnut 4299.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobiles for Sale 11

ASBURY & HOLLOWELL, INC.
Authorized Ford Dealers.
New and Used Ford Cars.
380 Peachtree St. IVy 0507.

BUICK—Good used cars. Decatur Buick Co., 262 Peachtree. IVy 4905.

BUICK USED CARS—D. C. Black. 812 Peachtree street. IVy 1860.

BUICK roadster, cheap. Owner leaving city. IVy 2495.

CHEVROLET passenger cars and speed wagons. John Smith company. 190 West Peachtree street.

DODGE BROTHERS cars. F. E. Maffett, Inc., dealer. 147-167 West Peachtree street.

FOR SALE—1926 model Ford coupe, five balloon tires, lock steering wheel, new paint, no dealers, $300 cash. Will trade for '25 model Ford coupe or roadster. P. C. Smith, 652 Peachtree street, HEmlock 1959-J.

FOR SALE—PRACTICALLY NEW OAKLAND COUPE. 1927 MODEL, FULLY EQUIPPED. CALL HEMLOCK 0569, OR WALNUT 8775.

FORDS—All models and types, liberal terms Clyde Langford Motor company. WAlnut 7512.

GOOD USED CARS—C. K. Byfield, 238-240 Peachtree street. IVy 0367.

HUDSON-ESSEX used cars. Goldsmith Becker Co., Inc.. 229 Peachtree.

HUPP—New and used. Thompson-Canthorn Motor company. 439 Peachtree. WAlnut 9252.

IF INTERESTED in a used Ford car see Mr. Paris, 169 Marietta street.

LINCOLN—Fine used cars. Rippey Motor Co., 295 Spring street. IVy 0867.

MARMON SEDAN for sale, cheap for cash. Call Hill at IVy 6970.

NASH—Used cars. Martin-Nash Motor Co., 541 Peachtree street.

OVERLAND, WILLYS-KNIGHT. 15 East North avenue. Willys-Knight, Inc.

OAKLAND—We sell and buy on merit. Darnell Motor Co., 285 Spring street.

ONE 1926 Ford coupe, new paint. It's a bargain, $315. Call Mr. Lyle at WEst 1217.

PACKARD—Used cars. Atlanta Packard Motors, 414 Peachtree.

TRADE $800 equity in 1926 Studebaker, nearly new, for Dodge coupe or Chrysler roadster. IVy 5097-W.

USED CARS—See Atlanta Cadillac company. 152 West Peachtree.

STUDEBAKERS—100 per cent value. Yarbrough-Mentzer company. Used Car Department, 385 Peachtree, HEmlock 6813.

1923 FORD SEDAN, new paint, tires and top, $125. Mr. Quinn, owner, WEst 3000.

1925 HUDSON coach, only 7,000 miles, $650 cash, or small car. 18 N. Pryor St.

Auto Trucks for Sale 12

FOR SALE—

BARGAIN PRICE. THREE-TON TRACTOR WITH SIX-TON TRAILSMOBILE TRAILER. WITH SPECIAL BODY BUILT FOR HAULING GROCERIES. BRAND NEW. ADDRESS I-656, CONSTITUTION.

RELIABLE USED TRUCKS. ATTRACTIVE PRICES AND LIBERAL TERMS. THE WHITE CO., 70 BOULEVARD, N. E.

Auto Accessories, Tires & Parts 13

NEW and used parts, all cars. Piedmont Auto Parts company, 268 Marietta St.

Tires and Tubes 13B

MICHELIN tires, easy terms, expert lubrication, road service. Jack's Service Station, 999 Pryor street, S. W. IVy 9042.

TIRE SALE—30x3½ slightly used cords, $3.20; new tubes, $1.10; other sizes in proportion. Thousands on hand. City Tire Stores, 52 North Avenue, N. E. (Pierce-Arrow building), branch store corner Spring and Hunter.

Tires and Batteries 13C

ANNOUNCING new location, 233-5 Spring street. Phone IVy 5801 for curb prices, tires, batteries. Georgia Battery Co.

AUTOMOTIVE

Repairing—Service Station 16

BICYCLES repaired, baby carriages, etc., retired. Gate City Bicycle Shop, IVy 2422

Wanted—Automobiles 17

LET US sell your automobile for you. Atlanta Automobile Exchange, 441 Peachtree street, WAlnut 7541.

CASH for your used car. Highest market price paid. J. M. Harrison & Co., south's largest used car dealers. 125-131 Ivy street. WAlnut 3966.

WE WILL buy outright, accept on consignment or trade your used (any make) car on a new improved
FORD
ASBURY & HOLLOWELL, INC.
Formerly
BELLE ISLE-STREET CO.
380 PEACHTREE ST.

Automobile Electricians 17A

ATLANTA AUTO ARMATURE WORKS
27 W. Harris Street. WAlnut 8610.

BUSINESS SERVICE

Auditors

IBBETSON-LEPPARD & CO
1127-28 Candler building. WAlnut 7802.
Tax Matters a Specialty.

FEDERAL income tax returns prepared at nominal cost. Box V-866, Constitution.

PRENTICE L. MEADOWS, certified public accountant. 811 Norris Bldg. WAlnut 7658.

American Bed Renovating

$3.00 NEW ticking, best work. Gate City Mattress Renovating company. IVy 6478.

Artistic Upholstering

F. L. VOLBERG, JR.
114 South Forsyth. MAin 2557.

Cleaning, Dyeing, Renovating

DIXIE WINDOW SHADE CO.—Window shade cleaners; manufacturers of window shades. HEmlock 5057.

HATTERS—Satisfaction guaranteed; mail orders given prompt attention. Acme Hatters, 21 South Forsyth street. WAlnut 7202.

ORIENTAL RUG SHOP—Y. H. Shabaz & Sons, 246 Peachtree, IVy 5117.

PARIS HATTERS, 40 North Broad street, IVy 8962. Don't throw that old hat away We can make it look like new.

RUGS cleaned by Felds' Lightning Process; guaranteed not to take out nap or glue. IVy 4138. 159 Whitehall street.

Dressmaking and Millinery

DESIGNING, up-to-the minute work and fitting guaranteed; price reasonable. MAin 1734.

Garbage Cans

CARLOAD, all sizes, cheap. Duckett & Co., 1 South Pryor. WAlnut 1158.

General Building

WANTED—All kind building and repairs, plans free. Phone WEst 2833-J.

Hardwood Flooring

HAVE your old floors resurfaced and refinished. Call MAin 5273.
J. M. KARWISCH MFG. CO.

Hat Cleaning and Blocking

MODERNLY equipped plant, same machinery as used in best hat factories; we can make your hat like new. Alex, 34 Marietta street, IVy 8504.

Luggage Made and Repaired Here

ROUNTREE'S.
77 Whitehall street. WAlnut 6914.

Moving, Trucking, Storage

BARKER WAREHOUSE COMPANY
"Your Household Goods."
WAlnut 4282-4283.

HAWKINS Transfer & Storage Co., fireproof storage, expert moving service. WEst 1010.

WE MOVE, pack and store pianos. Ludden and Bates. 80 North Pryor street.

Painting, Plastering, Roofing

CALL MAdison 6018-R for painting, plastering, tinting and roof repairing. Cheap rates this month.

Painting, Papering, Decorating

CAPITAL WALL PAPER CO.
Wholesale and Retail. 36 W. Peachtree St

FOR BETTER WALLPAPERING CALL LUMPKIN & OWEN, IVY 1738.

PAPER hanging $7.50 and up per room; first-class painting. MAdison 5817-J.

IVY 1268, Greengold, the reliable paperhanger; walls papered and guaranteed to stay on; also kalsomining and painting.

J. W. OSBURN, painting, papering; guaranteed. 200 Spring. WAlnut 8108.

PAINTING, TINTING, PLASTERING
W. M. CARROLL
DEarborn 1322.

ROOMS tinted from $2 to $5; expert painting. Call WEst 0630-J.

ROOMS tinted, $2 to $5. Painting and plastering. Satisfaction guaranteed. WEst 3052-J.

Repairing and Refinishing

PHONOGRAPHS REPAIRED—WAlnut 3380. 18 North Pryor. Atlanta Phono company.

Roofing

EXPERT ROOF REPAIRING AND CARPENTRY. G. W. WALDROP. HEMLOCK 0290-J.

ROOF NOW—Take ten months to pay. Guarantee Roofing Co., IVy 4946.

ROOFS guaranteed 10 years. Easy payment plan. Ten months. Best materials. White Roofing Company. WAlnut 8579; MAin 1566

W. S. STROUD, WEst 3145. 22 years' experience. Call me and save money.

Tailoring and Pressing

M. HELLMAN, Tailor—Suits made to order; alternations, remodeling. 141½ Peachtree street.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Female 32

AN HONEST WOMAN.
THE LADY I want is one that really needs a job, because she is unable to find employment in her particular line of work. I will teach her the real estate business from A to Z and put her in a position to earn $50 per week and better. Preference to the one who has car. Former experience is immaterial, but I want this lady to be honest in her work and work intelligently. Ask for Mr. M. L. Colby, Salesmanager, 608 Atlanta Trust Company Bldg.

CITY Employment Bureau now open, no registration fee. 1603 Citizens & Southern Bank building. See us.

GIRL to answer phone in small office, $15 weekly. 316 Gould building.

HALF DAY maids, good pay, hotel, store and theater. 316 Gould building.

STUDENTS to take beauty culture, course in all lines, expert instruction. Amer-Beauty School, 58½ Whitehall street, Atlanta, Ga.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Female 32

LEARN BEAUTY CULTURE—A profession unlimited and lucrative. Your ambition to enjoy the good things of life awaits you now. A few short months qualifies, then a steadily increasing income or a profitable business of your own. Turn your beauty knack into a big weekly check. Evening classes for those whose days are full. Call or write. Moler College, 23 North Forsyth street.

TWO neat colored girls for doctors' office; hotel, home maids. 200 Austell.

TWO undergraduate nurses, good position. Apply at once 303 Rhodes building.

WANTED—Experienced tent maker on power machine. M. D. Smith Tent & Awning Co., 136½ Marietta street.

WANTED immediately, bookkeeper, salary $25 weekly; file clerk. Apply 402 Gould building.

WOMAN to cook; references required. Apply 310 West Peachtree street; private residence.

YOUNG LADY for general office work, $100. Attractive, permanent. 316 Gould building.

YOUNG LADY wanted for hotel checker. Apply 428 Austell building.

Help Wanted—Male 33

A MARRIED man with car for city sales work. 800 Forsyth building.

ACCOUNTANT-office manager. Must be able to write effective sales letters. Excellent opportunity with branch of national corporation. Personnel Service, Inc., 12 West Ellis.

AMBITIOUS MAN.
THE man I want really needs a job because he is unable to find employment in his particular line of work. I will teach my man the real estate business and put him in a position to earn $75 per week or better. Preference given to owner of car. Former experience is immaterial, but I want this man to be honest in this work and work intelligently. Ask for Mr. M. L. Colby, Salesmanager, 608 Atlanta Trust Company building.

BOOKKEEPER—Man about 26. Must have extensive general ledger experience and stand rigid investigation. See Mr. Sharkey, Personnel Service, Inc., 12 West Ellis St.

COMPLETE course $25. Southern Barber college, 46 West Mitchell street, Atlanta, Georgia.

EXPERIENCED chauffeur, butler wanted today; two porters, janitors. 200 Austell.

EXPERIENCED shoe salesman, good salary; shipping clerk, some experience. 402 Gould building.

I AM first-class printer, must go to work. Call WAlnut 4736.

SALESMEN.
MEN, with sales experience, who desire to enter the fast-growing electric refrigerator field with one of the leading corporations. We are seeking high-type men who are interested in a permanent position and anxious for a chance to make some real money. Personal interview.
L. W. DRISCOLL,
814 Bona Allen Bldg.

SHOE salesman, retail store, permanent, best connection, good salary. 316 Gould building.

SO MUCH more than bread and butter for men who learn barbering. Step into a real position. A master of your profession. Fulfill your ambition to enjoy the good things of life now. Learn in your spare time. Convenient evening courses given. Earn while learning. Call or write. Moler Barber college, 23 North Forsyth street.

SEVERAL white drivers wanted. Apply 428 Austell building.

SEVERAL A-1 salesmen, A-1 proposition. Salary and commission. 316 Gould Bldg.

TRAVEL—SEE YOU COUNTRY, $1,900 year. Men 18 to 35. Become railway postal clerks. Steady work: 25 coached free. Write immediately. Franklin Institute, Dept. 46-M. Rochester, N. Y.

THREE young men to solicit new savings accounts for local bank. Apply Mr. Blue, Mid-town hotel, 103 North Pryor, before 9 a. m. or after 4 p. m.

TWO salesmen for city, good pay. Apply 1807 Citizens & Southern Bank building.

TWO collectors for city, traveling salesmen, expenses, salary. Apply today. 206 Austell.

WANTED—Several solicitors, we have a very attractive proposition to offer those who can qualify and are desirous of securing a permanent position; you can earn $25 to $50 per week. For full information see Mr. Moye, city circulation department, The Atlanta Constitution.

WANTED—Man to do water color window advertising; must have sales ability; state experience and salary wanted. Address I-657, Constitution.

WANTED—Men wishing become firemen, brakemen, colored train or sleeping car porters on large Georgia roads. Write immediately for application blank. $125-$250 month. No experience necessary. Railway Institute, Dept. 8, Indianapolis, Ind.

WANTED—Experienced salesman to sell on commission basis leading factory line of boxed stationery in Georgia territory. Mid West Paper & Envelope Co., Marion, Ind.

WANTED—Experienced salesman for men's clothing for Saturday afternoons. Apply in person to 65 South Broad street.

WANTED—Experienced (mug) book solicitors. Do not apply unless experienced. P. O. Box 257.

WANTED—Two salesmen with cars desired by Rich's department store to follow up live leads; bright future assured. Apply mornings, Mr. Rose, 308 Bona Allen Bldg.

WANTED—An older man with experience in organizing and managing a direct sales crew for Atlanta and territory. Good pay at start. Room 1219 Robert Fulton hotel before 10 a. m.

WANTED—To interview a number of inexperienced men over 21 now employed but ambitious, not satisfied with present earnings: men who are willing to put in a short amount of preparatory work that will enable those selected to successfully fill excellent sales positions when ready. Phone Mr. Boriss, all this week, for personal interview, IVy 0326.

WANTED—Experienced colored chef at once. Apply B. & B. Cafe, 5 South Pryor.

WE HAVE the best proposition ever offered salesmen in Atlanta. No real estate, hosiery or magazine. See Spinks, room 563 Candler annex, 9-11, 2-4.

WHITE helper wanted at once. Apply 428 Austell building.

WHITE DRIVERS WANTED — Drivers wanted who know the city thoroughly; must be over 21 years of age; good chance for advancement. Apply Atlanta Baggage & Cab Co., 46 East Ellis street.

YES—Complete course, $30; old reliable Atlanta Barber College, lots of practice, position waiting. 14 East Mitchell street.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Male 33

YOUNG MAN for office stock work, packing house experience preferred. Answer in own handwriting, state age, experience and salary expected. Address X-792, Constitution.

$1,900-$2,700 YEAR—Railway mail clerks. Steady. Common education sufficient. Sample coaching free. Apply today. F-1091, Constitution.

Help Wanted—Male and Female 34

COMMERCIAL ARTISTS, PROPERLY TRAINED,
EARN $50-$100 WEEK AND UP.
IF YOU have a reasonable amount of talent and are really interested in becoming a commercial artist, the foremost art and advertising service organization in the world will give you, for a nominal sum, the same training given their own artists. For particulars address Art Dept., P. O. Box 2114, Atlanta.

JOBS for three men and wives at same place. 119 Edgewood avenue.

Situations Wanted—Female 36

LADY desires position at once. Experienced typist, demonstrator saleslady, cashier. V-223, Constitution.

STENO-BOOKKEEPER now employed desires change, experienced cash journal, accounts receivable and payable. References. WAlnut 8365.

YOUNG LADY typist, high school graduate, desires position with light dictation; moderate salary expected. Call WEst 1123-J.

YOUNG woman, well educated, experienced as private secretary, accountant and office manager, desires any connection which offers a future. Address V-227, Constitution.

YOUNG lady stenographer desires position; not afraid of work; salary no object. Call Miss Jackson, IVy 7043.

Situations Wanted—Male 37

AUTOMOBILE SERVICE MANAGER, FIFTEEN years' experience, desires position where expert qualifications are necessary. Postoffice Box 32, Station C.

BLACKSMITH, expert in all classes of work; read blue prints and sketches; wants position. Address V-202, Constitution.

GARAGE foreman servicing all make cars wants to make a change. Best of references. Address V-205, Constitution.

THOROUGHLY experienced city salesman, now employed, desires to make change; will consider either local or out-of-town proposition with good future; excellent references. Address V-229, Constitution.

WANTED—Position by young married man, two years' experience firing, two years' experience operating excavating machine, willing to go any place, best references. Address V-228, Constitution.

YOUNG MAN stenographer with knowledge of bookkeeping, two years' experience, desires position immediately; good references. Address V-210, Constitution.

FINANCIAL

Business Opportunities 38

ATTRACTIVE price, good business, hat cleaning, shoe shine, suit pressing, dry cleaning and barber shop. Paris Hatters, 40 N. Broad street or your broker.

ATTRACTIVE price, good business, hat cleaning, shoe shine, suit pressing, dry cleaning and barber shop. Paris Hatters, 40 N. Broad street or your broker.

A LOCAL distributor wanted to sell the "Alpha Desk Tray," nationally known, best sorting and posting container for every business purpose. Sells all year round. No competition; repeat orders. Applicants should be able to carry a small stock. Exclusive territory. Leads furnished. Write at once for proposition. Superior Equipment Co., 642 Beaubien street, Detroit, Michigan.

CAFE for sale, fine location, good business, cheap rent, long lease. Call 500 Whitehall street.

DRUG STORE—We have a good drug store in fine location that we can sell for $1,650, only $650 cash; cheap rent, long lease.
FOLSOM REALTY & INS. AGENCY, INC.
412 Candler Bldg. WAl. 4635.

FILLING STATION and lunch room. Call IVy 9404 or WAlnut 0192.

FOR SALE—Rooming house, cafe, good business, well furnished, cash or terms. Sell today. Fowler's Cafe, Inman Yards.

FOR SALE—Restaurant, cheap. Two doors from Ford plant. Doing fine business. Owner leaving town. HEmlock 9106.

MANUFACTURERS, JOBBERS AND RETAIL MERCHANTS DESIROUS OF ADDITIONAL CAPITAL CAN MAKE SATISFACTORY ARRANGEMENTS THROUGH US. WE REQUIRE A THOROUGH STATEMENT IN YOUR FIRST LETTER. ALSO AMOUNT NEEDED. ADDRESS V-209, CONSTITUTION.

SODA FOUNT, CIGARS AND NEWS STAND in best location of the city, monthly sales from $3,500 to $4,000.
E. W. BROOKS CO.
1129 Candler Bldg. WAl. 7567.

WANTED—Party with $5,000 to $7,500 to invest in a business enterprise showing unusual profit. Safety absolutely secured, optional as to assuming an active part. Address X-786, Constitution.

5 AND 10-CENT STORE, splendid location, 2,500 students nearby, bargain, ill health reason for selling. 252 Peachtree Arcade. WAlnut 6040.

$600 CASH will put you in possession of a real rooming and boarding house on Peachtree street, a place that is showing real clear profits every month. Here is where you get your cash payment back quick from the profits of the business. Better see this quick, as it is going to sell.
GEORGE W. WARE & CO.
In Business Since 1888.
725 Atlanta National Bank Bldg.
Phone WAlnut 1086 or 8208.

Purchase Money Notes

PURCHASE money notes bought. Stewart Harris, 1013 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg.

Loans on Automobiles 39A

LOANS ON AUTOMOBILES
AND REFINANCING LOANS
Car Remaining in Owner's Possession.
FULTON INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION
1113 Atlanta National Bank Building.

Indorsement and Collateral 39B

LOANS on indorsement at 3½ per cent, confidential, prompt service. Fidelity Investment Co., 805 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg.

Money to Loan—Mortgages 40

FIRST MORTGAGES MADE
And Purchase Money Notes Bought
W. O. ALSTON
1204 Citizens & Southern Bank Building

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS
ON Atlanta real estate at 6% interest, 5 or 10 years. Edgar Dunlap Insurance Agency, 204 Candler building. WAlnut 3460.

FIRST and second mortgages on monthly repayment plan; loans, lowest rates of interest. Hubert M. Rylee, Law Offices 1508 Citizens & Southern bank.

IF YOU want quick mortgage money on Atlanta real estate, see me. George P. Moore. No. 315 Healey building.

LOANS—Monthly straight or reducible loans made on Atlanta and suburban real estate; low rates and liberal repayment features. Mortgage Bond & Trust Co., 16 Walton street.

LOANS—Central property, 6 per cent; residential and business property 8 per cent. W. B. Smith. WAlnut 8381. 19 Walton.

LOANS on real estate. Funds to loan on improved city and suburban property; current rates. We also specialize in sale of city and farm property. WAlnut 2023. S. W. Carson 414 Atlanta Trust Company Bldg.

MONEY for first loans on Atlanta and suburban real estate at prevailing rates. T. B. Gay Co., 1012 Grant building. WAlnut 5678.

REAL ESTATE purchase money notes bought. W. O. Alston, 1204 Citizens Southern Bank building

QUICK MONEY for purchase money notes, unlimited funds represented. George T. Northen, WAlnut 5101. 801 Grant building.

REAL ESTATE—We have money on hand to make loans at current rates. Adair Realty & Trust Co., Healey building, Atlanta, Ga.

Personal Property Loans 40A

A HELPFUL SERVICE.

OUR LONG experience in financing the working man enables us to offer a worthwhile service to those in need of funds. We have helped thousands solve their financial problems and become free of debt We offer a quick and confidential service on a convenient monthly repayment plan at a lawful interest rate.

UNITED SMALL LOAN CORP.
30 Peachtree Arcade.
Phone WAlnut 5-4-1-3.

We are licensed by and bonded to the state.

FINANCIAL

Personal Property Loans 40A

CONFIDENTIAL LOANS
On Automobiles, Furniture, Pianos, Notes, Etc.

SOUTHERN SECURITY COMPANY, INC.
204-7 Atl. Natl. Bk. Bldg. WAl. 0634.

JEFFERSON LOAN SOCIETY
LOANS ON DIAMONDS
8 AUBURN AVENUE

LOANS UP TO $300
TO HUSBAND AND WIFE.

No Indorsers, No Publicity, Lawful Interest—No Other Charges.

LOANS are made for a long time with small monthly payment, with the privilege of paying larger payment or in full at any time. Every dollar paid on loan reduces the interest cost.

POPULAR FINANCE CORPORATION

301 PETERS BLDG.—7 PEACHTREE STREET—PHONE WALNUT 5295-6
AND
406 PETERS BLDG.—7 PEACHTREE STREET—PHONE WALNUT 0215
OPPOSITE PEACHTREE ARCADE.

MONEY TO LOAN
Up to $300 on Furniture and Indorsed Notes.
SEABOARD SECURITY CO., INC.
250 Arcade Building.
WAlnut 1810.

MONEY LOANED
UPON indorsement or collateral. Applications handled in 24 hours without red tape.
FULTON INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION.
1113 Atlanta National Bank Bldg.

ON DIAMONDS AND VALUABLES
3 PEACHTREE ST. ESTABLISHED 1893

$300 OR LESS loaned on furniture, pianos or indorsed notes. Security Industrial Corporation, 201 Peters building.

HELPFUL LOANS
MADE to husband and wife on household security at legal rates on terms of repayment to suit your pocketbook in amounts up to $300. Buy for cash and more than save the interest, or consolidate all those annoying small bills into one account with one small monthly payment.
SERVICE is our last name, but it comes first in our dealings with you.
THE MASTER LOAN SERVICE, INC.
212-13 Healey Bldg.
WAlnut 2377.

Salaries Bought 40C

SALARIES BOUGHT — No indorsements. Federal Investment Company, 204 Peters building.

SALARIES BOUGHT—Quick, ready money 201 McKenzie building.

WE BUY SALARIES. 505 SILVEY BUILDING.

Wanted—To Borrow 41

WANTED—To borrow $1,500 for 90 days, good collateral. Phone WAlnut 6046.

LIVE STOCK

Poultry and Live Stock 49

BABY chicks, hatching every Sunday. Will hatch eggs. Woodlawn Hatcheries. WAlnut 4095.

SPECIAL SALE—WHITE LEGHORN CHICKS, 11 CENTS EACH, MARCH 10 AND 11 ONLY; WOODLAWN HATCHERY, WALNUT 4095

WILL pay highest cash prices for chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese and eggs. George P. Peterson, 47 East Alabama. IVy 1715.

Incubators and Brooders 49A

BUCKEYE
BUCKEYE incubator and brooders for sale by Woodruff Machinery company, 94 South Forsyth street. Telephone WAlnut 8680.

REED electric incubators and brooders "do everything but cluck." On display 75 S. Broad St. Lewis H. Cottingim.

MERCHANDISE

Articles for Sale 51

BEAUTIFUL 8-foot backbar with electrical fixture, at a sacrifice. WAlnut 4160.

FOR SALE—One Victor adding machine, one flat-top desk, one Reo truck, 1925 model, good condition; one Ford truck, 1925 model; one large especially built cooler, dimensions 18x12 feet; Phone IVy 4567.

NEWS PRINT—

Flat newsprint paper, suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right. P. O. Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

RADIATORS—STEAM AND HOT WATER RADIATORS. JACOBS SALES CO., 45-47 DECATUR ST. WALNUT 2876.

SINGER, White sewing machines, prac. new, $10 to $50. 142 S. Forsyth. WA. 7919.

STOVES, furniture bought and sold. Repair all kinds stoves, ranges. T. C. Blankenship, 215 Peters street. MAin 4208.

WE are making some store changes and have counters, tables and show cases at bargains for cash. 71 Whitehall street. Southern Book Concern.

Building Materials 53

LATHS $4 per 1,000. Massell Lumber Co., 26 Jones avenue. IVy 4276.

LUMBER—Williams-Flynt Lumber company. Lumber and building materials. 236-256 Elliott street. IVy 1093.

PLUMBING SUPPLIES 53A

WHOLESALE and retail; buy direct. 117 Central avenue. Pickert Plumbing Supply company

Business and Office Equipment 54

ATLANTA Rebuilt Cash Register Exchange, bought and sold, repairing and plating a specialty. WAlnut 7792. 173 Whitehall St.

DESKS, CHAIRS, safes, shelving and filing cabinets; complete stock; low prices; new and second-hand. We will trade in your old equipment. Newell-Thomas Office Equipment company, 58 and 60 Walton street. WAlnut 0547.

SHIPMAN-WARD rebuilt Underwoods. Regals, rebuilt Royals: cash or terms. We buy, sell, rent and repair all makes. Quick Service Typewriter Co., 16 Arcade. Phone WAlnut 1618.

TYPEWRITERS—We sell, rent and repair all makes. Special rental rates to students. Phone WAlnut 2860.
AMERICAN WRITING MACHINE CO.
57-A N. Forsyth St. Atlanta, Ga.

USED OFFICE FURNITURE.
12 ROLL-TOP desks, oak.
10 FLAT-TOP desks, oak.
5 FLAT-TOP desks, mahogany.
LOT of miscellaneous office equipment, files, tables, adding machines, shelving office partition, etc.
HORNE DESK & FIXTURE COMPANY
89 North Pryor Street.

Fuel, Feed, Fertilizer 56

COAL! COAL! COAL!
D. H. Thomas Coal Company.
WAlnut 9279.

KIRKWOOD COAL COMPANY
DEARBORN 1795

TOBACCO stems, high-class fertilizer for flowers, gardens. Jacobs Sales Co., 45-47 Decatur street. WAlnut 2876.

Good Things to Eat 57

TRY DAFF-O-DILL sandwiches, all soda founts and drug stores.

Household Goods 59

FAVORITE Furniture Store—Lowest prices, terms. 33 North Pryor street. WAl. 1339.

FOR SALE—Cheap for cash, piano and house furnishings at 15 Forrest.

FURNITURE for 6-room apartment completely furnished, for sale. Sell by piece or in lot. Call WAlnut 7609 or 193 Spring street, apartment 1.

GOOD USED FURNITURE cheap, 414 Edgewood avenue. Vittur's Transfer & Storage company.

PRACTICALLY new bedroom and breakfast room sets, sacrifice. WAlnut 4736, after 6:30 call WAlnut 4079-W

Machinery and Tools 61

FOR SALE—A good standard density hydraulic cotton compress. Can handle one thousand bales a day easily. Will sell compress machinery with or without boilers at a bargain. Address Americus Compress company, Americus, Ga.

Jewelry, Watches, Diamonds 60

DIAMOND—Private owner will sacrifice large, beautiful stone. IVy 1803.

ENGAGEMENT RING—Large blue-white diamond, 18-karat white gold ring. FAirfax 1368.

FOR SALE—One-carat diamond in old gold setting; reasonable. Address V-230, Constitution.

FOR SALE—Diamond ring, ½-carat, beautiful stone. Will sell for about half value. Address V-220, Constitution.

Musical Merchandise 62

BUESCHER saxophones, Olds trombones everything in music; expert repairing Write us. Ritter Music Co., 54 Auburn avenue.

PIANOS—You can always get the best bargains at Edico Piano Co., 241 Peachtree street.

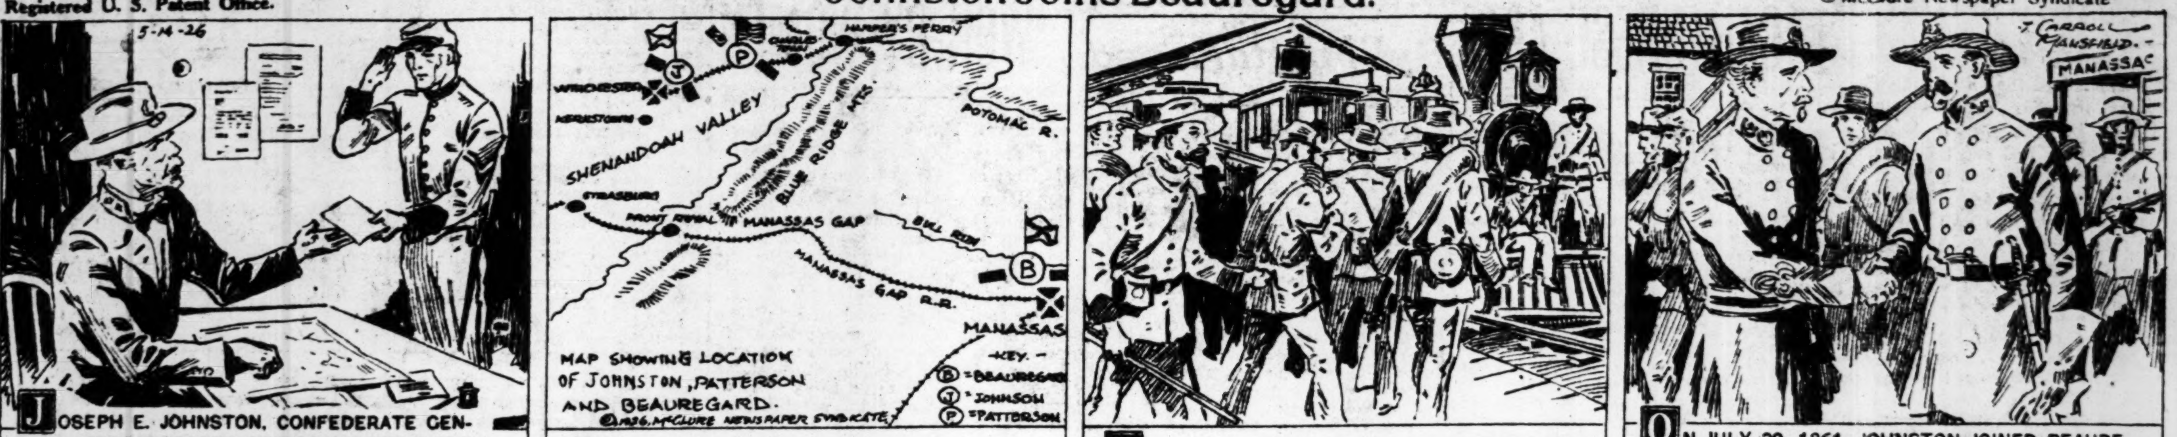
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Johnston Joins Beauregard.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

©McClure Newspaper Syndicate



JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON, CONFEDERATE GENERAL, AT WINCHESTER, RECEIVED ORDERS FROM RICHMOND TO ELUDE THE UNION TROOPS UNDER PATTERSON IN THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY AND HASTEN TO THE AID OF BEAUREGARD WHO WAS THREATENED BY McDOWELL. TO DECEIVE PATTERSON AS TO HIS PLANS, JOHNSTON AT ONCE BEGAN A SHAM ADVANCE UPON HIS OPPONENT. THE RUSE SUCCEEDED.

THIS UNEXPECTED MOVE SO SURPRISED PATTERSON, AN AGED VETERAN OF THE WAR OF 1812, THAT HE BELIEVED JOHNSTON HAD RECEIVED LARGE RE-ENFORCEMENTS, AND RETIRED NORTHWARD UNTIL HE WAS MORE THAN TWENTY MILES FROM WINCHESTER.

WHEN PATTERSON HAD BEGUN HIS RETREAT, JOHNSTON SUDDENLY TURNED BACKWARD AND, REACHING THE MANASSAS GAP RAILROAD, ENTRAINED WITH ABOUT 6,000 MEN FOR MANASSAS. THE REST OF HIS ARMY UNDER KIRBY SMITH WAS ORDERED TO FOLLOW AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

ON JULY 20, 1861, JOHNSTON JOINED BEAUREGARD, WHOSE BRIGADES WERE DRAWN UP BEHIND BULL RUN TO OPPOSE THE ADVANCE OF McDOWELL'S ARMY. BEAUREGARD HAD ALREADY MADE HIS PLANS FOR THE BATTLE AND JOHNSTON, THOUGH HIS SUPERIOR IN RANK, PERMITTED THE FORMER TO DIRECT THE OPERATIONS.

TOMORROW—THE BATTLE OF BULL RUN (MANASSAS).

MERCHANDISE

Musical Merchandise 62

LA GONDA upright, used, fine tone; $120. Terms. M. Rich & Bros., Piano Dept.

PLAYER PIANO—Euphonia mahogany, $185. Carder Piano Co., 61 North Pryor St.

PLAYER piano, 88-note, latest type, used, $275. Club terms. M. Rich & Bros. Music department.

PIANOS—All makes. Visit our exchange department. Cable Piano Co., 84 North Broad street

PIANOS—New and used players, special terms. Walter Hughes, 19 Auburn avenue.

SCHLIECHER piano, used, good tone, $125. Club plan. M. Rich & Bros. Co. Music department.

VICTROLAS—Excellent condition, slightly used. Terms. Bame's, Inc., WAlnut 5776

WHEELOCK upright piano, used, $97. Fine for a beginner. Club plan. M. Rich & Bros. Co. Music department.

Seeds, Plants, Flowers 63

OFFER for sale pure Wannamaker cotton seed, $3 per 100-pound bag. Marlboro and Gabriel seed corn; Mexican June plant after oats or vetch $2.50 bushel; Berkshire pigs, clean baled oat straw, alfalfa and grass hay. R. D. Tatum, Palmetto, Ga.

THE CURETON NURSERIES—Austell, Ga. All kinds fruit, shade, ornamental trees, evergreens, roses, bulbs, nut trees, hedge plants, dug fresh as ordered. Plant now.

Trees and Nursery Stocks 63A

GEORGE M. MURPHY CO., 734 Boulevard, N. E., half block north Ponce de Leon; everything to plant; free planting service; government inspection certificate furnished with all plants; this is your protection; patronize established firm; you buy from peddlers without certificate at your own risk. IVy 0677; WAlnut 1160.

Wanted To Buy 66

B. BERNARD pays cash for used house furnishings. Phone IVy 0572.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS bought by Central Auction company, 10-12 East Mitchell WAlnut 9739

WANTED—To buy first-class latest model multigraphing machine. Must be in perfect shape and a bargain for cash. Address V-225, Constitution.

WANTED—Wrecking firm to buy and move frame house. 21 W. Alabama St.

WANTED—24 second-hand soda fount chairs, wire legs and backs, in good condition. H. D. Dunson, Box 309, LaGrange, Ga.

ROOMS AND BOARD

Rooms With Board 67

BILTMORE SECTION—$7.50 weekly, two large attractive rooms, excellent meals, strictly first-class. 440 Spring, HEmlock 1219-J.

CURRIER, 107—Near Peachtree, room, delicious fried chicken, hot biscuits, etc. $7.

GORDON ST.—West End, nicely furnished room, all conveniences, home cooking, business people only; reasonable rates, garage. WEst 0897.

NORTH SIDE—Private home, lovely rooms, all conveniences, excellent meals. WAlnut 1462.

NORTH SIDE—Room and board in private home, heat and all conveniences, one or two business ladies; references. IVy 2992-J.

NORTH SIDE—Front room, conveniences, business people; also table boarders. HEmlock 1069-J.

PEACHTREE, 867—A perfectly appointed establishment, steam heat, piping hot food. HEmlock 6664.

PEACHTREE ST., 733—Lovely front room, excellent meals, private bath references required.

PIEDMONT, 699—Corner Third, for couple, lovely room, winter or summer; excellent meals; all conveniences. WAlnut 6935. Garage.

PONCE DE LEON, 378—Lovely rooms, excellent home cooking, reasonable. WAlnut 9882.

SHELTON HOTEL—Homey home for business and professional men; rates reasonable; grill attached. 14 West Peachtree.

ST. CHARLES, 765—Room, twin or double beds, heat, hot water, delightful in summer, $8.50 week. HEmlock 1269-W.

WEST PEACHTREE, 560—Lovely newly furnished rooms for business girls or men, double garage free. HEmlock 1074.

YE KOPPER KETTLE INN
584 Peachtree Street.
Delightful rooms, excellent meals.

LOVELY ROOM and sleeping porch for two young men. 733 Peachtree street.

LOVELY front room, plenty fresh air; convenient to car line; splendid location; good meals; rates reasonable. HEmlock 2791-J.

NICELY FURNISHED front room for 3 or 4 gentlemen, excellent home cooked meals, reasonable, conveniences. WEst 2776-W.

PRIVATE home, all conveniences, north side residential section; references. HEmlock 4857.

STRICTLY private home, comfortable room, connecting bath, breakfast and dinner. Gentlemen or couple. HEmlock 4822.

407 NORTH BOULEVARD, nice room, board, heat, hot water, home cooking. HUntley 7867-R.

51 EAST SIXTH ST., N. E.—Next Biltmore, new furnishing, business girls or gentlemen, homelike, reasonable. HEmlock 0955.

672 PEACHTREE ST.—CORNER FIFTH; HEMLOCK 2983; MODERN HOME, LARGE ROOMS, WITH PRIVATE AND CONNECTING BATHS, SPACIOUS PORCHES, GOOD MEALS, GARAGES.

911 PEACHTREE—New management, lovely rooms, running water, excellent meals reasonable. HEmlock 2446.

355 PEACHTREE—Attractive room, excellent meals, walking distance, $7.50 week. WAlnut 9112.

707 PEACHTREE—Single room with meals available now. HEmlock 6833-J.

45 ELEVENTH—Near Peachtree, lovely room, twin beds, two men, excellent meals, also meals for few business people. HEmlock 1886.

532 PONCE DE LEON—Business couple, front room, good meals. HEmlock 6304-J.

809 WEST PEACHTREE—Lovely front room, furnished or unfurnished, couple or business people, splendid meals. HEmlock 7002.

428 PEACHTREE—Few vacancies, desirable parties only; steam heat, hot water, good meals; rates reasonable. IVy 0826.

Rooms Furnished 68

ANSLEY PARK—Attractive front room, connecting bath, private home, garage. HEmlock 3409-J.

CHESTERFIELD Bachelor apartments, reasonable rates, all modern conveniences. Apply 15 West Harris street (next door Capital City club).

GATE CITY HOTEL—Furnace heat, $3.50 to $5 per week. 108½ S. Forsyth street.

MYRTLE, N. E., 795—Attractive rooms, private bath, sleeping porch, gentlemen. WAlnut 7304.

NORTH SIDE—Private home, well furnished sunlighted room, convenient location. IVy 0670-W.

NORTH BOULEVARD—Near Georgia Baptist hospital, attractive room, private apartment, connecting bath, steam heat, $20. WAlnut 5153.

PEACHTREE, 450—Large attractively furnished rooms, very desirable location, garage. HUntley 7765-J.

ROOMS AND BOARD

Rooms—Furnished 68

PIEDMONT SECTION — Beautiful corner room, running water, private home, gentlemen. WAlnut 1004.

WEST PEACHTREE—Attractive room, private home, Biltmore secticon, extra nice. HEmlock 7789.

ATTRACTIVELY furnished front room. 301 Ponce de Leon avenue.

ATTRACTIVE room, connecting bath, conveniences, walking distance. 114 Linden, N. E. HUntley 8021-R.

LOVELY ROOM in attractive private apartment near Georgia Baptist hospital, heat, bath, twin beds; reasonable. WAlnut 8488

LOVELY ROOM—Ansley park, sleeping porch, connecting bath, excellent transportation. HEmlock 1258-J.

LOVELY front room, adjoining bath, in private home, two blocks Piedmont park, three car lines, also bus. HEmlock 2779-J.

NEAR TECH—Attractive front room, also large room, kitchenette. HEmlock 7423-J.

ROOMMATES for two gentlemen, $13 and $16 month each. HEmlock 4792.

TWO DOORS from Peachtree, $3.50 to $5 a week, conveniences. HEmlock 3393

1392 PEACHTREE—Furnished room with private bath. HEmlock 4402.

938 PEACHTREE—Large, beautiful room, nicely furnished and clean, steam heat, abundant hot water, refined home, adults only.

745 W. PEACHTREE—HEmlock 7832, furnished room, private home, furnace heat, garage if desired.

414 JACKSON, N. E.—Lovely room, twin beds. WAlnut 4073.

42 PEACHTREE PLACE—Lovely home, attractive room, two beds, references. HEmlock 4792.

Rooms—Unfurnished 68-A

INMAN PARK—Two or three large connecting rooms, private home, lights, water, telephone. 138 Hurt. IVy 2074-W.

NORTH SIDE—Three large connecting rooms, private bath and kitchenette, large front porch and yard, garage. WAlnut 2741.

FOR RENT—One room, kitchenette, private bath. 1292 Oak street. WEst 3914-W. Also one furnished room for housekeeping.

ROOMS for light housekeeping, walking distance, reasonable. 495 Pryor street, MAin 3484.

TWO adjoining rooms with private bath, also garage, with private family in Druid Hills. DEarborn 3170-J.

Hotels and Restaurants—68c

MID-TOWN HOTEL.
"JUST around the corner from the business district." Reasonable rates, steam heat, hot water, first-class restaurant operated in connection. 103 North Pryor street.

Rooms for Housekeeping 69

GRANT PARK—Two bedrooms, kitchen, nicely furnished, heat, conveniences, $7.50. MAin 2993.

PIEDMONT PARK section, two furnished rooms, adults only, $35. HEmlock 4758-W.

THREE rooms and sleeping porch, $25. 265 Ormond street.

TWO rooms and kitchenette, all conveniences. Private home. HEmlock 2853.

495 NORTH AVE., E.—Attractive furnished room, kitchenette, conveniences, $40, adults. WAlnut 4509.

230 GLENN ST., S. W.—Two rooms upstairs, furnished, $12.50 per month. 200 Buena Vista, S. W., 3 rooms downstairs, unfurnished, $12.50 per month. Water only furnished. WAlnut 4952.

Where To Dine 71

CECIL COFFEE SHOP
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

WILLIAMS COFFEE SHOPPE
Sandwiches, Waffles, Meals, Pryor-Houston.

Wanted Room or Board 73

ROOM and board by married couple, in Boulevard Park, close to car line; must be reasonable, quiet; no children. Will consider furnished apartment. Give location and price. Address V-226, Constitution.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Apartments Furnished 74

DESIRABLE small apartments, close in. HUntley 8031-R, 8 a. m. till 1 p. m. WAlnut 3189.

THREE, four and five rooms, $50 to $75 per month, by month or year. HEmlock 4040. Office corner Highland and North avenue.

891 PONCE DE LEON—Five rooms, walnut, mahogany furniture, linen, silver. Janitor.

817 PONCE DE LEON AVE.—Apartment 5. Four room-front apartment. HEmlock 7199-J.

Apartments Unfurnished 74A

CHATHAM COURT—Corner Piedmont and Third. Attractive 3 rooms, bath. IVy 0338.

CURRIER ST., 144, N. C.—Near schools and close in, all conveniences, very reasonable. See Caretaker at building or phone WAlnut 7710.

NORTH BOULEVARD, 595—A nice three-room apartment, newly decorated. Call superintendent. HUntley 8009-M.

ROSEDALE APARTMENTS,
1122 Rosedale Drive.
READY March 1. New five rooms, some with two bedrooms. These are lovely. Large front porches with each apartment. Garages in the basement. Call WAlnut 0996-7, Mr. Maxham or Mr. Hennessee.

FOR APARTMENTS—Fitzhugh Knox & Sons, Norris building. WAlnut 8947. 233 Peachtree street.

TO COUPLE—Three-room apartments, private bath, heat. 771 West Peachtree St.

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Phone Walnut 2723. W. L. & John O. DuPree.

ATTRACTIVE APARTMENTS—Weyman & Connors, Brown building, WAlnut 2162.

BEAUTIFUL first-floor 5-room apartment, near Highland and Ponce de Leon avenue, every convenience, vacant now, rate only $65 per month. Apartment No. 2, 734 Highland avenue. WAlnut 0100.

CHOICE of either a three, four or five-room apartment in block of Ponce de Leon avenue; will do necessary tinting; rates reduced. 616 North Jackson street. WAlnut 0100.

DANDY four-room, steam-heated apartment, first-class condition, beautiful location, couple preferred. Owner, MAin 4323-W.

DESIRABLE, near-in, lower, six-room duplex, extra kitchen, porches. HEmlock 2527-J.

RENT FREE.
SUBLEASE 1023 Ponce de Leon, Colonial Court apartments, excellent apartment, consisting of living room, front porch, bedroom, breakfast room, kitchenette and bath; balance month free. Rent $60 a month to September. Act quick. Call John Conyers, WAlnut 4071. 415 Atlanta Trust building.

SUBLEASE at substantial reduction attractive apartment No. 9 Briarcliff Manor, 906 Briarcliff road. Phone HEmlock 6207.

WELL-LOCATED 4-room apartment, near Highland and Colquitt avenues, rooms are large and airy, garage, steam heat, hot and cold water furnished. Apartment No. 4, 484 Highland avenue. WAlnut 0100.

WELL-LOCATED first-floor 6-room apartment, near Spring and Tenth streets; will make necessary improvements; special inducement to acceptable tenant; rate reduced. 728 Spring street. WAlnut 0100.

1229 VIRGINIA AVE., APT. B-4—Sublease lovely five-room apartment, brand-new, every convenience, choice neighborhood. GEneva 8433-R.

131 FORREST AVE., N. E.
RIDLEY COURT—FIREPROOF
Two to five rooms, porches, garage. Call owner, WAlnut 7416.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

Apartments—Fur. or Unfur. 74B

THREE and four-room apartments, furnished or unfurnished. 330 Forrest avenue.

1125 BRIARCLIFF PLACE, N. E., Apartment 7, 3-room apartment, attractively furnished, near car line, heat and hot water furnished, possession March 15 or April 1, furnished $60, unfurnished $50. Call GEneva 8045-M.

Business Places for Rent 75

PEACHTREE ARCADE—Two floors being changed into offices, display rooms and shops, $30 and up. Garage in basement; postoffice, information desk and every service all under one roof

UNLIMITED storage space; trackage at side of building; equipped with sprinkling system, low insurance rates. Call us for rates. WAlnut 9239

Houses for Rent Furnished 77

507 WEST PEACHTREE—Near Biltmore, six-room lower duplex, furnished, garage, $75 month; porches, conveniences. GEneva 8329-J.

Houses for Rent Unfurnished 77A

ANSLEY PARK—Nine-room home, rent, sale, near car. V-877, Constitution.

HIGHLAND AVE., 326—Six-room cottage, all conveniences, on car line. MAin 2645-W.

KIRKWOOD—Six rooms, double garage, $40. 87 Clifton street, DEarborn 2374-R.

WEST END—Six-room house, 523 Langhorne street, $40 month.

BEAUTIFUL 6-room bungalow for $40 per month. E. L. Harling, WAlnut 5620.

MODERN 5-room bungalows, $32.50 to $35. West Eighth and Curran street; near Hemphill avenue car. HEmlock 1673-J.

REMODELLED duplex house, large lot, garages, reasonable. 472 Broyles street. WEst 0508-J.

SOME new 5, 6 and 7-room brick houses at from $50 to $65. WEst 1405-J.

5-ROOM cottage at 262 West Fourteenth street, in good white neighborhood, at reasonable rate. Call WAlnut 0100.

Office Space for Rent 78

CANDLER ANNEX—Units 12x16 and larger, or one large with small connecting private office available. Excellent location, minimum rental rate. WAlnut 3970.

LARGE office space or store. 429 Spring street. Apply 1017 Healey building.

FORSYTH BUILDING offers desirable office space. Centrally located. Space can be divided to suit individual needs. WAlnut 3970.

PETERS Bldg., at Five Points; most centrally located; single and suitable units. Apply Suite 610-11.

OFFICE SPACE for rent, furnished or unfurnished. 1217 Hurt building.

WANTED—Someone to rent half of attractive office. 1133 Healey building.

WILL SUBLEASE SUITE OF TWO OFFICES AT A VERY LOW RATE. CALL WALNUT 5632. 720 GLENN BUILDING.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Brokers in Real Estate R

ATLANTA Trust Company real estate department. Atlanta Trust Co., Bldg.

ADAMS-CATES CO.—204 Grant building. WAlnut 5477.

A. GRAVES SELLS houses, lots, income property and farms. 12½ Wall street.

B. M. GRANT CO.—Ground floor Grant building. Forsyth street entrance. WAlnut 1600

BURDETT REALTY CO.—We negotiate any kind of real estate problems.

CUMBERLAND Realty & Trust Co. Leases loans, insurance, sales. Second floor Wynne-Claughton building. WAlnut 2550.

MERCHANTS & MECHANICS BANK—35 North Forsyth street. WAlnut 1600.

NUTTING, J. R. & CO.—1001 Georgia Savings Bank building. WAlnut 0156.

PONDER REALTY CO.—Cascade road, R. F. D. No. 1, phone WEst 4030.

RANKIN-WHITTEN CO.—Real estate and rents. 51 North Forsyth. WAlnut 0636.

RICHARD C. SHOUP AND ASSOCIATES—5 Carnegie Way. WAlnut 1450. Opposite library.

SALES—BUSINESS LEASES—Haas & Howell Real Estate Department. Haas-Howell building. WAlnut 3111.

SESSIONS LOAN AND TRUST CO.
Rents, Leases, Sales and Finance.
Wynne-Claughton Bldg. WAlnut 0996

SHARP & BOYLSTON—36 Luckie street, WAlnut 2930

SOUTHERN REALTY & TRUST CORP. 608 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. WAlnut 1840

THROWER, M. L.—24 Walton street. WAlnut 0163.

TURMAN-BROWN CO.—210 Georgia Savings Bank building. WAlnut 4274.

Farms and Land for Sale 83

I HAVE a splendid farm of 40 acres in Cobb county, 4-room house, fine orchard; in sight of highway; worth $2,500 for $1,000. Address owner, 587 Paynes avenue.

Houses for Sale 84

CHEROKEE AVE. — Seven-room house, $6,000, no loan. Bennett, WAlnut 1511-8795.

DRUID HILLS—Beautiful new brick residence on Decatur road for $18,000; your own terms. This is a $25,000 home. Be quick. E. L. Harling, WAlnut 5820.

NORTH SIDE SACRIFICE.
LOOK at Nos. 969 and 973 Rosedale road, new seven-room brick-veneer, two baths, perfect plan. The biggest bargain ever offered. Terms to suit purchaser. WAlnut 2749.

WEST END—New brick, east front, tile bath and shower, close to everything good, price $7,500, $300 cash, balance to suit. Call Rambo, WAlnut 5576.

BUNGALOW homes, easy payments, any part city. Evans, WAlnut 0590.

BRAND NEW brick bungalow, Inman Park, $5,000, easy terms. Cranshaw, WAlnut 1551.

CONSULT us before building a home. Better Homes, Inc., 435 Spring street.

FIVE-ROOM BUNGALOW, $4,500, $250 cash, balance less than rent. WAlnut 6424.

FIVE-ROOM BRICK vaneer house, Capitol View; cost $5,500, take $4,500 quick sale. Address owner, 587 Paynes avenue.

FOR SALE—516 North Highland avenue, 2-story frame, lot 77x198; bargain at $8,000, loan $7,000. Morgan Wynne, Inc., WAlnut 3476.

FOR SALE—Very attractive seven-room frame bungalow, in perfect condition, Virginia-Highland section, $7,000. Will take 1926 sedan as part payment for equity. HEmlock 2598.

HOMES of distinction, selected bungalows. Evans, 401 Flatiron building. WAl. 0590.

HOME BUILDERS—You furnish the lot, we furnish the home; no cash required. W. T. Ward company, WAlnut 8507.

HOME BUILDERS—Atlanta Realty and Construction Co., Healey Bldg., IVy 3180.

HOMES without loans. W. D. Beatie, 221 Trust Company of Georgia building. WAlnut 2811.

LET Norris Construction Co. build your home. 815 Forsyth building. WAlnut 2749.

ONE of the few sites that can be purchased in the beautiful section bounded by Haynes Manor, Paces Ferry road, Peachtree road and Howell Hill road, is now offered for sale to party desiring an estate in the most exclusive part of Atlanta. Call owner if interested. WAlnut 1076.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses for Sale 84

LOOK at 1186 and 1192 Donnelly avenue, new brick bungalows, good price and terms. T. C. Holmes, owner, DEarborn 0182.

SMALL HOTEL—ROOMING AND BOARDING HOUSE.
LOCATED one block business center on car line and paved Dixie highway in town 7,000 population, 18 miles Atlanta. All conveniences—hot water heat. Good repair. Big money-maker tourist business. No loan. Cash and terms. Owner.
P. O. BOX 56, MARIETTA, GA.

SEVEN-ROOM thoroughly modern bungalow, 3 bedrooms, sleeping porch, attic, living room, etc. Lovely fixtures, tile veranda, furnace, nicely decorated walls, laundry tubs, near prominent north side thoroughfare, in a nice section, $6,750. Carl Fischer, WAlnut 3241.

SACRIFICE—Five-room bungalow, all improvements, convenient to Sears & Roebuck, $5,500. Mr. Baggarly, WAlnut 6424.

SEE those Hopkins bungalows on Glen Iris drive. P. B. Hopkins & Son, 423 Palmer building.

Investment Property 84B

WOULD $7,500 reduction in a well-located north side two-story home, two blocks from Peachtree and Ponce de Leon avenue, induce you to buy? Formerly held at $17,500. Can sell now for $9,000. No loan, $2,000 cash. Geo. W. Ware & Co., WAlnut 8208.

Lots for Sale 85

AVONDALE ESTATES
DEARBORN 0176 DEARBORN 8231

CHATHAM ROAD—Lot 125x400, for $7,500. Charles L. Greene, WAlnut 4309.

FOR SALE—Nice lot in Oakland cemetery. Call WAlnut 1596.

Property for Colored 85A

THE PERRY home, Simpson street, a bargain. Most up-to-date home in city; no loan. See me at once.
W. H. CHIVERS
45½ Auburn WAlnut 2649

14 DUPLEXES, paved street, all improvements in, all rented, brand-new, will sell part or all, best colored investment proposition in town. Call WAlnut 4071.

Suburban—For Sale 87

15 TO 40 acres, within 20 miles north of Atlanta; running water; on good road. 151 Decatur street.

$1,000—$100 CASH, $15 monthly buys 9.47 acres, fronting 200 feet on Peachtree-Dunwoody road; running water, plenty timber; worth more money. Mr. Rountree, WAlnut 8208.

15 TO 40 acres, within 20 miles north of Atlanta; running water; on good road. 151 Decatur street.

5-ROOM house and 2 1-10 acres Macon drive, fine land, fronts two streets, fine settlement; worth $4,000, for $2,800; immediate possession. Address Owner, 587 Paynes Ave.

To Exchange Real Estate 88

ACCOUNT of being transferred will trade my $1,200 equity in $6,000 home, north side, for good car. Call or see Mr. Lathem, at Ludden & Bates, or WAlnut 1762 after 6 p. m.

ALL CASH to pay for good negro income property. WAlnut 0559.

EXCHANGE 10-room house, west side. 1003 Fourth National Bank building.

LISTEN, NEIGHBOR—If you have a good truck or a real automobile or a pair of fine mules or stock in a good proposition and you would put it in as first payment on a home, see me. I have homes in Groves park and Capitol view, also on Woodward avenue. Also Macon drive, also farms in many counties. On account of health I must sell. Be quick if you want some of this pie. Address owner, 587 Paynes avenue.

TRADES-EXCHANGES—We match' em up quick. Evans, Flatiron building, WAlnut 0590.

WILL TAKE in a small trade on a lovely 1½ bungalow adjoining Druid Hills, priced $10,000. Call Mr. Conyers, WAlnut 4071.

Wanted Real Estate 89

FOR QUICK SALE—List your property with us. Brannan-Beckham & Co., 302-6 Norris building, WAlnut 2191.

FOR quick action list your property with R. H. Jones & Co., 829 Grant building.

FOR quick action call E. W. Brooks company, WAlnut 7567.

I NEED bargain listings anywhere. WAlnut 7836, John Low Smith, 230 Candler Bldg.

WANTED—Georgia farms for city property. Address Owner, 587 Paynes Ave., Atlanta.

Auction Sales 90

OGLESBY REALTY AUCTION COMPANY—Oglesby Bros., Auctioneers, Ansley hotel IVy 1100.

SMYTH BROS., Real Estate Auction Co., P. O. Box 1612, HEmlock 5446.

Legal Notices 91

HENRY CARTER—Escaped convict Dodge county March 7, 1927, description: 20 years of age; weight 160 pounds; color, dark brown; height, 6 feet; wears number 10 shoe; very slender build; walks straight with head slightly down. Knock-kneed; has large mouth with protruding lower lip; good teeth; face resembles monkey very much. Escaped in stolen Chevrolet touring car, model 1927, green body, bumpers on front and rear, extra tire on rear. Motor number 2602930. Will pay $50 reward for this man and $25 for car. Notify W. D. McCranie, county commissioner, Eastman, Georgia

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Personals

Chronic Diseases and Their Complications

Our success has been marvelous in treating the following conditions and other Chronic Diseases: Rheumatism, Catarrh, Blood and Skin Diseases, Liver, Kidney, Bladder, Stomach, Intestinal and associated complications. Contracted diseases, Catarrhal and other discharges. Nerve, Blood and Skin Diseases—hereditary, acquired or contracted—of men and women. Special injection treatments for Blood Diseases. We use the latest scientific treatments, such as serums, bacterins, vaccines and proven forms of Glandular or endocrine Therapy; also the skillful application of Electro-Thermic light rays, High Frequency and Violet Ray currents, X-ray Therapy and other dynamic forces universally recognized and endorsed as curative forces. The charges are reasonable —terms arranged. Consultation, examination free.

Call at our office or write for FREE BOOK which tells about the cure of Rectal Diseases without surgery.

Hours 10 to 6—Sunday 11 to 1 only.

Public Health Doctors
34½ Peachtree, Atlanta, Ga.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

$7,500 —Ten rooms, hardwood floors, French doors, two tile baths, double garage, eastern exposure. Rental income under lease $100 per month. Terms. Call Mr. Wheeler.

WHEELER REALTY CO.
WAlnut 9151. Candler Bldg.

$500 CASH

BEAUTIFUL new bungalow, cozy as can be. New section. Will consider some trade. Call Mr. Stephens.

DOLVIN REALTY CO.
WAl. 3585. Realtors. Candler Bldg.

SEE THESE

OFF PEACHTREE RD., on a shaded lot 125 feet front, nice 8-room home with a bedroom on first floor; hdw. floors, steam heat. $10,500.
IN a prominent North Side section, on a corner lot, stone-front bungalow, with three bedrooms, two baths, living room, etc. A bargain.

Carl Fischer, WAl. 3241

BROOKWOOD HILLS

BEAUTIFUL, new, two-story, red brick, with tile roof, three bedrooms, two baths, lot 65x140, fronting south. This is only 1½ blocks from Peachtree and car line. We will be glad to explain to you why we can deliver this at $17,500 and make terms. See Copeland.

Burdett Realty Company
WAl. 1011. 116 Candler Bldg.

WE WANT LISTINGS

HOMES, vacant lots, apartments, suburban acreage, investment property. If you really want to sell or trade and are willing to cooperate with us, communicate with us at once. We are equipped to render exceptional service in our line and solicit your patronage. Come to see us.

John J. Thompson Co.
Candler Bldg. Realtors. WAl. 3935

Investment Property

TWO buildings, consisting of four units each. The units in one are four rooms and bath and rent at $22.50; the others are five and bath and rent at $27.50, making total rent per month $200.00. This property is well located and in good condition. If you want your money to pay you 17% or more it will doubtless pay you to investigate this. See Copeland.

Burdett Realty Company
116 Candler Bldg. WAl. 1011

Auto as part payment with a little cash, balance terms; price $8,650, buys one of the most attractive new brick bungalows on north side, near Piedmont park. If you are ready to do business, we will show you a lovely little home.

Penn avenue brick bungalow. It has 7 rooms and you could not duplicate the house and lot for much more. Our price is cost, $13,500. If you want the best location in a much sought section, this will appeal to you. Terms reasonable.

RALPH B. MARTIN CO.
Atl. Trust Bldg. WAlnut 0627

TODAY'S BEST VALUES

$2,750—$150 cash, $20 month. Nice four-room bungalow in East Atlanta.

Duplex—$350 cash, $30 month. Ten-room, two-story duplex in Grant park section. Buy this with small cash payment, let rent from one apartment pay your notes.

$5,500—West End brick bungalow in first-class section. Five rooms, all hardwood floors, paved street, convenient to cars and school.

$7,750—Cream brick bungalow, seven rooms, new. A well-constructed, attractively finished home, on large, level, shaded lot, on paved thoroughfare, near cars and school.

$7,000—Linwood section, two-story, seven-room home, in high-class section. Priced 'way under prevailing prices in this section.

$4,500 West End section, dandy five-room, wide board, frame on main thoroughfare.

$12,000—Easy terms, seven-room brick bungalow in Druid Hills, near cars, on one of the prettiest streets in this delightful section.

YOU just can't afford to buy a home till you have seen us.

John J. Thompson Co.

Candler Bldg. Realtors WAl. 3935

DRUID HILLS BARGAIN

ATTRACTIVE six-room and breakfast room brick bungalow on one of the prettiest lots in this locality. Every convenience is embodied in its construction so as to insure its permanency as an up-to-date home. Interior artistically decorated. Papered walls; good grade hardwood floors throughout. Furnace heat; cement side drive to garage. This is truly a bargain at the price which we have. Cannot be fully appreciated until inspected. Call Mr. Kidd for appointment. HEmlock 1620-J, or

B. M. GRANT CO.
Grant Bldg. WAlnut 1600

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Automotive

SPECIAL PRICES
Lowest in Atlanta for FINE USED CARS

BUICK
1922 Touring	$125.00
1923 Touring	245.00
1924 Touring	345.00
1923 Sedan	245.00
1921 Coupe	95.00
1923 Coupe	225.00
1923 Coupe	225.00
CHEVROLET
1924 Coupe	395.00
DODGE
1923 Touring	$225.00
1924 Touring	295.00
1924 Roadster	245.00
1923 Coupe	145.00
1925 Sedan	545.00
1924 Sedan	425.00
ESSEX
1923 4 Cab	$175.00
1923 4 Coach	195.00
1925 6 Coach	245.00
1925 6 Coach	275.00
1925 6 Coach	295.00
1925 6 Coach	345.00
1926 6 Coach	445.00
1926 6 Coach	475.00
FORDS
All Models—All Prices
HUPMOBILES
1923 Touring	$275.00
1925 Touring	395.00
HUDSON
1923 Coach	$225.00
1923 Coach	195.00
1924 Coach	395.00
1925 Coach	545.00
1925 Coach	645.00
1926 Coach	845.00
1925 Sedan	775.00
1926 Sedan	995.00
1925 Brougham	875.00
1927 Brougham	1,250.00
MAXWELL
1923 Coupe	$200.00
NASH
1922 Touring	145.00
1923 Touring	195.00
1925 Coach	695.00
PACKARD
1922 Touring	495.00
REO
1923 Coupe	$245.00
WHIPPET
1927 Touring (400 miles)	$495.00

GOLDSMITH-BECKER Co. Inc
236 Peachtree St., 200 Ivy St.
WAlnut 8718

EASY TERMS

Will Trade Your Car as Part Down Payment

Use Constitution Want Ads for Results.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

IT IS EASY TO OWN YOUR OWN HOME IN DRUID HILLS

WONDERFUL opportunity to secure an attractive lot on Ponce de Leon avenue. Some are elevated, others level, all beautifully shaded and each an ideal home site. Frontage is 100 feet or more and price is $50 per foot. Convenient terms if you intend to build.

IT WILL be to your advantage to see this property TODAY. Call for an appointment NOW.

"Every Day Some One Buys in Druid Hills"

Druid Hills
SALES-OFFICE
Realtors
1730 Candler Bldg. WAlnut 3973

Automotive

WILLYS-OVERLAND

FINE USED CARS

Unusual Values in Useful "Transportation"

4 4 4
Peachtree St.

"Ask for Cars by Number"

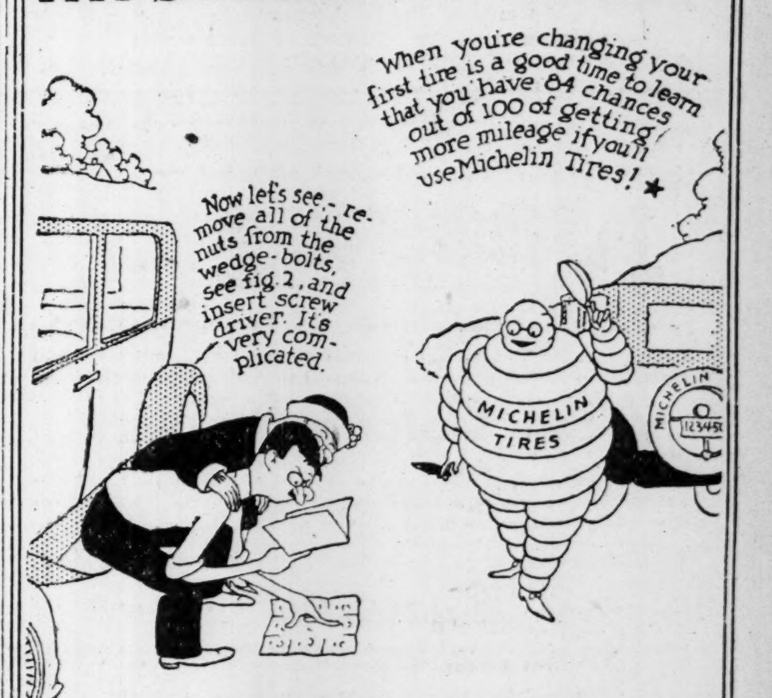
No. 171—1926 Chrysler "70" 4-dr. sedan, $875
No. 130—1923 Dodge coupe $265
No. 34—1924 Hupmobile coupe $375
No. 60—1925 Overland coupe $300
No. 94—1926 Overland sedan $375
No. 241—1925 Dodge sport touring. Extras $450
No. 7A—1924 Overland Blue Bird $135
No. 5—1924 Willys-Knight Club sedan $595
No. 244—1923 Dodge touring. Special $150
No. 51A—Buick touring $85
No. 170—1923 Reo sedan $425
No. 165—1922 Cadillac coupe $550
No. 205B—1923 Ford touring $25

EASY TERMS

Open Evenings

Willys-Overland, Inc.
444 Peachtree St. IVy 4846

MICHELIN TIRES



When you're changing your first tire is a good time to learn that you have 84 chances out of 100 of getting more mileage if you'll use Michelin Tires! ★
Now let's see,- remove all of the nuts from the wedge-bolts, see fig. 2, and insert screw driver. It's very complicated.
MICHELIN TIRES
MICHELIN
12345

★This statement is based on facts. We picked at random 1500 motorists who were testing Michelin tires opposite other makes. 84% said Michelins proved themselves better.

PAY AS YOU RIDE

No matter what other makes of tire you are using we promise you more mileage if you will buy Michelin Tires of us.

JACK'S SERVICE STATION
JAS. H. R. MEYER, Prop.
Phone IVy 9042 "Road Service"
999 Pryor St., S. W.

"Blossom Time" Returns With Perennial Charm

Although unceasing onslaughts have been made for years on the melodies of the charming "Blossom Time" by phonographs, radios, jazz bands, hurdy-gurdys, steam calliopes and college glee clubs, that appealing musical play paid Atlanta another one of its many visits Thursday night at the Erlanger theater and repeated its marvelous ability to please as of yore. Offered by a company of unusual and unexpected merit "Blossom Time" simply added more numbers to the already large armies of admirers of this attraction.

They used to call the "Devil's Auction" the "Everlasting" and the old "Prince of Pilsen" was yclept "the perennially popular" and they will have to think up something like that for "Blossom Time," because it looks like it is going to continue its success forever. Many of the people in the audience at the Erlanger Monday night had heard the entrancing Franz Shubert melodies numberless times but they left the theater last night declaring they had enjoyed the show as much as on previous visits.

One of the most impressive things about the production sent out on the road this season by the Messrs. Shubert is the high standard of the show throughout. The costumes used in Atlanta were new and fresh, the scenery and lighting effects showed no ravages of time and the ability of the principals and chorus measured well up to the standard set by preceding companies.

In the role of Franz Schubert, gifted composer, John Charles Gilbert appeared with fine effect. He gave the important role a repressed and retiring touch which was in keeping with the nature of the composer himself and combined with his ability as an actor a pleasing and robust voice which he used in some of the most pleasing numbers with a high artistic finish. Dainty and altogether delightsome Genevieve Naegele played the classic "Mitzi" and scored a big personal hit with her excellent singing and with the grace and charm she gave to her part.

It's too late to tell again the story of "Blossom Time" or to list its wealth of soft melodies and harmonies. The famous "Song of Love," "My Springtime," "Tell Me, Daisy," "Lonely Hearts," and the jiggy "Keep it Dark" are all well preserved and retain all their old powers of appeal.

The company is strong in all the principal roles. The comedy end is handled admirably by Robert Lee Allen. Miss Fiamma Reale and Reginald Pasch contribute some able singing and acting, while other important roles are played with finish by Jules Espailley, George Huntington, Harrison Wilson, Sanco Marco, J. Charles Wolf, Albert Baker, Gloria Dawn, Dorothy McKeon, Pearl Kincaid and Aida Geneen. The chorus dances with a sufficient amount of sprightliness and does some effective singing.

—PAUL STEVENSON.

Early Morning Fire.

Fire of unknown origin early Thursday morning damaged the building and stock of groceries at 994 Virginia avenue. Flames had gained considerable headway before the fire engines arrived. Adjoining stores sustained slight loss from smoke and water.

UNCALLED-FOR SUITS
FOR MEN
$35 and $40 Values
$18.75
Mail Orders Promptly Filled
Meet Me Face to Face
In the newest shades, weights and wanted materials. Newest patterns.
LOUIS WEINER
54 MARIETTA STREET
OPPOSITE CITY HALL

WE MATCH PANTS
Send us the old pants or vest; we do the rest
ENGLISH AMERICAN TAILORING CO.
9 Houston St. Atlanta, Ga.

Of course you will eventually buy
Building and Loan Shares
Why not NOW—We are paying 7%
Investigate the facts
FIRST MUTUAL SAVINGS ASSOCIATION
a building and loan association
Geo. W. West, Pres. 23 Auburn Ave. Horace Russell, Secty.

Federal Tax Matters Business Analysis Systems Audits
RAYMOND L. ADAMS COMPANY
724-725 Atlanta Trust Co. Building
Walnut 8605 Atlanta, Ga.

FOR RENT LOFT STORE
6,000 SQ. FT.
Rhodes Annex
72 Marietta St.
Rhodes Bldg.
A. G. RHODES & SON or YOUR AGENT

Edw. Richardson, C. P. A. W. C. Jackson, C. P. A. L. L. Davis, C. P. A.
RICHARDSON, JACKSON & DAVIS
Certified Public Accountants
MEMBERS AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS
1421-1423 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

Sapphire Seas and Coral Strands Call You To Nassau
BAHAMAS
England's fairest colony; unspoiled by summer storms
Golden climate; Continental freedom; distinguished British colonial society. No passports needed. You will find the modern, distinctive
New Colonial Hotel
the social and recreational center of this delightful spot. 18-hole seaside golf course with grass greens; championship tennis courts; dancing; swimming; yachting; fishing.
Delightful overnight sail from Miami on comfortable and steady
Steamship Rosalind British Register
Scheduled to sail: From Miami: Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays; From Nassau: Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.
Return from Nassau to New York may be made pleasantly via the S.S. Munargo (12,000 tons), scheduled to sail Monday afternoons, reaching New York Thursday mornings.
Munson
STEAMSHIP LINES
139 N.E. 3rd Avenue, Miami, Fla
Telephone 6193

FOR SALE
Flat newsprint paper suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right.
P.O.Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

U. S. PROTESTS CANTONESE ACTS

Shanghai, March 9.—(AP)—American Minister John MacMurray today directed the American consul general at Hankow to protest to the Cantonese authorities concerning the disorders which followed the Cantonese occupation of the city of Wuhu when American mission property was looted.

Heavy rains have converted all the Shanghai fighting fronts into lake-studded morasses, effectively stopping all military operations of any consequence. Shantung troops continued to arrive at Nanking, however, where they took up positions to defend the Nanking-Shanghai line of communication.

The soviet consul general went to Nanking this morning in an effort to obtain the release of Madame Borodin, wife of the Cantonese adviser, and three Russian couriers, who were arrested last Saturday aboard the soviet vessel Pamiat Lenina. He was met with the answer that the entire matter lay solely with the government of Pekin.

The consul asserted that the Chinese military search of the Pamiat Lenina had revealed nothing objectionable aboard and that the ship's captain was making a deposition which would be used in further protests by the soviet government against the vessel's seizure and detention of the Russians.

Men Well Treated.

Reports current yesterday that three Russian couriers had been executed were emphatically denied by the Chinese authorities today, who said that the three men were being closely guarded at Tsinan, but that they were being well treated. A close investigation is being conducted by the Chinese officials to determine the accuracy of the reports made by the arresting officers that a mass of red propaganda had been found about the Pamiat Lenina and very little tea.

Meanwhile, reports here indicate that Madame Borodin and the three couriers, although retained as prisoners, are being "lavishly" entertained by their Chinese captors.

ENGLISH WOMEN PARADED IN CAGE.

London, March 10.—(AP)—All foreigners have been evacuated from Mingpo, says a Shanghai dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph, after distressing demonstrations in which the Chinese took advantage of the absence of warships to insult foreigners at will.

"A procession was arranged," the dispatch says, "and the Chinese threatened to repeat previous incidents when English women were paraded through the streets in a cage. Three cages had already been prepared when the foreigners decided to leave.

"Students have been looting the hospital."

WORLD PROBLEM DUTIES DISCUSSED AT AGNES SCOTT

Decatur, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Speaking on the subject, "This World of Yours," Mrs. Maude Wood Park, of Boston, past president of the National League of Women Voters, tonight presented to the students of Agnes Scott college some of the things the present generation would be called upon to solve.

The present generation will have to provide a medium for the prevention of war," she said, "and it will also have to see that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution is enforced. The bill of rights in the constitution should be enforced and you should also stand for freedom of speech, freedom of opinion both for yourselves and others."

Mrs. Park said one great task of the present generation is to complete the work of women's rights, "because more women are needed in executive bodies. Women have a point of view which is entirely different from men."

The speaker gave a sketch of the women's suffrage movement, declaring it a success, saying that "it is anything but a failure." She said women were becoming more of a factor in bettering the conditions of life and giving them the ballot has been a great contribution in cultivating and maintaining "true Americanism."

Mrs. Park spoke under the auspices of the Student Lecture association. Miss Louise Davis, head of the economics department, presided. The speaker was tendered a reception after the lecture.

BIDS WANTED

Contracts for furnishing the Georgia State Sanitarium with supplies for the second quarter, 1927, will be awarded Wednesday, March 16.

Printed lists of supplies needed may be had upon application to the undersigned.

HOMER BIVINS, Steward.

TILES for EVERYWHERE
CARMICHAEL TILE CO.
104 E. Ellis St.
Walnut 4006

ON YOUR WAY TO EUROPE from Montreal
See

A land where the spinning-wheel is still in use — as you pass through romantic French Canada by the Cunard St. Lawrence Route.
CANADIAN SERVICE
Cunard and Anchor-Donaldson LINES
30 Walton Street, Atlanta, or any STEAMSHIP AGENT

Annual Summer Cruise around the MEDITERRANEAN and to EUROPE
by specially chartered
S. S. "CALIFORNIA" of the Cunard and Anchor Lines
From New York June 30th; back in New York Sept. 1st, 1927
Comprehensive, Interesting Itinerary
Moderate Rates
Tune in for Radio lecture on this cruise, Station WJZ New York every Sunday night at 8.30 Eastern Standard Time.
Thos. Cook & Son
585 Fifth Ave., New York, or Cunard Steamship Co., 30 Walton St., or J. T. North, 66 N. Broad Street, Atlanta.

Three Agnes Scott Students Elected By Phi Beta Kappa

Decatur, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Signal honor has been conferred upon three Agnes Scott students, Miss Susan Clayton, of Atlanta; Miss Mary Davis, of LaGrange, and Miss Miriam Preston, of Korea, who have been elected to membership in the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national fraternity. The election is based on high scholarship.

Two elections are held at Agnes Scott during the college year, one in the spring and the other at commencement. This is considered the highest fraternity honor that may be conferred at the college.

The fraternity, considered one of the highest in America, installed a chapter at Agnes Scott last year. There are only two chapters in Georgia, the other one being at the University of Georgia.

W. E. CANDLER DIES AT BLAIRSVILLE

Blairsville, Ga., March 10.—(Special.)—Judge William E. Candler, 67, former state senator and legislator from Union county, prominent citizen of Blairsville and one of the leading lawyers of north Georgia, died here today, following a heart attack.

Born in middle Georgia, Mr. Candler moved to Blairsville while a lad and had been a prominent figure here for 45 years. For 20 years, off and on, he had represented Union county in the legislature and this, the 40th district, in the state senate.

Mr. Candler was for many years assistant secretary of the Georgia senate, associated with Colonel W. A. Harris, of Isabella, Ga., and H. H. Cabaniss, of Atlanta. He was long identified with Georgia highways and road-building, interesting himself in every effort to further open up the state by good roads.

One of the outstanding efforts of his life was the securing of options on thousands of acres of north Georgia lands for the United States government while working as their agent. These lands are to become a part of the proposed national park, it is said.

He is survived by his widow; five daughters and two sons, Mrs. Claybus Lloyd, of Gainesville; Mrs. Pierce Mathews, of Atlanta; Mrs. R. J. Butt, Mrs. Alwayne Butt and Mrs. Ruth Huges, all of Blairsville; Colonel T. S Candler and W. E. Candler, Jr., both of Blairsville.

He was a cousin of the late Governor Allen D. Candler and of Judge John S., Asa G. and Bishop Warren Candler, of Atlanta.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed today.

Body of Wife Hidden Years Is Unearthed

Bardstown, Ky., March 10.—(AP)—Beneath the ruins of a tenant house, where they had lain for more than a year, human bones, identified as those of Mary Rose Hagan, were found today, where her husband, Lang Hagan, confessed he buried the body after slaying his wife.

Hagan, ill in the Charleston (Mo.) jail, confessed Wednesday that he had killed her when she threatened to leave him. He believes his illness will be fatal. But Nelson county officials made arrangements today to send deputies from here tomorrow to bring him here for trial.

The bones were found three feet below a slate floor in the cellar. A wedding ring, clothing, scissors and a strand of hair were beside the body.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that Mrs. Hagan "came to her death by being murdered by her husband." Hagan said he fired the house after burying the body.

Laborers found the grave at noon. Clarence Hagan, a son of Hagan by a former marriage, was present. Mrs. Hagan's father, Joe Mattingly, and four of her brothers also saw the end of their search for her. The aged father said he had sought his daughter ever since her disappearance.

ARMY GOODWILL AVIATORS ARRIVE AFTER DAY TOUR

Rio de Janeiro, March 10.—(United News.)—The United States army fliers returning home after a good will flight through South America arrived here from Santos, Brazil, at 5:05 p. m.

The planes St. Louis, carrying Major H. A. Dargue as flight commander; the San Antonio and the San Francisco, had taken off from Santos at 2:10 p. m.

THOMAS A. ELLIOTT PASSES AT CONYERS

Conyers, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Thomas A. Elliott, 66, a leading citizen of Conyers, died early Thursday morning at his home.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Miss Caralou Elliott, and six sons, R. B., H. H., R. H., S. S., T. L. and J. H. Elliott.

Although retired from active commercial affairs, Mr. Elliott was a prominent figure in the civic and religious activities of the community. He was a member of the Conyers Methodist church, and was also a member of various civic organizations.

A former resident of Atlanta, he was associated with the McCord-Stewart company of that city.

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock, eastern time, Friday afternoon from the Conyers Methodist church with Rev. R. M. Dixon officiating. Interment will be in the old Conyers cemetery.

ATLANTA CAST TO GIVE COMEDY AT MARIETTA

Marietta, Ga., March 10.—(Special.) Members of the Fulton High School Alumni association will present a comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking," Friday night at the city auditorium, at Marietta, it has been announced by J. S. Heard, Jr., president of the organization.

According to Mr. Heard, the play is being given for the benefit of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church, of Marietta.

The cast includes Harlan Troth, Fay Tate Barrett, Annie Lou Linkous, John Poole, Katherine Tate, Mr. Heard, Paul W. West, Irene West, Anise Troth, Susie Terrell, Floy Cook Stephenson and Robert Fulghum.

When it didn't matter what the trouble was, we could lay it on the war?

LEAGUE VICTORY WON BY WOMEN

Geneva, March 10.—(AP)—Women won another victory in the League of Nations today when, on recommendation of Dr. Stresemann, the German foreign minister, the council resolved to appoint three women experts as official delegates to the international economic conference convoked for April 5.

The approving resolution recites that, having rendered admirable services in the domain of economics and in the practical solution of domestic problems, and moreover being responsible for household expenditures which are often seriously affected by sudden economic changes, women are entitled to outline their views at the conference.

Political developments point to a concentrated effort by statesmen in Geneva to force soviet Russia out of her hole and to invite her cooperation in the European concert and the League of Nations in the interest of both herself and European economic reconstruction.

Neighboring states like Poland Latvia, Lithuania and Rumania are known to be opposed to any bloc which would be hostile to Russia, and insist that a disarmament conference without Russian participation is doomed to failure.

Efforts are being made also to settle the dispute between Switzerland and Russia resulting from the assassination in 1923 of Vorovsky, the soviet ambassador to Switzerland, so that the Moscow government no longer will be able to defend its boycott of Geneva.

WOMAN SAYS MATE CUT HER IN SIDE

Mrs. Lizzie Voiles, of 619 Lindsay street, was treated at Grady hospital Thursday night for a stab wound under her left arm inflicted by her husband, Ed Voiles, she told Call Officers W. J. Anderson and R. C. McGill.

Doctors at the hospital did not regard her wound as dangerous and after emergency treatment she was allowed to return to her home. She told police, they reported to Captain J. L. Gordon, that her husband was intoxicated at the time he knifed her.

In Memoriam.

In loving memory of our darling wife, mother and sister, Ida Samples Worthen, who left us one year ago today.

I.
One year has passed since you left us,
Sad was the shock that day;
You bade no one a last farewell,
A last good-by you could not say.
II.
Your sparkling eyes, your smiling face,
We now no more behold;
Your lips that smiled so sweet to us
Are now forever cold.
III.
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that's borne in silence,
For the one we loved so well.
IV.
'Tis sweet to know we will meet again,
Where parting is no more;
And that the one we loved so dear
Has only gone before.

MR. J. D. WORTHEN,
CHARLES WORTHEN,
GRACE WORTHEN,
MR. AND MRS. H. L. MACK,
MRS. W. L. EDWARDS.

March 13, 1927.

LODGE NOTICES

A called communication of Hapeville Lodge No. 590, F. & A. M., will be held in the lodge hall this (Friday) evening, March 11th, promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The Master's Degree will be conferred by Worshipful Brother J. B. McFadden. All duly qualified brethren are cordially and fraternally invited to attend.

A. H. HARRISON, W. M.
GEO. W. HENDRIX, Secretary.

The regular communication of Piedmont Lodge No. 447, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple this (Friday) evening, beginning at 7:00 o'clock. The degree of Entered Apprentice will be conferred.

HERVEY W. REESE, W. M.
H. M. WOOD, Secretary.

Atlanta Camp No. 15919, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold a regular meeting this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Red Men's wigwam, 86 Central avenue. Class for adoption. Visitors cordially welcome.

ROSS L. BOWERS, Consul.
I. P. LITTLE, Clerk.

Regular meeting of Empire State Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World, Friday night, 8 o'clock, Hall No. 1, Red Men's Wigwam, 86 Central avenue. Class initiation. Visiting Woodmen welcome.

HERBERT B. KENNEDY, Consul Commander.
M. U. SMITH, Clerk.

Sam R. Greenberg & Co.
Successors to Greenberg & Bond Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Ambulance
WAl. 7909-7910 95 Forrest Ave., N. E.

ED. BOND & CONDON CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
ED BOND Formerly President Greenberg Bond Co.
Ambulance Service
WA. 1768-1769 135 Ivy St.

Walnut 3216
FUNERAL DESIGNS
Gresham
West View Florist
115 PEACHTREE

H-4214
Joy's Flowers
LET US ARRANGE YOUR MESSAGE

ENGRAVED
Acknowledgment Cards of Thanks
Order by Mail — 50c Dozen
Sou. Book Concern
71 Whitehall Street

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Albert Howell, Jr. W. P. Bloodworth
Arthur Heyman Herman Heyman
Hugh Howell Mark Bolding
DORSEY, HOWELL & HEYMAN
Lawyers
506 to 520 Connally Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

MORTUARY.

FRANK W. STONE.

Funeral services for Frank W. Stone, 57, who died Thursday at Fort McPherson, will be held Friday at 2 o'clock at the chapel, Fort McPherson, Ga. Interment will be in Marietta cemetery. Besides his wife he is survived by his mother, Mrs. N. R. Stone.

WILLIAM TURNER.

William Turner, 76, died Thursday morning at the residence, Camp Jesup. He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. E. I. Sharp, Mrs. Harry Kimpz and Mrs. Hiram Hachdaffer, of Greenville, Ill., and one brother, Richard Turner, of Madisonville, Texas. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son.

MRS. MARY E. MALLINSON.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. Mallinson, 76, who died Thursday at the residence, 1141 Oak street, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Anthony church. The Rev. J. H. Tomlin will officiate and interment will be in Hollywood cemetery. Mrs. Mallinson is survived by one son, Charles G. Mallinson, and three grandchildren, Jack, Joe and Anne Mallinson, all of Atlanta.

Funeral Notices

FARRER—Mrs. Lula Farrer, of Eagle Lake, Fla., died at the residence of her sister, 225 Georgia avenue S. W. She is survived by her husband, Mr. N. S. Farrer; three daughters, Misses Leon and Jewell Farrer and Mrs. Effie Davette; three sons, Messrs. Gordon, George and Hersheil Farrer; four sisters and one brother. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. Sam R. Greenberg & Co. in charge.

Peachtree Street Store
FOR RENT
In the block between Auburn Avenue and the Candler Building, we have a store for rent until January first, next year. Excellent store for anyone in need of temporary location.
Adair Realty & Trust Company
Healey Building Realtors WAlnut 0100

Loan Thoughts
MONEY LOANED AT LOWEST RATES
REASONABLE COMMISSION
EFFICIENT HANDLING
WEYMAN & CONNORS
MORTGAGE LOANS ON REAL ESTATE
58 Marietta Street WAl. 2162

Comfortable OFFICE CHAIRS
Of prime importance to a successful business.
Foote & Davies Co.
"Five Seconds from Five Points"
Printers Lithographers Engravers

"SERVICE BEYOND THE CONTRACT"
Real Estate Loans
We Are Prepared to Fill Your Needs On Straight Loans or Loans Payable Monthly
Quick and Courteous Service
Reasonable Charges
HAAS & HOWELL
Haas-Howell Bldg. Phone WAl. 3111

5½% LOANS 6%
On Business Property, High-Class Dwellings and Select Apartments
THE SOUTHERN MORTGAGE CO.
WAlnut 5416 10 AUBURN AVENUE
J. T. HOLLEMAN, Pres. W. L. KEMP, V. Pres. J. W. ANDREWS, Sec. HORACE HOLLEMAN, Treas.

SIX PER CENT LOANS
NO ANNUAL REDUCTIONS REQUIRED
LIBERAL REPAYMENT PRIVILEGES
UNLIMITED LOCAL FUNDS ENABLE US TO CLOSE LOANS IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS
MORTGAGE LOAN DEPARTMENT—WA. 1671
TRUST COMPANY OF GEORGIA

W. B. SMITH, Inc.
REAL ESTATE LOANS
19 Walton St., Ground Floor Healey Bldg. Phone WAlnut 8381
Business Loans 5%-5½% Residence Loans 5½%-6%

SPRATLIN, HARRINGTON & THOMAS
— Real Estate Loans —
72 MARIETTA ST. — RHODES BUILDING (First Floor)
WALKER WHITE, Manager Loan Department
WAlnut 0147

REAL ESTATE LOANS
At interest rates of six and seven per cent we offer straight loans, monthly loans and loans with an annual reduction.
Among the numerous types of loans which we are able to make you will surely find the one best suited to your requirements.
MORTGAGE BOND & TRUST CO.
C. J. Lewis, President
F. W. Patterson, V. Pres. M. R. McClatchey, V. Pres.
47 N. Broad St. Phone WAlnut 2240

7% $50,000.00 8%
This amount on hand for quick delivery in the following odd amounts:
$2,000 — $1,750 — $3,000 — $1,600 — $800
$1,000 — $5,000 — $6,000 — $2,500
For first mortgage loans on good residential properties in Atlanta, Decatur or College Park
McKINNEY MORTGAGE & INVESTMENT CO.
LOANS — REAL ESTATE — INSURANCE

First Mortgage Loans at 5½%, 6%, 6½%, 7%
ATLANTA AND DECATUR REAL ESTATE
On residential, business and apartment properties
APPRAISALS MADE AND APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED HERE
Also First and Second Mortgages repayable in monthly installments.
LEOPOLD J. E. ARTHUR
HAAS & HAAS
1109 Fourth National Bank Building Phones: WAlnut 5208-5209

Funeral Notices

PENDLETON, MRS. H. C.—Friends and connections of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pendleton, of Clarkston, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral services for the latter at 4 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, at the Baptist church, Decatur, Ga.

STILL—Mr. J. A. Still, age 37 years, of 112 Davis street, East Point, died Thursday afternoon at a private sanitarium. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters and two brothers. The remains were removed to the chapel of Howard L. Carmichael. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

STONE—Died, at Fort McPherson, Thursday afternoon, March 10, 1927, Mr. Frank W. Stone, in his 58th year. He is survived by his wife, and mother, Mrs. N. R. Stone. Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel at Fort McPherson. Interment will be in Marietta cemetery. H. M. Patterson & Son.

DAVENPORT—Died Thursday afternoon at a local hospital, Prof. Adam Davenport, of Hemp, Ga., in his 82nd year. Surviving, besides his wife, Mrs. Mary Ashworth Davenport, are three daughters and seven sons. The remains will be carried this (Friday) morning over the L. & N. at 6:50 o'clock to Hemp, Ga., for funeral and interment. Awtry & Lowndes Co.

TURNER—Died, at Camp Jesup, Thursday morning, March 10, 1927, Mr. William Turner, in his 77th year. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. E. I. Sharp, Mrs. Harry Kimpz, of Greenville, Ill.; Mrs. Hiram Hochdaffer, of Greenville, Ill., and one brother, Mr. Richard Turner, of Madisonville, Tex. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son.

GRICE—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Grice are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. D. W. Grice this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock at the Luxomoni Baptist church, Luxomoni, Ga. Rev. Jack Wright will officiate. Interment in churchyard. The funeral party will leave the residence, 296 South Boulevard, promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

YARBRAY—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Yarbray, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yarbray, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Allie Futch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yarbray and Mrs. Jennie Rice are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. William M. Yarbray this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock at the residence, 715 Kennedy street, N. W. The remains will be sent Saturday morning, via L. & N. railway, to Chatsworth, Ga., for interment. Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

GOODIN—Died, in Bay St. Louis, Miss., Monday afternoon, March 7, 1927, Mr. William A. Goodin, in his 62nd year. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. G. M. Saunders, Mrs. A. G. Thurman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., mother, Mrs. R. A. Hopper, of Corbin, Ky., and sister, Mrs. H. P. Martin, of Corbin, Ky. The remains were taken to Pineville, Ky., Thursday evening at 6:20 o'clock via L. & N. railroad for funeral services and interment by H. M. Patterson & Son.

TILLMAN—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tillman, Mr. A. B. Tillman, of Longwood, Fla.; Mrs. Mollie Crane, of Griffin, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Yates, of Adrian, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. R. A. Tillman this (Friday) morning, March 11, 1927, at 11 o'clock, at the Sandy Creek Baptist church, near Fayetteville, Ga. Interment will be in the churchyard. Rev. W. J. DeBardeleben, assisted by Rev. Gill, will officiate. Funeral party will leave the residence, 306 Loomis avenue, at 9 o'clock. A. C. Hemperley & Sons, funeral directors.

MALLINSON—Friends of Mrs. Mary E. Mallinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mallinson, Jack, Joe and Anne Mallinson and Mrs. H. T. Hayes and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Mallinson this (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock from St. Anthony's church, Rev. Father James H. Conlin officiating. The following pallbearers will please meet at the chapel of Sam R. Greenberg & Co., 95 Forrest avenue, N. E., at 9:15 o'clock: Messrs. C. J. Hayes, John H. Dillard, Clarence Biggers, J. F. Dugan, John R. Deering, T. J. O'Keefe. Interment Hollywood. Pat J. Bloomfield in charge.

HARRIS—The relatives and friends of Mrs. M. E. Harris, Mr. J. G. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Harris, of Fife, Ga.; Mr. G. T. Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper, of Palmetto, Ga.; Mrs. Epsie P. Milam, Douglasville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown, Union City, Ga., and grandchildren, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. M. E. Harris from Bethany church, Friday, March 11th, at 10 o'clock. Rev. E. P. Eubanks, of Fairburn, Ga., will officiate. Interment in churchyard. M. W. Holsomback, Fairburn, Ga., funeral director.

LOTT—Mr. Charles T. Lott died at his home in Miami, Fla., Thursday morning, March 10, 1927. Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Mr. Roy M. Lott and Mr. Frank Broughton Lott; one brother, Mr. H. M. Lott, of Tampa, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Bostick, of Havana, Fla.; Mrs. J. L. Heeley, of Miami, Fla., and Miss Lizzie May Lott. Funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the grave with the Capitol View lodge No. 640, F. & A. M., in charge. The following gentlemen will kindly serve as pallbearers and meet at the chapel of Barclay & Brandon Co. at 2:45 o'clock: Mr. T. A. Knight, Mr. J. J. Knight, Mr. W. M. Alexander, Mr. B. A. Martin, Mr. G. A. Maddox and Mr. T. A. Hinson. The funeral party will leave the chapel at 3 o'clock. The remains will arrive here Saturday morning over the Southern railway at 8:35 o'clock. Interment in Greenwood cemetery.

ELLIOTT—The relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott and Miss Cara Lou Elliott, all of Conyers, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Elliott, of Swainsboro, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Elliott, of Athens, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elliott and Mr. W. J. Elliott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Elliott, Mrs. Sallie Hinton and Mrs. Fannie Brannan, of McDonough, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Thomas H. Elliott this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock (eastern time) from the Conyers Methodist church. Rev. R. M. Dixon and Rev. J. A. Kelley will officiate. The following gentlemen will please serve as pallbearers and meet at the residence at 2:30 o'clock: Mr. Harry McCord, Mr. G. C. Sims, Mr. W. T. Baldwin, Mr. L. C. Cowan, Mr. H. H. McCalla and Mr. J. T. Smylie. Interment in Old cemetery. White & Co., funeral directors in charge.

(COLORED.)

LAYTON—Eddie Layton, 30 years old, born 1897, died March 9, 1927. He is survived by his father, mother, one daughter, three sisters and four brothers. Funeral services at 922 Groves street this (Friday) morning, March 11, at 11 o'clock. Relatives and friends are requested to be present. Interment will be in Chestnut Hill cemetery. Dunn Bros. in charge.